Decision No. 15/83

BRO 18/83

Before the Broadcasting Tribunal

In the matter of the Broadcasting Act 1976, and in the matter of an application by WAIKATO-BAY OF PLENTY FM LIMITED for a FM sound-radio warrant for Waikato-Bay of Plenty:

B. H. Slane, Chairman; Lionel R. Sceats and Ann E. Wilson, Members; Murray J. Henshall, Co-opted Member.

Hearing: Hamilton, 18 May 1983.

Counsel: R. L. Maclaren for applicant; B. Hudson for Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand; P. J. Bartlett for New Zealand Public Service Association Inc.; F. A. Hamlin for New Zealand Post Office.

DECISION

The applicant applied for a warrant to establish a commercial FM radio station. The Tribunal has advertised for applications for a commercial FM warrant to serve the Waikato and part of the Bay of Plenty.

The proposed coverage area set out by the Tribunal is based on a station co-sited with television transmitters at Mount Te Aroha.

The applicant is a company incorporated in March 1983 which it is proposed, will have a capital of 300 000 shares of $1 each of which 225 000 will be held by Independent Broadcasting Co. Ltd. with the remaining 75 000 shares being made available to staff and to Tauranga interests.

The 5 directors proposed are Mr W. W. Baxter, I. G. Magan, B. J. Paterson, J. M. Robson, J. H. D. Wickham, who are existing directors of Independent Broadcasting Co. Ltd. ("IBC") the holder of the private commercial AM warrant for Hamilton known as Radio Waikato.

The transmitter was to be established on Mount Te Aroha, co-siting with the television transmission facility of the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand and using the existing tower. A calculated coverage area prepared by BCNZ transmission engineers formed the basis for calculations for expected audience.

Stereo coverage would extend to a population of 294 000 and mono coverage to 38 000, a total potential audience of 332 000.

The principal city covered would be Hamilton but the coverage would also extend to Cambridge and north towards Thames and eastwards towards Tauranga and part of the Bay of Plenty.

Initially it would not be possible to proceed with the establishment of a permanent antenna system at the Mount Te Aroha site as a result of changes in the design code for lattice towers and similar structures and a re-assessment by the New Zealand Meteorological Service of predicted maximum wind speeds at the transmitter site. Substantial strengthening of the Te Aroha tower would be required to meet the revised criteria applying to the site, according to evidence given by Mr T. R. Cudby, Superintending Engineer (Transmission) of the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand. It is likely that permanent FM antennas could not be added until the strengthening work had been carried out.

The effect in the interim is to reduce the population to be served to 209 000 in stereo, 78 000 in mono, a total potential audience of 287 000. This is 86 percent of the population that would be covered with a high quality FM service of the type outlined in the application. Operation of the interim service will enable a detailed engineering assessment to be made of the extent and complexity of the permanent transmitting antenna which would be required to achieve the proposed permanent coverage of the Waikato-Bay of Plenty areas.

The Corporation would enter into co-siting negotiations with the applicant.

Evidence in support of the application was given by T. C. Egerton, a consultant, Mr B. J. Paterson, a director, Mr W. W. Baxter, General Manager of IBC and a director of the applicant. Mr P. L. Johnston gave technical evidence.

The application was opposed by the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand ("BCNZ"), the New Zealand Public Service Association Inc. ("PSA") and Mr H. W. Gough. Written submissions were made by Radio Bay of Plenty Ltd.

The BCNZ case had been prepared on the basis that no indication had been given by the applicant that, although the application was being made in the name of another company (for other reasons), it was intended to treat the application as if it was made by the AM warrant holder IBC. The applicant indicated at the hearing for the first time that it proposed to surrender the warrant for Radio Waikato within 4 years.

Apart from the technical evidence given by Mr Cudby, the Corporation's evidence was given by Mr C. Turver, manager of Radio New Zealand's Tauranga station, Mr A. F. Dobbie, controller of finance for Radio New Zealand, Mr J. A. Douglas, commercial network manager, Mr J. G. A. Stubbs, station manager for Radio New Zealand in Hamilton and Mr M. J. P. Dunlop, head of marketing for Radio New Zealand.

The applicant proposed a continuous 24-hour service of contemporary music aimed primarily at the under 40 age group but with particular emphasis on the 18-39 year olds. The programme's main ingredient would be music with minimal interruptions by way of news and commercial content. The station was seen as an alternative to the AM station which devoted more time to personality, news, talk, and sports elements. The emphasis would be on album oriented artists. It is intended to rebroadcast the 1MJK FM programme from Auckland from midnight to dawn if satisfactory transmission arrangements can be made. More detailed evidence of the programme content was given by Mr Baxter.

The Tribunal is required by section 80 in considering any application for a warrant, to have regard to the following matters so far as they are applicable before determining whether or not to grant the application. (Some of the comments made under one heading will be applicable to other headings.)

(a) The extent to which the proposed service is desirable in the public interest

The principal benefit that the new station would bring to the region would be a stereo FM programme which is not at present available to most listeners in the area. Although there was a claim that the Auckland stations could be widely heard as far as Tauranga, we are satisfied that those stations do not in fact provide a satisfactory service to the region.

Some of the BCNZ major objections were most cogently put by Mr Douglas. He said that the station would spread a very strong signal over a huge part of the North Island and could have a profound influence on the New Zealand radio scene. Its presence could pose a serious threat to commercial activities of the Corporation not only in Hamilton but also in Rotorua, Tauranga, Tokoroa and Taupo. (The applicant indicated that it was not intended to sell the station in Rotorua or Tokoroa.)

Mr Douglas said that AM operators in Hamilton, Rotorua, Tauranga and Tokoroa would be faced by a frightening array of new competition "and all of it being established in great haste without full consideration of all the implications". He suggested that a too high strength of signal had been allocated to the Auckland stations which would be selling in the area. He asked whether this was the most orderly way of introducing FM in this country, or whether we were in danger of throwing the entire radio industry into a state of confusion. He also asked whether there was a community of interest between the diverse centres in the area.

He proposed that the station should be limited to serving the Waikato which would leave the Bay of Plenty to be taken care of in a different way.

He asked the Tribunal to reflect carefully before establishing a giant station which would, because of its very size and audience reach, be one of the most influential forces on the entire New Zealand radio scene without contributing any of the local programme services which should be a feature of such a dominant force.

While it is understood that the belief that Radio Waikato would be continuing AM broadcasting indefinitely may have led to the rhetoric, there does seem to be some element of panic in the reaction of Radio New Zealand to this application. It is not a sudden one nor is the coverage plan a surprise. No objection was earlier taken to the proposed coverage pattern. There is no question of the policy having been established in great haste without full consideration of all the implications. The development of FM has hardly been an example of hasty, ill-considered action.

The Tribunal realises that there is a new element being introduced into radio broadcasting and that this will make life uncomfortable for some existing broadcasters. But primarily the interests of the public must predominate. We are satisfied this sort of station coverage is the most satisfactory way of introducing FM broadcasting.

The advantages of this regional station are also its disadvantages. While it will be more heavily music oriented it will provide less in the way of local information for which listeners will inevitably turn to their local AM station. The fact that it covers a wider area will mean that it will be unable to serve the parochial interests traditionally satisfied by the personality chat, community information (and even local trivia) that feature so much in community broadcasting.

The operation also is desirable because of its efficiency. To limit its efficiency by deliberately reducing the possible coverage area is not only a waste of available spectrum, but is limiting the programme to a smaller audience. There is no need to do that. Nor is there any need to limit the stations economic viability in the long term. A series of local stations serving essentially AM programme areas would not assist existing stations and would, because of an insufficient economic basis, produce a lower quality of programme. They may not be established at all because each one could be opposed by each AM station.

We deal later with the economic impact but at this stage it should be emphasised that after a period there will be no increase in the number of radio stations in the area. The regional FM station will be less direct competition for the Hamilton full service AM station 1ZH than the existing Radio Waikato AM operation in Hamilton, which in many ways aims to capture the same audience for the same purposes.

We do not believe it would be satisfactory for listeners in this area to be left to eavesdrop on Auckland oriented programming where that signal can be adequately received. This region is entitled to its own station. The indications we have had are, however, that those signals have their limitations in the region and judging by listening patterns elsewhere will attract little in the way of listenership once a Waikato oriented programme and regional signal at full strength is available.

The Tribunal is satisfied that the stereophonic high fidelity sound which enhances the listening pleasure and brings the music quality available on recordings to the listener, is a real and substantial benefit to which great weight must be given. We consider that the programme is suitably organised and formatted to exploit the qualities of the mode for the intended audience. We accept that there will be some overlap between the services of this station and that of the existing stations, but the tone and style will be distinctive, the advertising and talk content lower and we believe it will be a legitimate and effective exploitation of the FM mode.

- (b) The economic effect which the establishment of the station to which the application relates is likely to have in respect of broadcasting stations already in operation
- (c) The effect which the establishment of the station to which the application relates may have on broadcasting services provided by the Corporation in the public interest

We heard considerable evidence from BCNZ witnesses on this. Not all of it was convincing.

Mr Bartlett for the PSA expressed fear of the effect on the BCNZ of the amount of revenue which would be taken out of the area and the effect this might have on extending the Corporation's radio services.

The Tribunal accepts that there will be a significant effect on the revenue of Radio New Zealand stations in the area. The effect will be greatest on 1ZH and much less on 1ZD Tauranga.

The effect on 1ZH will be a temporary one and will be matched by or exceeded by the effect on Radio Waikato.

We intend to limit the period within which Radio Waikato may maintain its AM operation to a period of 2 years. Mr Stubbs suggested 12-18 months. We believe Radio Waikato may decide to terminate its operation earlier and the Tribunal would have no objection to that.

We also intend to limit the advertising content to 6 minutes per hour which will rise to 8 minutes per hour upon the cessation of broadcasting by Radio Waikato.

We believe this restriction will not inhibit the reasonable attainment of revenue by the new station during the initial period. We believe it will have the effect of making its rates more comparable with those of the AM stations.

By these 2 conditions we believe the financial impact on the Broadcasting Corporation will be alleviated and, with the cessation of Radio Waikato's service, the Corporation should still be able to maintain in both Hamilton and Tauranga, stations which contribute to a commercial surplus nationally.

Another factor which will limit the effectiveness of the station in the interim period will be the fact that it will only reach 86 percent of its potential audience because of broadcasting from a temporary tower at Mount Te Aroha.

The Corporation on 1 June supplied the figure for revenue for the Tauranga station. We do not consider that any revenue gathered from that area for the FM station in the first 2 years will substantially diminish the revenue earned by Radio Bay of Plenty.

The effect on 1XX is dealt with, for convenience, under paragraph (n) with other submissions by the warrant holder.

- (d) The needs of New Zealand or the locality or localities proposed to be served in respect of broadcasting services

In submissions from the PSA and to a lesser extent implied in the BCNZ opposition, was the claim that there was no need for this service because there was only one application and no clamour in the area for the introduction to FM broadcasting.

Mr Bartlett points out that a survey of receiver capacity was 61 percent, less than the 64 percent found to exist in Auckland at the same time.

However, the Tribunal is aware that the Auckland figure has risen to 75 percent and it is reasonable to expect that the Waikato figure would similarly move in that direction—as has the Hawkes Bay figure.

Set penetration is increasing in New Zealand and it is clear that broadcasters must consider FM as a service which in the normal course ought to be available to listeners. We refer later to Government policy on the development of FM broadcasting.

The Tribunal does not accept that there is no need for the service. The area is a populous and expanding one and is affected by the popularity of stereo FM broadcasting having commenced in Auckland. We cannot see any justification for declining the application on the grounds that there is no need for a service. Listeners expect a stereo FM service to be introduced. The transmission site is an efficient one and should provide a good stereo service to some areas where there has been a less than satisfactory AM service.

- (e) The financial and commercial ability of the applicant to carry on the proposed service

The Tribunal is satisfied as to the quality of the directorate and management. The programming of this station and its general operations are probably less demanding than the operation of Radio Waikato.

The proposed funding arrangements are considered satisfactory.

The station will have the benefit of sharing some costs with Radio Waikato for the first 2 years.

The station has the financial support of the major shareholder in IBC, the Independent News group.

- (f) The likelihood of the applicant carrying on the proposed service satisfactorily

There was no suggestion made at the hearing that the company would not be competent to operate the station, although Mr Gough raised philosophic objections to commercial operators.

- (g) The results of any survey available to the Tribunal

Although various statistics were produced to us there was no audience survey conducted for the purpose of the application.

- (h) The requirement that frequencies be best utilised in the public interest

It appeared to us that this requirement was fulfilled by transmission from the Te Aroha site. We would not be in favour of restricting that, although there may be room to consider at any time an adjustment to the aerial pattern.

The Tribunal would need a good deal of convincing that a translator was desirable in the interim. That evidence would have to be based on both technical and economic grounds.

- (i) The desirability of avoiding monopolies in the ownership or control of news media

There was a good deal of opposition to the application based on this argument before it was known that Radio Waikato would surrender its AM warrant.

Nevertheless, Mr Gough puts forward a cogent case for limiting the participation of newspaper companies even in FM ownership.

It is Government policy that applications for FM stations by newspaper companies should be considered on their merits. We have taken that into account.

In practical terms, taking the existing situation with INL ownership in Radio Waikato the long term change is only that of an extension in the coverage area of the station owned by that company. The Tribunal will impose a similar restriction as to news media ownership as it has with Radio Waikato and will consent to the proposed shareholding arrangements.

In fact the impact will be somewhat less since the station will become a much less important vehicle for information and news than the AM station is. While it will carry news, as far as national and international news is concerned, it will be networked from Radio Pacific. It is also intended to impose the existing condition on editorial independence that applies to Radio Waikato.

The Tribunal would indeed have been concerned if an existing station attempted to use the vehicle of another company in order to make an application which in fact was substantially based on the existing operator having a controlling or substantial interest in the FM station. The intention of the legislation is clear.

However, IBC have taken the proper attitude and we believe that the monopoly aspect will be much less important than Mr Gough or the PSA submit in their submissions.

(j) The hours during which the applicant proposes to broadcast

The service will be a 24-hour one with a relay from Metropolitan FM in the early morning off-peak hours. We can see no objection to this arrangement.

(k) The extent of advertising matter which the applicant proposes to broadcast

(l) The proposed rates and charges to be made in respect of advertising programmes

The applicant proposes a self-imposed limit of 8 minutes and is opposed to a restriction of less than 12 minutes per hour. It says that the self-imposed restriction has worked effectively with the AM operations confining themselves to 12 minutes.

The Tribunal considers however that where a solus FM operation is to be established, it is desirable to limit the commercial content by condition in the warrant to 8 minutes per hour. This is particularly so in view of the submissions made by the Corporation.

During the initial stages the Tribunal considers it is appropriate to limit it to a maximum of 6 minutes an hour. This is a figure which we anticipate will not inhibit reasonable revenue and profitability. That limit would rise to 8 minutes when Radio Waikato ceases operations and thus withdraws from the advertising market.

We believe the rates being offered are low. That has caused considerable concern to competitors. The station may well decide to raise its advertising rates to a higher level having regard to the limited commercial content.

We should say that in the long term the advertising rates will be based on market shares and of course the marketing abilities of the various operators.

(m) Such matters as may be necessary for the purpose of imposing conditions under section 71A of this Act

These have been covered under other headings.

(n) All relevant evidence or representations received by it at the hearing

Radio Bay of Plenty Ltd., holder of the AM warrant 1XX for Whakatane, did not object to the application but raised a number of matters of concern.

The company considered the effective radiated power too high because it said it would extend the signal into its primary service area and would have an effect on the audience of 1XX AM or FM. That could affect the viability of the station.

It was submitted that there was no community of interest between the Waikato and the Bay of Plenty and that it would be serving too many communities and regions.

The company expected to lose some national sales which it said were the difference between profitability and non-profitability for the station.

Radio Bay of Plenty Ltd. said the proposed format was too similar to that of existing stations and that the company would be operating a juke box without any real community service.

It was submitted that the advertising rates appeared to be too low and the establishment of a Tauranga sales office meant the possibility of selling in the Eastern Bay of Plenty.

1XX uses the Pacific network news and there would therefore be a duplication.

The Tribunal was asked to change the direction of the signal, to impose a restriction on the selling of advertising in Central and Eastern Bay of Plenty, to require the applicant to provide an alternative news-service, to improve the community service commitment and to provide a truly alternative format.

As to the economic effect on the station no evidence was produced by the company to support its statements.

We do not believe that the type of community station successfully conducted by Radio Bay of Plenty Ltd. would be seriously effected by this regional programme but we do agree that where it can be well heard it will be listened to.

In the absence of evidence of the effect on the station we are unable to find that there is adequate reason for changing the nature or extent of the coverage proposed.

As far as any FM operation by Radio Bay of Plenty Ltd. is concerned the Tribunal notes that the only application for FM services in the area is from that company and they are for the total duplication of the AM programme from FM transmitters. The effect of the granting of this application will be to provide a new programme service in the area which neither 1XX nor any other applicant has sought to provide.

It may well be that 1XX will consider joining with the present warrant holder in a transmission directed to the audience in the Eastern and Central Bay of Plenty which might carry some local programming and the regional programming from the Te Aroha site. But that is a matter for Radio Bay of Plenty Ltd. We do not see the proposal by Radio Bay of Plenty Ltd. to provide a duplicated programme to its listeners in its service area on FM as providing a ground for criticism that this applicant's programming is too similar.

We consider that there will be a sufficient difference in format from the existing stations to provide a contrast to the AM programming. We do not expect that an FM station will or should make any attempt to provide the same community service content as an AM station. The submission in that respect fails to understand the essential difference that has already occurred in FM broadcasting here and abroad. In this case one of the aspects which will make the station less competitive with local AM stations is that it will be operating over a wide region and cannot provide a close local community service. Nor is it compatible with the music objectives of the station to load it with that sort of information role.

We see no point in preventing the available signal reaching those fortunate listeners in some parts of the Bay of Plenty beyond Tauranga who might welcome the opportunity of receiving this FM programme..

The question of advertising rates is dealt with elsewhere.

The prime purpose of the FM station is not to provide a news and information service and we see no significant disadvantage in the application because it is proposed to carry a network news service from Radio Pacific which is the same service as is carried by 1XX.

There is no justification, in the absence of any evidence from Radio Bay of Plenty Ltd., for the imposition of a restriction on the selling of advertising in the Central and Eastern Bay of Plenty area. We expect it would be more likely to be an incidental service from the station having regard to the small numbers of listeners in the area who would be reached from this regional station. We would be surprised if the rates proved to be competitive with 1XX but again lack any evidence from that station to support its submissions.

(o) Such other matters as may be prescribed in regulations in that behalf

The Tribunal is required to have regard to Regulation 15A, Broadcasting Regulations 1977 which reads:

"15A. (1) In considering any application for a sound radio warrant in respect of an AM broadcasting station or a FM broadcasting station, the Tribunal, before determining whether or not to grant the application, shall have regard to the policy of the Government under which a frequency modulation (FM) broadcasting service is to be developed as an integral part of sound-radio broadcasting in New Zealand."

(2) Nothing in this regulation limits the provisions of paragraphs (a) to (n) of section 80 of the Act."

By direction dated 27 October 1981 the Minister of Broadcasting notified the Broadcasting Tribunal that after considering its report on the development of frequency modulation broadcasting in New Zealand, it was a part of the general policy of the Government in relation to broadcasting that a FM broadcasting service be developed as an integral part of sound-radio broadcasting in New Zealand and that it be introduced in New Zealand without delay.

In pursuance of that policy the Tribunal was directed to call progressively for applications for sound-radio warrants in respect of commercial FM broadcasting stations to be established in areas outside Auckland.

As well as considering each of the criteria under section 80, including section 80 (o), we are required by section 68 to have regard to the general policy of the Government in relation to broadcasting and to comply with any directions given by the Minister of Broadcasting in writing. The calling for this application was in compliance with the direction to do so. The general policy which is relevant is summarised above. It is set out in full in the ministerial directions.

Decision

The application is granted subject to conditions.

Conditions

The usual conditions will be inserted in the warrant. The warrant will lapse unless it is taken up within 12 months of the date of this decision or of the date of the final determination of any appeal unless extended by the Tribunal.

There will be a prohibition on networking in terms of section 71A (3) but with an exception as provided in most private warrants. This permits networking news. Consent is given to network with Metropolitan FM for programme from midnight to 6 a.m. daily.

Advertising will be permitted in the same terms as for other private stations but there will also be a special condition. There will be a limit of 6 minutes maximum advertising in any one hour until 1XW has surrendered its warrant and ceased broadcasting. Thereafter the limit will be 8 minutes in any 1 hour.

The warrant holders will be required to co-site with the BCNZ television facility at Mount Te Aroha. The coverage objectives will be modified until the full facility can be provided. Leave is given to make submissions on the wording and description of the interim and final coverage areas. The usual clause will be imposed requiring adherence to technical rules.

The Tribunal does not consider it should impose detailed conditions as to the nature of the station's programmes. However, in order to ensure that the station adheres to the promises made when the application was submitted and to ensure there is no radical departure from what was intended, the Tribunal will impose the following condition.

The warrant holder shall not substantially depart from the basic format and content of its proposed programmes or the type or the extent of the services intended to be provided at the time of the grant of the warrant without the prior consent of the Broadcasting Tribunal and subject to any conditions that the Tribunal might impose in the public interest.

The mixed polarisation to be used will be slant.

Allocation of frequency will be made after the parties have had the opportunity to make representations to the Tribunal.

The same news media ownership restrictions will be applied as apply to 1XW and the form of these can be the subject of submissions. The same arrangements for editorial independence will also be applied.

The warrant grant is subject to the condition that the warrant holder for 1XW, IBC, consents to an amendment to its warrant requiring the surrender of its warrant within a period of 2 years from the commencement of broadcasting by the FM station. This warrant will not issue until that condition has been satisfied.

Pursuant to regulation 14A Broadcasting Regulations 1977 the initial warrant period will be 3 years. This will enable a review at an early date by the Tribunal after the cessation of operations by Radio Waikato. We would expect that upon renewal the warrant would, in the absence of special reasons, be renewed thereafter for terms of 5 years. It should be emphasised that the condition is in no way a reflection on the permanency of the warrant grant.

Messrs Magan and Robson are already directors of 2 companies having prescribed interests in warrants. They require consent under regulation 21 Broadcasting Regulations 1977. That consent is given for the period of 2 years.

Co-opted Member

Mr Murray J. Henshall was co-opted as a person whose qualifications and experience were likely to be of assistance to the Tribunal in determining the application. He took part in the hearing and the deliberations of the Tribunal but the decision is that of the permanent members.

Dated the 31st day of August 1983.

Signed for the Tribunal:

B. H. SLANE, Chairman.

Decision No. 16/83

BRO 11/83

Before The Broadcasting Tribunal

IN the matter of the Broadcasting Act 1976, and in the matter of an application by RADIO HAWKES BAY LIMITED for a FM sound radio warrant for Hawkes Bay:

B. H. Slane, Chairman; Lionel R. Sceats and Anne E. Wilson, Members; Murray J. Henshall, Co-opted Member.

Hearing: Napier, 7 June 1983.

Counsel: R. L. Maclaren for applicant; G. R. Rowe for Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand.

DECISION

THE applicant applied for a warrant to establish a commercial FM radio station. The Tribunal had advertised for applications for a commercial FM warrant to serve the Hawkes Bay area.

The applicant is a public company which had previously applied for an AM warrant which was declined (Decision No. 18/82).

A station for the transmission of a FM programme was to be established on Mount Erin, co-siting with the television transmission facility of the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand. A calculated coverage area prepared by BCNZ transmission engineers formed the basis for calculations of expected audience. Stereo coverage would extend to a large proportion of the Hawkes Bay area but would not extend to the northern part of the Hawkes Bay. Coverage from Mount Erin would include Napier, Hastings, Havelock North, Waipawa and Waipukurau.

Evidence in support of the application was given by 4 of the proposed directors, Messrs G. W. Parsonage, G. G. McKay, P. D. Wilson and M. L. Ballantine. Evidence was also given by Mr J. B. Geddis, deputy managing director of Hawkes Bay News Ltd. Technical evidence was given by Mr P. L. Johnston.

The application was opposed by the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand. For the Corporation Mr Rowe submitted that there should be some restraint on the commercial aspects of the application in order to protect the Corporation's existing commercial stations in the area, 2ZC and 2ZK. In response to a question from the Tribunal Mr Rowe submitted that there should be a limit on the advertising minutes permitted per hour and although he did not specify a figure, he suggested it should be less than the 8 minutes per hour which the applicant had proposed as a self-imposed limit.

Mr Rowe said that regard should be had to section 80(c) Broadcasting Act 1976 because of the economic effect which the station would have on the stations of the Corporation in the area and thus on the Corporation itself.

The Corporation also produced evidence for the purpose of rebutting statements made in evidence by the applicant's witnesses regarding the programming of the existing stations and whether or not the proposed station's programming would be different.

The applicant proposed a 24-hour locally originated popular music programme directed to an audience 15 to 24 "with a desired spill-over to the peripheral audience at either end".

The 2 local stations were seen by the applicant as providing a service predominantly to people aged 25 to 54, with both stations using "day-parting" of music to the lower age group of the audience in the afternoons. The applicant also expected the stations audience to include some older people up to 40 who would listen to the programme for some of the time. The station would attract the interest of people outside the target audience. The audience would be older between 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and would attract a younger age group at night.

The Tribunal is required by section 80 in considering any application for a warrant, to have regard to the following matters so far as they are applicable before determining whether or not to grant the application. (Some of the comments made under one heading will be applicable to other headings.)

(a) The extent to which the proposed service is desirable in the public interest

The principal benefit that the new station would bring to the Hawkes Bay would be a stereo FM programme which is not at present available to listeners in the area. There was no claim made to us by BCNZ witnesses or in submissions which suggested that it was not desirable to introduce a commercial FM programme service to the area. The objections were based on the suggestion that the proposed format was not sufficiently different from the programmes already available in the area and the effect which the commencement of the station would have on other services.

The Tribunal is satisfied that the stereophonic high fidelity sound which enhances the listening pleasure and brings the music quality available on recordings to the listener, is a real and substantial benefit to which great weight must be given.

We have considered the objections raised by the Corporation. We are satisfied that the programme is suitably organised and formatted to exploit the qualities of this broadcasting mode for a young audience. They would most readily of all population ages adapt to the programmes offered and switch to the FM band.

It is clear, of course, that there will be some overlap—indeed at times a considerable duplication—of particular music played on the 2 Radio New Zealand stations.

However the presentation, tone and style of the station will be entirely different from that which was, for instance, proposed previously by the company for an AM warrant.

The company is exploiting the FM mode to the best advantage by the selection of the music format with a low advertising content.

- (b) The economic effect which the establishment of the station to which the application relates is likely to have in respect of broadcasting stations already in operation
- (c) The effect which the establishment of the station to which the application relates may have on broadcasting services provided by the Corporation in the public interest

The Tribunal accepts that there will be a significant effect on the revenue of the Radio New Zealand stations in the area. When we dealt with the application for an AM station the applicant and the BCNZ respectively assessed the effect as $200,000 and $500,000. The Tribunal concluded that the effect in the market would have been in the order of $300,000.

The Corporation provided evidence in confidence of its existing radio revenue for the last financial year. Considering that and the different nature of the application, the Tribunal considers the effect will be to the order of $150,000 in the first year. The Tribunal considers that this is not so significant as to outweigh the benefit of the provision of a popular commercial stereo FM broadcasting programme service in Hawkes Bay. The Tribunal acknowledges however that at least in the initial stages some consideration should be given to limiting the effect.

The Tribunal has had regard to the case made by the Corporation and in particular in the evidence given by Mr G. M. L. Storry.

The Tribunal has considered the evidence given and the confidential figures supplied by the Corporation. We accept there will be additional costs as well as an effect on the revenue of the Corporation. But we do not believe there will now be a potential to obtain substantial additional revenue well beyond target which Mr Storry feared because it would exacerbate the economic effect on the Corporation stations. The condition as to advertising content will limit that.

Overall, we consider the desirability of the service outweighs the economic factors raised by the Corporation.

- (d) The needs of New Zealand or the locality or localities proposed to be served, in respect of broadcasting services

There are no stereo FM services available in the area. The Tribunal considers that the provision of stereo FM programmes in radio broadcasting is now considered, both by Government policy and by public decision, one of the needs of New Zealand and of various localities in New Zealand.

Evidence was given that nearly 3 homes in 4 have sets capable of receiving programmes on the VHF band which is an indication of public desire to avail itself of the stereo FM mode of broadcasting when it is available. There had been a significant increase in set penetration shown in surveys conducted in 1981 and 1982. The high set penetration argues strongly for the granting of the application since nearly three-quarters of the population is equipped to receive programmes on the VHF band although none are at present offered.

Evidence was given (and the Tribunal had been aware of it from previous hearings) of the interest in FM broadcasting of a classical or serious music programme. Survey information also indicated that there was a growing demand for a popular commercial programme. The publicity given to the development of FM and the commencement of FM broadcasting in Auckland has generated an interest which has probably identified a need which has existed for some time but has not become, until now, readily recognised.

- (e) The financial and commercial ability of the applicant to carry on the proposed service

The Tribunal reiterates its previous remarks about the directors and Mr Parsonage. (Decision 18/82, page 8). The proposal now before the Tribunal is one which probably demands much less in management skills.

The proposed funding arrangements are satisfactory and it is noted that the company is not proposing to be listed on the Stock Exchange but shares will be privately placed to between 25 and 50 mainly Hawkes Bay shareholders. The Tribunal is satisfied that the applicant has the financial and commercial ability to carry on the proposed service.

- (f) The likelihood of the applicant carrying on the proposed service satisfactorily

Programming will be a vital concern. Mr Parsonage has extensive experience in this field.

The acceptance of a news service from an outside source places less importance on the news aspect as far as the staffing is concerned. As we have said on previous occasions news and information is a less significant part of the operations of a FM station than an AM station.

- (g) The results of any survey available to the Tribunal

The applicant undertook an informal survey. Although we are not satisfied that, in every respect, the results of the survey can be taken without question—some of the faults referred to by the Tribunal in other surveys and in the last survey conducted by Radio Hawkes Bay Ltd., will exist in the present survey—we are satisfied that the information concerning set penetration shows a significant trend and that there is in the community a significant demand for the proposed service. The information revealed by the survey will be of use to the applicant in programming the station.

- (h) The requirement that frequencies be best utilised in the public interest

The approval of this FM station will be a better use of frequencies than the previous proposal for an AM station.

The fact that the station is to be co-sited is important.

The applicant hinted at the possibility that it might prefer to use Te Mata as an alternative site if the cost of co-siting with the television facility proved to be too expensive. After hearing the evidence of the Post Office, the Tribunal indicates its reluctance to consider any proposal other than co-siting at the intended site. While the Post Office could make a frequency available the impact on frequency planning of transmitting from other sites is significant. We fully accept the evidence of Mr R. W. Becker for the New Zealand Post Office who pointed out the poorer coverage which would be obtained from Te Mata and that greater power would be required to provide an adequate signal into the furthest part of Napier. He emphasised the importance of co-siting for frequency management. The objective was to provide a service similar to that provided by the television station from Mount Erin and this could not be achieved from Te Mata.

The Tribunal accepts the Post Office view that non co-siting should generally be permitted only for low powered stations which the Post Office considers would be in the order of 100 watts or less.

The Tribunal has reason to believe that the importance of co-siting is not fully accepted or understood. Except in the rarest circumstances the Tribunal should not consider deviating from that principle for full powered stations. Looked at in isolation, there might seem to be attractions in broadcasting from alternative sites in particular cases. But the cumulative effect might be to deprive listeners elsewhere of programme choices and limit the optimum use of the frequency band.

- (i) The desirability of avoiding monopolies in the ownership or control of news media

The applicant would provide an alternative radio news service.

The company proposed that Hawkes Bay News Ltd. will be entitled to take up to 25 percent of the capital and will have the right to appoint a director.

Hawkes Bay News Ltd. publishes the afternoon daily newspapers in Hastings and Napier and a number of other community newspapers in the area. There is no locally originated morning daily newspaper.

The Tribunal commented that there would need to be restrictions on the newspaper shareholding in the company when it was considering the AM application. In this FM application we do not consider the newspaper involvement a disadvantage. Each case should be considered on its merits. It is likely the company will use a network service for national and international news. If there were a greater local newspaper ownership we would want to see some guarantees of editorial independence.

In order to provide some control over the situation a condition will be imposed limiting news media ownership to 30 percent in the same form as has recently been approved for other private radio stations.

It is noted that there is a proposal for the networking of national and international news which would thus be edited independently of the station. Its own journalists will prepare reports of local news and the Tribunal would expect that they would be given the normal independence expected of journalists in a separate medium.

- (j) The hours during which the applicant proposes to broadcast programmes

The applicant proposes locally originated programmes for 24 hours a day.

While there is no present proposal for networking during off-peak listening hours, we would not have considered this any significant disadvantage in the FM mode.

- (k) The extent of advertising matter which the applicant proposes to broadcast

A self-imposed limit of 8 minutes advertising per hour is proposed by the company which it says would enable it to reach its income projections. There is no reason to suspect that the station would depart from this, but programme rules at present permit advertising of up to 18 minutes per hour. Commonly AM stations broadcast up to 12 minutes per hour.

The Tribunal considers that an adequate revenue can be obtained by limiting advertisements to 6 minutes in any 1 hour and a condition to this effect would limit the impact on the other stations. This will only affect peak time revenue but will assist Radio New Zealand stations. The applicant could reconsider its proposed rates for advertisements.

- (l) The proposed rates and charges to be made in respect of advertising programmes

In the initial stages the station may tend to keep its rates low but they will, no doubt, be adjusted to meet the rates of competitors having regard to audience shares.

- (m) Such matters as may be necessary for the purpose of imposing conditions under section 7A of this Act

The usual conditions will apply. In addition there will be conditions limiting news media ownership and advertising content per hour.

- (n) All relevant evidence or representations received by it at the hearing

We do not place great weight on the disadvantage to advertisers of the extension of the multi-station market.

- (o) Such other matters as may be prescribed in regulations in that behalf

The Tribunal is required to have regard to regulation 15A, Broadcasting Regulations 1977 which reads:

"15A. 1. In considering any application for a sound radio warrant in respect of an AM broadcasting station or a FM broadcasting station, the Tribunal, before determining whether or not to grant the application, shall have regard to the policy of the Government under which a frequency modulation (FM) broadcasting service is to be developed as an integral part of sound-radio broadcasting in New Zealand."

By direction dated 27 October 1981 the Minister of Broadcasting notified the Broadcasting Tribunal that after considering its report on the development of frequency modulation broadcasting in New Zealand, it was a part of the general policy of the Government in relation to broadcasting that a FM broadcasting service be developed as an integral part of sound-radio broadcasting in New Zealand and that it be introduced in New Zealand without delay.

In pursuance of that policy the Tribunal was directed to call progressively for applications for sound-radio warrants in respect of commercial FM broadcasting stations to be established in areas outside Auckland.

As well as considering each of the criteria under section 80, including section 80 (o) we are required by section 68 to have regard to the general policy of the Government in relation to broadcasting and to comply with any directions given by the Minister of Broadcasting in writing. The calling for this application was in compliance with the direction to do so. The general policy which is relevant is summarised above. It is set out in full in the ministerial directions.

The application is granted subject to conditions.

Conditions

The usual conditions will be inserted in the warrant. The warrant will lapse unless it is taken up within 12 months of the date of this decision or of the date of the final determination of any appeal unless extended by the Tribunal.

There will be a prohibition on networking in terms of section 71A (3) but with an exception as provided in most private warrants. This permits networking news.

Advertising will be permitted in the same terms as for other private stations but there will also be a special condition. There will be a limit of 6 minutes maximum advertising in any 1 hour.

The warrant holders will be required to co-site with the BCNZ television facility at Mount Erin.

The usual clause will be imposed requiring adherence to technical rules.

The Tribunal does not consider it should impose detailed conditions as to the nature of the station's programmes. However, in order to ensure that the station adhere to the promises made when the application was submitted and to ensure there is no radical departure from what was intended, the Tribunal will impose the following condition.

The warrant holder shall not substantially depart from the basic format and content of its proposed programmes or the type or the extent of the services intended to be provided at the time of the grant of the warrant without the prior consent of the Broadcasting Tribunal and subject to any conditions that the Tribunal might impose in the public interest.

The mixed polarisation to be used will be slant.

Allocation of a frequency will be made after the parties have had the opportunity to make representations to the Tribunal.

The same clause as has recently been approved for other private stations will limit news media ownership to 30 percent without the prior consent of the Tribunal.

Pursuant to regulation 14A Broadcasting Regulations 1977 the initial warrant period will be 5 years.

BRO 22/82

Before the Broadcasting Tribunal

In the matter of the Broadcasting Act 1976, and in the matter of allegations made by the NEW ZEALAND PUBLIC SERVICE ASSOCIATION (GOOD MORNING PROGRAMME):

Warrant Holder—Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand (Television 1).

B. H. Slane, Chairman; Lionel R. Sceats and Anne E. Wilson, Members; Gordon C. Ell and Brian W. Stephenson, Co-opted Members.

Hearing: 23 August 1983.

Counsel: P. J. Bartlett for New Zealand Public Service Association Inc.; C. M. Nicholson, Q.C., for the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand; J. G. Miles for Northern Television Ltd.

DECISION

The Programme

Early in 1982 the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand ("the Corporation") and Northern Television Ltd. ("Northern") negotiated arrangements for Northern to supply a television programme for broadcast by Television One, a service of the Corporation. It was to be a magazine type programme in format. It would be transmitted by the Corporation between 1100 and 1200 hours Monday to Friday inclusive. Northern was to have the right to sell advertising in the programme. Northern would retain a percentage of the revenue and the Corporation would have the balance.

The Corporation's television warrants 1, 2, 3, and 4 do not allow for advertising on Fridays. Accordingly, the Corporation applied to the Tribunal for a short-term authorisation for the transmission of advertising programmes between 1100 and 1200 hours on Fridays. That was granted. (see Decision 7/82, 14 June 1982). The Corporation did not ask the Tribunal to approve any other aspect of the arrangement between it and Northern.

In its decision the Tribunal also commented that there was a desire to enlarge the enquiry in respect of the application to one in which the merits of the arrangements for the production and supply of programmes to the Corporation by Northern would be examined and considered in the public interest. The Tribunal did not consider the application was an appropriate vehicle for that consideration.

The Tribunal said:

"The question that the Tribunal has to decide is not whether the internal arrangements between the programme supplier and the Corporation are adequate or suitable or desirable but whether the broadcast of commercials on Fridays is to be approved or not.

The Tribunal made it clear that it would not conduct an investigation into existing or future arrangements between these 2 organisations. If, as was suggested by ATN (Alternative Television Network Ltd.), the agreement entered into proved to be in breach of the Act or the warrant conditions, there were remedies under the Act which could be pursued when an actual broadcast had taken place."

The Tribunal took the view that the question before it was whether or not the Corporation should be permitted advertising programmes on Fridays during the period in question (Decision 7/82 at page 4). The Tribunal granted the application approving the inclusion of advertisements on Fridays between 1100 and 1200 hours from 25 June to 17 December 1982 inclusive, subject to 2 conditions:

1. The advertising programmes in each hour shall not exceed 11 minutes.
2. Each broadcast shall take place only if, during the preceding period of 1 week the applicant has desisted from broadcasting advertising programmes for a period of 1 hour on Network 1 at a time when advertising programmes have normally been broadcast.

The Allegation

On 5 July 1982 the New Zealand Public Service Association Inc. ("the PSA") in a letter to the Secretary of the Corporation complained about various aspects of the Good Morning programme and raised the question of whether the arrangement was in breach of section 82 of the Broadcasting Act 1976. The PSA submitted that, by drawing direct advertising revenue from the programme, Northern was participating in the benefit of the Corporation's warrant. If this arrangement amounted to allowing Northern to participate in the benefit of the Corporation's warrant, section 82 (1) would require the Tribunal's consent in writing. This is not a ground for complaint under section 25. The Tribunal therefore treated the formal complaint of September 1982 in this respect as an allegation of breach of warrant. The other matters of complaint were dealt with under the complaints procedure (Decision 31/82).

On 16 December the Tribunal gave a procedural ruling (Decision 27/82). It was decided that a formal notice would be given to the Corporation of the allegation, that the PSA should remain a party and that an order would be made for the production of the contract between the Corporation and Northern. Consideration would be given to an order for confidentiality.

The allegation which the Corporation was required to answer is annexed to this decision.

The Hearing

The contract was produced to the Tribunal. With the deletion only of the percentage of revenue to be retained by Northern in clause 24 it was made available to the PSA on a confidential basis.

The Tribunal had the benefit of detailed submissions from Mr Bartlett for the PSA and Mr Nicholson for the Corporation. Mr Bartlett's first submission related to the meaning of the word "benefit". He drew attention to the wide meaning given in the Shorter Oxford Dictionary of "advantage, profit, good". He submitted that the contract provided for the supply of programme by microwave and by pre-recorded video tapes and that this amounted to participation by Northern in the operation of the Corporation's television station. He argued that this view was supported by the fact that the contract made Northern responsible for the technical standards of the programme. He further submitted that, by becoming bound to transmit the Good Morning programme, the Corporation had bargained away the freedom which it would otherwise have enjoyed to broadcast programmes of its own choice.

Mr Nicholson invited the Tribunal to view the arrangement as a normal contract for the supply of programme, that being a function and power specifically granted to the Corporation under sections 22 (c) and 34 (a) Broadcasting Act 1976. He submitted that in acquiring the Good Morning programme the Corporation was in fact exercising the choice which Mr Bartlett argued it had bargained away. The consideration in return for the supply of programme was that the supplier could retain a proportion of the advertising revenue. Mr Nicholson argued that not only should the word "benefit" be considered; the phrase in section 82 (1) is "participate in the benefit" and the meaning of "participate" is "to partake, to share in common". It would be an unduly restrictive interpretation, he said, to hold that the Corporation could not contract for the supply of 1 hour's programme per day without being held to have allowed another to have participated in the benefit of its warrant.

In his submission the Corporation had not bargained away its right to choose programmes; it had exercised its choice. The agreement was for a programme in a particular format. The idea was not substantially different from, for example, taking a programme live from an overseas broadcasting organisation.

The Tribunal accepts Mr Nicholson's submission as to the nature of the arrangement. It is satisfied that sections 22 and 34 of the Broadcasting Act 1976 empower the Corporation to acquire the rights to broadcast programmes from outside producers and suppliers. (The significance of those sections is referred to later). The arrangement with Northern was within the scope of these sections. "To purchase or otherwise acquire programmes" includes the power to obtain broadcasting rights without necessarily obtaining outright ownership of the programmes.

The contract shows that the Corporation gave away none of its responsibilities as a warrant holder. The programme was to be within an agreed format, normal technical standards were to be maintained, the Corporation had the right to order changes in the programmes, the supplier was under a duty to have stand-by material available in case of faults, the normal complaints procedure was to apply and Northern was prohibited from assigning the benefit of the contract without the Corporation's consent. Even a substantial transfer of shareholding in Northern without the Corporation's consent would be expressly in breach of the contract.

Mr Bartlett's second submission was that the sharing of advertising revenue was a participation by Northern in the benefit of the warrant. He argued that section 73 made it clear that the right to advertise arose from a condition of the warrant. The sharing of such revenue constituted participation in the warrant. Mr Nicholson on the other hand submitted that the division of the advertising revenue was nothing more or less than a method of paying Northern for the programme which it supplied.

Mr Nicholson invited the Tribunal to find that, construing the contract as a whole, it was essentially one for the supply of a programme to be paid for by the division of advertising revenue, as the simplest and most convenient method of payment. He submitted that in construing the words as used in section 82 (1) they should be given no wider application than is consistent with the statutory intention of prohibiting the establishment or operation of a broadcasting station by an unauthorised person: Section 82 was intended to stop people getting around the need for specific authorisation by trafficking, partnership or "straw man" devices. The interpret the provision "permit any person to participate in the benefit of his warrant" as prohibiting the production and supply of programmes for a warrant holder would be to impose a restriction not intended by the legislature.

Mr Nicholson was unable to say at what stage a contract for the supply of programmes on this basis would drift into the realm of "trafficking, partnership or straw man devices." Nor is the Tribunal able to lay down a clear boundary line. For the purpose of determining the question before it, the Tribunal holds that on these facts, the obtaining of 1 hour's programme per day in the manner provided for in the contract between the Corporation and Northern did not constitute participation by Northern in the benefit of the Corporation's warrant. The stage at which section 82 (1) would apply is a question of degree which the Tribunal will refrain from attempting to define in this decision. Although the Corporation was to receive only a small percentage of the revenue this was not particularly significant, having regard to the time of day the programme was to be broadcast.

Having decided that the Corporation was not in breach of section 82 (1) it is not necessary to go on to consider Mr Nicholson's alternative defence, namely that the Corporation is not subject to that section. However the Tribunal considers it is desirable to express a view on this submission, in the interests of clarifying the matter.

Mr Nicholson drew our attention to sections 22 (e) and 34 (a) and also to section 17 which lists the general functions and powers of the Corporation. He submitted that, in the overall scheme of the Act, the Corporation was given a special status, with an entire part of the Act dedicated to its general functions, powers, and obligations. He said it was at least arguable that these powers and functions should be read as particular powers and functions and should therefore override the general provisions of the Act. In support of this he cited the maxim that generalities do not derogate from particular provisions.

The Tribunal does not accept that the Corporation's empowering provisions exempt it from the provisions of section 82. That section was adopted without substantial change from section 27 Broadcasting Authority Act 1968. That Act established for the first time a regulatory body independent of the (then) New Zealand Broadcasting Corporation.

Section 70 was adopted from section 16 of the 1968 Act and provides:

- (1) Before a person (including the Corporation) is granted a licence under the Post Office Act 1959 to establish and operate a broadcasting station (not being a short-wave station or a relay station) he shall obtain a warrant under this part of this Act.
- (2) Subject to this Act, no person shall establish or operate a broadcasting station otherwise than in conformity with the terms and conditions of a warrant or authorisation issued by the Tribunal under this Act and for the time being in force."

Thus it is clear that the Corporation, like any other broadcasting organisation, is to operate only within the terms of its warrant or authorisation.

Further, as Mr Bartlett pointed out, section 83 (5) of the 1976 Act clearly contemplates that the Corporation could be penalised for being in breach of the terms of its warrants.

The Tribunal considers that the Corporation's empowering provisions in the Broadcasting Act are simply that. They state the activities which are intra vires the Corporation but they do not displace the need to obtain the usual consents, licenses, and warrants as required by legislation. Thus the Corporation is not exempt from the duty to comply with the terms of its warrants and the obligation not to assign, sub-let, transfer or otherwise dispose of to any other person, or permit any other person to participate in the benefit of its warrants, except in compliance with section 82.

Confidentiality

For Northern, Mr Miles supported Mr Nicholson's submissions on behalf of the Corporation. Mr Miles also drew the Tribunal's attention to the statements on discovered documents in Riddick v. Thames Board Mills [1977] 3 All ER 677 in which the English Court of Appeal unanimously re-stated the principle that the courts will imply an undertaking that documents compulsorily disclosed will be used only for the purpose of the action for which they were disclosed and not for any ulterior or improper purpose. Mr Miles said he would have preferred only the relevant parts of the contract between the Corporation and Northern to be ordered to be produced and he asked for the restriction on the contents of it to remain in force.

The Tribunal considers it would in this case have been difficult for a party to make submissions about the contract without seeing the whole of the document. It was made available only to counsel and to Mr Simpson of the PSA and the percentage of revenue to be retained by Northern was deleted. The Tribunal agrees that the power to order the production of documents containing confidential commercial information should be used with great restraint. It accepts Mr Bartlett's undertaking that only one copy of the document was made, that he made Mr Simpson aware of the restriction on the use of the information and that he would obtain the return of any copy from Mr Simpson.

Two further matters are relevant.

First, Northern did not make any submissions about confidentiality before the Tribunal made the order. Secondly, while rules may have been developed by the courts to apply to proceedings before them, the Tribunal has only the powers specifically given it under the Commissions of Inquiry Act and the Broadcasting Act.

Public Comment

One further matter was raised at the hearing. The Tribunal drew Mr Bartlett's attention to the fact that his client association's senior advisory officer, Mr Simpson, in whose name the complaint was brought, was quoted in reference to the case in the Auckland Star. Mr Bartlett was not in a position to say whether Mr Simpson had been quoted accurately. He had not previously seen the article. It reported Mr Simpson as saying that if there had been a breach, the Government and the Tribunal would be "in a very embarrassing position". The Tribunal's function is to hear and determine in a judicial manner the issues referred to it under the Act. It can therefore hardly be a matter of embarrassment for the Tribunal if it finds one way or another. The procedure under which we have dealt with this matter was that suggested by the Tribunal in its decision 7/82. There can therefore have been no embarrassment when that suggestion was taken up by the PSA. If Mr Simpson was quoted accurately, we assume it arose from a misunderstanding of the nature of the Tribunal's function. Mr Bartlett undertook to draw the newspaper report and the Tribunal's comment to Mr Simpson's attention.

Decision

The decision of the Tribunal is that the Corporation has not committed the alleged breach of the terms and conditions of television warrants 1, 2, 3, and 4.

Co-opted members

Mr Gordon Ell and Mr Brian Stephenson were co-opted as persons whose qualifications or experience would be of assistance to the Tribunal in dealing with the complaint. They took part in deliberations of the Tribunal but the decision is that of the permanent members.
