Hearing: 22 July 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs. No Appearance for Importer, Miss P. M. Bartlett.

Decision

These five paper-back books were imported privately and as forfeiture was disputed by the importer, the books were referred by the Comptroller for classification. The Tribunal has been informed that the books were imported under a false name "J. Smith".

The books are all homosexual stories of no literary or artistic merit and are explicit in explaining the activities of the characters. In the Tribunal's view there is a plain tendency to corrupt. The language is coarse and obscene and there is a distinct dishonesty of purpose in each book. They deal with prurient and lewd aspects of sex. There is no redeeming feature in any of the books which the public interest and the public good require should be classified indecent.

What has interested the Tribunal is the fact that the books were imported under a false name, that the importer disputed forfeiture of what are clearly indecent publications and that having disputed the forfeiture made no attempt to have her views put forward before the Tribunal.

The Tribunal classifies all the books as indecent.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications: Penthouse (Australian Edition) January, February, March 1980, published by ADM Franchise Pty. Ltd., 256 Alexandria, N.S.W. 2015, Australia.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Judge W. M. Willis (chairman).

Mesdames L. Edmond, H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera.

Mr J. V. B. McLinden.

Hearing: 22 July 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs.
Mr M. D. O'Brien for Importer, Gordon and Gotch (N.Z.) Ltd.

Decision

These three editions of the Australian edition of Penthouse have been referred to the Tribunal for classification by the Importers. The Comptroller suggests that these three issues should receive an R18 restriction and also recommends that it is a suitable case for the Tribunal to issue a two-year restriction order. For the importer Mr O'Brien pointed out the virtues of these issues and suggested that there was no reason for any age restriction.

These are the first issues of the Australian Publication to come before the Tribunal and the importers seek a classification prior to the general distribution within New Zealand. These three magazines differ from their American and English counter-parts. The photographs which are a feature of the English and American publications and which probably draw the most criticism are not as explicit in the Australian edition. It can be said with some degree of certainty that the majority of the photographs are modest by comparison with some in other journals which come before the Tribunal for consideration. The text contains Forum type letters and there are articles sexually slanted which one finds in similar publications. However, by far the greater proportion of each issue is devoted to matters of a serious nature to which no possible objection could be taken. In the main they have no sexual overtones and appear to be articles relating to matters of general public interest within Australia.

The Tribunal now has the benefit of a recent High Court decision Waverley Publishing Company Limited v. The Comptroller of Customs. The Tribunal draws attention to a portion of the judgment of Jeffries J. One of the submissions of the appellant was that the Tribunal had failed to place any or sufficient weight on the clear distinctions between the publications by branding a number of them together as "picture books". In dealing with this particular submission His Honour said:

In my view, there is validity in the appellant's third argument that there is a distinction in the group of publications between straight-out picture books and magazines which provide greater scope for the inclusion of genuine alternative material to the sexual theme. I think the Tribunal itself recognised this principle in decision No. 881 of 23 December 1975 (New Zealand Gazette, 13 January 1977, p. 23). The Tribunal then had before it two issues of Penthouse and one of those issues (February 1976) was passed to us for comparative study. The decision was indecent in the hands of persons under 18 years of age. I thought it almost beyond argument that some photographs and text in that issue, isolated from the magazine as a whole, were indecent, but the magazine was not banned because the issue was looked at in its entirety. Because of the overwhelming dominance of prurient sex in the five publications nominated by counsel as magazines none are saved by this judgment.

Later in his judgment he said that he thought a book or sound recording is likely to be indecent and injurious to the public good if:

1. It is predominantly concerned with the prurient and lewd aspects of sex; and
2. The exact subject-matter is described, depicted or expressed in a patently offensive manner so as to concentrate attention and reaction on the prurient and lewd aspects of sex; and
3. The work looked at in its entirety had negligible literary or artistic merit, and is otherwise not redeemed by its medical, legal, political, social or scientific character or importance.
4. The likelihood of corruption far outweighs possible benefit.
5. The sincerity of purpose which produced the item is gravely in question.

Looking at these copies of Penthouse and looking at the matters referred to by the learned Judge the Tribunal is of the view that they are not concerned with the prurient and lewd aspects of sex; that the exact subject-matter is not described, depicted, expressed in a patently offensive manner so as to concentrate attention on the prurient and lewd aspects of sex; that the work looked at in its entirety does not have negligible literary or artistic merit; that there is no likelihood of corruption which would far outweigh possible benefit; that there is a distinct sincerity of purpose in each of these magazines.

Having taken into account all the matters set out in s. 11 and bearing in mind the comments made above, the Tribunal is satisfied that these three issues should be classified as not indecent. The Tribunal is not prepared to make a two-year restriction order if for no other reason than that these are the first three issues to be imported into New Zealand. The Tribunal would prefer to see later issues before it gives any consideration to a restriction order.

Dated at Wellington this 25th day of August 1980.

Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publication: The Adopters, by William Hegner and published by Simon and Schuster Inc., 630 Fifth Avenue, New York 10020, U.S.A.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Judge W. M. Willis (chairman).

Mesdames L. Edmond, H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera.

Mr J. V. B. McLinden.

Hearing: 22 July 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller.

Decision

A sample copy of this book was imported commercially and was seized at Auckland. The importer has disputed forfeiture: hence the reference to the Tribunal.

This is a paper-back book of American origin and is, we think, adequately described in Mr Leloir's submission.

This book is the story of a couple who are childless. The husband is a promoter of "telethons" for his own advantage. The couple adopt two children, a girl of thirteen and a boy of fifteen, who are gradually initiated into being sexual playthings. The story uses the downfall of the husband as the basic plot to provide insights into the motives and actions of all the characters.

Frankly, the Tribunal considers the book has no real plot but appears as a vehicle to tell the story of incestuous relationships. It concentrates on the sexual and has no literary or artistic merits. Its appeal is clearly to the salacious nor is it redeemed by any medical, social, or scientific matter. Written submissions were made by the importer, Shop Six, and it was suggested that the book has been seen and released by the Customs Department with an R18 recommendation over the years. The submission further went on to suggest that Customs Officers are no longer permitted to release books likely to be restricted. The Tribunal would have thought that to be elementary as it is the sole forum for classification of books and sound recordings. The Tribunal is, however, more impressed with the second submission that "in the light of what can freely be seen on television and in the cinema and because children and young teens who are not much interested in reading 'adult novels' that in 1980 the Tribunal might consider novels of this genre scarcely require any restriction at all". The Tribunal has recently been given a decision of the High Court, Waverley Publishing Company Limited v. Comptroller of Customs. In that case the Court was called upon to hear an appeal in connection with various publications containing pictorial matter as well as written text. I quote from the Judgment of Jeffries J. where he says:

Because of the universality of comprehension of the graphic form, with its concomitantly more direct and powerful emotional appeal, this medium has proved more vexing for those who must control indecency than the written word. Verbal indecency became a social issue with the rise in literacy following universal education. Perhaps that particular medium is now perceived as less potentially harmful than representational photography, and cinematic films. Confirmation of this observation is to be found in the Report of the Committee on Obscenity and Film Censorship which had Professor Bernard Williams as its chairman. It reported in November 1979; Cmnd 7772. Recommendation 6 of its general proposals is:—

The printed word should be neither restricted nor prohibited since its nature makes it neither immediately offensive nor capable of involving the harms we identify, and because of its importance in conveying ideas.

I recognise that representational photography, for those entrusted with the perplexing task of deciding between the acceptable and non-acceptable, is one of the nicest problems of line drawing which must be faced.

I think that every item which comes before the Tribunal for decision must be measured against the definition of indecency, and the considerations contained in s. 11 of the Act which are not exhaustive. However, I think that a book or sound recording is likely to be indecent and injurious to the public good if:

1. It is predominantly concerned with the prurient and lewd aspects of sex; and
2. The exact subject-matter is described, depicted or expressed in a patently offensive manner so as to concentrate attention and reaction on the prurient and lewd aspects of sex; and
3. The work looked at in its entirety had negligible literary or artistic merit, and is otherwise not redeemed by its medical, legal, political, social, or scientific character or importance.
4. The likelihood of corruption far outweighs possible benefit.
5. The sincerity of purpose which produced the item is gravely in question.

Bearing in mind the criteria set out in that judgment, I think it can be said with certainty that this book is likely to be injurious to the public good because it fails to meet any of the matters mentioned at the end of the quotation.

The Tribunal classifies it as indecent.

Decision

This publication was imported commercially at Auckland in August 1979. Forfeiture is disputed by the importer, Shop Six, which has made written submissions.

The publication is reputed to be a book of sexual techniques designed to result in greater pleasure in sexual relationships. As well as advice on normal straight forward sexual techniques, this book describes and encourages matters of deviate sex, such as lesbianism, bondage, and wife swapping.

Considerable doubt is raised with regard to the honesty of purpose of the authoress. The work, looked at as a whole, has little or no literary or artistic merit and is not redeemed by other characteristics. Whilst it is not as explicit as many books of similar type it is concerned solely with sex and with the more extreme sexual activities. There is little in the book to recommend it to the public good.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

Decision

This book has been submitted to the Tribunal by the importers, William Collins Publishers Limited, for classification. The company did not make any submissions.

This book was first published in the United States in 1978. It is a novel of little literary quality, the story of a drug ring that wants to break in to the large market in India. Because of their experiences in India the group decides to destroy the drug, but before they can do so the character carrying the drug is murdered and it falls in to the hands of Indian criminals.

The book contains explicit descriptions of sodomy on males and females, multiple sex and some scenes depicting sexual sadism. However, it is clearly not written primarily to appeal to the prurient or lascivious reader, but to describe a woman's journey towards mystical awareness as shown her by an Indian guru.

The Tribunal is of the opinion that in the hands of adult readers this book would not be injurious and classifies it as indecent except in the hands of persons 18 years and over.

Dated at Wellington this 25th day of August 1980.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by William Collins Publishers Limited for a decision in respect of the following publication: Making Love, The Picador Book of Erotic Verse published by Pan Books Limited.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Judge W. M. Willis (chairman).

Mesdames L. Edmond, H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera.

Mr J. V. B. McLinden.

Hearing: 22 April 1980.

No Appearances.

Decision

This book was referred to the Tribunal for classification by William Collins Publishers Limited. No submissions were made by the company.

The editor and compiler of this anthology of verse has prepared it, as he explains in the introduction, for general reading as well as for serious students of poetry hoping that the book will "delight and instruct a tolerant public". The range of material is very wide; there are selections from Greek, Latin, and Hebrew verse in translation and from English and European poetry by such acknowledged masters as Chaucer, Herrick, Shakespeare, Byron, Baudelaire, Yeats and Lorca. There are some bawdy ballads of more modern vintage. It has literary merit and plainly is honest in its purpose of covering erotic verse over the centuries. It may well be that some of the earlier poems were considered risqué in their time. Without the inclusion of recent work the volume would be incomplete. While some of the verse would doubtless have more attraction for the younger group, it seems clear to the Tribunal that the book is aimed at the serious student and the more mature reader. The Tribunal classifies it as not indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 25th day of August 1980.

Judge W. M. WILLIS, (Chairman).

Decision No. 960

Reference No. 44/79, 49/79, 50/79

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications: Pokin Fun, published anonymously; Late Night Extra, published by Interman International Management Inc.;

Cleavage No. 1, published by Phenix Publishers Ltd;
California Girl, published by Phenix Publishers Ltd; and California Girl, published by Sunbury Press.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Judge W. M. Willis (chairman).
 Mesdames L. Edmond, H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera.

Hearing: 11 March 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs.

Decision

These five magazines were commercially imported and come before the Tribunal as disputed seizures.

Pokin Fun is a magazine with considerable text of an informative nature relating to aspects of photography of the human figure. The photographs are contrived, many showing details of the genital area.

Late Night Extra, like the above, has photographs of nude or near nude females in poses which are contrived.

California Girl is a "girlie" type magazine, the basis being the exploitation of the female body.

Cleavage another "girlie" magazine with pictures of nude or semi-nude females with special emphasis on the display of breasts. The photographs are crude, and the text has no substance to it.

Overall, the magazines are old, and have no honest purpose.

The Tribunal classifies each magazine as indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 25th day of August 1980.

Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

The seventh revised edition, augmented by the advisory committee on the teaching of Maori language.

DIRECTIONS FOR EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

A REPORT PREPARED BY THE ADVISORY COUNCIL ON EDUCATIONAL PLANNING

141 p. 1975. $2.50

This report marks the culmination of the activities of the Educational Development Conference. The Advisory Council has recommended the directions it considers New Zealand education should go in the next 5 or 10 years.

Five principal areas are identified as requiring attention. Education is seen as a lifelong activity, and emphasis is therefore placed on the "foundations"—early childhood education, the school curriculum and special provisions for special needs, and parent education.

Special attention is given also to the relationship between the school and the community, the need for close mutual support and co-operation, including understanding and respect for minority cultures.

A key to the quality of education is the people involved in it. Teacher education, the availability of advisory and ancillary staff, as well as resources for materials and research, have a chapter devoted to them.

Since education is seen as a lifelong activity, this is considered at some length. Facets such as accessibility, transfer of credits, and the role of existing institutions are discussed, together with ways in which continuing education could be provided for the whole community.

In discussing the administration and organisation of education the principle followed is the maximum devolution of authority and responsibility to the agencies and the community, as for instance, school committee and district level.

ECONOMICS OF THE NEW ZEALAND MAORIBy Raymond Firth

519 p. 1972. $8.75

The Maori people are honourably known far outside the confines of their New Zealand home. Acknowledged to be one of the finest of the native races within the British Commonwealth they have long been celebrated for their splendid physical appearance, their proud bearing, their aristocratic spirit, their fluent oratory and above all for their prowess in war. This book contains an account of the social and economic organisation of the Maori people before the organisation was transformed by contact with Western civilisation. It is a major scientific contribution to economic anthropology and has now become a standard work.

EFFECTIVE DISCUSSION

FOREST LORE OF THE MAORIBy Elsdon Best*

DOMINION MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 14

421 p. 1977.

$17.95

Printed without textual alteration, the work provides an important basis for any study of old-time Maori economics and perhaps more important of his attitude to what was a major part of his environment. It will be more of general interest today than when first written, since it stresses so fully the uses made by the Maori people of their natural resources, and supplies basic materials for further studies in ethnobotany and ethnozoology. The reverence which the old time Maori showed towards natural resources mirrors the modern concern for ecological principles.
