Decision No. 14/84

Reference No. Ind. 7/84

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications: Them, Us, Two, Him, Me, I, Woman, You, published by Bantam Books, New York.

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Members: H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 23 May, 1984

Decision: 14 June 1984.

Appearances: C. F. Hillman for Comptroller of Customs. No appearance of importer Corgi and Bantam Books, Auckland.

DECISION

THE publications listed were commercially imported through the Port of Auckland, and are referred to the Tribunal for classification by the importer. It should be noted that 3 of the publications, Us, Woman and Two also appear under reference index No. 6/84, among the items referred to the Tribunal by the Tauranga District Court.

All of the publications are claimed to be written by "a well known authority whose books have sold several million copies and have been translated into virtually every language in the world". The novels are written under the pseudonym, Anonymous, and to date the name of the author has not been revealed by the publishers, although most of these publications have been reprinted on numerous occasions since the first printing some 13 years ago.

One of the series written by Anonymous, Her, was classified as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years, in a majority decision, in 1971 (Decision No. 294). Even 13 years ago these publications caused some difficulty for the Tribunal, for in this decision the Tribunal noted that "Her is not a literary masterpiece, but it is skilfully written and is a good example of the erotic novel".

The 8 novels under consideration have, as the Comptroller of Customs states, "a common theme in that they describe in often graphic detail, the development of sexual relationship". He further states that "It would appear however, that the standard of writing is higher than is normally encountered in publications based on this theme", so it would appear that the present publications written by Anonymous, with one exception, differ very little from the example studied in 1971. All have a sexual theme, are provocative, sensual in presentation, even bizarre, but there is no doubt either that each novel is written in an easy to read and flowing style. The exception is I. It is subtitled "a sensuous novel of an ultimate love experience" and in the author's preface it is said to be a "mysterious amalgam on love and religion". The sexual theme is more explicit than in the other novels and combined as it is with a religious theme it becomes clearly offensive. I is classified as unconditionally indecent.

As far as the other novels are concerned the Tribunal needs to be consistent in making its decision. Also, the publications have been available for some time in hardback form, so any classification given should reflect this factor.

Therefore, in order to be consistent, there would appear to be no reason to differ from Decision No. 294. The Tribunal classifies the 8 publications, Them, Us, Two, Him, Me, Woman and You as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Decision No. 15/84

Reference No. Ind. 9/84

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the following publication: How To, Vol. 16, No. 2, published by Probe Publications Ltd., United Kingdom.

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis

Members: H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm

Hearing: At Wellington, Wednesday, 23 May 1984.

Appearances: C. Hillman for Comptroller of Customs. No appearance of importer, S. Salter, Auckland.

DECISION

This publication was privately imported through Auckland Seafreight in February 1984. The magazine was seized and although the importer disputed forfeiture he later informed the Comptroller that he did not now dispute forfeiture. Nevertheless, the Tribunal has thought it proper to classify this publication.

It is published in English and is subtitled as A fully illustrated manual journal of sexual techniques. On page 3, in a statement of policy from the editors, it is stated:

"The editors of this publication believe that a greater understanding of the complexities of human sexuality may help readers of this magazine obtain greater personal fulfilment of happiness.

The editors also share the belief of countless international medical psychiatric and sociological authorities that making frank and honest sexual education material available to mature adults can only bring about a more enlightened community and benefit society as a whole.

The editors make no judgment as to what an adult man or woman should know about sex. They confine themselves to make the information available in a meaningful way to those who seek it."

From the title and subtitle and from the statement of policy the impression is easily gained that this is another sex manual. Such is far from being the case. Nowhere do the qualifications of the authors appear. The text is vulgar and the illustrations offensive. The publication has no literary or artistic merit and its contents are of doubtful validity having regard to the subtitle. Many of the photographs bear little relationship to the text. The appeal would be only for the lewd and prurient. It is classified as indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 15th day of June 1984.

W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Decision No. 16/84

Reference No. Ind. 10/84

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the following publications:

Young Lust No. 5, published by Last Gasp, Berkeley, U.S.A.

Checked Demon III, published by Last Gasp, San Francisco.

Cocaine No. 2, published by Last Gasp, Eco Funnies, San Francisco.

Tits and Clits No. 2, published by Nanny Goat Productions, Laguna, U.S.A.

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Members: H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, J. V. B. McLinden, I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: At Wellington, Wednesday, 23 May 1984.

Appearances: C. Hillman for Comptroller of Customs. No appearance of importer, S. R. Birrell, Auckland.

DECISION

THESE publications were privately imported through Auckland Parcels Post in February 1984. The books were seized and the importer has disputed forfeiture. They have been referred to the Tribunal for classification.

Young Lust No. 5 is a comic with sex as its theme. It is described as being exotic, erotic and neurotic. As the Comptroller says in its satire of sex mores it depicts homosexual acts as well as heterosexual intercourse. Young Lust No. 1 to 3 were considered by the Tribunal in Decision 686 and 782. The Young Lust Reader was also considered in Decision 884. This particular publication is no different from earlier cases and it is classified as indecent.

Cocaine Comix No. 2 utilises the use of cocaine as its theme. In our view the publication attempts to promote and glamorise the illicit use of cocaine which is what the Comptroller submitted. It is classified as indecent.

Tits and Clits No. 2 is a sex based comic poorly produced and crude in the extreme. It is classified as indecent. The Checked Demon III is as the Comptroller submits a combination of violence and sex. It is likewise classified as indecent.

All these publications come from the United States and none have any literary or artistic merit nor any redeeming features.

Dated at Wellington this 15th day of June 1984.

1. General Accounting Policies

- (a) The measurement base adopted is that of historical cost. Reliance is placed on the fact that the Bank is a going concern.
(b) Accrual accounting is used to match expenses and revenues.

2. Particular Accounting Policies

Particular accounting policies used which significantly affect the measurement of the Bank's profit and its financial position, are set out below:

(a) Recognition of Income

Interest on investments is recognised as income for the period in which it is earned, rather than the period in which it is received. Interest charged on personal loans is apportioned over the term of the loan, using the "Rule of 78" method.

(b) Depreciation

Fixed assets are being depreciated on a straight line basis at rates which will write off the cost over their estimated useful lives to estimated residual values. The principal write off periods are:

Buildings	40–100 years
Computer and Office Calculating Equipment	5– 10 years
Furniture and Fittings	10– 15 years
Other Fixed Assets	3– 15 years

(c) Taxation

Taxation charged against net profit is the estimated expense relating to the result of the year. It includes an amount for taxation, the payment of which is deferred to future periods, because taxation practice differs from accounting policies in the treatment of:

- (i) Interest accrued on investments
- (ii) Depreciation charges
- (iii) Interest accrued included in the purchase price of New Zealand Government securities.

(d) Investments

New Zealand Government and local authorities securities are stated at cost, excluding interest accrued at date of purchase. Such securities are normally held to maturity, and their value on redemption approximates cost.

3. Changes in Accounting Policies

There have been no material changes in accounting policies.

4. The loss on New Zealand Government Securities recorded this year resulted from the sale of low yielding securities, the proceeds from which were re-invested in higher yielding securities.

5. (a) Fixed Assets

	1984 $000	1983 $000
Land	4,711	4,549
Buildings	16,030	12,888
Accumulated depreciation	(1,692)	(1,571)

We have audited the books and accounts of the Auckland Savings Bank for the year ended 31 March 1984 in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and have carried out such procedures as we considered necessary. In our opinion, the balance sheet and profit and loss account, together with the notes thereon, are properly drawn up so as to give using the historical cost method, a true and fair view of the financial affairs of the Auckland Savings Bank as at 31 March 1984 and the results of its operations for the year ended on that date, in accordance with section 43 (2) of the Trustee Banks Act 1983.
