Decision No. 1055.

Reference No. Ind. 4/83.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publication: "Hustler Vol. 9, Nos. 3 & 4", published by Hustler Magazine Inc., U.S.A.

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman); Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera; Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 17 March 1983.

Decision: 25 March 1983.

Appearances: Mr C. F. Hillman for Comptroller of Customs. No appearance of Importer, Mr Mark Bird.

DECISION

THESE single copies were privately imported through parcel post in November 1982. They were seized by Customs and the importer has disputed forfeiture. They come before the Tribunal for classification. This is the third time within the last 12 months that this magazine has been referred for classification. Volume 8, Nos. 9 and 10 have already been ruled unconditionally indecent in Decisions 1032 and 1036. The publications now before us are in no way different from their predecessors so that they are likewise classified indecent.

The Comptroller suggested that a restriction order could be made pursuant to section 15A. The Tribunal determines that no less than three issues of Hustler, being a serial publication which has been published within the period of 12 months, are indecent and accordingly it makes an order under section 15A that issues of Hustler are to be classified as indecent. This order will be made for a period of two years from the date of notification in the New Zealand Gazette.

District Court Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Decision No. 1056.

Reference No. Ind. 35/82.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publication: "Drummer Vol. 6, Nos. 54-56", published by Alternate Publishing Co., U.S.A.

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman); Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera; Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 16 March 1983.

Decision: 25 March 1983.

Appearances: Mr C. F. Hillman for Comptroller of Customs. No appearance of Importer, Lawrence Publishing Co. (N.Z.) Limited.

DECISION

VOLUME 6, Nos. 55 and 56 were imported through parcel post in July and September respectively and formally seized. Forfeiture has been disputed by the importer so that reference has been made to the Tribunal for classification. Volume 6, No. 54, although not disputed, is also being submitted for classification. As three issues of the publication have been referred the Comptroller seeks also to make a restriction order under section 15A. The Comptroller has submitted that these magazines are aimed at the male homosexual market. They consist of photographs of males, in many cases naked with genitalia exposed. The textual content and advertisements are almost entirely homosexually orientated. Reference was made to decision No. 1021 when Blue Boy, Volume 46, August 1980, was held to be indecent. What was said in decision 1021 is equally appropriate to these publications because there can be no doubt that they are similar in content. They are classified indecent accordingly.

The Comptroller suggested that a restriction order could be made pursuant to section 15A. The Tribunal determines that no less than three issues of Drummer, being a serial publication which has been published within the period of 12 months, are indecent and accordingly it makes an order under section 15A that issues of Drummer are to be classified as indecent. This order will be for a period of two years from the date of notification in the New Zealand Gazette.

District Court Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Decision No. 1057.

Reference No. Ind. 23/82.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Secretary for Justice for a decision in respect of the following publication: "Baleful Beasts and Eerie Creatures", published by Rand McNally & Co., U.S.A.

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman); Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera; Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 16 December 1982.

Decision: 25 March 1983.

Appearances: Barclay for Secretary for Justice.

DECISION

THIS publication was forwarded to the Secretary for Justice by a parent concerned as to its contents and is submitted by him for classification. It contains a collection of nine stories, not particularly well written, in which, as the title suggests, the main theme is of fear.

The Secretary for Justice draws our attention to the introduction where it is stated that the books is "Shivering and strange, and perhaps not to be taken just before bedtime". But Andre Nolan goes on to suggest that the stories be read by daylight and enjoyed.

It is not within the bounds of the Tribunal to recommend or give warning that a book is unsuitable for children. As the Secretary for Justice submitted "the book is likely to be bought by parents for their children so that an age restriction may be of no use". The title of the book, the short introduction, the illustrations, and the synopsis on the back cover give a more than adequate description of its contents. The Tribunal is of the opinion that the age of the child and its ability to cope with the fear and horror should be taken into account at this point.

Fantasy and science fiction can be appreciated by children of any age if the subject is handled well by the writer. We would agree that the subject is not particularly well handled by the authors of this collection and that the stories have little literary merit. However, the Tribunal feels that these points plus the capability of the child to accept and enjoy the stories must be taken into account before purchase. Some children would have great difficulty in coping with the fear in stories like Hensel and Gretel, and Little Red Riding Hood. To help the Tribunal with its decision some children were given this book and asked for their opinion regarding it. In the main, the children enjoyed the book; only one or two indicated that they would not read it at night.

Although the book is one which may frighten some children, the Tribunal feels that there are ample warnings contained in it to deter these children. The Tribunal finds the book not indecent.

District Court Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Decision No. 1058.

Reference No. Ind. 10/83.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications: Satin Salves, Suburban Wives, Humiliated Jock, Blind Date, Momma's Boy Girl, Momma's Girls, TV in Training, TV Training, Shamed She-Male, published by Star Distributors Ltd., U.S.A.

Judge W. M. Willis (Chairman); Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera; Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 16 March 1983.

Decision: 25 March 1983.

Appearances: Mr C. F. Hillman for Comptroller of Customs Importer, Mr B. D. Senior-Partridge.

DECISION

THESE publications are single copies imported privately through Wellington parcels post in November 1982. Forfeiture has been disputed, hence the reference to the Tribunal for classification. These are paper-back novels dealing predominantly with transvestitism and female domination. They contain explicit descriptions of sexual activities, some incestuous, some lesbian and some male homosexual. Mr Senior-Partridge, the importer, said that these were important for the Hedestria Club which is apparently a transvestite club whose members are mainly male although there are some females. Its membership is restricted to those 18 years of age over. It is a New Zealand wide organisation and maintains a library from which members can obtain these books amongst others. Mr Senior-Partridge is the Treasurer of the Club whose Headquarters are in Christchurch. The Tribunal is in no doubt that these books, containing as they do, explicit descriptions of sexual activities of various kinds have an appeal for the prurient. They have no literary or artistic merit and more likely to corrupt than otherwise. In the Tribunal's view they are injurious to the public good and they are therefore classified as indecent.

District Court Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.
