ORAL DECISION

The 24th day of August 1983

THE warrant fell due for renewal on 30 June 1983. The application for renewal was filed within the stipulated time. Public notice was given and the station was required to advertise the application for renewal 10 times over a period of 1 week in June. There have been no objections to the renewal.

Evidence was given by Mr Edwin, managing director, that the station has complied with the conditions imposed by the Tribunal as to its programmes since the last renewal 3 years ago. He also indicated that there are no plans to change its basic format or content of its programmes.

The warrant holder is entitled to have the warrant renewed. In the absence of any breach of any condition of the warrant there is no ground for renewing the warrant for less than the maximum period of 5 years.

SECOND INTERIM DECISION

IN the Tribunal's first interim decision on 18 March 1983 (Decision 7/83) the Tribunal indicated that as the wording and definition of limited sponsorship had not been canvassed with the parties the Tribunal has made an interim decision. It would be open to any party to make submissions on the wording (but not the substance) of the amendment.

The Tribunal invited comments and when it had received them, circulated those comments to the parties for further comment.

Radio Pacific Ltd. considered the definition should stand. Hauraki Enterprises Ltd. has no submission to make. The Independent Broadcasters Association did not have any comment. Stereo FM Ltd. did not wish to make any submissions.

Radio I Ltd. submitted that sponsorship should not permit broadcasts including material related to the goods and services of the sponsor as it created the opportunity for announcements very similar in form to some types of commercial advertising.

The Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand considered Radio I's submission wished to alter the substance rather than the form of the Tribunal's ruling. On balance the Tribunal decided it did not. We considered there was merit in the submission from Radio I.

The Tribunal has decided however that it will not make the requested amendment at this time, but will see whether the Broadcasting Corporation's treatment of the right to mention products and services was used as an opportunity to broadcast commercial type advertising. We could possibly consider this aspect again at a later date. Therefore this decision will also be an interim one.

Decision No. 14/83
Bro. 19/83, 20/83

The Broadcasting Corporation made 4 submissions.

The first was that with 7 digit telephone numbers, the name and address could exceed 10 words. It proposed that the address or telephone number should be defined as counting as no more than 3 words, regardless of length.

As we would expect that each sponsorship announcement would include the name of the sponsor there is considerable merit in the Corporation's argument. The address and telephone number of the sponsor will therefore be defined as counting as not more than 3 words, regardless of length.

The second submission was that it was unreasonable to restrict in paragraph 3 (a) sound effects or music. On balance the Tribunal has rejected the submission. The Tribunal considers the restriction is legally valid and that it is important that sponsorship announcements should not appear to be conventional commercial advertising.

The third submission from the Corporation was that paragraph 3 (d) which reads:

"(d) Any attempt to persuade or induce the listener to purchase particular goods or services or to attend at the place of business of the sponsor" was restrictive. It would prevent a sponsor announcing that free tickets to an entertainment, or that particulars of interest rates on deposits, or entry forms for a contest or competition were available at its place of business.

The Tribunal agrees that the restriction would so apply and confirms that that is its intention. They go beyond being sponsorship announcements.

In its fourth submission the Corporation asked the Tribunal to permit some flexibility in sponsorship announcements. It sought the right to broadcast up to 15 sponsorship announcements in an hour, provided that a maximum average of not more than 10 an hour are broadcast on any advertising day. We are not persuaded this is necessary or desirable.

The Tribunal has, in other contexts, heard the argument before about average content per hour and believes that it seldom has any real relevance. If there is to be a control on content, it has to be based on a maximum per hour. The maximum number of sponsorship announcements will remain as stated.

If, after a period, the Corporation wishes to renew its application in this respect, it will be reconsidered in the light of, and with evidence of, the style and nature of announcements being broadcast.

We emphasise that the intention was that the character of the station should change from commercial to non-commercial but with limited sponsorship to help gain some financial support. The purpose is not to encourage a limited range of normal commercials. The spirit in which the Corporation has approached that aspect could affect any relaxation of the conditions, including the maximum number permitted.

Signed for the Tribunal,

B. H. SLANE, Chairman.

Before the Broadcasting Tribunal

IN the matter of the Broadcasting Act 1976, and in the matter of applications by NORTHERN TELEVISION LIMITED and CTV TELEVISION LIMITED for a warrant to broadcast television programmes:

B. H. Slane, Chairman; L. R. Sceats, Member; A. E. Wilson, Member.

Counsel: H. Sargisson for CTV Television Limited; J. G. Miles and Mr B. R. Latimour for Northern Television Limited; B. Hudson for the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand; H. B. Rennie for the New Zealand Public Service Association Inc.

DECISION

THESE applications were called on Tuesday, 2 August 1983. Mrs Sargisson on behalf of CTV Television Limited ("CTV") and Mr Miles on behalf of Northern Television Limited ("Northern"), sought leave to withdraw their respective applications for a warrant to broadcast television programmes. Leave was granted.

Mr Rennie advised that in the circumstances the Public Service Association had no submissions to make.

The Tribunal was informed the applications were withdrawn because the terms required by the BCNZ for the use of its transmission facilities were unacceptable to either applicant.

Mrs Sargisson then made an application for an award of costs against the BCNZ pursuant to section 67C Broadcasting Act 1976. Under subsection (1) the Tribunal may in any proceedings order any party to pay to any other party such costs and expenses (including expenses of witnesses) as are reasonable, and may apportion any such costs between the parties or any of them in such manner as it thinks fit. It was her submission that the BCNZ was a party to the proceedings because it gave written notice to the Tribunal of its wish to appear at the hearing.

That notice was given on 11 July 1983, immediately after the preliminary hearing on the question of confidentiality of the applications.

Apart from this letter the BCNZ's involvement in these applications to the Tribunal has been limited to its appearance at this hearing. It was not notified of either the preliminary hearing relating to the financial statements of the company or the initial meeting when the procedural timetable was settled, and did not attend either. It was Mr Hudson's submission that the BCNZ was not a party to the proceedings. His letter of 11 July stated "To avoid any misunderstanding, I confirm the Corporation will be represented at this hearing" and was written just 2 working days after the preliminary hearing on confidentiality.

Mr Miles also applied for costs.

"Party" is not defined in the Broadcasting Act 1976. Mrs Sargisson submitted that section 11 of the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, was a useful aid to interpretation. Section 61 (5) of the Broadcasting Act 1976, excluded the application of that section to proceedings before the Tribunal but, as there was no other definition it was an appropriate guideline. She submitted that a wide interpretation was contemplated and that the Corporation's position was within such a definition.

However, the Corporation has taken no formal steps in these proceedings and the only involvement was the letter of 11 July and Mr Hudson's appearance at this hearing.

Our conclusion is that the Broadcasting Corporation was not a party and therefore we have no power to award costs against it.

If we had decided that the Corporation was a party, we might well have required some evidence on oath of the costs incurred and of the circumstances between the Corporation and the applicants.

We were informed that repeated applications for estimates of costs had been made from a date earlier than the date of the Ministerial direction 16 February 1983 by CTV. We were also informed by the Corporation that if had inquired in March for information which it said was needed before the costs could be assessed.

It was said that the applicants did not reply until May and June 1983 respectively. The Corporation's decision was made at the board meeting in July.

It does seem however remarkable to us that, when such applications are to be made, the Corporation is unable to give any sort of information at all at any stage except a final assessed figure. It must have known at an early stage that the figures that were coming out of its calculations were going to have dramatic effect on the economics of the proposed broadcasting. Yet nothing was divulged. Some better procedure needs to be established by the Corporation to avoid this sort of situation.

In the circumstances we are not in a position to give any final judgment on the respective conduct of the parties and are not required to.

Mrs Sargisson submitted that an appropriate order for CTV might be $150,000. But she conceded that a proportion of the costs were incurred at a date earlier than it would have been reasonable in her client's estimate for the Corporation to have advised estimated charges. We can only say that an order for an amount of $150,000 could not have been justified.

Another issue which we had not had to consider, is whether the Corporation ought to be ordered to pay costs in respect of its actions (or lack of them) not as a party but in its capacity of owners of transmission equipment (section 71 (3)). We might well have hesitated to make an order for costs which was fortuitously based on whether or not the Corporation had expressed enough interest in its appearance and be a party in the proceedings when the costs were allegedly incurred because of defaults by the Corporation in its section 71 (3) capacity rather than in its participation in the proceedings as a party.

Each party will have to bear its own costs.

The application for costs is declined.

Dated the 31st day of August 1983.

Decision No. 1076
Reference No. Ind. 14/83

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the COMPTROLLER OF CUSTOMS for decision in respect of the following publications:

Sexual Knowledge. Publisher RBW Press (Sales) Ltd., U.K.

Mini-Skirts Views. Publisher Toni Books, London.

Sexual Harmony. Author Tuppy Owens.

Judge: W. M. Willis, (Chairman).

Mesdames: H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera.

Messrs: J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 16 August 1983.

Appearances: C. F. Hillman for Comptroller of Customs.

Written submissions for importer, B. A. Armstrong.

DECISION

WE were informed by Mr Hillman for the Comptroller of Customs that the above publications were imported commercially by Mr Armstrong through the Hamilton parcels post and were seized on 4 November 1982. As Mr Armstrong has disputed forfeiture of the books the department has referred the publications to the Tribunal for classification prior to the commencement of condemnations proceedings pursuant to the Customs Act.

Mini-Skirt Views is a paperback published by Toni Books of London. Its physical dimensions are 135 mm x 210 mm and it contains numerous black and white photographs of different models. The publication is of low quality and a great many of the photographs are contrived to expose the genital area.

In many pictures transparent or flimsy clothing is worn to obscure a direct view of that area. There is no text accompanying the photographs.

Mr Hillman suggested the content of the publication could render it indecent.

The importer, Mr Armstrong, submitted that the Tribunal had passed more explicit publications, and there were yet more publications not vetted by the Tribunal which had far more explicit content than the photographs in the books being considered. As well he stressed the need for the Tribunal to find that the publication was "injurious to the public good" and requested that in the event of the Tribunal ruling the publication indecent, that it give its reasons why the publications was so injurious.

The present publication is directly comparable to 2 other books of photographs that come before us entitled Kinky Cats, Vols. No. 2 and 5, published by Bens Books of London. On that occasion in Decision No. 979, the Tribunal said:

"There is no significant text in either of the publications which are concerned with the cheap, and in our view, tasteless presentation of black and white photographs of females in various settings . . .

There is heavy emphasis on photograph of genital area, and almost all the photographs show the model in a "contrived" position.

However, as stated before, the genital area in almost every case is covered by clothing, or by having the area obscured by 'touching' the photographic negative. There is no significant text, and there is no material of a non-sexual nature.

Notwithstanding the absence of exposed genitalia, the Tribunal feels after very careful consideration Kinky Cats edition No. 5 is injurious to the public good because of the patently offensive and contrived positions of the models. The repetitious portrayal of the female pelvic area in such positions, combined with the absence of any other redeeming factor in the publications, leaves the Tribunal in no doubt that the publisher intended to highlight sex in a lewd manner, and one which we find unacceptable."

In that decision both publications were declared unconditionally indecent.

We think that the present publication should also be classified as indecent because of the strong similarity between it and the contents of Kinky Cats. We have already referred to the large number of photographs which are centered upon the pelvic area of the female models. We are in no doubt that the dominant effect of the publication is to portray the models in lewd and salacious positions. We think that this publication falls directly within the parameters of the dicta of Jeffries J. in Waverley Publishing Co. v Customs 1980, 1 NZLR 631, 646 wherein the learned Judge said:

"However, I think a book or sound recording is likely to be indecent and injurious to the public good if,

- (1) It is predominantly concerned with the prurient and lewd aspects of sex; and
- (2) The exact subject-matter is described, depicted or expressed in a patently offensive manner so as to concentrate attention and reaction on the prurient aspects of sex; and
- (3) The work looked at in its entirety had negligible literary or artistic merit, and is otherwise not redeemed by its medical, legal, political, social, or scientific character or importance; and
- (4) The likelihood of corruption far outweighs the possible benefits."

In addition we think the publisher has a dishonest purpose. This emerges not only from the cheap presentation of the publication, and the offensive poses of the models, but also from the fact that in the front of the book there is a foreword to the effect:

"All characters in this book are portrayed by professional models, stories, and pictures are fictitious. The realism has been achieved by the assistance of makeup artists."

Plainly this text does not relate to the content of Mini-Skirt Views as it has no text or story. We believe that this publication has been a "cut and paste" job by the publisher in order to extract as much profit as possible by the commercial exploitation of offensive sexual material.

For all the above reasons we declare Mini-Skirt Views as unconditionally indecent.

Sexual Knowledge. This publication is a paperback sex manual. It is 150 mm x 200 mm and is 171 pages in length. The book was first published in 1972 by Stephenson Verlag, Flensburg in conjunction with the Institute of Sexology in Munich. The author was Gunter Hunold who is apparently an assistant professor at the institute.

The present publication is the English edition with copyright vested in 1975 to H. H. Publications Ltd., London. The book features largely the same models throughout and contains text on a wide variety of subjects. There are numerous colour photographs of high quality, and although they are frank and explicit we feel that they are appropriate to the subject-matter of the publication.

Mr Hillman for the Comptroller of Customs drew our attention to the fact that 2 previous books by the author had come before the Tribunal. The first was Sexual Pleasures A-Z and was classified by the Tribunal as unconditionally indecent in Decision 856. The second was Sex Encyclopaedia classified as conditionally indecent (16 years age restriction) in Decision 926.

Mr Armstrong obviously misconceived the situation because he was under the impression that Sexual Pleasures A-Z had been previously passed by the Tribunal. He said that he had requested copies of that publication from his distributor, but was sent Sexual Knowledge as apparently the other publication was out of stock. In light of Mr Armstrong's misconception of the Tribunal's previous ruling, it is perhaps fortunate for him that there was a substitution of books. Mr Armstrong submitted that this publication should be classified in the same way as Sex Encyclopaedia, i.e., with an age restriction of 18 (which was another misconception as the Tribunal's classification was R16, this point is referred to later).

We read the previous decisions referred to by the parties, but in absence of being able to view the publications concerned we find the previous rulings of limited value. In Decision No. 856 the Tribunal said of Sexual Pleasures A-Z:

"It is arranged in alphabetical form with entries up to 200 words, lavishly illustrated with colour photographs. It is very different in tone and treatment from books such as The XYZ of Love . . . and The Joy of Sex . . . to which the Tribunal has given restricted classifications, and it cannot make claims on grounds of literary or artistic merit, or social or scientific character which would lead us to regard it as other than indecent."

That decision was given on 22 April 1976. Just of 3 years later on 12 July 1979 the Tribunal ruled in respect of Sex Encyclopaedia and 4 other sex manuals:

"Each is a form of sex manual which comprise photographs of forms of sexual intercourse together with a text which more or less compliments the photography.

While there are variations in presentation and impact among the books they may properly be considered together as being generally restrained and natural. The Tribunal does not perceive in these books a prurient or dishonest purpose. The dominant effect is rather a sensible and serious presentation of modes of social behaviour.

In submissions to us reference was made to Decisions 432-435 made in March 1972. While we adhere to the general principles there set out, the Tribunal considers that there has been some change in the standards of community opinion since then. While some age restriction is appropriate there is not, in our opinion, any need in respect of these books to distinguish among them."

The Tribunal classified the publications on that occasion as R16.

It appears to us that by 1979 the Tribunal had adopted a more liberal standard in relation to the classification of sex manuals. We feel that this publication falls generally within the description provided by the Tribunal of the manuals considered in Decision No. 826. However because of the frank and explicit nature of the photographs we feel that a higher age restriction is appropriate in the case of this manual. The reason for this is that the publication could be purchased by immature readers for reasons that had more to do with their prurient interest in the publication, than its merits as a sex manual.

For all the above reasons we classify Sexual Knowledge indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

Sexual Harmony by Tuppy Owens is a sex manual approximately 64 pages in length. It measures 290 mm × 215 mm.

The one unusual feature of this publication is that it came before the Tribunal in 1972. In Decision No. 433 of 13 March 1972 the Tribunal classified Sexual Harmony as indecent in the hands of persons under 18 years of age. We have had the advantage of comparing the publications and it seems that the major differences are:

- (a) the name of the author has changed;
- (b) there is no longer a publisher and a copyright printed in the later publication;
- (c) although the photographs are the same in the later publication, they are generally of a poorer standard of production, and some of the colour plates in the earlier edition have been replaced by black and white plates.

Mr Hillman for the Comptroller of Customs submitted that due to these changes the "Tuppy Owens" version constituted a new publication and that Decision 433 did not apply to it. It was also submitted that because of the content of the publication the Tribunal might consider it indecent.

It looks to us as though someone may have pirated the publication and put it out under a different name. We are sceptical of the importer's explanation that it appears the author changed her name. We think that this is speculation. However we do accept that this book has circulated in New Zealand on a restricted basis since 1973 and apart from some technical deterioration, the content of the publication is essentially the same. Rather than enter into any refined analysis as to whether this publication is the same as that which was considered by the Tribunal in Decision No. 433, we think it is easier to give another ruling. We do not think it is appropriate to depart from the previous classification given to the other publication.

We accordingly rule Sexual Harmony to be indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

Dated at Wellington this 9th day of September 1983.

Decision No. 1077

Reference No. Ind. 13/83

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the COMPTROLLER OF CUSTOMS for decision in respect of the following publications:

Rubber and Latex Girls

Young Sporting Girls Published by Bens Books of London.

Judge: W. H. Willis (Chairman).

Mesdames: H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera.

Messrs: J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 16 August 1983.

Appearances: C. F. Hillman for Comptroller of Customs.

Written submissions for importer, Love Artshop, Wellington.

DECISION

WE were informed by the Comptroller of Customs that these publications were imported commercially through Hamilton parcels post on 19 December 1982, and were seized by the Customs Department on the 22nd day of that month. The importer Mr Armstrong, subsequently disputed forfeiture of the goods and the department therefore referred the publications to the Tribunal for classification prior to the commencement of condemnation proceedings pursuant to the Customs Act 1966.

Rubber and Latex Girls is a paperback published by Bens Books Ltd. Its physical dimensions are approximately 135 mm × 215 mm. The contents comprise 9 pages of text at the start of the book, followed by a large number of black and white photographs of various models.

The text deals with a couple who enhance their sex life by the use of rubber clothing. This section is followed by numerous photographs of 2 nurses apparently having an anatomy lecture in a hospital setting. Some of the pictures are completely innocuous. Other are obviously designed to titillate the reader's interest. That series is followed by approximately 26 pages of various models in lesbian, SM and "rubber gear" shots. Those photographs undoubtedly depict deviant aspects of sex, and are highly contrived.

Mr Hillman, on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs, submitted that because of the content of the publication the Tribunal might consider them indecent.

The importer, Mr Armstrong, complained that the book had previously been imported by him with the knowledge of Customs but without objection on those occasions. Apparently he could not understand what he saw as the department's inconsistent attitude. We are afraid that we must give this complaint limited weight. We have said on previous occasions that the Customs Department does not have any power to make a formal ruling or to impose formal guidelines on the classification of books that are imported. That is solely a matter for the Tribunal. No doubt on some occasions the department's conduct could be of significance but we do not feel that this is such a case.

Turning now to the matters we are required to consider under section 11 (1), we feel this publication lacks any literary or artistic merit. We think the likelihood of corruption can be contrasted to the lack of benefit that the book would bring to any of its readers. We think the final section of the book depicting the single and multiple model photographs referred to earlier, firmly establishes that the dominant effect of the publication is to portray aspects of sex that can only appeal to a prurient interest and accordingly we find that the publication is injurious to the public good. Rubber and Latex Girls must therefore be classified as unconditionally indecent.

Young Sporting Girls is another paperback imported by Mr Armstrong and published by Bens Books Ltd., London. It measures approximately 135 mm × 210 mm. The publication consists of a large number of black and white photographs of two young female models. They have been photographed in various poses, and in varying degrees of nakedness. Although there are full frontal shots of nudity there are relatively few which have been contrived to emphasise the genital area. There is also a series of eight photographs of a model in schoolgirl's clothing at the end of the book. These photographs are contrived, but we do not feel that they affect the relatively restrained tone of the publication. We think that this book of photographs is similar to the publications Nudes Afloat and Bushland Seduction considered by the Tribunal in Decision No. 962. On that occasion the Tribunal said:

"... it appears to the Tribunal that where pictorial matter consists of simple nudity without undue emphasis on genital areas, an age restriction of some sort should be the classification attached to them. In these particular cases, although there is a good deal of photography related to the genital area few, if any, are really contrived and in most cases, consist merely of frontal nudes."

In that decision these publications were classified as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

For all the above reasons we would therefore classify Young Sporting Girls as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

Dated at Wellington this 9th day of September 1983.

District Court Judge W. H. WILLIS, Chairman.

IN THE MATTER of the Companies Act 1955, and IN THE MATTER of OREWA HOME APPLIANCES LIMITED, a duly incorporated company having its registered office at Auckland and carrying on business there as dealers in and repairers of electrical appliances:

TO: The High Court of New Zealand.

The 16th day of August 1983.

The humble petition of F. & P. FINANCE LIMITED, a duly incorporated company having its registered office at Koru Towers, Pakuranga Town Centre, Auckland, and carrying on business as a finance company, sheweth as follows:

1. OREWA HOME APPLIANCES LIMITED, a duly incorporated company having its registered office at Auckland and carrying on business there as dealers in and repairers of electrical appliances (hereinafter called "the company"), was on the 14th day of September 1956 incorporated under the Companies Act 1933.

2. The registered office of the company is at Parnell House, Parnell Road, Auckland.

3. The nominal capital of the company is $4,000 divided into 2 000 shares of $2 each. The amount of the capital paid up or credited as paid up is $4,000.

4. The objects for which the company was established are as follows:

"To carry on the business of electricians, radio and electrical engineers, workers in electricity, wireless and radio telegraphy, and dealers in and repairers of electrical, radio, electronic and television equipment, apparatus and appliances of all kinds, and any business in which the application of electricity or any like power, or any power that can be used as a substitute therefor, is or may be useful or convenient, or any other business of a like nature" and other objects set forth in the memorandum of association thereof.

5. Between the months of March 1980 and December 1981, the petitioner at the request of the company accepted assignments from the company of certain conditional purchase agreements relating to the purchasers hereinafter referred to:

Avis Laura Robin, Ray William Reynolds, Gloria Ann Poynton, Lynda Joan Pepper, Marjorie Hilton, Coral Fay Davis, Sandra Sheree Ansley, David Keith Adams.

6. As a term of the said assignments and as a term of a certain deed made the 16th day of March 1979 between the petitioner and the company, the company covenanted and agreed to and with the petitioner to pay to the petitioner on demand the whole of the balance of the moneys payable under the said conditional purchase agreements.

7. The purchasers under the said conditional purchase agreements having made default, the petitioner has demanded payment from the company of the sum of two thousand two hundred and two dollars and nine cents ($2,202.09) being the balance of the moneys payable under such agreements, and the company has failed to pay such moneys.

8. The petitioner has made application to the company for payment of its debt but the company has failed and neglected to pay the same or any part thereof. On the 19th day of July 1983, the petitioner served upon the company at its registered office a notice signed under the hand of its agents thereunto lawfully authorised giving notice that unless the said amount of two thousand two hundred and two dollars and nine cents ($2,202.09) was paid within 3 weeks of the date of service of the notice the petitioner would petition the High Court at Auckland for an order that the company be wound up.

The company has neglected to pay the sum or to secure or compound for it to the reasonable satisfaction of the petitioner.

9. In terms of sections 217 and 218 of the Companies Act 1955, the company is unable to pay its debts.

10. In the circumstances it is just and equitable that the company should be wound up.

Your petitioner therefore humbly prays as follows:

(a) That OREWA HOME APPLIANCES LIMITED, may be wound up by the Court under the provisions of the Companies Act 1955.

(b) That the Court may make such other order in the premises as shall be just.

This petition was filed by John Douglas Clark, solicitor for the petitioner. The petitioner's address for service is at the offices of Messrs Watts & Patterson, Third Floor, UDC House, corner Albert and Wyndham Streets, Auckland.

NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS

A. Statement of Accounting Policies—The general accounting principles recommended by the New Zealand Society of Accountants for the measurement and reporting of results on an historical cost basis, consistent with previous years, have been used in the preparation of the financial accounts.

The following particular principles have been applied:

Note 1: Depreciation—Straight-line depreciation has been applied to the Bank's EDP equipment to write it off over the period of its expected useful life. All other assets have been depreciated at the rates allowable by the Inland Revenue Department. The difference between these rates, and the straight-line method, is not considered to be material.

Note 2: Government Stock—It has been the Bank's policy to amortise total discounts and premiums on Government Stock Securities over the term of the investment on a straight-line basis and to show the value of the stock in the Balance Sheet at its cost price adjusted by amortised discount or premium to date.

Note 3: Personal Loans—The Bank's policy is to add total interest due to the loan when advanced, and interest is brought into revenue on the basis of the "Rule of 78".

Note 4: Taxation—

(a) The provision for income tax charged in the profit and loss account is the calculated tax liability in respect of the accounting profit after adjusting for permanent differences.

(b) The provision for deferred taxation arises from items of income and expenditure being included in taxation calculations in periods different from those in which they are dealt with in the financial accounts.

B. Associate Company—The Bank's investment in Northern Trustee Computerbank Ltd. has been shown in the accounts according to the standard accounting practice adopted by the New Zealand Society of Accountants for an associate company.

The investment is made up as follows—

Debentures		33,000
Paid up shares		80,000
Share of accumulated profit brought forward	89,193
Less prior period deferred tax adjustment	15,021	74,172

NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS

1. Statement of Accounting Policies:

(a) General accounting principles—The general accounting principles as recommended by the New Zealand Society of Accountants for the measurement and reporting of profit and financial position under the historical cost method has been followed in the preparation of these accounts, except for the revaluation of land and buildings.

(b) Particular accounting principles—The following particular accounting principles which materially affect the measurement of profit and financial position have been applied:

(i) Interest Income—Interest is recognised on an accrual basis. Personal loan interest excludes unearned interest, and has been apportioned according to the "Rule of 78" method.

(ii) Fixed Assets—All fixed assets are valued at cost less accumulated depreciation with the exception of land and buildings which have been revalued to 90 percent of professional valuations.

For accounting purposes, depreciation is calculated using straight-line rates based on the economic life of the assets.

The following lives have been estimated:

Buildings	40–50 years
Furniture and fittings	7–10 years
Office equipment	7–10 years
Motor vehicles	3 years to estimated residual value

(iii) Taxation—The charge for Income Tax is the amount of the tax liability in respect of the accounting profit for the year and includes both current and deferred tax.

Deferred Taxation arises from timing differences between accounting and taxation recognition of income and expenditure. These differences relate to depreciation and investment income.

(iv) Current Assets—Debtors are valued at expected realisable value. Stock on hand as shown in the balance sheet represents bulk stationery supplies valued at cost less a provision for obsolescence.

(v) Investments—Investments are disclosed at cost except for Government stock which is at cost adjusted by interest accrued contained in the purchase price, and by the amortisation on a straight-line basis of premiums and discounts over the term of the investment. In accordance with this policy the amortisation credited to revenue for this financial year amounts to $87,425 (1982—$56,832).

(c) Changes in Accounting Policies—There have been no changes in accounting policies that would have a material effect on the determination of profit for the year.

AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE EASTERN AND CENTRAL SAVINGS BANK

WE have examined the balance sheet of the bank as at 31 March 1983, and the related profit statement and statement of changes in financial position for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet, profit statement and statement of changes in financial position present fairly, using the historical cost method, the financial position of the bank at 31 March 1983, and the results of its operations and the changes in financial position for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on the basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS

Statement of accounting policies—The general accounting principles as recommended by the New Zealand Society of Accountants for the measurement and reporting of results and financial position on an historical cost basis have been followed in the preparation of these financial statements.

The following particular accounting policies which significantly affect the measurement of the Bank's profit and financial position have been applied on a basis consistent with the previous years.

Depreciation—Depreciable fixed assets are depreciated on a straight line basis at rates estimated to write off the cost, less residual value, over the useful life of each class of asset. The principal rates in use are:

- Buildings, 1 percent and 2½ percent.
- Office equipment, fixtures and fittings 10 percent and 20 percent.
- Computer equipment, 12 percent.

NOTE 1—Loss on sale of securities—Low coupon Government Stock has been sold during the year to allow the Bank to purchase higher yielding Government securities.

NOTE 2—Term Investment Accounts—

3-5 years	4,496,690	1,670,000
	$64,219,881	$51,974,230

NOTE 3—Taxation—The charge for income tax is the amount of tax liability in respect of the accounting profit for the year.

The liability for deferred taxation arises from items of income and expenditure being included in taxation calculations in periods different from those in which they are dealt with in the financial accounts. The significant timing differences relate to depreciation and accrued income.

NOTE 4—Fixed deposits—Coupon maturity dates cover the period 24 April 1983 to 6 October 1985. As these investments can be realised as liquidity conditions dictate they have been treated as current assets.

NOTE 5—New Zealand Government stock—New Zealand Government stock is recorded at par value less discount which is amortised over the term of the investment on a straight line basis. The cost price as at 31st March was as follows:

	1983	1982
New Zealand Government stock	46,493,133	40,067,765

New Zealand Government stock is held pursuant to the ratio requirements of the Trustee Savings Bank Act 1948 and subsequent amendments. As at 31 March 1983, the estimated market value of the New Zealand Government stock portfolio was $44,199,618.

NOTE 6—Personal loans—Interest on loans is added to the principal sum at the date of the advance. The interest revenue is recognised on the basis of the 'Rule of 78' method. Unearned interest as at 31 March was $711,604 (1982: $494,153).

NOTE 7—Northern Trustee Computerbank Ltd.—The ordinary share investment has been shown using the equity accounting basis. 1982 figures have been restated to reflect a change in accounting policy.

Vol. I, 466 p. Vol. II, 633 p. $69.50 plus $4.80 p & p

This edition has a new and perceptive introduction by Michael King and in addition the original seven page index has been replaced by a substantial and comprehensive index. This 1983 edition is called a facsimile edition because it is being reproduced from the original text. However, the introduction, index and illustrations include alterations and improvements on the original.

LIVING LETTERS

STATE SERVICES COMMISSION

36 p. 1980 reprint. $1.75 plus 55c p & p

One of the aims in letter writing is to get ideas across to the reader clearly and briefly. But do letters always say what is meant? Even if they are clear to the writer, will the reader understand them easily? If you are still using the old clichés of "acknowledging receipt of", "according to our records", and "enclosed please find" it is almost certainly time to change your attitude to writing Living Letters.
