Decision No. 1048

Reference No. Ind. 15/82

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications: High Times, August 1979, No. 48 and September 1979, No. 49, published by Trans-High Corporation, New York.

Judge W. M. Willis, (Chairman); Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera; Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 15 September 1982.

Decision: 9 December 1982.

Appearances: Mr J. M. McNeice for Comptroller of Customs. Mr J. Winstanley in person.

DECISION

THIS publication was imported on 6 February 1982 by the importer as part of personal effects brought back from a trip to Australia. The publications were seized by Customs and as the importer has disputed forfeiture the department referred the publications to the Tribunal for classification prior to the commencement of condemnation proceedings pursuant to the Customs Act 1966.

Each publication is approximately 210 × 275 mm; the August 1979 edition is 114 pages in length; the September edition is approximately 150 pages in length. Both magazines contain mainly illicit drug related advertisements and most of the articles in the magazines are drug oriented.

The importer appeared before the Tribunal in person. He told us that the 2 magazines were purchased in an open bookstore in Sydney by his 16-year-old son. Mr Winstanley stated that he or his family had no sinister intent in importing the material, and after having seen and heard him, we fully accept that as the position.

At the time of the importation Mr Winstanley was not aware of any previous restriction that had been imposed on the publication; although he had been subsequently informed of the situation by the Customs Department. We accept that he intended the publications to be used for discussion in the home environment, and perhaps in his son's discussion group at school. The importer felt, as no doubt many parents do, that difficult issues should be aired rather than swept under the carpet.

The restriction order referred to earlier arose out of the Tribunal's classification of previous issues of this magazine in decision 922 (12 April 1979). The Tribunal classified High Times as indecent and imposed a serial restriction order under section 15A of the Act for a period of 2 years. That restriction order expired before the importation of these magazines, and so a fresh classification is required.

In decision 922 the rationale behind the Tribunal's classification of the publications as indecent was:

"The dominant effect of the magazines is the approval and encouragement of the use of all kinds of drugs with passing reference to methods and equipment to avoid detection. While not all that is contained in these magazines could be said to be indecent under the Act, the effect as a whole in each and every case is to describe, depict or otherwise deal with matters of crimes in New Zealand in a manner which the Tribunal considers is injurious to the public good."

It appears to us that the present issues have not changed significantly in outlook or content, and for the reasons described in our earlier decision and others since then (e.g., see Decision No. 951, 30 May 1980) we declare these present issues to be indecent.

W. M. WILLIS, District Court Judge, Chairman.

Decision No: 1049

Reference No: Ind. 4/82

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for decisions in respect of the following publication: Little Birds Erotica, by Anais Nin. Published by W. H. Allen & Co. Ltd., London, 1980:

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Members: Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera; Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 1 April 1982.

Decision: 9 December 1982.

Appearances: Mr P. E. P. M. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs. No submissions by importer Wholesale Book Distributors.

DECISION

A single copy of the above paperback was imported by a commercial firm and seized at Auckland in September 1981. As the importer has disputed forfeiture the Customs Department has referred the publication to the Tribunal for classification, prior to the commencement of condemnation proceedings, pursuant to the Customs Act 1966, with the recommendation that the book should be declared to be indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 16 years.

Little Birds Erotica is a paperback, 159 pages in length, published in 1980.

Anais Nin, who is now deceased, having died in 1974, was a noted writer of both serious fiction and non-fiction. In the early 1940's she began writing erotica on a commercial basis, for the sum of "a dollar a page", a literary venture which is described in her earlier book, Delta of Venus: Erotica. This publication was considered by the Tribunal to be indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 16 years (Decision No.'s 920 (handbook) and 924 (paperback), 12 April 1979).

The short stories included in Little Birds Erotica all centre on a sexual theme, sometimes explicit in detail, and designed to titillate the reader, although well written and of a high literary appeal.

In his submission, Mr Leloir states that according to the information supplied in the preface to Little Birds Erotica the stories were written at about the same time as Nin's earlier book, Delta of Venus. In giving its decision the Tribunal commented that Delta of Venus contained frankness in the description of sexual encounters, but the stories were "easily distinguished from run-of-the-mill pornography by their literary character".

It appears that the publication under consideration is similar in content and style to the earlier book, and warrants a restriction rather than an indecent classification. The publication Little Birds Erotica is therefore classified as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 16 years.

W. M. WILLIS, District Court Judge, Chairman.

The Standards Act 1965—Draft New Zealand Amendment Available for Comment

PURSUANT to subsection (3) of section 23 of the Standards Act 1965, notice is hereby given that the following draft amendment is being circulated.

Number and Title of Specification

DZ 7702/A Draft Amendment A to BS 381C: 1980 Specification for colours for identification, coding and special purposes.

This draft amendment will place on record the declaration of BS 381C:1980 as a New Zealand Standard with New Zealand amendment.

BS 381C:1964 was declared as a New Zealand Standard, NZS 1050 with amendment, in 1969. The BS was superseded by the publication of BS 381C:1980 Colours for identification, coding and special purposes. Accordingly NZS 1050 was withdrawn, and BS 381C:1980 endorsed last year.

Since then, a request has been made for declaration of BS 381C:1980 as a New Zealand Standard, as a prerequisite to citation by legislation. The intention is to cite compliance with a range of green between 221 and 267. Traffic green, No. 267, has been listed in Table 2, obsolescent colours which are intended for deletion from the next edition of BS 381C unless request is made for retention. BS1 has been asked to reinstate this colour in the next edition. In the meantime, as there is no colour patch in BS 381C for No. 267, the draft Amendment A includes this patch, for reference until it is reinstated in the Standard.

A limited number of copies of BS 381C:1980 are available for sale at $40. However it is expected that for the purpose of comment upon the proposed declaration, Amendment A should suffice.

All persons who may be affected by this publication and who desire to comment thereon may obtain copies from the Standards Association of New Zealand, Wellington Trade Centre, 15-23 Sturdee Street (or Private Bag), Wellington.

The closing date for receipt of comment is 15 January 1983.

Dated at Wellington this 13th day of December 1982.

Director, Standards Association of New Zealand.

For twenty years the strategic basis of New Zealand's defence policy was "the main fleet to Singapore" strategy—the theory of a properly defended Singapore Naval Base to which adequate British Naval forces would be despatched to defend the Empire East of Suez. In the event Singapore fell to the attacking Japanese forces on 15 February 1942. This book, then, is essentially a study of why New Zealand placed reliance on an unsatisfactory strategy, which was always admitted to be second best to that in which a battle fleet was permanently based in the Pacific.
