At the Government House at Wellington this 27th day of October 1981

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Public Works Act 1928, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council hereby makes the following order:

ORDER

1. This order may be cited as the Glenmark Irrigation Order 1981.

2. The Minister of Works and Development is hereby authorised to construct, maintain, and control the water supply works described in the First Schedule hereto to serve the district described in the Second Schedule hereto.

3. The area of land described in the said Second Schedule is hereby constituted as an irrigation district to be known as the Glenmark Irrigation District (herein referred to as "the district").

4. It is hereby declared that the basic charge payable on all irrigable land within the said district shall be $30 per irrigable-hectare-per-year and the water availability charge shall be $20 per 1000 cubic metres.

5. Basis of allocation—The supply of water will be subject to the terms and conditions of any water rights granted or issued by the North Canterbury Regional Water Board. During higher flows water is to be taken from the Omihiri and Weka Streams for storage in dams constructed on properties within the district. Such dams will provide sufficient storage to supply approximately 150 mm of water during most irrigation seasons, to the area determined to be irrigable. The allocation of water for storage will be subject to the control of the Hurunui County Council and any restrictions imposed by any of the water rights.

6. Reduction shall be made to the charges given above during the first 6 irrigation seasons so that the charges for the first 7 seasons shall be as set out in the Third Schedule hereto.

7. It is hereby declared that after the 7th season of water availability, charges shall be subject to annual adjustment (from the end of the above season of supply) to compensate for any differences in any element of these charges from the amount previously estimated as stated under sections 13 and 15 of the Public Works Amendment Act 1975.

Decision of Films Censorship Board of Review

PURSUANT to section 82 of the Cinematograph Films Act 1976, Columbia Warner Distributors applied for a review of the feature film Eyes of a Stranger.

Having viewed the film in Wellington on 24 September 1981, a majority of members decided to approve the film for exhibition to persons 16 years of age and over only, subject to six excisions. The classification will be accompanied by the note: "This film may be disturbing to some".

The film, of the suspense genre, is concerned with a series of rape-murders conducted by a psychopathic killer. As the murders are committed one after another, a young news reporter gradually pieces together enough evidence to identify the murderer, but has difficulty in persuading her lawyer boyfriend to accept the evidence and help her. In the meantime the killer has become aware of her knowledge of his activities and both she and her younger sister, who is blind, deaf and dumb, are targeted as the next victims.

The theme is a credible one. Although the sexual assaults portrayed were violent and perverse, the majority of the Board did not feel that these scenes were injurious to the public good. The last of these—on the handicapped sister of the reporter—is defeated by her continued resistance and success in fighting back. The Board therefore considered that as the theme was obviously a relevant one, for women in particular, and was realistically handled, that it would be appropriate to approve the film for public exhibition.

It was felt that the restricted classification, together with the note: "This film may be disturbing to some", would give sufficient warning of the nature of the film. The excisions in the main feature included two for offensive language, four for violence, and one for sexual violence. The Board also viewed a teaser trailer and main trailer with the film. The teaser trailer was approved for General Exhibition without excision. The main trailer was approved for General Exhibition subject to one excision for sexual violence.

J. M. PRIESTLY, Chairman.

The reverence which the old time Maori showed towards natural resources mirrors the modern concern for ecological principles.

INVESTMENT ISSUE

By Donald T. Brash, et al.

NEW ZEALAND PLANNING COUNCIL No. 16.

86 p. 1980. $6.75 plus 70c p & p

Recently, investment has been very low, compared with that prevailing from the mid-1950s to the mid-1970s. If we are to take advantage of the opportunities for development before us, there will have to be a resurgence of fixed investment for the next few years. It is needed in plant, machinery, and equipment for the development of our energy resources.

LAND ALONE ENDURES

DSIR Discussion Paper No. 3

286 p. 1980. $12 plus $1.25 p & p

This discussion document comes at the start of a decade of significant national development and, hence, of changes in land use. "Land use" like "Energy" will be of key importance during the 1980s as New Zealand moves to diversify its primary production, develop its resources of minerals and energy, and conserve its flora and fauna.

MacIntyre, then Minister of Maori Affairs and Agriculture; the Parliamentary Under-Secretary to the Ministers of Agriculture, Forests, Lands, and Science for the previous Government; the Commissioner for the Environment; the Assistant Director-General of Lands; the Head of the Urban Research Unit of Canberra; and many others. To assist readers each contribution is accompanied by a short summary. In addition most are also followed by a commentary and an edited record of the convention discussion of the paper.

MOA-HUNTER PERIOD OF MAORI CULTURE

ROGER DUFF—CANTERBURY MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 1

436 p. 3rd edition, 1977. $17.50 plus $1.25 p & p

This book deals with the most important site yet investigated and in its discussions it traverses most of the New Zealand archaeological field.

A chance discovery in 1939 by a 13-year-old boy revealed the grave of a chief in the gravels of the Wairau boulder bank. The grave, goods, and bones of the ancient chief, prone in his gravel grave, with skull directed towards the setting sun, spoke with more authority regarding his race than the distorted memories of Maori tradition.

Although scholarly and technical, the book sustains throughout the drama of this archaeological discovery, and recreates from the evidence of bone and stone the life of our first Polynesians in the Moa-hunter period of Maori culture.

LIVING LETTERS

STATE SERVICES COMMISSION

36 p. 1980 reprint. $1.75 plus 45c p & p

One of the aims in letter writing is to get ideas across to the reader clearly and briefly. But do letters always say what is meant? Even if they are clear to the writer, will the reader understand them easily? If you are still using the old clichés of "acknowledging receipt of", "according to our records", and "enclosed please find" it is almost certainly time to change your attitude to writing living letters.
