Decision No. 7/84
Reference No. IND 34/83

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by The Comptroller of Customs in respect of the following publication:

Explosives and Propellants From Commonly Available Materials, published by Desert Publications, Arizona, U.S.A.

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Members: H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing on the 30th day of March 1984.

Appearances: C. Hillman for Comptroller. No appearance of importer R. W. Coates, Auckland.

DECISION

IN decision 1081 we had to consider Improvised Munitions Hand Book, Improved Munitions Black Book, Volumes 1 and 2, Home Workshop Guns for Defence and Resistance, Volumes 1 and 2 and Bare Kills. We emphasised then and we emphasise now that the word 'indecent' has a special definition in section 2, Indecent Publications Act. It includes 'describing, depicting, expressing or otherwise dealing with matters of sex, crime, cruelty or violence in a manner that is injurious to the public good'. We have now had referred to us this publication which is a single copy privately imported through Auckland Parcel Post in September 1983. Forfeiture has been disputed by the importer.

It is published by Desert Publications, Arizona, and is a soft cover publication giving detailed instructions for the production of explosives under field conditions. As Mr Hillman has submitted the instructions are clear, precise and, in some cases, extremely simple. They utilise materials readily available and some of the processes contain a high element of risk.

Recent events in Wellington give an added emphasis to our reasons for classifying as indecent those publications covered by Decision 1081. The publication currently before us is in the same category. In the hands of one bent on criminal activity it would be a very useful addition to his library.

It is classified as indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 1st day of May 1984.

Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

3

Decision No. 8/84
Reference No. IND 3/84

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the following publications:

Newsflash 1983, No. 6, published in Australia;

Teenage Sex, Nos 28 and 29, published in Sweden, printed in Australia;

Colour Climax, No. 115, publisher unknown;

Anal Sex, published by Color Climax Corporation, Denmark;

Private, No. 58, published by Private Press, Stockholm, Sweden.

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Members: H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing on the 30th day of March 1984.

Appearances: C. Hillman for Comptroller of Customs. No appearance of importer, G. Carter, Auckland.

DECISION

THESE publications are single copies privately imported through Auckland Parcel Post in January 1984. They have been seized but the importer has disputed forfeiture. They are referred to the Tribunal for classification. Mr Hillman stated that Newsflash is a mail order catalogue for an Australian company and it advertises a wide range of publications, video tapes and articles. In this catalogue there are a number of photographs depicting a range of sexual activity including, homosexual acts, bondage and sexual intercourse. The catalogue can only be for the purpose of inducing persons to purchase books which we have no doubt would in the majority of cases be classified as indecent.

The remaining publications consist of colour photographs with a minimal amount of text. They can be considered hard core pornography and indeed Anal Sex is sub-titled 'hard core pornography'. In Waverley Publishing Company v. Comptroller of Customs (1980) NZLR 631, Jeffries J. indicated when he would consider a book or sound recording to be indecent and injurious to the public good. These publications are predominantly concerned with the prurient and lewd aspects of sex. The subject matter is described in a patently offensive matter so as to concentrate on the prurient and lewd aspects of sex. There is no literary or artistic merit nor are there any other redeeming features. The likelihood of corruption outweighs the possible benefit. They are amongst some of the worst publications we have had to consider. We also draw attention to the fact that earlier numbers of Colour Climax have been classified as indecent (Decisions 956 and 1018).

They are classified as indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 30th day of April 1984.

Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Decision No. 9/84
Reference No. IND 2/84

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the following applications:

Rubber Bondage, Volume 8;

Club Latexa, Volume No. 1;

Latex Slaves, Volume 1, No. 1—all published by Centurian Publications, Westminster, U.S.A.

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Members: H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing on the 30th day of March 1984.

Appearances: C. Hillman for Comptroller of Customs. No appearance of importer, T. B. Pearce, Auckland.

DECISION

THIS collection of magazines was imported and seized by the Customs Department at Auckland in January 1984. Forfeiture has been disputed and once again the Tribunal is asked to classify. As in Decision No. 10/84 we cite the Comptroller's submissions:

"Latex Slaves is a 21 x 28 cm publication containing text, photographs and drawings. The publication deals in an explicit manner with rubber fetishism, bondage, female domination, the sexual use of enemas and similar topics.

Rubber Bondage is a bondage magazine with an emphasis on rubber fetishism. The publication contains photographs, drawings and text and is considered to deal with its subject in an explicit manner.

Club Latexa, although containing several illustrated stories on rubber fetishism, would appear to consist mainly of advertising for various items of rubber clothing and rubber appliances, including bondage equipment."

Our attention has been drawn to other decisions where publications of a similar nature have been classified as unconditionally indecent. They are, Decisions 1026, 1039, 1061, 1070, 1077 and 1085. These publications are no different and for reasons previously stated they are classified as unconditionally indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 30th day of April 1984.

Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

3

Decision No. 10/84
Reference No. IND 35/83

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the following publications:

The Best of Rubber Life, Volume 1, No. 2, published by Slimwear of America Inc., U.S.A.;

Rubber Quarterly, Volume 4, No. 7, published by Eros Publishing, U.S.A.;

Rubber Quarterly, Volume 4, No. 3, published by Night Bird Magazines, U.K.

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Members: H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing on the 30th day of March 1984.

Appearances: C. Hillman for Comptroller of Customs. No appearance of importer, B. E. Purdie, Bulls.

DECISION

THESE publications were privately imported through Palmerston North Parcel Post in October 1983. Forfeiture has been disputed by the importer so that the Tribunal has been asked to classify them. It is easier in this particular case to quote in full the submissions of the Comptroller.

"These magazines consist essentially of photographic material with a minor amount of text. The theme of the publications is the use of rubber clothing and accessories in a variety of sexual activities.

The Best of Rubber Life, Volume 1, No. 2, contains a lesbian sequence as well as heterosexual scenarios. In addition, there are strong elements of domination in both the text and photographs.

Rubber Quarterly, Volume 4, No. 3 appears to concentrate on female domination, with one section on transvestism, while Volume 4, No. 7 specialises in lesbian sequences.

It is considered that all three of these publications are similar to 'Rubber and Latex Girls' and 'The Bitch Goddesses' in that they present deviant aspects of sex for prurient purposes. 'Rubber and Latex Girls' was declared unconditionally indecent by the Tribunal in Decision 1077 while 'The Bitch Goddesses', Volume 8, No. 1 and Volume 9, No. 4 were made unconditionally indecent in Tribunal Decision 997a of 23 June 1981."

In our view these publications are little different from those we have previously classified as indecent as stated in the Comptroller's submissions. They also will be classified as indecent for reasons previously given in earlier decisions.

Dated at Wellington this 30th day of April 1984.

Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the following publication:

The Joy of Lesbian Sex, published by Crown Publishers Inc., New York, U.S.A.

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Members: H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing on the 30th day of November 1983.

Appearances: C. Hillman for Comptroller of Customs. No appearance of importer P. L. Bedford, Nelson.

DECISION

THIS publication is a single copy privately imported air freight through Nelson. It was seized on 29 June 1983 and forfeiture has been disputed by the importer. It is referred to the Tribunal for classification.

This is a hard covered book containing 220 pages and can be called The Complete Guide to Lesbianism. It is collated and produced as an explicit dictionary type book and contains black and white pencil sketches as well as some pages in full colour. The models are not the same throughout and vary from nude to partially clad women. The book is well written, informative and well presented.

The subject is sensitively handled under each heading and by comparison with other manuals on lesbianism is of a superior standard. Bearing in mind that lesbianism is not outside the law, the publication cannot be considered as indecent on that basis. However, in view of some of the sketches we think it preferable to classify it indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 rather than to classify it as indecent. It is classified accordingly.

Dated at Wellington this 30th day of April 1984.

Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Decision No. 12/84
Reference No. IND 1/84

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the following publications:

'Genesis', Volume 10, No. 12, Volume 11, Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, published by Cycle Guide Publications, U.S.A.

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Members: H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing at Wellington on the 30th day of March 1984.

Appearances: C. Hillman for Comptroller of Customs. G. F. Ellis for Importer, Gordon and Gotch Ltd.

DECISION

THESE publications are sample copies commercially imported through Auckland Parcel Post in December 1983. We understand that it is not unusual for a distributor to have sent to him sample copies of books or magazines in the hope that the distributor may purchase. This happened here. The importer has requested that they be referred to the Tribunal for classification prior to distribution.

Mr Ellis appeared on behalf of the importer and submitted that the content, theme and general balance of material in each issue of 'Genesis' under consideration was consistent and followed a pattern familiar to the Tribunal. He suggested that it most closely resembled 'Gallery' which was considered in Decision 1080. We would comment that in some respects it bears a resemblance to 'Penthouse'. The August issue is different from the others because it is an anniversary issue and is expanded from the normal 116 pages to 124. A comparison of the other 5 issues shows that they follow what might almost be called a disciplined pattern. At pages 24, 30, 49, 67, 81 and 96 the regular features are introduced. The August issue is very similar except for the introduction of the extra 8 pages. Mr Ellis said that the dominant effect of the publication is clearly the presentation of sexual themes. We must agree. We would, however, be inclined to reject his submission that there is a substantial balancing context of material on non-sexual matters. We accept that there are some articles of genuine merit. We quote the 3 mentioned by Mr Ellis namely 'Justice in America' in the July issue, 'Crime and Corruption in the U.S.S.R.' in the October issue, and 'El Salvador: The Cruel War' in the December issue. It is the pictorial sections which we feel could be of most interest to the buyer of this publication. We must concede that it is well produced on glossy paper. The presentation of photographs is consistently of a high standard and in the main, there are none of the objectionable elements which we have found in 'Penthouse' (see Decisions 1033, 1053 and 1054). We accept that in the September, October, November and December issues there are photographs (mostly in the section dealing with reviews of X-rated videos) which would probably fail the "tripartite test" developed in respect of 'Penthouse'. However, there is only one such picture in each of the 4 issues. In the main, the photographs are reasonably restrained and are no worse than those which would appear in pictorial sections of 'Penthouse' which have been classified with an age restriction nor are they dissimilar from those in 'Gallery' which we have classified as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18. I think we should make the comment that this publication as well as 'Gallery' is very close to the border-line, and could easily go beyond that border-line if care is not taken.

Mr Hillman agreed that 'Genesis' was analogous to 'Gallery' but suggested that because of the photographs in the September, October, November and December issues we might consider classifying the publication as indecent. While accepting that the photographs are of the type to which we have objected, they are very different in size, detail and number. We feel that having allowed 'Gallery' to be sold with an age restriction, we must do the same for this publication. It is classified indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18.

Dated at Wellington this 30th day of April 1984.

Judge W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

CONDITIONS OF APPROVAL

LPG fuel cylinders are approved subject to the following conditions—

1. That they be permanently and clearly marked, on a suitably attached metal plate, with characters not less than 6 mm high if space permits but in any case not less than 3 mm high, displaying the following information:
 - (a) The specification to which the cylinder was manufactured.
 - (b) The manufacturer's name or mark and the serial number of the cylinder.
 - (c) The date of the original cylinder inspection and the identification mark of the inspection authority who made the inspection.
 - (d) The date of any periodic cylinder test and the identification mark of the cylinder testing station who made each test.
 - (e) The cylinder test pressure.
 - (f) The nominal water capacity of the cylinder.
 - (g) The tare weight of the cylinder.
2. That they be clearly marked or labelled to indicate that the cylinder is suitable for use with LPG.
3. That they be provided with valve threads and fittings which provide the following functions—
 - (a) Filling connection incorporating a non return valve.
 - (b) Service valve incorporating an excess flow valve.
 - (c) Contents gauge.
 - (d) Safety valve.
 - (e) A fixed liquid level indicator or an automatic fill shut off device which prevents the cylinder being filled beyond 85 percent of the total cylinder capacity.

Valves and fittings shall have a service pressure rating of at least that of the cylinder to which they are fitted and shall be dimensioned, threaded and marked in accordance with the requirements of section 2.3 of New Zealand Standard NZS 5422 "The use of LPG and CNG Fuels in Internal Combustion Engines—Part 1 LPG Fuel".
4. That they be tested at periods not exceeding five years in accordance with the requirements of Australian Standard AS 2337-1980 and in accordance with the periodic test requirements laid down in the specification to which the cylinder was manufactured.

LPG Fuel System Approvals—Concessional Fuel Cylinder Approvals—continued

5. That they be fitted to a motor vehicle in such a position that they will not be subject to the direct rays of the sun, either by fitting them within a suitable vehicle compartment, or by providing a suitable shield if the cylinders are fitted to the exterior of the vehicle.
6. The terms of this approval do not allow the continued importation of such LPG fuel cylinders and it does not apply to cylinders which have not been installed in a motor vehicle by 31 December 1985.

NOTES: The effect of this notice is to allow the continued use of LPG fuel cylinders which are known to have been imported into New Zealand prior to the introduction of the Dangerous Goods (Class 2—Gases) Regulations 1980 and which were acceptable under the previous dangerous goods requirements, but whose working pressure rating would disqualify them for approval for general use under the Traffic Regulations 1976. They are approved subject to the additional proviso that they must not be exposed to direct sunlight (to reduce the possibility that solar radiation would raise the temperature of the contents of the cylinder such that the developed pressure of the cylinder contents exceeded the working pressure rating of the cylinder).
