The Featherston County Council (Riding Boundaries Validation) Order 1980

KEITH HOLYOAKE, Governor-General
ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government Buildings at Wellington this 11th day of August 1980

Present:

THE RIGHT HON. R. D. MULDOON PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

WHEREAS, pursuant to section 56 (1) of the Local Government Act 1974 (as enacted by section 2 of the Local Government Amendment Act (No. 3) 1977), the Featherston County Council (hereinafter referred to as the council) resolved by special order made on the 6th day of July 1979 that at the general election of the council to be held on the 11th day of October 1980 the council should be elected by the electors of each ward of the county: And whereas, by section 56 (2) of the Local Government Act 1974 (as so enacted), the council was required, not later than the 30th day of September 1979, to determine by special order the boundaries and names of the ridings of the county for the purposes of that election and the number of members to be elected to represent each riding: And whereas the Council determined by special order, made not later than the 30th day of September 1979, the names of the ridings for the purposes of that election and the number of members to be elected to represent each riding but did not determine by that special order the boundaries of the ridings: And whereas the boundaries of the ridings were determined by a special order that was made by the council on the 26th day of October 1979 and were therefore not determined within the time specified in the said section 56 (2): And whereas it is expedient that the determination of the boundaries be validated: And whereas, on the 18th day of February 1980, the Governor-General made an Order in Council validating the special order made by the Featherston County Council on the 26th day of October 1979: And whereas the Order in Council contained an error in that it recited in the Preamble that the County Council had resolved by the special order made on the 6th day of July 1979 that at the general election of the council to be held on the 11th day of October 1980 the council should be elected by the electors of the county as a whole: And whereas the Council resolved by the said special order made on the 6th day of July 1979 that at the said general election the council should be elected by the electors of each ward of the county: And whereas it is expedient that the said Order in Council, which has not been gazetted, should be revoked:

Now, therefore, pursuant to section 719 of the Local Government Act 1974 (as enacted by section 2 of the Local Government Amendment Act 1979), His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following order.

ORDER

1. Title and commencement—(1) This order may be cited as the Featherston County Council (Riding Boundaries Validation) Order 1980.

(2) This order shall come into force on the day after the date of its publication in the Gazette.

2. Validation—The boundaries that were determined by the special order which was made on the 26th day of October 1979 and which is described in the Preamble to this order are hereby declared to be and to have always been validly determined by that special order, notwithstanding that they were determined after the time within which they were required, by section 56 (2) of the Local Government Act 1974 (as enacted by section 2 of the Local Government Amendment Act (No. 3) 1977), to be determined.

3. Revocation—The Order in Council which was made on the 18th day of February 1980 and which validated a special order made by the Featherston County Council on the 26th day of October 1979 is hereby revoked.

P. G. MILLEN, Clerk of the Executive Council.

DEPARTMENT OF LANDS AND SURVEY

24 p. 1978.

$2.95

Scenic Reserves of the Hawke's Bay Land District is another booklet in the series prepared by the Department of Lands and Survey.

The areas suitable for scenic reservation are neither as large nor as numerous as those in most other land districts but they include world famous reserves. Among these are the Cape Kidnappers Bird Sanctuary, which is the world's only known mainland gannetry; Morere Springs, with its attractive groves of nikau palms; and Ball's Clearing, which is renowned for its magnificent podocarps. Well illustrated with location maps and black and white photos.

SOCIAL TRENDS IN NEW ZEALAND

DEPARTMENT OF STATISTICS

193 p. 1977. $4.50

This volume, the first to be produced, examines nine major social areas, viz demographic patterns, housing and households, education, health and medical services, social welfare and social security, crime and law enforcement, leisure, labour force participation, and incomes.

While the emphasis is on trends, the descriptive text has been supplemented by tables, charts, and figures which highlight significant features.

The information brought together in this volume will assist policy makers, planners, students and others who have an interest in social trends and development in New Zealand society.

24 p. 1977. $1

Explains the buoyage and beaconage system operating in New Zealand waters. Contains the mandatory requirements for the establishment of aids to navigation in harbours and their approach channels. Describes the requirements for oceanographical stations and gives details of standard markings for marine farms, box fishing nets, and offshore oil rigs.

Useful for all navigators, those studying for nautical examinations, and harbour authorities.

SHADOW OF THE LAND

By Ian Wards

422 p. 1968. $9

The title for this book was provided by Nopera Panakarero, a Kaitiā chief of much influence, who, in May 1840, believed that only the "shadow of the land" had gone to Queen Victoria whilst the substance remained with the Maoris. Less than a year later he revised this opinion convinced that only the "shadow" would be the Maori portion.

The author examines the British acquisition of New Zealand, the Maoris, trust in the Treaty of Waitangi, and their confidence that its terms would be honoured and explains it was only by accident that the Maoris were guaranteed the possession of their lands and ancient privileges.

It is under these circumstances that the book considers the use of military force in New Zealand, analyses the arguments surrounding the provision of troops and concludes that, beyond any reasonable doubt that there was never an attempt to govern by "moral suasion".

New Zealand followed the normal nineteenth century British pattern of territorial acquisition.

The book is an essential introduction to the Maori wars of a later date.

SOILS AND AGRICULTURE OF PART PAPARUA COUNTY

DSIR SOIL BUREAU BULLETIN 34

128 p. 1978. $12.75

Describes and classifies the soils of part Paparua County, an area of approximately 134 square miles west of Christchurch.

A section on "land use" contains detailed accounts, with maps of agriculture and horticulture, and notes on forestry by specialists from the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries and the New Zealand Forest Service. Further supporting information, including data on the water resources of the county, is provided in the Appendices.

SOUTH PACIFIC COMMISSION—AN ANALYSIS AFTER TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

By T. R. Smith

New Zealand Institute of International Affairs

248 p. 1972. $7.50

Surveys the birth of the South Pacific Commission, in 1947, and its subsequent achievements in ensuring regional co-operation among territories which are separated by great expanses of ocean and by wide difference in cultural and political, economic, and social development. It also looks to the commission's future role.

Contains 11 chapters with 2 appendices, and illustrated with black and white photographs.

SURVEY OF PERSONS AGED 65 YEARS AND OVER 1973-74

DEPARTMENT OF STATISTICS

59 p. 1977. $2.20

This survey represents the first nationwide statistical survey of the actual living costs and circumstances of a representative sample of persons aged 65 years and over in New Zealand. The survey was jointly designed by the Departments of Social Welfare and Statistics. The Department of Social Welfare has sought to design measures for standards of living and to determine the effect of the structure and value of social security benefits on these measures. The Department of Statistics has given a general statistical analysis of the survey results, and has carried out some studies to help identify factors which may influence the expenditure patterns of the elderly.
