Decision No. 989
Reference No. Ind. 43/80

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications:

Pool Party, published by Potz Press, Sydney, Australia.

Poker Pleasures, Car Lovers, Have Sex, Will Travel, all published by Howard Publications, Sydney, Australia.

Boat Lovers, Bared Birds, published by Howard Productions Pty. Ltd., Sydney, Australia.

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman), Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 2 December 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs. Written submissions by the importer, Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd.

DECISION

THESE publications are sample copies commercially imported and seized at Auckland in September 1980. Forfeiture has been disputed and each publication has been referred to the Tribunal for classification.

The first 5 publications named above contain photographs of couples indulging in sexual intercourse in various situations. It has been submitted by the Comptroller that the text is minimal and light weight and in most cases unrelated to the photographs. The publication Have Sex, Will Travel appears to be Car Lovers and Boat Lovers put together under a new title. These publications are patently concerned with the prurient and lewd aspects of sex. They have no literary or other merit and there is nothing, as the Comptroller submits, to offset their overwhelming sexual format. For those reasons it was submitted that the likelihood of corruption far outweighs the possible benefit and that, they are injurious to the public good and therefore indecent.

Written submissions were made by Waverley Publishers Co. Ltd. and the Tribunal was referred to decision Nos. 748, 949 and 962 where similar publications have been classified with an age restriction. It was suggested that these 5 books should receive a similar classification.

It cannot be said that any of the books have literary or artistic merit. They are predominantly concerned with the prurient and lewd aspects of sex. The likelihood of corruption outweighs possible benefit and they are quite distinctly not for the public good. So far as the decisions mentioned by the importer are concerned, the Tribunal had this to say, it does not now have access to the book mentioned in decision No. 748. So far as decision No. 949 is concerned that publication called Virgin had no text and was more sensitively produced than the publications we are now considering. Referring to decision No. 962 the publications there under consideration were devoted solely to the exploitation of the female form and were not photographs of people engaged in sexual intercourse. These publications are, therefore, to be classified as indecent.

The remaining publication Bared Birds contains no text and consists entirely of photographs of nude or semi-nude women. Without the recent High Court decision the Tribunal would have been of a mind to classify this volume as indecent but it is classified as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18.

Dated at Wellington this 25th day of May 1981.

District Court Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Decision No. 990
Reference No. Ind. 45/80

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publication:

Super Fiesta, published by Edizioni Inteuropa Spain, Via Milan, Italy.

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman), Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 2 December 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for the Comptroller of Customs. Written submissions by the importer, Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd.

DECISION

A sample copy of this publication was imported commercially and seized at Auckland in September 1980. Forfeiture was disputed so that the publication was referred to the Tribunal for classification.

This publication is described by the Comptroller as an Italian girlie magazine made up of photographs of posed nude or partly clothed women. There is a minimum of text, but, as this is in the Italian language, it would have little interest for the majority of New Zealand citizens. In the photographs there is little or no emphasis on genitalia. The Comptroller agreed that the presentation was not patently offensive.

The submissions by the importer suggest that the magazine was a correlation of several old editions of the Fiesta magazine and it is said to be similar in style and format to the publication Cream. Cream was the subject of decision No. 937 which on appeal was classified as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18. Comparing the two publications the Tribunal would agree that Fiesta is superior in many respects. At the same time it agrees that there is no significant difference between the contents of each publication. Both the Comptroller and the importer suggest that an age restriction would be proper in this particular case and following the decision of the High Court, the Tribunal would agree. Fiesta is, therefore, classified as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18.

Reference No. Ind. 42/80

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications:

Rub A Dub Dub, published by Potz Press, Sydney, Australia.

An Orgy of Body Paint, published by Howard Productions, Sydney, Australia.

Hard in the Lace Game, published by Howard Publications, Sydney, Australia.

Pucker Up, a collection of 3 Howard magazines.

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman), Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 2 December 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs. Written submissions by importer, Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd.

DECISION

SAMPLE copies of the above publications were commercially imported by parcel post and seized at Auckland in September 1980. Forfeiture has been disputed, so that the publications have been referred to the Tribunal for classification.

Rub A Dub Dub was first published in Australia in 1972 and contains a short introductory text followed by a series of photographs of lesbians making love in the bath and in bed. The Orgy of Body Paint, also first published in 1972, contains a minimal amount of text and full photographs of a man and 2 women painting each other's bodies and then having a sexual orgy. Hard in the Lace Game once again, first published in 1972, is the story of a salesman and his sexual escapades with 2 girls. Once again there is little text, the major portion of the publication consisting of photographs depicting his sexual escapades.

The Comptroller submitted that these publications are intended to appeal to the salacious and are devoid of any redeeming feature. They lack honesty of purpose and are injurious to the public good. For these reasons he submitted they should be classified as indecent.

The Tribunal cannot agree with the submission by the importer that these publications are similar in content to those considered in decision No. 962 and for the reasons submitted by the Comptroller holds them to be indecent.

Pucker Up is a collection of 3 Howard magazines which contains a minimum amount of text and is made up of pictures of nude or semi-nude women with little or no photography of genitalia. It is not dissimilar to the publications held by the High Court to be indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 so that a similar classification will be attached to Pucker Up.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications:

Girls, Girls, Girls! No. 2, published by Howard Publications, Sydney, Australia.

High Heels No. 4, Peek-A-Boo No. 4, Twilight No. 5, all published by Bedtime Book Co., South Australia.

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman), Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, Mr J. V. B. McLinden.

Hearing: 2 December 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs. Written submissions by importer, Shop 6, Auckland.

DECISION

THESE are sample copies of publications imported commercially and seized at Auckland in October 1980. Forfeiture was disputed so that the publications were referred to the Tribunal for classification.

Each magazine is of the girlie type and consists almost entirely of photographs of nude or semi-nude women. It was submitted by the Comptroller that although there are no photographs exposing genitalia, they are, nevertheless, highly contrived and provocative. It was further submitted that the publications are almost exclusively concerned with sexual stimulation and arousal and lack literary merit.

It was submitted by the importer, Shop 6 of Auckland, that High Heels No. 4 is one-third of Stiff, a composite of 3 publications classified by the High Court as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18. Peek-A-Boo No. 4 is stated to be one-third of Throb which was similarly classified by the High Court. Despite its best endeavours the Tribunal is unable to find any resemblance between photographs in Peek-A-Boo No. 4 and those in Throb, although it would agree that the contents are of similar type. Twilight and Girls, Girls, Girls are similar magazines and the Tribunal would agree with the importer that they are virtually indistinguishable from High Heels and Peek-A-Boo.

Being bound by the decision of the High Court, the Tribunal classifies each publication as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications:

Sex Cage by Ilonke, published by MacFadden of Bartell, New York.

Women Who Like Furs, by T. Galle, published by Venus Publications, London.

Naked Shadows, by Chris Vaughan, published by Goldstar Publications, United Kingdom.

Sex Aids, an investigation by Carole Ann Dale, published by Diamond Star Books, United Kingdom.

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman), Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 5 February 1981.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for the Comptroller of Customs. No appearance for importer, Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd.

DECISION

THESE 4 paperback books were part of a shipment imported by a commercial importer and seized at Auckland in August 1980. As the importer has disputed forfeiture the Customs Department has referred the publications to the Tribunal for classification.

Sex Cage is a story of a lesbian and her involvement with 3 other women. There are a number of explicit sexual episodes. The book tends to promote matters to deviate sex as being normal way of life. The Tribunal sees this as injurious to the public good and therefore "indecent".

Women who like Furs. The majority of this book consists of women in various contrived poses which have little or no relevance to the text at the beginning of the book. The 21 pages of text is of an explicitly sexual character. The book has no literary or artistic merit and is designed to appeal to the salacious and is therefore classified as indecent.

Naked Shadows purports to be the story about the rise to fame of a 'pop star'. The text is interspersed with pictures which generally relate to the sexual portions of the text. The story is very flimsy and appears to be the vehicle for detailed sexual episodes. The book is of no literary merit and lacks honesty of purpose. For these reasons the Tribunal classifies it as indecent.

Sex Aids is reputed to be a book on sex aids and their uses. A considerable portion of the book is given to so-called "case histories" which include detailed description of various forms of deviate sex. The book also contains advertisements and contacts for the purchase of sex aids, as well as mail order lists for books and magazines of the same type. This book would appeal to prurient interests. For the above reasons, this book is considered to be injurious to the public good and indecent.
