Reference No. Ind 17/82

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications:

Escort Vol. 1, No. 12; Vol. 2, Nos. 1 and 2, published by Paul Raymond Publications Ltd., London.

Club Vol. II, Nos. 1, 2, 3, published by Paul Raymond Publications Ltd., London.

Men Only Vol. 46, No. 12; Vol. 47, Nos. 1 and 2, published by Paul Raymond Publications Ltd., London:

Judge: W. M. Willis (Chairman); Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera; Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 21 July 1982.

Decision: 5 October 1982.

Appearances: Mr McNeice for Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

THESE sample publications were all submitted by Gordon and Gotch (NZ) Ltd. for classification, presumably prior to placing orders for further copies. The Tribunal was informed that the company did not wish to be represented nor did it make any written submissions.

Club Magazine—There is a limited amount of text in each issue. One article is not sexually orientated but the rest of the publication comprises articles of a sexual nature and photographs of women largely in contrived and posed positions all exposing genitalia.

Men Only and Escort—These are similar in content and although some of the articles are not devoted to sexual subject they do little, as the Comptroller submits, to offset the aims of the magazine, which are predominantly concerned with the prurient and lewd aspects of sex. It should be pointed out that Men Only, Volume 40, Nos. 11 and 12, and Volume 41, No. 1, were classified as indecent by the Tribunal in decision No. 876 on 20 November 1976. All publications are predominantly concerned with lewd aspects of sex with an appeal to the prurient. They lack literary or artistic merit and have no redeeming features. The likelihood of corruption outweighs possible benefit and in the Tribunal's view they are injurious to the public good.

They are therefore classified as indecent.

W. M. WILLIS, District Judge, Chairman.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications:

PFI Quarterly Issue 12 folio No. 3.

Pin Pals PFI Roster No. 12, published by Gauntlet Enterprises of Los Angeles:

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman), Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 25 May 1982.

Decision: 5 October 1982.

Appearances: Mr McNiece for Comptroller of Customs. No submissions by importer, Mr J. C. McMullen.

DECISION

THESE are single copies from a private importation seized at Auckland. As the importer has disputed forfeiture, classification is sought by the Comptroller. The first 2 publications have some text in addition to the mainly genital photographs depicting body jewellery. The last publication contains mainly advertisements soliciting contacts from sexually deviant persons interested in body piercing. These magazines and mail order catalogues consist of advertisements for genitalia jewellery and information on body piercing for both men and women. They have no artistic merit and are certainly injurious to the public good. Some of the illustrations might well induce some form of experiment, with resultant physical or even fatal injury.

The Tribunal classifies them all as indecent.

W. M. WILLIS, District Judge, Chairman.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publication:

Hustler, Volume 8, No. 9, March 1982, published by Hustler Magazine Inc., California:

Judge: W. M. Willis (Chairman); Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera; Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 25 May 1982.

Decision: 5 October 1982.

Appearances: Written submissions from Mr McNiece for Comptroller of Customs. Written submissions from Importer, Mr Ron Hall.

DECISION

THIS single copy was privately imported and seized at Hamilton in February 1982. Forfeiture has been disputed by the importer so that the magazine is referred to the Tribunal for classification. The Tribunal has had to consider the April issue of the same magazine.

The March issue does not greatly differ from its April counterpart. There is very little text of a serious nature, the bulk being sexually orientated. The photographs are in the main nude females in contrived positions exposing genitalia. It was the submission for the Comptroller that the predominant characteristic of the magazine was the crude appeal to prurience with little in the way of redeeming features.

In lengthy submissions Mr Hall said that the magazine had been sent to him by a friend in the United States. He had looked at the dictionary for the meaning of indecency, but it should be pointed out to him that this word is specially defined by the Act as including—

“Describing, depicting, expressing or otherwise dealing with matters of sex, horror, crime, cruelty or violence in a manner that is injurious to the public good.”

He likened Hustler to Playboy and Penthouse but it must be pointed out that a very large portion of those publications are unobjectionable by any standard, whereas there is very little of a similar content in Hustler. Mr Hall commented on the freedom he experienced in the United States to view and purchase such material and said that he was not an importer. It must be pointed out that it is this Tribunal's function to determine whether or not a particular publication is indecent in accordance with the provisions of the Indecent Publications Act. It cannot be denied that Mr Hall did not import this publication but for the purposes of an exercise under the Act he must be deemed to be the importer. As indicated, the April issue of Hustler has received consideration in Decision No. 1032 and for the reasons given in that decision the March issue is likewise held to be indecent.

O. J. TOPLIS, President.

D. F. STEPHENS, General Manager.

27 April 1982.

We have audited the books and accounts of the Auckland Savings Bank for the year ended 31 March 1982 in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and have carried out such procedures as we considered necessary. In our opinion, the Balance Sheet, Profit and Loss Account and Appropriation Account, together with the notes thereon, are properly drawn up so as to give under the historical cost convention, a true and fair view of the financial position of the Auckland Savings Bank as at 31 March 1982 and the financial result of its transactions for the year ended on that date, in accordance with section 29 (2) of the Trustee Savings Bank Act 1948.

STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The general accounting principles recommended by the New Zealand Society of Accountants for the measurement and reporting of profits on an historical basis have been followed. Particular accounting policies used which significantly affect the measurement of the Bank's profit and its financial position, are set out below:

1. Recognition of Income—Interest on investments is recognised as income for the period in which it is earned, rather than the period in which it is received. Interest charged on personal loans is apportioned over the term of the loan, using the "Rule of 78" method.

2. Expenditure—

(a) Depreciation—Fixed assets are being depreciated on a straight line basis at rates which will write off the cost over their estimated useful lives to estimated residual values.

The principal write-off periods are:

Buildings .. .. .	40–100 years
Computer and Office Calculating Equipment .. .. .	5–10 years
Furniture and Fittings .. .. .	10–15 years
Other Fixed Assets .. .. .	3–15 years

(b) Taxation—Taxation charged against net profit is the estimated expense relating to the result of the year. It includes an amount for taxation, the payment of which is deferred to future periods, because taxation practice differs from accounting policies in the treatment of:

- (i) Interest accrued on investments.
- (ii) Depreciation charges.
- (iii) Interest accrued included in the purchase price of N.Z. Government Securities.

3. Valuation of Assets—N.Z. Government and Local Authority Securities are stated at cost, excluding interest accrued at date of purchase. Such securities are normally held to maturity, and their value on redemption approximates cost.

NOTES:

Supplemented Mortgages—During the year supplemented mortgages were advanced in conjunction with the Housing Corporation of New Zealand. The amount invested is included in Investment Mortgages, and the amount contributed by the Housing Corporation of New Zealand is recorded as a liability.

Land and Buildings—

- (a) The cost of land includes $1,298,692 in respect of the Bank's share of a property under development. This property is recorded at the purchase and development costs to date, including capitalised interest.
- (b) The Bank's Land and Buildings is stated at cost price less depreciation of $12,722,754. The latest Government valuation received in respect of properties totalled $20,420,600.

The present text replaces earlier editions of the bulletin. Important factors to consider when establishing a tomato-growing glasshouse, are lighting, soil type, site, water supply, shelter, and proximity to a market. These as well as general cultural practices are dealt with in this bulletin.

GOVERNMENT ACCOUNTING IN NEW ZEALAND

By David A. Preston

108 p. 1980. $9.75 plus 85c p & p

This book will be of particular interest to those whose daily occupations bring them into contact with the Government financial system; notably Government officials, journalists, members of Parliament, accountants in business, and the general commercial community, as well as academics and students. The text has, however, also been written with the general reader in mind.

GROWING, SHARING, LEARNING

J. G. JOHNSON, Chairman

120 p. 1977. $3.95 plus 55c p & p

The Report of the Committee on Health and Social Education which was set up in 1976 to:

- Identify the conditions under which healthy growth and development may be fostered in schools.
- To make recommendations on the studies and activities that should constitute school programmes, organisation, and relationships.

LIVING LETTERS

STATE SERVICES COMMISSION

36 p. 1980 reprint. $1.75 plus 55c p & p

One of the aims in letter writing is to get ideas across to the reader clearly and briefly. But do letters always say what is meant? Even if they are clear to the writer, will the reader understand them easily? If you are still using the old clichés of "acknowledging receipt of", "according to our records", and "enclosed please find" it is almost certainly time to change your attitude to writing living letters.

MAORI AGRICULTURE

By Elsdon Best

NATIONAL MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 9

315 p. 1976. $13.50 plus $1.50 p & p

The only comprehensive study of Maori agriculture available, this bulletin adds a further volume to the series of Elsdon Best's works which the Government Printer undertook to reprint preserving the original text and bulletin numbers. I recommend this book and the series as a whole; to collectors, archaeologists, and to those studying the prehistoric economy of the Maori people. (Government Printer.)
