GREETING:

KNOW YE that We, reposing trust and confidence in your integrity, knowledge, and ability, do hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint you, the said Robert McDonald Chapman, Michael John Albert Brown, Laurence Alfred Cameron, and Elizabeth Ann Nelson to be a Commission to inquire into the institutions, operations, financing, and control of New Zealand broadcasting and related telecommunications and to report on what changes are necessary or desirable to use in an economically efficient manner those advances in technology which fit New Zealand's circumstances and resources, to widen the choice, and improve the quality, of programmes, to secure independence, depth, and impartiality in news and current affairs programmes, and to reflect New Zealand's cultural and social variety so that the structure and resources of broadcasting may be better organised to serve all New Zealanders:

And, in particular, to inquire into and report on:

(i) The extent to which and the manner in which officers and employees appointed under section 38 of the Broadcasting Act 1976 are used; and

(ii) The extent to which and the manner in which persons who enter into contracts under section 34 of the Broadcasting Act 1976 (including persons commissioned to provide comment) are used, and the terms and conditions of the contracts entered into with those persons:

3. The corporate structures, ownership, financing, profitability and links with other news media companies of the holders of warrants in respect of private broadcasting stations and the aims, operations, programming, station structure, and staffing of private broadcasting stations; with particular reference to—

- (a) The matters referred to in paragraphs (b), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), and (i) of clause 2 of this warrant, which paragraphs shall apply as if every reference in those paragraphs to the Corporation were a reference to a private broadcaster and with such other modifications as are necessary; and
- (b) The cases for and against imposing an excess profit levy on the holders of warrants in respect of private television stations for the purpose of providing funds for the development of non-commercial public broadcasting services:

4. The resources and functions of the Broadcasting Tribunal and its role in relation to the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand, the holders of warrants in respect of private broadcasting stations, and the Complaints Committee; with particular reference to—

And We hereby appoint you the said ROBERT McDONALD CHAPMAN to be the Chairman of the said Commission:

And for the better enabling you to carry these presents into effect you are hereby authorised and empowered to make and conduct any inquiry or investigation under these presents in such manner and at such time and place as you think expedient, with power to adjourn from time to time and place to place as you think fit, and so that these presents shall continue in force and any such inquiry may at any time and place be resumed although not regularly adjourned from time to time or from place to place:

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications: The Pop Up Kama Sutra, published by Aidan Ellis Publishing Ltd., England.

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Mesdames: H. B. Dick and L. P. Nikera.

Messrs: J. V. B. McLinden and I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: at Wellington on the 13th day of December 1984.

Appearances: No appearance of importer, Thomas C. Lothian Pty. Ltd. K Wild for Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

This publication was imported as a sample copy as it was the intention to import commercial quantities. The importer referred the publication to the comptroller who now asks for a classification.

The publication consists of 4 pop up drawings and has 2 pages of text which bear no relation to the pictures. It is a tawdry publication but selling at $14.85 could not be considered cheap. Burton's Kama Sutra is available in public libraries so that there is no need for this type of book.

This is not the first occasion upon which the Tribunal has been asked to classify publications claiming in one form or another to be the Kama Sutra (decisions 308, 863 and 985). In decision 863 it was said that the Kama Sutra itself is not indecent although it has not been classified by the Tribunal. Burton's translations of the Kama Sutra and the Perfumed Garden are recognised as classic works. What we are asked to consider on this occasion and have been asked to consider on earlier occasions are imitations. They are not the Kama Sutra nor do they resemble the Kama Sutra in any way. Clearly the purpose is dishonest. This publication is classified as indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of January 1985.

W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications:

Blonde, published by Futura Publications, England.

Brunette, published by Futura Publications, England.

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Mesdames: H. B. Dick and L. P. Nikera.

Messrs: J. V. B. McLinden and I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: at Wellington on the 13th day of December 1984.

Appearances: No appearance of importer, Wholesale Book Distributors. K Wild for Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

These 2 books were part of a commercial shipment imported through Auckland. The Tribunal was not told how they came to be imported but it is assumed that they were referred to avoid forfeiture.

Both books are written anonymously. It was suggested that they were written by the same author who wrote Him, Them, Us, Me and Two which received an age classification. We would doubt this because the style is different and the language less subtle. In many respects they resemble the books we considered in Decision 1083 but it can be said that they are better produced. Nevertheless each publication deals with the sexual exploits of the principal character in a variety of ways. The descriptions are explicit. Neither has any literary or artistic merit, and each is injurious to the public good. Each is classified as unconditionally indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of January 1985.

W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications:

Anne Summers' Own Book of Love Positions, published by As(s) Ltd., England.

Marilyn Chambers Sensual Secrets, published by Conegate Ltd., England.

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Mesdames: H. B. Dick and L. P. Nikera.

Messrs: J. V. B. McLinden and I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: at Wellington on the 8th day of November 1984.

Appearances: No appearance of importer, T. Hagget. R. A. Simpson for Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

These publications were imported privately through the port of Auckland in April and were seized as being indecent.

Forfeiture has been disputed so that the books are referred to the Tribunal for classification.

Mr Simpson submitted that both books had been produced in the form of sex manuals ostensibly as educational publications. He considered that a comparison could be drawn with publications earlier considered by the Tribunal The Ecstasy of Sex and The Marriage Bed.

Ann Summers' own Book of Love Positions is a paper back published in Great Britain. The same models are featured throughout the 128 pages and the accompanying text, although not technical, puts it into the category of a sex manual.

The book can be compared with the publications The Ecstasy of Sex and The Marriage Bed in decision No. 6/84. The Tribunal similarly finds this publication to be indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18.

Marilyn Chambers' Sensual Secrets is also a paper back published in Great Britain.

In the introduction Marilyn Chambers says:

"... I've tried to pull together the threads of my active sex life into a single volume of personal advice that will stimulate and excite you beyond your wildest dreams."

The text dwells mainly on the author's experiences with various sexual partners which removes it from the realm of a sex manual. Most of the book describes heterosexual experiences but the latter pages are devoted to lesbianism, bondage and group sex.

For these reasons the Tribunal finds the publication indecent.

Ref. No. Ind. 26/84.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications:

The Amorous Memoirs of Captain Charles De Vane (Sussex Regiment 1899-1902), A Man With A Maid, published by Grove Press, U.S.A.

Venus in the Country, published by Grove Press, U.S.A.

Chairman: Judge W. M. Willis.

Mesdames: H. B. Dick and L. P. Nikera.

Messrs: J. V. B. McLinden and I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: at Wellington on the 13th day of December 1984.

Appearances: No appearance of importer, Music World Ltd. K. Wild for Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION

These 3 publications were seized at Christchurch in May 1984. Forfeiture has been disputed so that they have been referred for classification. Venus in the Country and the Amorous Memoirs of Captain Charles De Vane are both written anonymously and are set in Victorian England. Venus in the Country is said to have been first published by members of the Society of Priapus. It relates the sexual exploits of a young girl. The title The Amorous Memoirs of Captain Charles De Vane indicates the nature of the story. Both books are explicit with little plot and with no literary or artistic merit.

A Man with a Maid is also written anonymously and recounts the sexual activities of a man who has been jilted. It was submitted that this book was virtually identical to The Pearl. The Pearl has been considered by the Tribunal on 2 occasions. First in 1969 (Decision 146) where it was classified as being indecent except in the hands of persons over the age of 18, engaged in research relevant to this material. It was again considered in 1976 (Decision 861) when it was classified as indecent except in the hands of persons over the age of 18 years whose profession or academic studies extend into the fields covered by them. We have taken the opportunity to refer to The Pearl and we feel bound to say that there is no relationship between the 2 publications. The Pearl is said to be a journal of faceliae and voluptuous reading. Apparently it was initially published about 1879 in a series at monthly intervals. The paperback copy we referred to was published in 1968 and comprises a reprint of 18 issues published in 1879-1880. Because of its format and its style it justifies the classification then given. A Man with a Maid is a very different publication. It is explicit and as we have said it relates the sexual activities of the principal character. It lacks literary, artistic or other merit.

Each of these 3 publications would have an appeal only for the low and prurient and are considered to be injurious to the public good. They are classified as indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of January 1985.

W. M. WILLIS, Chairman.
