Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the New Zealand Police for a decision in respect of the following publication:
Sexual Paradise, publisher unknown:

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman), Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 25 May 1982.

Decision: 3 August 1982.

Appearances: Inspector D. L. Bates for the Legal Section, New Zealand Police.

DECISION

THIS publication, along with three others, has been submitted to the Tribunal by the New Zealand Police, with the leave of the Minister of Justice granted pursuant to the provisions of section 14 (2) of the Indecent Publications Act 1963. In his submissions, Inspector Bates commented that this is yet another sex instruction manual with emphasis on techniques for sexual intercourse. The place of publication is not shown on the book but it claims to have been written by Miss Tuppy Owens, a zoology graduate. Although the illustrations are explicit, they are balanced by an instructive text which is mainly moderate. There may be a slight bias towards prurience but overall the manual does not differ greatly from the many manuals of a similar nature already on the market. The Tribunal agrees with the submission made by Inspector Bates that it should at least have a restricted classification. It is classified as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18.

District Judge, W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the New Zealand Police for a decision in respect of the following publication:
Spunky 1981 Calendar, published by White Cloud Publishing Co., Auckland:

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman); Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera; Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 25 May 1982.

Decision: 3 August 1982.

Appearances: Inspector D. L. Bates for the Legal Section, New Zealand Police. Written submissions from Simpson, Coates and Claphaw for publishers, White Cloud Publishing Co. Ltd.

DECISION

As a result of complaints from the National Secretary of the Society for the Promotion of Community Standards (Inc.), the New Zealand Police referred the above application to the Tribunal, pursuant to leave granted by the Minister of Justice under the provisions of section 14 (2) of the Indecent Publications Act 1963.

Before we consider the merits of this publication, a preliminary matter of jurisdiction must be settled. Our functions under section 10 of the Indecent Publications Act limit our considerations to the assessment of books and sound recordings.

A book is defined in section 2 of the Act as follows:

“‘Book’ means any book, magazine or periodical (other than a newspaper published at intervals of less than a month) whether in manuscript or final form; and includes a picture-story book, whether likely to be read by children or not.”

The physical aspect and presentation of this calendar is therefore of considerable importance in determining if it fits the definition of the word “book”.

The calendar is a glossy quality colour production with a front and back cover. When closed it is about the size of a large postcard (the actual measurements are 147 mm x 210 mm).

The calendar is designed to open up and hang vertically so the viewer sees 2 pages of the size described earlier. The upper page contains a colour photograph of a naked male model, and the lower page contains the normal data one expects to find on a calendar. The publication is similar to many display calendars designed to hang on walls, and the only matter to excite attention in this case is, of course, the presentation of the male models.

The only other matter of any significance is that at the bottom of the calendar page is a commentary concerning material relevant to persons born under the star of that month. For example, the page containing the December calendar has the following commentary:

"He likes to play it wild and free but you must be more than just a pretty face to hold this man. He demands beauty and brains. This never-stodgy affair will keep you on your toes. You're in for carefree, outrageous good times.

Compatible Signs: Aries, Gemini, Aquaries.
Key word: Learning.

Ruling Planet: Jupiter. Element: Fire.

Gemstone: Turquoise. Colour: Purple.

Famous Sagittarians: Keith Richard, Walt Disney, Frank Sinatra, Beethoven, Lee Remick, Dick Van Dyke, Chris Evert."

The written material represents a minor part of the content displayed to the viewer on each page, as the bulk of the commentaries are compressed into an area measuring 110 mm x 25 mm.

Although a page of a book has been held to be a "document" within the meaning of that word in the Indecent Publications Act (cf. Police v. Brian (1971) NZLR 119, Roper J.), there seems to have been little judicial consideration in New Zealand of the definition of the word "book". Nor were we able to derive assistance from the provisions of the Obscene Publications Act 1959 (the comparable English statute) because that Act deals with obscene "articles". That definition would include the present publication, but different considerations obviously apply in New Zealand, so far as the Tribunal's jurisdiction is concerned.

Inspector Bates, as counsel for the Police, submitted that the material which was additional to the basic calendar dates contained in the publication took it out of the "document" category and into the "book" category. He said:

"In addition to the schedules of month, day and dates, one is faced with photographs of nude males and textual content on each page. Whilst the text is rather brief, it is nevertheless informative data printed in the document as an addition to the basic calendar function. The text is not necessary to the creation of a calendar, and combined with the presence of the photographs and the calendar's astrologic theme, it is submitted that the document can no longer be considered as a simple calendar but that it necessarily moves into the 'book' category."

We accept as a general proposition that some calendars might be classified as books because of the inclusion of other material apart from the day/date data ordinarily displayed. We have in mind here one of the definitions given by the Shorter Oxford Dictionary of the meaning of the word "calendar" as:

"A table showing the months, days of the week and dates of a given year; often also giving other data connected with individual days . . . Often specialised, . . . as Racing Calendar . . ."

The issue comes down to a question of degree. Normally one would not describe a bare calendar as a "book" and in this case the only extras provided on the face of the publication are the photographs and short commentaries referred to.

We think these extra items are insufficient to give the calendar the nature sought to be ascribed to it by Inspector Bates in his submission.

Many calendars have illustrations displayed above their technical data, and as often as not there is an accompanying commentary on the scene displayed. We think it unlikely that this genre of publication could be described as a "book", without a degree of artificiality in such an interpretation.

We take further support for this view from the fact that the New Zealand Court of Appeal in recent times (cf. Police v. Carter (1978) 2 NZLR 29, 32 and Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand v. Attorney General (11 June 1982, CA. 74/82, Judgment of Cooke J.)) has stated that Courts should not try to stretch the words of Parliament beyond their natural and ordinary meaning in construing statutory provisions of this general nature.

For all the above reasons we find that we have no jurisdiction to consider the present publication because we hold that it is not a book within the meaning of that word in section 10 of the Indecent Publications Act. In these circumstances it is not necessary to consider the written submissions of the solicitors for the publisher as those submissions were only concerned with the merits of the publication and not with the jurisdiction of the Tribunal to adjudicate on the matter.

District Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publication:

Galactic Girl by Fiona Richmond, published by W. H. Allen and Co. Ltd., London:

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman); Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera; Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 1 April 1982.

Decision: 3 August 1982.

Appearances: Mr P. F. M. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs. No submissions from importer, Wholesale Book Publishers, Auckland.

DECISION

WE were informed by Mr Leloir, on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs, that a single copy of Galactic Girl was imported by Wholesale Book Publishers, Auckland and seized at Auckland in September 1981. As the importer has disputed forfeiture, the Customs Department has referred the publication to the Tribunal for classification prior to commencement of condemnation proceedings pursuant to the Customs Act 1966.

The publication is a paperback novel, 140 pages in length. It was written by Fiona Richmond in 1980 and was first published in England in that year.

Normally, it is possible to discern a plot in books that are referred to the Tribunal. In considering this publication, we have had considerable difficulty in trying to find any coherent story in the mass of explicit sexual descriptions that permeate this book.

We think that Mr Leloir accurately summed up the dominant purpose of the novel when he said:

"Galactic Girl is, as its title implies, a story with a space theme. However, it is merely a cheap vehicle for a collection of explicit sexual episodes."

The book has no honest purpose, is capable of corrupting persons likely to read the book and has none of the qualities referred to in section 11 (1) (d) of the Indecent Publications Act.

For all the above reasons, we find Galactic Girl to be indecent.

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Gillian Campbell for Waverley International Limited for a decision in respect of the following publication: Sexual Pleasures From A to Z, published by Pent R Books Inc., New York:

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman); Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera; Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 3 December 1981.

Decision: 3 August 1982.

Appearances: Written submissions for Waverley International Ltd. No submissions from Secretary for Justice.

DECISION

By decision No. 856, dated 22 April 1976, this book was considered by the then Tribunal and was classified indecent. By decision No. 926, dated 12 July 1979, Sex Encyclopedia was classified indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 16. With the consent of the Minister of Justice, Sexual Pleasures from A to Z has been referred to this Tribunal for further consideration. In decision No. 856 the Tribunal said of this book:

"It is arranged in alphabetic form with entries up to 200 words, lavishly illustrated with colour photographs."

It was said to be different in tone and treatment from other books which have previously been considered by the Tribunal and given restricted classifications. The decision then went on to say:

"It cannot make claims on grounds of literary or artistic merit, or social or scientific character, which would lead us to regard it as other than indecent."

In decision No. 926 the Tribunal said:

"In submissions to us reference was made to decisions 432-435 in March 1972. While we adhere to the general principles there set out, the Tribunal considers that there has been some change in the standards of community opinion since then."

Opportunity has been taken to compare the contents of Sexual Pleasures from A to Z with those of Sex Encyclopedia. While it must be said that the former book is of greater length than the latter and while it is true that some matters are more explicit than others, the Tribunal is of the opinion that there is not such a wide difference in the two publications to warrant a different classification. Furthermore, there can be no doubt with the fact that community standards have varied greatly since 1976. The book is classified as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18.

DZ 4229 Code of practice for concrete masonry buildings not requiring specific design. ....	28 February 1983

This code of practice for concrete masonry buildings not requiring specific design, published by the New Zealand Concrete Masonry Association, has been adopted by the Standards Association of New Zealand as a draft for public comment in terms of the Standards Act 1965.

It is intended that the code and NZS 4210P:1981 Code of practice for masonry buildings: materials and workmanship, should become means of compliance with NZS 1900 Model building bylaw Chapter 6.2 Construction requirements for masonry buildings not requiring specific design.

Copies of DZ 4229 may be obtained from the Director, N.Z. Concrete Research Association, P.O. Box 50-156, Porirua, Price $10.

Comments and contributions are invited on the detailed technical content of the document and on the wording and general arrangement.

These comments should be sent to: Standards Association of New Zealand, Private Bag, Wellington.

DZ 1900:6.2 Model building bylaw Chapter 6: Construction requirements for buildings not requiring specific design: Division 6.2 Masonry .....	11 November 1982
---	------------------

This draft is a revision of Division 6.2:1964 of the Model building bylaw. The revision is in a shortened format similar to that adopted in recent revisions of other divisions and chapters and citing means of compliance documents.

In the case of concrete masonry construction, as a means of compliance with clause 6.2.2 of this division of the bylaw, the local authority Engineer may approve the Code of practice for concrete masonry buildings not requiring specific design published by the New Zealand Concrete Masonry Association. This publication has been adopted as a draft New Zealand Standard available for public comment as DZ 4229. See details above.

Following review of comments it is intended that the document, with any appropriate changes, will be declared as a New Zealand Standard and cited in this division of the bylaw as a means of compliance.

Copies of DZ 1900:6.2 may be obtained from the Standards Association of New Zealand, Wellington Trade Centre, 15-23 Sturdee Street (or Private Bag), Wellington, Gratis.

Dated at Wellington this 16th day of August 1982.

LIVING LETTERS

STATE SERVICES COMMISSION

36 p. 1980 reprint. $1.75 plus 55c p &amp; p

One of the aims in letter writing is to get ideas across to the reader clearly and briefly. But do letters always say what is meant? Even if they are clear to the writer, will the reader understand them easily? If you are still using the old clichés of "acknowledging receipt of", "according to our records", and "enclosed please find" it is almost certainly time to change your attitude to writing living letters.

MAORI AGRICULTUREBy Elsdon Best

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 9

315 p. 1976. $13.50 plus $1.50 p &amp; p

The only comprehensive study of Maori agriculture available, this bulletin adds a further volume to the series of Elsdon Best's works which the Government Printer undertook to reprint preserving the original text and bulletin numbers. I recommend this book and the series as a whole; to collectors, archaeologists, and to those studying the prehistoric economy of the Maori people. (Government Printer.)

THE MAORI CANOEBy Elsdon Best

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 7

451 p. 1976. $17.50 plus $1.50 p &amp; p

A reprinted edition without textual alterations and retaining the old Dominion Museum number. Another example of Elsdon Best's dedicated effort to preserve Maori culture. The material presented on canoes, their materials, types, methods of construction, and associated artifacts make interesting reading for the layman as well as for scholars of the Maori. (Government Printer.)

MOA-HUNTER PERIOD OF MAORI CULTURE

436 p. 3rd edition, 1977. $17.50 plus $1.50 p &amp; p

This book deals with the most important site yet investigated and in its discussions it traverses most of the New Zealand archaeological field.

A chance discovery in 1939 by a 13-year-old boy revealed the grave of a chief in the gravels of the Wairau boulder bank. The grave, goods, and bones of the ancient chief, prone in his gravel grave, with skull directed towards the setting sun, spoke with more authority regarding his race than the distorted memories of Maori tradition.

Although scholarly and technical, the book sustains throughout the drama of this archaeological discovery, and recreates from the evidence of bone and stone the life of our first Polynesians in the Moa-hunter period of Maori culture.

NATIONAL PARKS OF NEW ZEALAND

178 p. Revised third edition, 1974. $10.50 plus $1.50 p &amp; p

The revision of this popular publication has included numerous new colour plates and additional information on some of our parks. Because of the popularity of this book it is expected this edition will be in great demand. In addition to the book being an ideal souvenir for the overseas visitor it makes an ideal gift and also a valuable asset to anyone's home library.

MAORI RELIGION AND MYTHOLOGY PART 1By Elsdon Best

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 10

424 p. 1976. $18 plus $1.50 p &amp; p

An account of the theory of the universe and its creation, study of the origin of man, religious beliefs, rites, magic and folklore of the Maori people of New Zealand. First published in 1924, reprinted without textual alterations and retaining the original bulletin numbers. (Government Printer.)

MAORIBy Witi Ihimaera

45 p. 1975. $1.20 plus 40c p &amp; p

A colourful booklet describing the coming of the Maori to New Zealand, his history, heritage, folklore, beliefs, and cultural unity.

Each chapter has a quotation from a Maori proverb, phrase, saying, or canoe chant and these concepts are presented in words and pictures.

Continues with the arrival of the pakeha and the pattern of events which followed, the Treaty of Waitangi and the Land Wars. Moves on to the Maori today, finishing with the theme, one country, two heritages in unity.

Well illustrated with 64 coloured photos, of interest to all New Zealanders and tourists. (Tourist and Publicity Department.)

THE MAORI AS HE WASBy Elsdon Best

295 p. 1974 reprint. $6.50 plus 85c p &amp; p

Fifty years of public demand since this book was first published resulted in the need for reprints in 1934 and 1952. The text has been reproduced unchanged but the originals of some of the figures could not be traced and these have been replaced with similar illustrations. There have been many advances in our knowledge of Maori life since this book first appeared. The work of numerous ethnologists, and more recently archaeologists, has critically examined many of the earlier concepts, confirming some, disproving others, and altering others to varying degrees. No one has yet produced a synthesis of the results of all this scholarship and there is still nothing as comprehensive as this book of Best's to give a general account of the Maori. This book was first published when Best was 68 and thus represents the accumulated knowledge of a lifetime. It has now become a classic introduction to Maori life. Its continued availability should help the reader to obtain a basic background to old time Maori life which can be extended by further reading.

THE PA MAORIBy Elsdon Best

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 6

459 p., illustrated. Reprinted 1975 $15 plus $1.50 p &amp; p

The bulletin contains a wealth of information and descriptions of many Pa sites and structures. Although great advances in archaeology have modified some of the details listed by Best and some of the PAs included in the book no longer exist, the information contained in this bulletin is still an important contribution in this field and is not readily available elsewhere.

THE Style Book is a guide which is addressed to all writers, editors, and public servants who prepare manuscripts for publication by the Government Printing Office. Since 1958 the Style Book has found wide acceptance, both inside and outside the Public Service which is reflected in the number of reprints made since that date. This new edition incorporates the latest amendments based on experience gained since first published. Chapters dealing with the preparation of copy, abbreviations, and compound words have been revised; new material has been added to the chapters dealing with common names of animals and plants, errors in the use of English in official writing, and terms used in printing. The introduction of metrication has required a new chapter as well as amendments throughout the book.

WEED CONTROL BY CHEMICAL METHODS

By L. J. Mathews

AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES BULLETIN 329

710 p. Hard cover, 1975. $35 plus $3.60 p & p

Possibly no subject in the whole field of agricultural technology has advanced as rapidly in recent years as that of chemical methods of weed control. This publication summarises and makes specific recommendations based on the experimental work conducted largely by the New Zealand Department of Agriculture. The book is divided into five sections:

- Section 1—Principles of weed control and the uses of chemical weed killers.
- Section 2—Supplies information on the control of many of New Zealand's worst weeds.
- Section 3—Gives recommendations for the control of weeds in crops, pastures, and other specific areas.
- Section 4—Describes the chemicals and summarises their uses.
- Section 5—Deals with application of herbicides.

THE WHARE KOHANGA AND ITS LORE

By Elsdon Best

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 13

93 p. Reprint 1975. $5.75 plus 85c p & p

In this study of Whare Kohanga (the "Nest House") is contained data of baptism rites performed over infants of superior families only, together with other cultural ceremonies applied to infants of high birth. The information obtained was contributed by members of the Ngati-Kahungunu tribe of the North Island. The text has been retained in its original style in the belief that these basic studies should still be readily available without textual alteration.

BALLROOM DANCING—A guide book for teachers and pupils

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

89 p. 1978. $3 plus 55c p. & p.

Almost all people as they move through their teens to adulthood are introduced to the undoubtedly pleasurable and universal activity, ballroom dancing.

As a new edition to the sports instruction series this book makes an effort to cover the basic steps in a variety of dances. It is intended mainly for beginners and therefore the more technical terms or finer amounts of turn and footwork are not included.

The book is well illustrated throughout with black and white photos and line drawings.

BEEKEEPING IN NEW ZEALAND

By T. S. Winter

Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries Bulletin 267

155 p. 1980 reprint. $8.95 plus 85c p & p

Though fundamental successful beekeeping is the same the world over, the varying seasonal conditions and the variety of nectar sources in different areas mean that the beekeeper must study local conditions and adjust his methods accordingly. Three factors govern success in beekeeping—locality, management, and the right strain of bees. This excellent book covers all aspects of beekeeping in text, photographs, and illustrations.

FLORA OF NEW ZEALAND VOLUME III

By A. J. Healy and E. Edgar

FISHING METHODS AND DEVICES OF THE MAORI

By Elsdon Best

National Museum Bulletin No. 12

264 p. $15.95 plus $1.50 p & p
Another in the series of the Best publications, it has been reprinted without revision so that the basic studies may be accessible in the original style.

This particular bulletin still remains the only comprehensive account of most aspects of Maori fishing. The descriptions of methods employed in fishing given here are still quite basic for any future studies in this field since no first-hand observations can now be made. The detailed fishing methods outlined are accompanied by descriptions of the artifacts used, together with associated chants, magic formulae, special observances, and fishing lore.

FOREST LORE OF THE MAORI

By Elsdon Best

DOMINION MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 14

421 p. 1977. $17.95 plus $1.50 p & p

Printed without textual alteration, the work provides an important basis for any study of old-time Maori economics and perhaps more important of his attitude to what was a major part of his environment. It will be more of general interest today than when first written, since it stresses so fully the uses made by the Maori people of their natural resources, and supplies basic materials for further studies in ethnobotany and ethnozoology. The reverence which the old time Maori showed towards natural resources mirrors the modern concern for ecological principles.

GAMES AND PASTIMES OF THE MAORI

By Elsdon Best

(National Museum Bulletin No. 8), 1976 Reprint
