Decision No.: 1023

Reference No.: Ind. 7/82

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the New Zealand Police for a decision in respect of the following publication:

Pornography or Art by Poul Gerhard, published by Word and Pictures Limited, Vine Court London E1.

Judge W. M. Willis (chairman),
Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 25 May 1982.

Decision: 16 June 1982.

Appearances: Inspector D. L. Bates for Police. Written submissions from Importer, Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd.

Pornography or Art? by Poul Gerhard, published by Words and Pictures Ltd., Vine Court, London, is an outside soft covered publication of 160 pages. This book was submitted to the Tribunal by the New Zealand Police, by leave of the Minister of Justice, granted on 29 July 1981, pursuant to the provision of section 14 (2) of the Indecent Publications Act 1963.

It should be noted that Pornography or Art was published in 1971, a translation of an earlier edition published by Gerhard Erickson in Copenhagen in 1968. The age of the book in itself indicates that it is rather late in the life of the publication to warrant expending time in giving a decision. After the passage of 12 years there will be little likelihood that many copies of the book are in print and available to the public.

In its submission the import states that this title was originally imported in 1977 and apparently it has been on sale continually since then. The Tribunal has been informed that it left the warehouses with an R18 sticker and a submission was made that restriction should continue.

In essence the book is a collection of drawing and sketches, with supporting text, taken from sixteen different sources. The material as presented is historical in scope, and is represented by a selection of artists, authentic in its presentation and appearance.

The main objection to Pornography or Art is that many of the drawing are explicit in detail and content, and therefore likely to give offence.

In its submission the Police are of the opinion that "the book is generally balanced and informative in its treatment of the subject matter." The Tribunal agrees with this statement, and further concurs with the Police submission that the book "would appear to merit at least an R18 classification". The only comment to be made placing any classification on Pornography or Art is to note the date of publication, for after 12 years it does seem rather pointless to place any restriction on a book which has been freely available to the general public for this period.

The publication is classified as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18.

District Court Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Decision No.: 1025

Reference No.: Ind. 15/81

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications:

Sundisk Volume 8, Nos. 2, 3 and 4.

Judge W. M. Willis (chairman),
Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 1 April 1982.

Decision: 16 June 1982.

Appearances: Mr Leloir for Comptroller of Customs. No appearance of Importer, Mr W. R. Main.

These publications were privately imported through parcel post and seized at Whangarei. Forfeiture is disputed by the importer so that the Tribunal has been asked to classify them. Each magazine is about 55 pages in length, consisting mainly of photographs, very little text and a few pages of mail order advertisements. They were published in 1969. The photographs are highly contrived and provocative with a great emphasis on the male and female genitalia. The text, though more restrained, does not relate with the photographs. The Tribunal would agree with Mr Leloir that the magazines are predominantly concerned with the prurient and lewd aspects of sex and are devoid of any redeeming feature. They lack honesty of purpose and are injurious to the public good. It is relevant to point out that Volume 7, Nos. 3 and 4 and Volume 8, No. 1, were considered as indecent—Decisions 639–641. The text of those publications is similar to that in those now reviewed. For these reasons the Tribunal classifies Sundisk, Volume 8, Nos. 2, 3 and 4 as indecent.

District Court Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Decision No.: 1026

Reference No.: Ind. 19/81

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications:

Bondage Advocates, Volume 1, No. 2, published by London Enterprises Ltd.

Bondage Life, Volume 1, Nos. 5 and 7, published by Harmony Communications, Box 780, North Hollywood, Ca 91603.

235 Bondage Photos, Volume 1, No. 2, published by London Enterprises Ltd.

Dominated, Volume 1, No. 1, published by London Enterprises Ltd.

Cheryl Rothman in Bondage, Volume 1, No. 1, Volume 2, No. 2, published by London Enterprises Ltd.

Hogtie, Volume 3, No. 10, published by House of Milan Corp., Box 24-080, LA, California.

Judge W. M. Willis, Chairman,
Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 1 April 1982.

Decision: 16 June 1982.

Appearances: Mr Leloir for Comptroller of Customs. Written submissions by importer, Mr J. H. Duston.

These publications were privately imported and seized in Christchurch in November 1980. Forfeiture has been disputed so that they have been referred to the Tribunal for classification.

In the Tribunal's view the description given by counsel for the comptroller fairly represents the contents of each publication. In his submission Mr Leloir said:

"As their titles indicate, all the magazines deal with bondage. Both the Bondage Life magazines contain black and white and colour pictures of partly clad females in various stages of bondage. The photos for the most part are restrained insofar as the theme of violence is not so pronounced and neither magazine highlights the breasts nor the genitalia. Both the magazines have some text, although on the whole lightweight in context.

The two Cheryl Rothman in Bondage magazines, Hogtie and Dominated magazines are similar to the Bondage Life magazines, although slightly more explicit in their treatment of the bondage theme. Bondage Advocates and 235 Bondage Photos, on the other hand, are very explicit in their treatment of bondage. Many of the photos emphasise the breasts and the genitalia, as well as depicting the sado masochism associated with bondage".

The importer, Mr Duston, appears to be a collector of this type of publication because he mentions that Hogtie has been published for over 10 years and he has collected copies for most of that time. His submission is that other publications of similar content appear to be available to the public and that there is therefore no reason for the classification of indecency for these particular publications. Mr Duston also suggests that the Tribunal considered restricting the publication as a special interest area in the same way as William and John Decision 649.

Attention has been drawn to Decision 933 in which similar publications were under consideration. This Tribunal repeats what was said in that decision:

"The motive for all these publications is to excite a perverse—and indeed perverted—sexual interest through fantasies of sexual violence. Although the editors and publishers write of 'bondage literature' as though it is a serious genre, it is obvious that there is a particularly vicious kind of depravity in arousing fantasies that depend on the violation of human beings reduced to the level of objects."

The Tribunal does not consider this to be an area where a special interest can be declared nor does it agree with the submission of the Comptroller that an age restriction should be put on all publications other than Bondage Advocate and 235 Bondage Photos. Publications of this nature in the hands of younger persons could easily lead to experimentation with the possibility of serious injury being inflicted. Nor can it be ignored that Bondage with its portrayal of violence may have a corrupting effect on the younger mind. In its view all these magazines have an appeal to the prurient, they portray violence and they are injurious to the public good. All, therefore, are classified as indecent.

District Court Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Exchange Rates

IN terms of section 25 (2) of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1964, the Reserve Bank today released outer limits for rates of exchange to be used in transactions involving the conversion of New Zealand currency into foreign currencies and foreign currencies into New Zealand currency when delivery of the foreign currency dealt in will be effected by telegraphic transfer. The following range of rates, for the main currencies used by New Zealand traders in settling foreign exchange transactions, will remain in force until replaced by a new Schedule issued by the Reserve Bank. These rates do not apply to transactions for settlement after the expiration of 2 business days (forward transactions) or to transactions in which instruments are purchased which do not entitle the buyer to foreign currency balances in the foreign centre until the instruments have been delivered at the foreign centre. In the latter case interest at foreign centre rates may be deducted from the telegraphic transfer rate to compensate the purchaser for his loss during the transit period.

155 p. 1980 reprint, $8.95 plus 85c p & p

Though fundamental successful beekeeping is the same the world over, the varying seasonal conditions and the variety of nectar sources in different areas mean that the beekeeper must study local conditions and adjust his methods accordingly. Three factors govern success in beekeeping—locality, management, and the right strain of bees. This excellent book covers all aspects of beekeeping in text, photographs, and illustrations.

FISHING METHODS AND DEVICES OF THE MAORI

By Elsdon Best

National Museum Bulletin No. 12

264 p.

$15.95 plus $1.50 p & p

Another in the series of the Best publications, it has been reprinted without revision so that the basic studies may be accessible in the original style.

This particular bulletin still remains the only comprehensive account of most aspects of Maori fishing. The descriptions of methods employed in fishing given here are still quite basic for any future studies in this field since no first-hand observations can now be made. The detailed fishing methods outlined are accompanied by descriptions of the artifacts used, together with associated chants, magic formulae, special observances, and fishing lore.

FOREST LORE OF THE MAORI

By Elsdon Best

DOMINION MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 14

421 p. 1977.

$17.95 plus $1.50 p & p

Printed without textual alteration, the work provides an important basis for any study of old-time Maori economics and perhaps more important of his attitude to what was a major part of his environment. It will be more of general interest today than when first written, since it stresses so fully the uses made by the Maori people of their natural resources, and supplies basic materials for further studies in ethnobotany and ethnozoology. The reverence which the old time Maori showed towards natural resources mirrors the modern concern for ecological principles.

Includes an account of musical instruments and Maori song together with games and pastimes of a relaxing nature as well as those involved in ritual and training.

GLASSHOUSE TOMATOES—Agriculture Bulletin 3370

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

86 p. 1978.

$3.25 plus 55c p & p

The present text replaces earlier editions of the bulletin. Important factors to consider when establishing a tomato-growing glasshouse, are lighting, soil type, site, water supply, shelter, and proximity to a market. These, as well as general cultural practices are dealt with in this bulletin.

This book will be of particular interest to those whose daily occupations bring them into contact with the Government financial system; notably Government officials, journalists, members of Parliament, accountants in business, and the general commercial community, as well as academics and students. The text has, however, also been written with the general reader in mind.

The Report of the Committee on Health and Social Education which was set up in 1976 to:

Department of Education.

LIVING LETTERS

STATE SERVICES COMMISSION

36 p. 1980 reprint. $1.75 plus 55c p & p

One of the aims in letter writing is to get ideas across to the reader clearly and briefly. But do letters always say what is meant? Even if they are clear to the writer, will the reader understand them easily? If you are still using the old clichés of "acknowledging receipt of", "according to our records", and "enclosed please find" it is almost certainly time to change your attitude to writing living letters.

MAORI AGRICULTURE*By Elsdon Best*

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 9

315 p. 1976. $13.50 plus $1.50 p & p

The only comprehensive study of Maori agriculture available, this bulletin adds a further volume to the series of Elsdon Best's works which the Government Printer undertook to reprint preserving the original text and bulletin numbers. I recommend this book and the series as a whole; to collectors, archaeologists, and to those studying the prehistoric economy of the Maori people. (Government Printer.)

THE MAORI CANOE*By Elsdon Best*

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 7

451 p. 1976. $17.50 plus $1.50 p & p

A reprinted edition without textual alterations and retaining the old Dominion Museum number. Another example of Elsdon Best's dedicated effort to preserve Maori culture. The material presented on canoes, their materials, types, methods of construction, and associated artifacts make interesting reading for the layman as well as for scholars of the Maori. (Government Printer.)

MOA-HUNTER PERIOD OF MAORI CULTURE

ROGER DUFF—CANTERBURY MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 1

436 p. 3rd edition, 1977. $17.50 plus $1.50 p & p

This book deals with the most important site yet investigated and in its discussions it traverses most of the New Zealand archaeological field.

A chance discovery in 1939 by a 13-year-old boy revealed the grave of a chief in the gravels of the Wairau boulder bank. The grave, goods, and bones of the ancient chief, prone in his gravel grave, with skull directed towards the setting sun, spoke with more authority regarding his race than the distorted memories of Maori tradition.

Although scholarly and technical, the book sustains throughout the drama of this archaeological discovery, and recreates from the evidence of bone and stone the life of our first Polynesians in the Moa-hunter period of Maori culture.

NATIONAL PARKS OF NEW ZEALAND

178 p. Revised third edition. 1974. $10.50 plus $1.50 p & p

The revision of this popular publication has included numerous new colour plates and additional information on some of our parks. Because of the popularity of this book it is expected this edition will be in great demand. In addition to the book being an ideal souvenir for the overseas visitor it makes an ideal gift and also a valuable asset to anyone's home library.

MAORI RELIGION AND MYTHOLOGY PART 1*By Elsdon Best*

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 10

424 p. 1976. $18 plus $1.50 p & p

An account of the theory of the universe and its creation, study of the origin of man, religious beliefs, rites, magic and folklore of the Maori people of New Zealand. First published in 1924, reprinted without textual alterations and retaining the original bulletin numbers. (Government Printer.)

MAORI*By Witi Ihimaera*

45 p. 1975. $1.20 plus 40c p & p

A colourful booklet describing the coming of the Maori to New Zealand, his history, heritage, folklore, beliefs, and cultural unity.

Each chapter has a quotation from a Maori proverb, phrase, saying, or canoe chant and these concepts are presented in words and pictures.

Continues with the arrival of the pakeha and the pattern of events which followed, the Treaty of Waitangi and the Land Wars. Moves on to the Maori today, finishing with the theme, one country, two heritages in unity.

Well illustrated with 64 coloured photos, of interest to all New Zealanders and tourists. (Tourist and Publicity Department.)
