Decision No. 998
Reference No. Ind 25/80

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the New Zealand Police for a decision in respect of the following publication: 201 Girls, published by Sun West, Los Angeles, California.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman); Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera; Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 1 May 1981.

Decision: 26 June 1981.

Appearances: Inspector D. L. Bates for the Legal Section, New Zealand Police. Venus Shop Ltd. was represented by Mr J. Billington.

DECISION

A single copy of the magazine 201 Girls, volume 11, No. 4, 1973, was submitted to the Tribunal for a decision as to its classification by the New Zealand Police, pursuant to section 22 of the Indecent Publications Act 1963. The magazine came before the Tribunal as a result of a complaint being made to the New Zealand Police by an adult member of the public, and it was noted by the Tribunal that other copies of 201 Girls had been declared unconditionally indecent in earlier decisions, i.e. volume 12, No. 3 in Decision 874, and volume 12, No. 2 in Decision 888.

Inspector D. L. Bates of the Legal Section of New Zealand Police, in his submission, stated that:

This present edition consists almost entirely of photographs of nude females in a variety of poses. Maximum emphasis is given to the breasts and genitalia. Textual content is minimal and does nothing to promote the publication as a serious work. The Police adopt the Tribunal's comments from Decision 874, and believe they are apt in the present case.

In its submission to the Tribunal the Venus Shop Ltd. made a general statement which indicated that:

It is important to note that the shop at which these items are purchased is a shop that caters for the adult population and entry is restricted to those of 18 years or over.

This was followed by a specific comment on 201 Girls:

... it is submitted that notwithstanding earlier considerations this volume compares with other well known publications save for the absence of journalistic padding.

The following comment was made by the Tribunal in Decision 874, referred to by the New Zealand Police:

201 Girls . . . presents its subjects with undue and sometimes degrading emphasis on their sexual characteristics with a spurious claim that it is a 'scientific, educational, sociological publication'.

Decision 874 was made on 25 November 1976 and even allowing for any change of public opinion towards this type of "girlie" magazine in the five years since the decision was made, the Tribunal cannot see any reason for a change in its attitude towards the copy under consideration. To be consistent with the earlier decisions made, the Tribunal finds that 201 Girls, volume 11, No. 4, is similar in content, with the photographs included placing undue emphasis on the breast and genitalia, and therefore classifies this publication as indecent.

Decision No. 997a

Reference No. Ind 35/80

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the following publications: The Bitch Goddesses, volume 8, No. 1; The Bitch Goddesses, volume 9, No. 4; both published by Jennifer Jordan Associates Ltd., Hollywood, California. Aggressive Women, volume 4, No. 4, published by House of Milan Corporation, Los Angeles, California.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman); Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera; Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. M. Malcolm.

Hearing: 2 December 1980.

Appearances: No appearance or submissions by the importer, M. Rutherford.

DECISION

These 3 single publications were imported by parcel post in July 1980. They were seized by the Customs Department and as the importer disputed forfeiture the Department referred the magazines to the Tribunal for classification prior to the commencement of condemnation proceedings pursuant to the Customs Act.

We now turn to discuss the individual magazines.

The Bitch Goddesses, volume 8, No. 1—This publication is a magazine measuring approximately 215 mm × 280 mm and some 54 pages long. The publication is technically well produced and the content consists mainly of photographs (coloured and black and white), although there is one short story and an article on the psychology of the dominant female. This publication is devoted to the depiction of sadism and masochism in sex. The short story is extremely crude, and the photographs almost invariably show models performing some violent sexual act on another.

This type of publication was considered by the Tribunal in Decision No. 963, which concerned publications entitled Tangled, Wrestling, Movie Review, Pinned and another issue of Batling Bitches, volume 1, No. 1. These magazines were all classified as indecent, although none of them had the degree of perversion existing in the publication presently before us.

This publication has no redeeming feature, and because of its presentation of deviant sexual themes can only be injurious to the public good.

For this reason we classify it as indecent.

The Bitch Goddesses, volume 9, No. 4—This publication is of a similar size to that mentioned above, although it is slightly shorter at 46 pages long. The violent theme again pervades the text and photographs in the publication and for the same reasons as expressed above we declare the magazine to be indecent.

Aggressive Women, volume 4, No. 4—This publication measures approximately 215 mm × 280 mm and is a magazine 63 pages long.

It is an extraordinary publication because it is really a catalogue of men and women who wish to advertise and solicit responses from readers in respect of their sexually deviant proclivities. In almost all of the cases the advertisement is accompanied by a photograph, allegedly of the person concerned. Most of the advertisements are from women and as the title to the publication suggests the advertisements in many cases solicit the sexually deviant and sadistic specialities of the model.

Although there do not appear to be any advertisements from New Zealand persons, and the magazine is published and largely circulated in the United States of America, nevertheless the Tribunal feels that a publication of this kind is corruptive and is highly likely to be injurious to the public good in its sadistic portrayal of sex.

For these reasons we classify Aggressive Women as indecent.

Chairman.

Decision No. 997

Reference No. Ind 25/80

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the New Zealand Police for a decision in respect of the following publication: Boys International, No. 4, published by S. and H. Publications, Harrow, Middlesex, England.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman); Messdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera; Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 1 May 1981.

Decision: 26 June 1981.

Appearances: Inspector D. L. Bates for the Legal Section, New Zealand Police. Venus Shop Ltd. was represented by J. Billington.

DECISION

A single copy of the magazines Boys International, No. 4, was submitted to the Tribunal for a decision as to its classification by the New Zealand Police, pursuant to section 22 of the Indecent Publications Act 1963. The magazine came before the Tribunal as a result of a complaint being made to the New Zealand Police by an adult member of the public. It was noted by the Tribunal that copies of Boys International had been declared unconditionally indecent in an earlier decision, i.e. Volume 2, Nos. 5 and 6 in Decision 851, and that these classifications had been upheld by the Supreme Court at Wellington in a judgment delivered on 23 January 1979 by His Honour Casey J. in Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd. v. The Comptroller of Customs.

Inspector D. L. Bates of the Legal Section, New Zealand Police, in his submission, referred to the Court judgment, and stated that the Police had compared the present edition with the previously declared indecent copy, and submitted that there is no significant difference in style, content or intended effect, from that made by the Court.

The Court judgment stated that:

The poses in many of them are obviously contrived to give emphasis to the genital or (in some cases) the buttocks or anal areas . . . Their dominant effect is unequivocally of appeal to readers, with inclinations towards pederasty.

In its submission to the Tribunal the Venus Shop Ltd., other than making a general statement which indicated that "it is important to note that the shop at which these items were purchased is a shop that caters for the adult population and entry is restricted to those of 18 years or over", did not make a specific submission on Boys International.

The Tribunal has noted that the copy under consideration is similar in content to the previous copies which were classified as indecent, a decision which was upheld by the Supreme Court two years ago. The Tribunal cannot see any reason for a change in its attitude towards the copy under consideration, and to be consistent with its earlier decision therefore classifies Boys International, No. 4, as indecent.

DIRECTIONS FOR EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

A REPORT PREPARED BY THE ADVISORY COUNCIL ON EDUCATIONAL PLANNING

141 p. 1975. $2.50

This report marks the culmination of the activities of the Educational Development Conference. The Advisory Council has recommended the directions it considers New Zealand education should go in the next 5 or 10 years.

Five principal areas are identified as requiring attention. Education is seen as a lifelong activity, and emphasis is therefore placed on the "foundations"—early childhood education, the school curriculum and special provisions for special needs, and parent education.

Special attention is given also to the relationship between the school and the community, the need for close mutual support and co-operation, including understanding and respect for minority cultures.

A key to the quality of education is the people involved in it. Teacher education, the availability of advisory and ancillary staff, as well as resources for materials and research, have a chapter devoted to them.

Since education is seen as a lifelong activity, this is considered at some length. Facets such as accessibility, transfer of credits, and the role of existing institutions are discussed, together with ways in which continuing education could be provided for the whole community.

In discussing the administration and organisation of education the principle followed is the maximum devolution of authority and responsibility to the agencies and the community, as for instance, school committee and district level.

FOREST LORE OF THE MAORI*By Elsdon Best*

DOMINION MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 14

421 p. 1977. $17.95 plus $1.25 p & p
 Printed without textual alteration, the work provides an important basis for any study of old-time Maori economics and perhaps more important of his attitude to what was a major part of his environment. It will be more of general interest today than when first written, since it stresses so fully the uses made by the Maori people of their natural resources, and supplies basic materials for further studies in ethnobotany and ethnozoology. The reverence which the old time Maori showed towards natural resources mirrors the modern concern for ecological principles.

INVESTMENT ISSUE*By Donald T. Brash, et al.*

NEW ZEALAND PLANNING COUNCIL No. 16.

86 p. 1980. $6.75 plus 70c p & p
 Recently, investment has been very low, compared with that prevailing from the mid-1950s to the mid-1970s. If we are to take advantage of the opportunities for development before us, there will have to be a resurgence of fixed investment for the next few years. It is needed in plant, machinery, and equipment for the development of our energy resources.

JOINT COMMITTEE REPORTS ON YOUNG OFFENDERS

1975.

Resulting from a major longitudinal study into the social adjustment of New Zealand boys, the following reports seek to answer the question: "To what extent is it possible to predict from specific information collected at the age of ten those boys who will later become delinquent or show other signs of maladjustments".

RESEARCH REPORT No. 1

The Structure of the Bristol Social Adjustment Guide. $2.75

RESEARCH REPORT No. 2

The Effects of Race and Socio-Economic Status on Juvenile Offending Statistics. $1

LAND ALONE ENDURES

DSIR Discussion Paper No. 3

286 p. 1980. $12 plus $1.25 p & p
 This discussion document comes at the start of a decade of significant national development and, hence, of changes in land use. "Land use" like "Energy" will be of key importance during the 1980s as New Zealand moves to diversify its primary production, develop its resources of minerals and energy, and conserve its flora and fauna.

LAND USE POLICIES

STUDIES IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION: No. 21

185 p. 1976. $5 plus 45c p & p
Land Use Policies is an up-to-the-minute publication resulting from the NZIPA Convention of 1975. Contributors include the Hon. D. MacIntyre, then Minister of Maori Affairs and Agriculture; the Parliamentary Under-Secretary to the Ministers of Agriculture, Forests, Lands, and Science for the previous Government; the Commissioner for the Environment; the Assistant Director-General of Lands; the Head of the Urban Research Unit of Canberra; and many others. Topics range from land tenure systems to the history of the development of land use policies to the public acquisition of land for urban development. To assist readers each contribution is accompanied by a short summary. In addition most are also followed by a commentary and an edited record of the convention discussion of the paper.

LIVING LETTERS

STATE SERVICES COMMISSION

36 p. 1980 reprint. $1.75 plus 45c p & p
 One of the aims in letter writing is to get ideas across to the reader clearly and briefly. But do letters always say what is meant? Even if they are clear to the writer, will the reader understand them easily? If you are still using the old clichés of "acknowledging receipt of", "according to our records", and "enclosed please find" it is almost certainly time to change your attitude to writing living letters.

MAORI RELIGION AND MYTHOLOGY PART 1

By Elsdon Best

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 10

MOA-HUNTER PERIOD OF MAORI CULTURE

ROGER DUFF—CANTERBURY MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 1

436 p. 3rd edition, 1977. $17.50 plus $1.25 p & p
This book deals with the most important site yet investigated and in its discussions it traverses most of the New Zealand archaeological field.

A chance discovery in 1939 by a 13-year-old boy revealed the grave of a chief in the gravels of the Wairau boulder bank. The grave, goods, and bones of the ancient chief, prone in his gravel grave, with skull directed towards the setting sun, spoke with more authority regarding his race than the distorted memories of Maori tradition.

Although scholarly and technical, the book sustains throughout the drama of this archaeological discovery, and recreates from the evidence of bone and stone the life of our first Polynesians in the Moa-hunter period of Maori culture.

MAORI

By Witi Ihimaera

45 p. 1975. $1.20 plus 35c p & p
A colourful booklet describing the coming of the Maori to New Zealand, his history, heritage, folklore, beliefs, and cultural unity.

Each chapter has a quotation from a Maori proverb, phrase, saying, or canoe chant and these concepts are presented in words and pictures.

Continues with the arrival of the pakeha and the pattern of events which followed, the Treaty of Waitangi and the Land Wars. Moves on to the Maori today, finishing with the theme, one country, two heritages in unity.

Well illustrated with 64 coloured photos, of interest to all New Zealanders and tourists. (Tourist and Publicity Department.)

MAORI AGRICULTURE

By Elsdon Best

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 9

315 p. 1976. $13.50 plus $1.25 p & p

The only comprehensive study of Maori agriculture available, this bulletin adds a further volume to the series of Elsdon Best's works which the Government Printer undertook to reprint preserving the original text and bulletin numbers. I recommend this book and the series as a whole; to collectors, archaeologists, and to those studying the prehistoric economy of the Maori people. (Government Printer.)

THE MAORI AS HE WAS

By Elsdon Best

295 p. 1974 reprint. $6.50 plus 70c p & p

Fifty years of public demand since this book was first published resulted in the need for reprints in 1934 and 1952. The text has been reproduced unchanged but the originals of some of the figures could not be traced and these have been replaced with similar illustrations. There have been many advances in our knowledge of Maori life since this book first appeared. The work of numerous ethnologists, and more recently archaeologists, has critically examined many of the earlier concepts, confirming some, disproving others, and altering others to varying degrees. No one has yet produced a synthesis of the results of all this scholarship and there is still nothing as comprehensive as this book of Best's to give a general account of the Maori. This book was first published when Best was 68 and thus represents the accumulated knowledge of a lifetime. It has now become a classic introduction to Maori life. Its continued availability should help the reader to obtain a basic background to old time Maori life which can be extended by further reading.

THE MAORI CANOE

By Elsdon Best

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 7

451 p. 1976. $17.50 plus $1.25 p & p
A reprinted edition without textual alterations and retaining the old Dominion Museum number. Another example of Elsdon Best's dedicated effort to preserve Maori culture. The material presented on canoes, their materials, types, methods of construction, and associated artifacts make interesting reading for the layman as well as for scholars of the Maori. This report on earthquake microzoning is aimed at dividing extensive areas of Wellington into smaller zones and is intended as a guide only to planning of future redevelopment. The detailed studies of local geology and soil investigations have resulted in an Earthquake Microzone Map of Wellington. This map accompanies this publication. This report is the first one of a series. Later it is the intention to microzone other areas in the same way.
