*S.R. 1974/218

Amendment No. 1: S.R. 1974/309

Amendment 1978/28/6(2)

(M.O.T. 28/8/National Roads Board)

Decision No. 940

Reference No. IND. 40/79

IN the matter of an application by A. H. and A. W. REED LTD. in respect of the publication "Shunga".

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), Mrs L. Edmond, Mrs H. B. Dick, Mrs L. P. Nikera.

Hearing: 10 December 1979.

Appearances: Nil.

DECISION

"Shunga" is the generic name given to the erotic paintings, prints, and illustrated books of Japan. Translated literally, it means "spring drawings". The introduction to this collection of reproductions points out that "to understand the shunga, we must first acknowledge the structure and ethics of the society which produced them", and to this end there is included a prose text which is in effect a series of essays which supply an authoritative, historical, and cultural context for the drawings.

The prints shown are without question examples taken from a serious and sophisticated artistic tradition. Those who study this comprehensive collection may be entertained and educated; it is not the opinion of the Tribunal that they will be corrupted. The Tribunal therefore classifies this book as not indecent.

Decision No. 946

Reference No. 45/79

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the publication: Sexology Volume 45, Numbers Eight, Nine and Ten, published by Media Publications Ltd., England.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Mr W. M. Willis, S.M. (Chairman), Mesdames L. Edmond, H. B. Dick, and L. P. Nikera.

Hearing: 11 March 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for the Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

These three publications are part of a commercial importation and are submitted in accordance with section 14 (1) of the Indecent Publications Act 1963. The importer made no submissions but on behalf of the Comptroller it was submitted that these three volumes are comparable with two previous issues classified in decision No. 913. The series is published in America and appears to follow a pattern in presentation. Several short sex orientated articles, pages of letters in the same vein (apparently from readers), are always there. There is a question and answer section which finishes off what is really a very repetitive explanation of sexual experiences and opinions. Despite its thoughts that some of the material is not genuine, the Tribunal is of the opinion that the sexology series is indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 and so classified these three numbers.

It is not prepared, as the Comptroller suggests, to make a serial restriction order.

Decision No. 944

Reference No. 42-43/79

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the publication: Sex and Marriage Number Six, published by Ben Books Ltd., England, Sex and Marriage Number Seven, published by Titian Publications, England.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Mr W. M. Willis, S.M. (Chairman), Mesdames L. Edmond, H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera.

Hearing: 11 March 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

These publications were imported commercially and were seized at Auckland in June 1979. Forfeiture is disputed by the importer, Waverly Publications Limited, which has made written submissions. The books are written with a question and answer text accompanied by frank photographs. The books have a tone entirely missing from many the Tribunal is asked to classify. The dominant effect is sensible and serious, for what is reports to portray, namely sex in marriage, with no dishonest purpose perceivable. It is appropriate for persons in a settled or stable relationship. The Comptroller refers to decision No. 926 dealing with Sex in Marriage Number Ten. He suggests a similar restriction for these two numbers.

The Tribunal agrees and classifies both books indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 16.

Decision No. 945

Reference No. 1/80

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the publications: Naked Love Techniques, published by Pictures Ltd., and Sexual Positions, published by Delta Publishing Co. Ltd.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Mr W. M. Willis, S.M. (Chairman), Mesdames L. Edmond, H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera.

Hearing: 11 March 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

Each of these books was imported commercially and were seized in Auckland in 1979. The importer disputes forfeiture. In each case, the importer, Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd., has made written submissions suggesting an age restriction.

The Comptroller submitted that while an age restriction might be appropriate for Naked Love Techniques the other publication should be classified as indecent.

Naked Love Techniques—In consideration of this book the Tribunal discussed the many similar books available to the public, most of which have an age restriction. It appeared to the Tribunal that while the introduction written by the author, Axel Hoving, would have the reader believe that the ensuing pages conveyed "a warm and intimate experience", the Tribunal decided that such was not the case. The book has no literary merit and because of its salacious nature shows a lack of honesty of purpose.

Sexual Positions—The author of this book, Hans Richter, has no other motive than that of promoting sexual practises. Sections of the book give approval to relationships other than the normal which leads the Tribunal to doubt the honesty of purpose throughout this publication. It is essentially the same as Naked Love Techniques, and demonstrates no honesty of purpose.

The Tribunal classifies each book as indecent.

Decision No. 942

Reference No. 1/80

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the publication: The Connoisseurs Handbook on Marijuana, published by Straight Arrow Books.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Mr W. M. Willis, S.M. (Chairman), Mesdames L. Edmond, H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera.

Hearing: 11 March 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

This is a single copy privately imported and seized at Christchurch by the Customs Department in September 1979. Forfeiture has been disputed by the importer.

It was submitted on behalf of the Comptroller that the main purpose of this book is to outline the methods used in growing and cultivating marijuana and its uses. There is also a section on cooking. About two-fifths of the contents of the book deal with these subjects. The cultivation of marijuana is a criminal offence under the Misuse of Drugs Act 1975.

Books of this nature have been classified previously (see decision No. 904 and 922) and as recently as August last year 3 publications of a similar nature were considered by the Tribunal (see decision No. 935).

In view of those rulings the Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

Decision No. 943

Reference No. 50/79

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the publication: Love Making, published by Anchor Press.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Mr W. M. Willis, S.M. (Chairman), Mesdames L. Edmond, H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera.

Hearing: 11 March 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

In this case there are two editions of the same book. There is little difference in each and for the purposes of this decision they may be considered identical. Each has an introduction which is exactly the same. There is no text within the body of the publication which consists of various photo positions for sexual intercourse. Because of the lack of text it was submitted on behalf of the Comptroller that honesty of purpose was suspect. Written submissions were made by the importer, Waverley Publications Ltd.

Reference was made to publications previously considered—Love Play (decision 525), Ways of Loving (decision 432), and Intercourse (decision 434). In each of these cases there was a restriction of some kind. The Comptroller submits that because the publications show only the mechanics of intercourse with no reference to emotional aspects, there is demonstrated a lack of honesty of purpose. Therefore, he suggests the book should be classified as indecent. For its part, the publisher suggests that an adult restriction would be appropriate. The Tribunal considers that these books are not dissimilar to other publications which demonstrate sexual positions and which have been either passed by the Tribunal or have had some restriction placed upon them.

In the case of these two publications the Tribunal considers they should be classified as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

Dated at Wellington this 28th day of May 1980.

Decision No. 941

Reference No. 48/79

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the publication: Tales from the Leather Nun Volume 1, published by Last Gasp Eco-Funnies.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Mr W. M. Willis, S.M. (Chairman), Mesdames L. Edmond, H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera.

Hearing: 11 March 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

This is a single copy of a publication privately imported and seized at Wellington by the Customs Department. The importer disputes forfeiture. The magazine is described as an adult comic. It may be adult but it is certainly not comic.

The best way of describing it is to say that the least said about it the better. It lacks merit of any description, is prurient in the extreme, is offensive, and borders on the blasphemous.

The Tribunal classifies it as indecent.

Decision No. 949

Reference No. 41/79

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the publication: The Virgin, published by Open Leaves Press, for Harana Pty. Ltd., Australia.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Mr W. M. Willis, S.M. (Chairman), Mesdames L. Edmond, H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera.

Hearing: 11 March 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

This is a sample copy imported commercially and seized at Auckland. The importer disputes forfeiture. The Comptroller made submissions that it should be classified indecent. The Tribunal feels that the Comptroller somewhat exaggerates the theme of this publication. The importer, "Shop Six" made written submissions suggesting that the publication is not dissimilar to The Professional previously classified with an R.18 restriction.

Apart from a short paragraph on the title page this volume is entirely made up of a series of photographs which tell the story of a young girl's first experience of sexual intercourse. The technique used would be suitable for film photography and successfully portrays character as well as presenting events. The photographs are sensitively and imaginatively conceived, and in the opinion of the Tribunal the cover subtitle "An erotic peek at a young girl's introduction to sex" is misleading.

The Tribunal classifies The Virgin as Not Indecent.

Decision No. 948

Reference No. 1/80

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the publication: New Man and Woman, Parts One, Two and Three, published by Marshall Cavendish Partworks Ltd.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Mr W. M. Willis, S.M. (Chairman), Mesdames L. Edmond, H. B. Dick, and L. P. Nikera.

Hearings: 11 March 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for the Comptroller of Customs, Mr C. Hogg for publishers.

DECISION

These 3 copies are the first parts of a publication to be issued in 52 weekly parts. It retails at $1.25 per copy, the full set including binders will cost about $93.00. The Comptroller requests a decision in relation to these 3 parts. The publication is an updated and revised version of Man and Woman which was considered by the Tribunal in 1971 (decision 292). The classification then given was that it was indecent in the hands of persons under 16 years of age except when they are being advised by parents or professional advisers. It is acknowledged on behalf of the Comptroller that the current issue retain the same seriousness and honesty of purpose as the earlier edition. It is full and frank in its treatment of sexuality. The publishers, Marshall Cavendish Partworks Ltd., is a substantial publishing house specialising in producing books of an assorted nature in weekly parts.

The Tribunal has referred to the earlier publication and is of the view that the present books are of a different nature. They are well written, sensitively illustrated and exhibit plainly an honesty of purpose. The Comptroller recommends a similar classification to that given in 1971. For the publisher, Mr Hogg suggested that except for one reason the book should have no restriction.

Mr Hogg mentioned that a later part will contain information relating to contraception and for that reason suggested there should be a restriction order. At this stage the Tribunal is not prepared to deal with more than parts one, two, and three, which it classified as not indecent. So far as the issues of contraception are concerned, an appeal is pending in connection with decision number 931, relating to the publication Make it Happy. Because of this appeal the Tribunal proposes not to make any decision relating to future parts.

Decision No. 947

Reference No. 49/79

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the publications: Bird Watchers Manual Volume One Number Two, publisher anonymous, and Private Naked Gallery, published by Wendell and Spears.

Mr W. M. Willis, S.M. (Chairman), Mesdames L. Edmond, H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera.

Hearing: 11 March 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

One sample copy of each of the above publications was seized at Auckland. The Comptroller submits that Bird Watchers Manual should be classified as indecent and that Private Naked Gallery should receive an R.18 restriction.

Bird Watchers Manual—Labelled a "mad-mad world of girls", this special edition of "Penthouse" is a collection of jokes, cartoons, photographs and stories, apparently a mélange of items from earlier issues of the magazine. A small number of serious articles and interviews have been included, but the overall tone of the magazine is frivolous and salacious. It has insufficient weight to make a profound impression for good or ill but the amount of explicitly sexual material of a vulgar kind inclines the Tribunal to impose an age restriction. It, therefore, classifies Bird Watchers Manual as indecent in the hands of persons under 18.

Private Naked Gallery—This magazine is a 60-page collection of nude photographs interspersed with articles and comment about photographic techniques, cameras, attitudes to models and to the subject of nudity. The photographs range from the realistic and natural to the posed; some are overtly erotic in intention and a few are elaborately contrived. It appears that the author's often asserted interest in examining nude photography as an art has become somewhat confused with a desire to produce sexually exciting spectacle for commercial purposes. The honesty of purpose is, therefore, open to question. However, the emphasis is most often on the naked body without adornment and we do not hold that nudity is in itself corrupting. The Tribunal believes that those with an adult perspective will have no difficulty accepting the collection as a whole, but that young people may have some difficulty. It, therefore, classifies Private Naked Gallery as indecent in the hands of persons under 16.

Another in the series of the Best publications, it has been reprinted without revision so that the basic studies may be accessible in the original style.

This particular bulletin still remains the only comprehensive account of most aspects of Maori fishing. The descriptions of methods employed in fishing given here are still quite basic for any future studies in this field since no first-hand observations can now be made. The detailed fishing methods outlined are accompanied by descriptions of the artifacts used, together with associated chants, magic formulae, special observances, and fishing lore.

FOREST LORE OF THE MAORI

By Elsdon Best

DOMINION MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 14

421 p. 1977. $17.95

Printed without textual alteration, the work provides an important basis for any study of old-time Maori economics and perhaps more importantly of his attitude to what was a major part of his environment. It will be of more general interest today than when first written, since it stresses so fully the uses made by the Maori people of their natural resources, and supplies basic material for further studies in ethnobotany and ethnozoology. The reverence which the old time Maori showed towards natural resources mirrors the modern concern for ecological principles.
