Hearing: 16 March 1983.

Decision: 7 June 1983.

Appearances: Mr Leloir for Comptroller of Customs. No appearance of importer.

DECISION

THESE publications were referred to the Tribunal for classification following a prosecution against the importer in the District Court at Tauranga. Generally speaking, the publications are of a homosexual nature, although there are some, to which reference will be made, which do not have that characteristic. Mr Leloir who appeared for the Comptroller broke the various publications into seven categories. It is convenient to reproduce Mr Leloir's submissions.

1. The first group comprises hard core male homosexual pornography and it comprises the following publications:

Gay Boys, Nos. 4 and 5,

Javelin, No. 1,

Love Boys, 8,

Ramrod, Nos. 1, 3 and 4,

Homo Action, Nos. 14, 15 and 16,

Teen Angels,

Anal Sex, No. 7,

Gay, Nos. 58, 70 and 71.

It was Mr Leloir's submission that they contain black and white or colour photos with little or no text. They fell into the category of hard core male homosexual pornography and were grossly injurious to the public good and therefore indecent. All these publications have been perused by the Tribunal which accepts the submissions made by Mr Leloir.

2. The next group comprises simulated homosexual relations between males and it includes the following volumes:

Coltman, No. 3,

Weekend Lockup,

Rough Riders,

Sling, No. 1,

Pinning a Stud,

Three in the Bar,

The Falcon File, No. 6,

Olympus, Vol. No. 3,

Rocky Love Story,

Illustrated Sports, Nos. 4 and 5.

In respect of these publications, Mr Leloir said that they contain black and white or colour photos and limited text depicting simulated homosexual relations between males. He submitted they were grossly injurious to the public good and therefore indecent. Once again, these books have been perused by the Tribunal which agrees with the submissions of Mr Leloir.

3. Sadomasochism and Bondage. In this group are the following publications:

Mister S. and M., No. 24,

Leather Bound, No. 3,

Bound to Serve, 4 and 6,

Leather Bondage Techniques, Vol. 2.

Once more there is a collection of black and white and colour photos with little or no text depicting homosexual males in bondage and homosexual males involved in acts of sadomasochism, sometimes with extreme violence. It was Mr Leloir's submission that these were grossly injurious to the public good and therefore indecent. Once more, the Tribunal, having perused these publications, agrees with these submissions.

4. Photos of Nude Males. These publications are:

Honcho, Vol. 1, No. 1,

Blue Boys, Vol. 19, 39, 42 and 43,

Blue Boy Introduces Paolo and Eduardo,

Mandate, Vol. 4, No. 40.

Bingo, No. 1,

Dune.

Again there is a series of publications with black and white and colour photos of entirely naked or near-naked males. There is little or no text and whilst they contain no explicit homosexual scenes there is a general emphasis on the display of genitalia. There is a lack of any redeeming feature and these also were suggested as being injurious to the public good and therefore indecent. The Tribunal agrees.

5. Homosexual magazines. These comprise:

Drummer, Nos. 25, 35, 36, 37 and 38,
Cruiser, Vol. 1, No. 16,
Action Male, Vol. No. 3,
Numbers, Vol. 27 and 44,
In Touch for Men, Nos. 39, 42, 43, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 57, 58,
 59, 60, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68 and 71.

It should be pointed out that in Decision No. 1056, the Tribunal has had occasion to look at Drummer, Vol. 6, Nos. 54-56. Not only was the magazine held to be indecent but a restriction order was made for a period of 2 years. These magazines were, Mr Leloir suggested, clearly aimed at the homosexual market. Generally they consisted of photos of males, in many cases naked, with emphasis on genitalia. There was homosexually-orientated text and advertisements. There was a general lack of any material to redeem the overwhelming promotion of homosexuality. Once more, Mr Leloir suggested that they should be considered as injurious to the public good and indecent.

6. Homosexual books:

Men Loving Men,
The Joy of Gay Sex,
Lovers: The Story of Two Men.

After saying that the books were clearly aimed at the homosexual market Mr Leloir said: "The last of the books referred to above is set out in an interview format and relates the experiences of various male homosexuals, their relationship with other males, and their general life style. On the whole the presentation is restrained. The first 2 books referred to above are male homosexual sex manuals, akin to the style of heterosexual sex manuals, such as The Joy of Sex. They cover all aspects of homosexual relations from physical lovemaking to the emotional considerations of such relationships. Both books are presented in a serious restrained manner.

It is submitted, however, that these 3 books, though presented in a more serious and restrained manner than the other books considered in this submission, nevertheless promote and encourage homosexual activity, which is of course a criminal offence in New Zealand, thereby liable to corrupt persons who might read them. For these reasons, it is submitted that these 3 books should be considered to be injurious to the public good and classified as indecent." The Tribunal agrees.

7. Homosexual Book and Film Advertising Catalogues. There was a total of 54 catalogues with advertisements for homosexual books and films, some in graphic and pornographic detail. The Tribunal has no hesitation in declaring these as injurious to the public good and therefore indecent.

8. Homosexual Cartoons. This publication is Yet Another Blue Comic Book. It consists of mainly homosexual cartoon sketches involving such well-known cartoon characters as Popeye, Andy Capp, Charlie Brown and Bugs Bunny. It was a publication which a child might quite easily pick up and whilst there can be no doubt that it is injurious to the public good and indecent, the fact that children might be attracted to it because of the cartoons, it becomes even more offensive.

9. Non-homosexual publications. The first of these was called Male Erotic Zones called by Mr Leloir "a heterosexually orientated sex manual". The publication contains an emphasis on the male world in sexual relations. It was categorised by Mr Leloir as cheaply produced and fairly light weight. In the Tribunal's view, there are many better produced publications which would serve the same purpose as this particular publication. The Tribunal is not prepared to accept the recommendation of Mr Leloir and classifies it as indecent.

The second is Sex Time Cartoons which, as Mr Leloir mentioned, is a "collection of dirty jokes and cartoons". Once again he suggested a classification of indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18. These cartoons are coarse and crude, would have an appeal to the lewd and prurient. They lack subtlety and, in the Tribunal's view the publication must be classified indecent.

Mr Leloir drew the Tribunal's attention to a number of decisions where books of a homosexual nature have been considered by the Tribunal and which have been classified as indecent because homosexuality is still a crime in New Zealand. He also pointed out that some of the decisions related to publications of sadomasochism and bondage, cartoons and jokes, and catalogues. In Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd. v Comptroller of Customs 1980 1NZLR 631, Jeffries J. said at page 646:

"I think that every item which comes before the Tribunal for decision must be measured against the definition of indecency, and the considerations contained in s. 11 of the Act which are not exhaustive. However, I think that a book or sound recording is likely to be indecent and injurious to the public good if:

1. It is predominantly concerned with the prurient and lewd aspects of sex; and

2. The exact subject-matter is described, depicted or expressed in a patently offensive manner so as to concentrate attention and reaction on the prurient and lewd aspects of sex; and
3. The work looked at in its entirety had negligible literary or artistic merit, and is otherwise not redeemed by its medical, legal, political, social or scientific character or importance.
4. The likelihood of corruption far outweighs possible benefit.
5. The sincerity of purpose which produced the item is gravely in question."

In the Tribunal's view these publications qualify under each of these headings. They are all classified as indecent.

The importer's name has not been included because it has been suppressed by the District Court.

W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.
