In the Matter of the Commerce Act 1975 (the Act) and in the Matter of a Proposed Takeover Offer by Fletcher Holdings Limited of Carter Holt Holdings Limited

WHEREAS:

A. On the 31st March 1980, Fletcher Holdings Limited (Fletcher) gave notice to the Examiner of Commercial Practices (the Examiner) pursuant to section 68 of the Act, of a takeover proposal (the takeover proposal) in respect of Carter Holt Holdings Limited (Carter Holt).

B. On the 22nd day of April 1980, application was made to the Commerce Commission (the Commission) under section 81N of the Act by Carter, Oji Paper Company Limited, N.Z. Forest Products Limited, Odmins Limited, and Lynn Robert Young (the other applicants), seeking orders restraining Fletcher and others from inter alia proceeding with the takeover proposal.

C. On the 24th day of April 1980, the Commission made orders under section 81N of the Act restraining Fletcher from inter alia proceeding with the takeover proposal and restraining New Zealand United Corporation Limited (NZUC) and Customhouse Holdings Limited (Customhouse), the full terms of the said orders being published in the New Zealand Gazette on 28 April 1980.

D. On the 12th day of May 1980, application was made to the Commission by Fletcher for the revocation of the restraining orders dated 24 April 1980.

E. On the 12th day of May 1980, application was made to the Commission by Carter Holt and the other applicants for renewal of the restraining orders and for additional orders.

F. On the 23rd day of May 1980, the Commission dismissed Fletcher's application for revocation and granted the applicant's application for renewal with certain amendments, the orders relating to the same being published in the New Zealand Gazette on 26 May 1980 (the restraining orders).

G. The Commission subsequently renewed the restraining orders from time to time.

H. On the 22nd day of August 1980, the Commission made orders vesting certain shares purchased by NZUC and Customhouse in the Public Trustee which orders have been renewed from time to time (the Public Trustee orders).

I. On the 24th day of September 1980, the Examiner, pursuant to section 75 of the Act, delivered to the Commission his report on the takeover proposal (the report).

J. On the 13th day of October 1980, the Commission made certain orders directing that no party to these proceedings or any other person should publish or cause to be published the report or any part or account thereof until the report was presented in evidence at the proposed public hearing into the takeover proposal (the confidentiality order).

K. On the 24th day of September 1980, in Decision No. 47, the Commission gave its reasons for making the restraining orders and declining the Fletcher application or revocation.

L. Fletcher has advised the Examiner that it has withdrawn the takeover proposal and the Examiner has advised the Commission that he now wishes to withdraw the report.

M. Having regard to the restraining orders and the written decision of the Commission dated 24 September 1980, Fletcher, NZUC, and Customhouse, desire to resolve all questions concerning the restraining orders and the shares in Carter acquired by them.

N. Fletcher, NZUC, Customhouse, Carter Holt, and the other applicants, now desire that the restraining orders and the Public Trustee orders should by consent be revoked in order to permit the sale of the shares in Carter Holt acquired by NZUC and Customhouse (other than 250,000 shares to be retained by NZUC), and to enable Fletcher and Carter Holt to comply with their respective obligations as set out in the deed filed herewith, Fletcher and Carter Holt having reached agreement concerning all outstanding matters in issue between them.

O. It is proper that having regard to the fact that there will now be no public hearing into the takeover proposal, the confidentiality orders remain in full force and effect until the further order of the Commission.

Now therefore the Commission by Consent orders as follows:

1. That leave be granted to the Examiner to withdraw his report.

2. That the Public Trustee orders be and hereby are revoked and the Public Trustee is hereby directed to transfer all the shares in Carter Holt now held by him pursuant to the Public Trustee orders to NZUC and Customhouse.

3. That the restraining orders be and hereby are revoked to enable NZUC and Customhouse to transfer the shares purchased and beneficially held by or for them in Carter Holt (including the shares now held in the name of the Public Trustee but excluding 250,000 shares to be retained by NZUC) to the bona fide independent transferees specified in the Schedule filed with the Commission.

4. That the shares in Carter Holt purchased by Fletcher be held by Fletcher on the terms set out in the deed filed herewith and that the contents of such deed shall in relation to all questions of price be and remain confidential to Fletcher, Carter Holt, the Federation of Labour, the Examiner, and the Commission.

5. That the confidentiality orders shall remain in full force and effect until further order of the Commission and that all parties to this proceeding and all other persons are hereby directed not to publish or cause to be published the report or any report or account or part thereof without the prior leave of the Commission, provided however that nothing herein shall limit or restrict the right of the Examiner to use any of the information contained in the report, for the purposes of the Act.

Dated at Wellington this 4th day of December 1980.

The Seal of the Commerce Commission was attached hereto in the presence of:

K. B. O'BRIEN, Chairman.

The Schedule and deed referred to in the above order are available for inspection or purchase on application to the Executive Officer, Commerce Commission, P.O. Box 10-273, Wellington (Sixth Floor, Chase-NBA House, 163 The Terrace, Wellington).

DIRECTIONS FOR EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

A REPORT PREPARED BY THE ADVISORY COUNCIL ON EDUCATIONAL PLANNING

141 p. 1975.

$2.50

This report marks the culmination of the activities of the Educational Development Conference. The Advisory Council has recommended the directions it considers New Zealand education should go in the next 5 or 10 years.

Five principal areas are identified as requiring attention. Education is seen as a lifelong activity, and emphasis is therefore placed on the "foundations"—early childhood education, the school curriculum and special provisions for special needs, and parent education.

Special attention is given also to the relationship between the school and the community, the need for close mutual support and co-operation, including understanding and respect for minority cultures.

A key to the quality of education is the people involved in it. Teacher education, the availability of advisory and ancillary staff, as well as resources for materials and research, have a chapter devoted to them.

Since education is seen as a lifelong activity, this is considered at some length. Facets such as accessibility, transfer of credits, and the role of existing institutions are discussed, together with ways in which continuing education could be provided for the whole community.

In discussing the administration and organisation of education the principle followed is the maximum devolution of authority and responsibility to the agencies and the community, as for instance, school committee and district level.

The Maori people are honourably known far outside the confines of their New Zealand home. Acknowledged to be one of the finest of the native races within the British Commonwealth they have long been celebrated for their splendid physical appearance, their proud bearing, their aristocratic spirit, their fluent oratory and above all for their prowess in war. This book contains an account of the social and economic organisation of the Maori people before the organisation was transformed by contact with Western civilisation. It is a major scientific contribution to economic anthropology and has now become a standard work.

In this book on penal sanctions Mr Dallard sets out the conclusions of a life time experience and a vast fund of knowledge. His historical survey of prisons and imprisonment of earlier times reveals the penal philosophy and the administrative practices which we now find appalling and intolerable. Mr Dallard's comments on the controversial topics of homosexual behaviour and of capital and corporal punishment, both now abolished, are revealing and provocative.

FOREST LORE OF THE MAORI

By Elsdon Best

DOMINION MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 14

421 p. 1977. $17.95

Printed without textual alteration, the work provides an important basis for any study of old-time Maori economics and perhaps more important of his attitude to what was a major part of his environment. It will be more of general interest today than when first written, since it stresses so fully the uses made by the Maori people of their natural resources, and supplies basic materials for further studies in ethnobotany and ethnozoology. The reverence which the old time Maori showed towards natural resources mirrors the modern concern for ecological principles.

86 p. 1980.

$6.75 plus p. and p.

Recently, investment has been very low, compared with that prevailing from the mid-1950s to the mid-1970s. If we are to take advantage of the opportunities for development before us, there will have to be a resurgence of fixed investment for the next few years. It is needed in plant, machinery, and equipment for the development of our energy resources.

LIVING LETTERS

STATE SERVICES COMMISSION

36 p. 1980 reprint.

$1.75 plus p. and p.

One of the aims in letter writing is to get ideas across to the reader clearly and briefly. But do letters always say what is meant? Even if they are clear to the writer, will the reader understand them easily? If you are still using the old clichés of "acknowledging receipt of", "according to our records", and "enclosed please find" it is almost certainly time to change your attitude to writing living letters.

THE MAORI AS HE WASBy Elsdon Best

295 p. 1974 reprint.

Fifty years of public demand since this book was first published resulted in the need for reprints in 1934 and 1952. The text has been reproduced unchanged but the originals of some of the figures could not be traced and these have been replaced with similar illustrations. There have been many advances in our knowledge of Maori life since this book first appeared. The work of numerous ethnologists, and more recently archaeologists, has critically examined many of the earlier concepts, confirming some, disproving others, and altering others to varying degrees. No one has yet produced a synthesis of the results of all this scholarship and there is still nothing as comprehensive as this book of Best's to give a general account of the Maori. This book was first published when Best was 68 and thus represents the accumulated knowledge of a lifetime. It has now become a classic introduction to Maori life. Its continued availability should help the reader to obtain a basic background to old time Maori life which can be extended by further reading.

(Government Printer.)

MAORI STOREHOUSES AND KINDRED STRUCTURES

By Elsdon Best

116 p., illustrated. 1974 reprint. $6.50

This bulletin is No. 5 in the Dominion Museum Series.

MOA-HUNTER PERIOD OF MAORI CULTURE

ROGER DUFF—CANTERBURY MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 1

436 p. 3rd edition, 1977. $17.50

This book deals with the most important site yet investigated and in its discussions it traverses most of the New Zealand archaeological field.

A chance discovery in 1939 by a 13-year-old boy revealed the grave of a chief in the gravels of the Wairau boulder bank. The grave, goods, and bones of the ancient chief, prone in his gravel grave, with skull directed towards the setting sun, spoke with more authority regarding his race than the distorted memories of Maori tradition.

Although scholarly and technical, the book sustains throughout the drama of this archaeological discovery, and recreates from the evidence of bone and stone the life of our first Polynesians in the Moa-hunter period of Maori culture.

NATIONAL PARKS OF NEW ZEALAND

178 p. Revised third edition. 1974. $10.50

The revision of this popular publication has included numerous new colour plates and additional information on some of our parks. Because of the popularity of this book it is expected this edition will be in great demand. In addition it makes an ideal gift and also a valuable asset to anyone's to the book being an ideal souvenir for the overseas visitor home library.

Elsdon Best (1856–1931), who was a member of the staff of the then Dominion Museum from 1911 to 1931, made a notable contribution to the study of Maori ethnology.
