Pt Lot 120, D.P. 20427, Gen. Govt. Buildings	Pt Gazette 1959, p. 1467	THE following formula for calculating the finance rate is hereby approved in terms of sections 6 (1) (b) and 46 of the Act:

Provided that the interest charge is assessed on the reducing balance as repayments are made, and there are no other charges covered within the definition of 'cost of credit' in the Act.

NOTE—That this method will not agree exactly with finance rates produced under section 6 (1) (a) of the Act.

CREDIT CONTRACTS ACT 1981

REVOLVING CREDIT CONTRACTS

CALCULATION OF FINANCE RATE FOR REQUEST DISCLOSURE

The following formula for calculating the Finance rate is hereby approved in terms of sections 6 (1) (b) and 46 of the Act:

$$r = \frac{C}{AV \text{ BAL}} \times \frac{(365 \times 100)}{N}$$

where r = finance rate (percent per annum).

C = total cost of credit (as defined in the Act) for the billing period.

N = number of days in billing period.

AV BAL = average daily debt balance in billing period (i.e. the sum of the daily debit balances outstanding divided by 'N').

Provided however that where credit charges have been calculated up to the date of the statement including following non-business day(s) the determination of 'AV BAL' and 'N' shall recognise the inclusion of such following non-business day(s).

CREDIT CONTRACTS ACT 1981

CALCULATION OF FINANCE RATE FOR CREDIT CONTRACTS WHERE REPAYMENT IS MADE BY EQUAL INSTALMENTS DUE AT THE END OF EQUAL PERIODS

The following formula for calculating the finance rate under credit contracts where—

(a) a single advance of credit is to be made, and

(b) the sum of the credit and the cost of credit (as defined in the Act) is to be repaid by equal instalments due at the end of equal periods.

is hereby approved in terms of sections 6 (1) (b) and 46 of the Act. The finance rate is the value of 'r' which satisfies the formula.

$$\frac{I}{C} = \frac{\frac{r}{100 \times n}}{1 - \frac{1}{\left(1 + \frac{r}{100 \times n}\right)^N}}$$ where I = repayment instalment.

C = Credit.

n = number of repayment instalments per annum (subject to clauses 1 (3) and 2 (a) of the First Schedule to the Act).

N = total number of repayment instalments.

r = Finance rate (percent per annum).

NOTE—That sufficient decimal places must be retained in intermediate steps of the calculation so that the accuracy required by the Act is attained.

This book will be of particular interest to those whose daily occupations bring them into contact with the Government financial system; notably Government officials, journalists, members of Parliament, accountants in business, and the general commercial community, as well as academics and students. The text has, however, also been written with the general reader in mind.

LIVING LETTERS

STATE SERVICES COMMISSION

36 p. 1980 reprint. $1.75 plus 55c p & p

One of the aims in letter writing is to get ideas across to the reader clearly and briefly. But do letters always say what is meant? Even if they are clear to the writer, will the reader understand them easily? If you are still using the old clichés of "acknowledging receipt of", "according to our records", and "enclosed please find" it is almost certainly time to change your attitude to writing living letters.

MAORI AGRICULTURE

By Elsdon Best

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 9

315 p. 1976. $13.50 plus $1.50 p & p

The only comprehensive study of Maori agriculture available, this bulletin adds a further volume to the series of Elsdon Best's works which the Government Printer undertook to reprint preserving the original text and bulletin numbers. I recommend this book and the series as a whole; to collectors, archaeologists, and to those studying the prehistoric economy of the Maori people. (Government Printer.)

THE MAORI CANOE*By Elsdon Best*

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 7

451 p. 1976.

$17.50 plus $1.50 p & p

A reprinted edition without textual alterations and retaining the old Dominion Museum number. Another example of Elsdon Best's dedicated effort to preserve Maori culture. The material presented on canoes, their materials, types, methods of construction, and associated artifacts make interesting reading for the layman as well as for scholars of the Maori. (Government Printer.)

THE MAORI AS HE WAS*By Elsdon Best*

295 p. 1974 reprint.

$6.50 plus 85c p & p

Fifty years of public demand since this book was first published resulted in the need for reprints in 1934 and 1952. The text has been reproduced unchanged but the originals of some of the figures could not be traced and these have been replaced with similar illustrations. There have been many advances in our knowledge of Maori life since this book first appeared. The work of numerous ethnologists, and more recently archaeologists, has critically examined many of the earlier concepts, confirming some, disproving others, and altering others to varying degrees. No one has yet produced a synthesis of the results of all this scholarship and there is still nothing as comprehensive as this book of Best's to give a general account of the Maori. This book was first published when Best was 68 and thus represents the accumulated knowledge of a lifetime. It has now become a classic introduction to Maori life. Its continued availability should help the reader to obtain a basic background to old time Maori life which can be extended by further reading.

MAORI*By Witi Ihimaera*

$1.20 plus 40c p & p

A colourful booklet describing the coming of the Maori to New Zealand, his history, heritage, folklore, beliefs, and cultural unity.

Each chapter has a quotation from a Maori proverb, phrase, saying, or canoe chant and these concepts are presented in words and pictures.

Continues with the arrival of the pakeha and the pattern of events which followed, the Treaty of Waitangi and the Land Wars. Moves on to the Maori today, finishing with the theme, one country, two heritages in unity.

Well illustrated with 64 coloured photos, of interest to all New Zealanders and tourists. (Tourist and Publicity Department.)

MAORI RELIGION AND MYTHOLOGY PART 1*By Elsdon Best*

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 10

424 p. 1976.

$18 plus $1.50 p & p

An account of the theory of the universe and its creation, study of the origin of man, religious beliefs, rites, magic and folklore of the Maori people of New Zealand. First published in 1924, reprinted without textual alterations and retaining the original bulletin numbers. (Government Printer.)

MOA-HUNTER PERIOD OF MAORI CULTURE

ROGER DUFF—CANTERBURY MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 1

436 p. 3rd edition, 1977.

$17.50 plus $1.50 p & p

This book deals with the most important site yet investigated and in its discussions it traverses most of the New Zealand archaeological field.

A chance discovery in 1939 by a 13-year-old boy revealed the grave of a chief in the gravels of the Wairau boulder bank. The grave, goods, and bones of the ancient chief, prone in his gravel grave, with skull directed towards the setting sun, spoke with more authority regarding his race than the distorted memories of Maori tradition.

Although scholarly and technical, the book sustains throughout the drama of this archaeological discovery, and recreates from the evidence of bone and stone the life of our first Polynesians in the Moa-hunter period of Maori culture.

FOREST LORE OF THE MAORI*By Elsdon Best*

DOMINION MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 14

421 p. 1977.

$17.95 plus $1.50 p & p

Printed without textual alteration, the work provides an important basis for any study of old-time Maori economics and perhaps more important of his attitude to what was a major part of his environment. It will be more of general interest today than when first written, since it stresses so fully the uses made by the Maori people of their natural resources, and supplies basic materials for further studies in ethnobotany and ethnozoology. The reverence which the old time Maori showed towards natural resources mirrors the modern concern for ecological principles.

NATIONAL PARKS OF NEW ZEALAND

178 p. Revised third edition. 1974. $10.50 plus $1.50 p & p

The revision of this popular publication has included numerous new colour plates and additional information on some of our parks. Because of the popularity of this book it is expected this edition will be in great demand. In addition to the book being an ideal souvenir for the overseas visitor it makes an ideal gift and also a valuable asset to anyone's home library.
