BLUE WATER RATIONALE

The Naval Defence of New Zealand 1914-1942 by I. C. McGibbon.

446 p. 1981. Illustrated. $45 plus $3.60 p & p

For twenty years the strategic basis of New Zealand's defence policy was "the main fleet to Singapore" strategy—the theory of a properly defended Singapore Naval Base to which adequate British Naval forces would be despatched to defend the Empire East of Suez. In the event Singapore fell to the attacking Japanese forces on 15 February 1942. This book, then, is essentially a study of why New Zealand placed reliance on an unsatisfactory strategy, which was always admitted to be second best to that in which a battle fleet was permanently based in the Pacific.

LIVING LETTERS

STATE SERVICES COMMISSION

36 p. 1980 (reprint). $1.75 plus 55c p &amp; p

One of the aims in letter writing is to get ideas across to the reader clearly and briefly. But do letters always say what is meant? Even if they are clear to the writer, will the reader understand them easily? If you are still using the old clichés of "acknowledging receipt of", "according to our records", and "enclosed please find" it is almost certainly time to change your attitude to writing Living Letters.

This bulletin is No. 5 in the Dominion Museum Series.

MOA-HUNTER PERIOD OF MAORI CULTURE

Roger Duff—Canterbury Museum Bulletin No. 1

436 p. 3rd edition, 1977. $17.50 plus $1.50 p &amp; p

This book deals with the most important site yet investigated and in its discussions it traverses most of the New Zealand archaeological field.

A chance discovery in 1939 by a 13-year-old boy revealed the grave of a chief in the gravels of the Wairau boulder bank. The gravel, goods, and bones of the ancient chief, prone in his gravel grave, with skull directed towards the setting sun, spoke with more authority regarding his race than the distorted memories of Maori tradition.

Although scholarly and technical, the book sustains throughout the drama of this archaeological discovery, and recreates from the evidence of bone and stone the life of our first Polynesians in the Moa-hunter period of Maori culture.
