To the Social Security Commission:

PURSUANT to section 5 (2) of the Social Security Act 1964 (as added by section 3 (1) of the Social Security Amendment Act (No. 2) 1977), I, Venn Spearman Young, the Minister of Social Welfare, hereby direct that, on and after the 1st day of January 1983, the Commission shall exercise its powers under section 60 (4) of the Social Security Act 1964 (as enacted by section 8 (1) of the Social Security Amendment Act 1982) in accordance with the following provisions:

1. If an applicant's gross average weekly earnings (including any benefit, other than family benefit, paid under Part I of the Social Security Act 1964) for the period of 12 months preceding the date of receipt of his application were equal to or less than the latest average ordinary time weekly wage plus $100, those earnings shall be regarded as being insufficient to enable him to maintain himself and his family (if any) during a period of temporary unemployment, and accordingly the date of commencement of the unemployment benefit shall not be postponed under the said section 60 (4).

2. If any applicant's gross average weekly earnings (including any benefit, other than family benefit, paid under Part I of the Social Security Act 1964) for the period of 12 months preceding the date of receipt of his application is in any of the categories set out in the first column below, the date of commencement of the unemployment benefit shall be postponed under the said section 60 (4) for the period set out in the second column below opposite his income category.

Average Gross Weekly Earnings	Period of Postponement
More than the latest average ordinary time weekly wage plus $100 and equal to or less than the said weekly wage plus $150	1 week
More than the latest average ordinary time weekly wage plus $150 and equal to or less than the said weekly wage plus $200	2 weeks
More than the latest average ordinary time weekly wage plus $200 and equal to or less than the said weekly wage plus $250	3 weeks
More than the latest average ordinary time weekly wage plus $250	4 weeks

3. If any applicant maintains that compliance by the Commission with clause 2 hereof would result in undue financial hardship, the Commission shall consider whether or not the applicant should be granted an emergency benefit under section 61 of the Social Security Act 1964 or a special benefit under section 61G of that Act.

4. For the purposes of clauses 1 and 2 hereof, the latest average ordinary time weekly wage shall be that disclosed by the latest quarterly employment survey of salaries and wages conducted by the Department of Labour in the month of November or May, as the case may be, immediately preceding the date of receipt of the applicant's salary or wages (including holiday pay) ceased, whichever is the later date.

Dated at Wellington this 15th day of December 1982.

Direction to Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand in Connection with the Development in New Zealand of a Frequency Modulation (FM) Broadcasting Service

To the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand

WHEREAS the Minister of Broadcasting (by a notice which was dated the 27th day of October 1981* and which was given pursuant to section 68 (1) of the Broadcasting Act 1976) gave the Broadcasting Tribunal notice, inter alia, that it is part of the general policy of the New Zealand Government in relation to broadcasting—

- (a) That a frequency modulation (FM) broadcasting service be developed as an integral part of sound-radio broadcasting in New Zealand; and
- (b) That frequency modulation (FM) broadcasting be introduced in New Zealand without delay; and
- (c) That the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand should, by the use of frequency modulation (FM) broadcasting, extend its Concert Programme to provincial areas in which radio reception of that programme is not at present satisfactory; and
- (d) That the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand should, as its resources permit, progressively convert the YC stations (which are the stations from which its Concert Programme is transmitted) to frequency modulation (FM) broadcasting;

And whereas I have been advised by you that worthwhile progress by you in the development of the YC stations on the basis of frequency modulation (FM) broadcasting can only be assured if some of the costs are offset by commercial YC revenue gained by a combination of sponsorship and a limited level of advertising:

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to that advice and section 20 (1) of the Broadcasting Act 1976 (as enacted by section 4 of the Broadcasting Amendment Act 1982), I, Ian John Shearer, the Minister of Broadcasting,—

(1) Give you notice that it is part of the general policy of the New Zealand Government in relation to broadcasting that the development and operation of the YC stations on the basis of frequency modulation (FM) broadcasting be financed, in part, by the introduction of advertising on the YC stations; and

(2) In pursuance of the general policy set out in my said notice dated the 27th day of October 1981 to the Broadcasting Tribunal (paragraphs (a) to (d) of which notice are set out in the Preamble to this notice) and in pursuance of the general policy set out in clause (1) of this notice, direct that you, the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand, shall—

- (a) Apply to the Broadcasting Tribunal for warrants for FM stations for the purpose of enabling the coverage of the YC stations to be extended beyond the four main centres and of enabling the progressive conversion of the existing YC stations to FM; and
- (b) Without delay make an application to the Broadcasting Tribunal for the amendment of the terms and conditions of the sound-radio warrants that you hold in respect of the YC stations so that—
 - (i) Advertising content, of not more than 6 minutes per hour, may be permitted on each of the YC stations; and
 - (ii) A progressive extension of the hours of transmission over the YC stations may take place with a view to those hours being, at the end of that progression, from 6 a.m. to midnight; and
 - (iii) Simulcasting (to ensure continuity of service on the existing YC-AM network) may be permitted until the final establishment of the YC-FM network is completed.

Dated this 23rd day of December 1982.

I. J. SHEARER, Minister of Broadcasting.
