Decision No. 9/86

Before the Broadcasting Tribunal

IN the matter of the Broadcasting Act 1976, and in the matter of applications for television warrants:

Chairman: B. H. Slane.

Members: Ann E. Wilson and Robert Boyd-Bell.

Co-opted Members: W. Kerekere, M. S. Aked and G. J. Schmitt.

REASONS FOR RULING

Dated the 11th day of July 1986

THE Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand sought leave to file amended and extended evidence of H. B. Rennie, Chairman of the Corporation. It also filed draft evidence and sought leave to call Nigel Dick, the newly appointed Chief Executive of the Corporation, to give that evidence.

Admission of the evidence of Mr Rennie was opposed by some applicants and the Tribunal heard argument on 26 June and gave the following ruling on 27 June: (The text is slightly edited towards the end of the ruling in order to make sense of the page and paragraph references.)

"The Chairman: Mr O'Brien has sought leave to have some more evidence of Mr Rennie accepted. He also seeks to have evidence adduced by Nigel Dick.

The objection taken by some of the counsel arises from the fact that the BCNZ has not previously taken a position in opposition to the grant of any warrant per se.

The Corporation, since the applications were filed, has not formally stated that no warrant ought to be granted. It in fact proposed to support ABS as a warrant holder financially. The Corporation has not revealed in its proposed evidence, or in earlier evidence, its current or recent financial details for examination of the effect of a third service and the room in the market, as might have been expected and as usually occurs when it has opposed the grant of any warrant at all in a radio hearing.

The Corporation has not filed evidence that is stated to be for the purpose of demonstrating the need to avoid any grant. The Corporation has not cross-examined applicant witnesses to the same end or challenged evidence by filing evidence in opposition that there is no room in the market for another channel.

Mr Rennie's draft evidence states that in 1985 he had stated publicly the issue of a warrant was not in the public interest. No attempt was made to notify any change of position by the Corporation then. Indeed, it seems that the change occurred somewhat later.

The Tribunal accepts that the question of whether the warrant application should be granted is open for argument in each individual case and that the BCNZ may submit in respect of each applicant that a warrant is or is not to be granted. The Tribunal will not, however, permit the filing of new evidence to support a contention that no warrant should be issued because of the effect of any third service on the Corporation. To do so would prejudice the parties.

The applicants' evidence was filed in writing and has subsequently been confirmed orally. For the applicants to bring evidence in rebuttal would not overcome the prejudice that they would suffer.

The Tribunal will however permit Mr Rennie to give evidence that the Corporation has now formed a view on whether the applicant fulfils the statutory criteria, a view which he previously said had not been formed. It is too late however to give evidence to support that view at this stage. The Corporation is simply too late.

Some of Mr Rennie's evidence which updates the situation or describes or briefly describes the Corporation's present view will be permitted. Additional or supplementary arguments or opinions which are now being produced and in effect being sprung on the parties will not be permitted. I have merely outlined some of the reasons. If required, fuller reasons for our ruling will be given in writing.

We have not examined Mr Dick's evidence in detail or heard detailed submissions on it. Submissions can be made by the Corporation for any part of it, but at this stage the Tribunal will not permit the introduction of new evidence from a new witness without some special reason.

In relation to the evidence draft filed by Mr Rennie, we have been through it somewhat quickly trying to give some lead as to whether we think it can be accepted.

Perhaps it is best if I suggest that counsel for the Corporation might first like to examine the evidence with a view to deciding what parts he would still like included by Mr Rennie and then, subject to any submissions by other parties on that, we could deal with Mr Rennie's evidence a little later in the day.

We have some doubt about paragraph 4 on page 2. The paragraph 9 on page 4. Under the heading of "Third Channel Directives" (page 4), the material after paragraph 1 appears to be dubious on the grounds of relevance for this hearing at this stage. It is additional material to what was filed before. The Public Interest (page 8) the continuation of paragraph 2. . .

Mr Macrae: Sir, I lost you a little bit under page 5 under directives. Did you say all of the paragraph except paragraph 1, on the grounds of?

The Chairman: Yes, on the grounds of relevance. They seem to relate to matters relating to what is the best television system for New Zealand etc, which is new material that was not introduced before and is questionable on the grounds of relevance. The public interest paragraph 2 starts or Section 2 starts on page 7, continues on to page 8, the first sentence in the paragraph 2 reads "Such evidence was put at a time. . ." The second sentence beginning "A clearer statement is not required. . ." We have ruled out that sentence and all that follows.

We have ruled out the whole of 3 and 4. It would appear to be a situation where the Corporation could have provided such a statement at an earlier stage and to come along with a detailed statement at this stage with argument in support of the position is prejudicial.

The Economic Evidence is out. Aotearoa Broadcasting System evidence can stay in. No further deletion is made through to page 13. Paragraphs 6 and 7 we would suggest come out on pages 13 and 14. We have a query over paragraph 8,—sorry I think that was all right because there was previous reference by Mr Rennie in commercial and non-commercial elements. I haven't examined that closely. What I suggest is that perhaps Mr O'Brien could give that some attention."

The Corporation requested the Tribunal to put into writing its reasons for the ruling.

Without prejudice to the Corporation's rights to dispute the ruling, Mr Rennie gave evidence in accordance with his original brief of evidence as modified by his second brief limited in the ways indicated by the Tribunal.

The Corporation made no further submissions in respect of the paragraphs which the Tribunal raised doubt about but in respect of which it did not give a final ruling and no objection was taken by any other party.

The Tribunal does not intend to detail all the legal argument heard. In particular an extensive argument was put by Mr Baragwanath for ESTV which traversed a great deal of history which the Tribunal does not consider it necessary to examine here.

Nor does the Tribunal intend to set out again the procedural rulings that have previously been given in relation to the production of evidence. It is sufficient to say that the Tribunal set out a procedure which involved applicants and other parties filing evidence in support of their own case, later filing evidence in opposition to evidence filed by others and having an opportunity to reply on a third occasion by filing evidence in reply to the evidence of any other person in opposition.

The Corporation did file evidence from 5 witnesses of whom Mr Rennie was one. No evidence was filed for Mr Dick as he was not Chief Executive of the Corporation at the time when evidence was filed. No evidence was filed on behalf of the Corporation by the then Chief Executive of the Corporation, Mr Cross, who in fact gave evidence for Aotearoa Broadcasting System.

Mr Baragwanath submitted that the premise of the BCNZ's evidence was the existence of a third channel.

He and other counsel referred to the fact that it was not until 29 May 1986, after hearings lasting since mid-August 1985, that the BCNZ filed a memorandum proposing a second statement of evidence from Mr Rennie and that from Mr Dick.

ESTV had no objection to the updating of information for the assistance of the Tribunal upon existing issues if the Tribunal was satisfied the information was not previously available to the BCNZ and exclusion of the evidence would threaten a miscarriage of justice.

But Mr Baragwanath submitted that the change of direction by the Corporation was due not to a change of circumstances but apparently to a change of personnel and policy. The interests of justice did not permit an about turn at the eleventh hour.

It was also submitted that there would follow from the admission of the evidence a request to bring rebuttal evidence. Even that would not adequately deal with matters because a number of witnesses in each case dealt with aspects of the economic effect on the BCNZ and the parties could not be put back into the same position by being given a right to attempt to rebut the evidence of the Corporation. All their cases had been constructed on the basis of the first indicated BCNZ stance.

Mr O'Brien submitted that the Tribunal could waive any part of its procedures under Rule 3.2 and could issue directives under 3.3. Quite properly Mr O'Brien drew attention to the first and principal procedural direction dated 6 June 1985 in which, under the heading "Time Needed for Preliminary Procedures" paragraph 6, read:

"The Tribunal is anxious to avoid any suggestion of surprise or late presentation of evidence and to allow all parties, whatever their resources, a reasonable opportunity to prepare properly beforehand."

He submitted that in this case there was no suggestion of surprise or inexcusable late presentation of evidence. Extensions had been given from time to time for the late filing of evidence by other parties and that direction on page 11, paragraph 15 contemplated leave being granted for exemption:

"Failure to comply . . . or to obtain leave to be exempted in some respect from the direction . . ."

Leave was sought to adduce Mr Rennie's evidence early because he would be out of New Zealand during the time set down for hearing of evidence of Corporation witnesses. The original brief of evidence had been affected by various subsequent changes in Government policy.

Mr O'Brien submitted that there had been various changes in Corporation policy since the brief was filed, but there were also matters referred to in paragraph 2 of the evidence, namely:

- (a) Subsequent Government policies with direct application to State corporations, including the BCNZ, i.e. dividend and taxation policies.
- (b) Actual trading experience in respect of advertising revenues and audience demands.
- (c) Difficulties which have developed in relation to the Aotearoa Broadcasting System and its application.
- (d) Implementation of the first stages of the Corporation's reorganisation of television and radio.
- (e) An increase in Mr Rennie's industry experience.

Mr O'Brien submitted that the Tribunal would be shutting its eyes to highly relevant evidence if leave were not granted. The evidence was relevant to section 80, (a), (b) and (c) and evidence was sought to be given on behalf of a party entitled to be heard under section 78 (1).

He said that the differences in the evidence were:

- (a) It now conveyed some firm views that a grant of further television warrants at this time is not in the public interest.
- (b) Previously Mr Rennie's brief of evidence supported the application of Aotearoa Broadcasting Systems as being the one best likely to comply with the need to fulfil programme standards, etc. That view was not altered in the evidence now sought to be adduced. However, Mr Rennie now indicated that the Corporation had withdrawn its support of the Aotearoa proposal because the previous commitment was based on conditions which that applicant had been unable to meet.
- (c) There was additional evidence relating to special conditions in commercial and non-commercial activity.

Mr O'Brien claimed that Mr Rennie had already signalled the Corporation's concern regarding the issue of warrants as long ago as early 1985; that the Aotearoa position had been known for 4 months or so and that the Corporation's "new" evidence had been submitted for approximately 2 weeks.

He submitted that there was excusable late presentation of the evidence of Mr Rennie and there would be no departure from the procedural directive. In view of the Corporation's special position as an existing warrant holder, Mr O'Brien submitted, it would deny the Corporation the proper exercise of its rights and responsibilities under the Act. It would deny its right to be fully heard and it would deprive the Tribunal of relevant evidence which it would not be receiving from any other source.

As indicated, the Tribunal decided to permit some of the draft evidence of Mr Rennie to be given. Although the Tribunal's categorisation of the actual paragraphs in the evidence was tentative, it appears to have been accepted by the parties as in accordance with the Tribunal's ruling.

The conclusion that the Tribunal had arrived at was:

1. That the Corporation was obviously entitled to change its view on the wisdom of a third TV service.
2. That the question of whether or not an application should be granted was always an open question and it was open to the Corporation to oppose the grant of every one of the applications on whatever grounds it saw fit. Those grounds could include the effect on the Corporation.
3. That the Corporation had not given the parties adequate notice or opportunity to bring forward their own evidence or to counter any evidence for the Corporation based on the proposition that no third service warrant applications should be granted under any circumstances.
4. There would therefore be prejudice to the applicants by the introduction of new evidence at this late stage after a lengthy period of evidence and cross-examination. Such evidence would also lead to requests for rebuttal evidence to be called or for the recall of previous witnesses, which would lengthen the hearings.
5. That the calling of such rebuttal evidence would not overcome the prejudice they had suffered because their witnesses had not previously been cross-examined and because of the inter-relationship between a number of witnesses and their evidence in each case.
6. The Corporation had not cross-examined applicant witnesses on the question of available advertising revenue with a view to demonstrating the lack of room in the market for a third service or to demonstrate the effect on the Corporation.
7. Although the Corporation had filed evidence showing the effect on the Corporation, it was based on the estimates made by the applicants; and the Corporation had adduced no evidence of a substantial sort of its own assessment of the situation, nor had it produced evidence of its present financial situation. We do not accept that this was precluded simply because of the requirement to report to Parliament. We do not need to decide that question but the fact that the Corporation is required to report on its total financial position in an annual report does not preclude the Corporation from producing specific figures such as of advertising revenue which the Corporation has on previous occasions provided to the Tribunal in such circumstances, despite the fact that the report had not been tabled in Parliament.

8. The Corporation did not cross-examine witnesses on the Australian position. This has resulted in a prejudice to the parties.

The Tribunal would permit Mr Rennie to indicate the Corporation's changed position and the reasons for it, but not to provide new supporting evidence which could lead to extensive economic evidence.

Although the Tribunal did not rule in detail on Mr Dick's evidence, considerable evidence on Australian advertising revenue had been produced to the Tribunal. Mr Miles had called three witnesses on Australian and regional matters. The evidence proposed to be called was available to the Corporation earlier and some has been previously published.

In all the circumstances the Tribunal considers that the admission of substantial new evidence of an economic kind which is not an updating of existing evidence and which is tendered to support a changed Corporation position, should not be permitted.

The Corporation will be free to make such submissions as it thinks fit on the extensive evidence already produced.

If the Corporation wishes to make any detailed submissions on Mr Dick's evidence, it may now do so. We do not here rule out the giving of evidence by Mr Dick as Chief Executive.

Signed for the Tribunal:

B. H. SLANE, Chairman.

LPG Fuel System Approvals—Concessional Fuel Cylinder Approvals

PURSUANT to regulation 90B of the Traffic Regulations 1976* (as inserted by the Traffic Regulations 1976, Amendment No. 7) and pursuant to the powers delegated to me by the Secretary for Transport, I, Robert Norman Abram, Chief Automotive Engineer, hereby approve the components listed in the Schedule hereto for inclusion in any LPG automotive fuel system installed and operated in accordance with the requirements of New Zealand Standard NZS 5422, Part 1, 1980 (and any standard made in amendment thereto or in substitution therefor) subject to the conditions of approval set out in respect of any component in the said Schedule.

SCHEDULE

LPG FUEL CYLINDERS

MOT Reference	Manufacturer	Country of Origin	Specification	Material	Inspection Authority	Working Pressure Rating (MPa)	Test Pressure (MPa)	Nominal Water Capacity (litres)
AF LO3C 026	Manchester Tank Co.	U.S.A.	ASME 8/1	Steel	ASME	1.72	2.58	85

CONDITIONS OF APPROVAL

LPG fuel cylinders are approved subject to the following conditions—

- That they be permanently and clearly marked, on a suitably attached metal plate, with characters not less than 6 mm high if space permits but in any case not less than 3 mm high, displaying the following information:
 - The specification to which the cylinder was manufactured.
 - The manufacturer's name or mark and the serial number of the cylinder.
 - The date of the original cylinder inspection and the identification mark of the inspection authority who made the inspection.
 - The date of any periodic cylinder test and the identification mark of the cylinder testing station who made each test.
 - The cylinder test pressure.
 - The nominal water capacity of the cylinder.
 - The tare weight of the cylinder.
- That they be clearly marked or labelled to indicate that the cylinder is suitable for use with LPG.
- That they be provided with valve threads and fittings which provide the following functions:
 - Filling connection incorporating a non-return valve.
 - Service valve incorporating an excess-flow valve.
 - Contents gauge.
 - Pressure relief valve.
 - A fixed liquid level indicator and an automatic fill shut off device which prevents the cylinder being filled beyond 85 percent of the total cylinder capacity.

Valves and fittings shall have a service pressure rating of at least that of the cylinder to which they are fitted and shall be dimensioned, threaded and marked in accordance with the requirements of section 2.3 of New Zealand Standard NZS 5422 "The use of the LPG and CNG Fuels in Internal Combustion Engines—Part 1 LPG Fuel".

- That they be tested at periods not exceeding five years in accordance with the requirements of Australian Standard AS 2337-1980 or in accordance with the periodic test requirements laid down in the specification to which the cylinder was manufactured.
- That they be fitted to a motor vehicle in such a position that they will not be subject to the direct rays of the sun, either by fitting them within a suitable vehicle compartment, or by providing a suitable shield if the cylinders are fitted to the exterior of the vehicle.
- The terms of this approval do not allow the continued importation of such LPG fuel cylinders and it does not apply to cylinders which have not been installed in a motor vehicle by 31 December 1985.

NOTES: The effect of this notice is to allow the continued use of LPG fuel cylinders which are known to have been imported into New Zealand prior to the introduction of the Dangerous Goods (Class 2—Gases) Regulations 1980 and which were acceptable under the previous dangerous goods requirements, but whose working pressure rating would disqualify them for approval for general use under the Traffic Regulations 1976. They are approved subject to the additional proviso that they must not be exposed to direct sunlight (to reduce the possibility that solar radiation would raise the temperature of the contents of the cylinder such that the developed pressure of the cylinder contents exceeded the working pressure rating of the cylinder).

This notice revokes previous notice of Thursday, 3 July 1986, No. 102, page 2839 with amended title and paragraphs 5 and 6 added.

Dated at Wellington this 22nd day of July 1986.

R. N. ABRAM, Chief Automotive Engineer.

IN THE MATTER of section 36 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, and IN THE MATTER of a trust fund held by the University of Canterbury to enable teaching staff to travel overseas and to bring to New Zealand from specified overseas countries persons to lecture at the University of Canterbury this pursuant to the terms of the will of the late JOHN ANGUS ERSKINE, deceased between THE UNIVERSITY OF CANTERBURY, a body corporate under the provisions of the University of Canterbury Act 1961—Plaintiff:

AND—HER MAJESTY'S ATTORNEY-GENERAL FOR NEW ZEALAND—Defendant:

NOTICE is hereby given pursuant to section 36 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, that THE UNIVERSITY OF CANTERBURY has applied to the High Court at Christchurch for approval of a scheme for disposition of the income arising from a certain trust fund established by the terms of the will of the late JOHN ANGUS ERSKINE, deceased. The said scheme provides that awards under the Erskine legacy shall be open to all full-time permanent members of the teaching staff at the University of Canterbury to enable them to travel overseas to advance their knowledge in their teaching subject so as to better enable them to teach subjects to students and other members of the teaching staff of the University and shall be available to all persons from outside New Zealand who are advanced in the learning of subjects taught at the University of Canterbury and who speak the English language fluently for the purposes of delivering lectures. In making awards the said scheme provides that preference shall be given to the teachers at the University of Canterbury of the subjects of the faculties of commerce, engineering and science as well as bringing to New Zealand from any member of the Commonwealth or the United States of America persons who are already advanced in the learning of such subjects. The said scheme also provides for the variation of the powers of investment contained in the will of the late JOHN ANGUS ERSKINE to provide for the power to invest any of the monies of the said trust in any of the investments authorised from time to time by the Trustee Act 1956 and its amendments.

A copy of the said scheme has been deposited in and may be inspected at the Registry Office of the High Court at Christchurch. It is proposed that the application for approval be heard at Christchurch on Friday, the 22nd day of August 1986 at 10 a.m. Any person desiring to oppose the said scheme is required to give written notice of his intention to do so to the Registrar of the said Court and to the University of Canterbury and to the Attorney-General not less than 7 clear days before the date proposed for the hearing of the application.

NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS

1. Statement of Accounting Policies—

General Accounting Policies:

As recommended by the New Zealand Society of Accountants:

- (i) The measurement base adopted is that of historical cost modified by the revaluation of certain assets. Reliance is placed on the fact that the bank is a going concern.
- (ii) Interest on investments is accrued to balance date on a daily basis at the appropriate rate of interest.

Particular Accounting Policies:

(a) Revenue and Expense Recognition

- (i) Personal loans. The banks policy is to add interest to the advance at the commencement of the loan. The "rule of 78" method of accounting for personal loan income is used to apportion the income between accounting periods.
- (ii) Losses associated with dealing in securities have been charged to the current years Statement of Profit and Reserves.
- (iii) The charge for income tax is the amount of tax liability in respect of the accounting profit for the current year. Taxation charges which are expected to be payable in accounting periods subsequent to the 1986/87 financial year are included under the heading "Provision for Deferred Taxation".

Deferred taxation arises out of timing differences resulting from differing treatment for accounting and taxation purposes of Government stock transactions, interest income and depreciation on fixed assets.

(b) Current Assets

(i) Government securities purchased subsequent to 11 February 1985 are treated as trading stock and valued at market value.

(c) Investments

(i) Government securities purchased prior to 11 February 1985 and local authority securities are regarded as long-term investments and are redeemable at maturity at their face value.

These securities are valued at cost, adjusted by the amortisation of the discount or premium on purchase calculated on a purchase yield basis over the term of the security.

The realisable value of fixed interest securities fluctuates with movement in market yields and it is customary for such fluctuations to be disregarded in the recording of the results of the long term institutional investor.

(ii) Other investments have been recorded at cost less a provision for doubtful debts of $140,000 (1985: $140,000).

(iii) The bank's one-fifth shareholding in Trusteebank Computer Limited (TCL) as at the company's 31 May 1985 balance date has been treated on an equity basis.

(d) Fixed Assets and Depreciation

(i) Land is recorded at the higher of original cost or the 1981 Government valuation.

(ii) Buildings are revalued annually and are recorded at a value which is 90 percent of the Registered Valuer's valuation.

(iii) The cost or revalued amount of fixed assets (excluding land) less estimated residual value is allocated over their economic lives on the straight line basis. The range of economic lives of the major classes are:

Buildings	100 years
Office equipment	5 years
Furniture and fittings	5 years
Motor vehicles	5 years
Plant	10 years

(iv) The cost of lease goodwill has been spread evenly over the terms of the leases.

Changes in Accounting Policies:

Depreciation is now provided on the straight line basis in order to provide a better method of recording the diminution in value of the asset over its useful life. The net effect of this change in the current year is to increase both fixed assets and net profit before taxation by $23,806.

With this exception there have been no changes in the above accounting policies which have been applied on bases consistent with those used in previous years.

The market value of the above stock (net of interest) on 16 May 1986 was $83,244,000.

The Government Guarantee of Depositors' Funds including accrued interest in terms of section 44 of the Trustee Banks Act 1983 and subsequent amendments was in force at balance date and continues to remain in force. However, the requirement to hold New Zealand Government Securities pursuant to the same act was removed on 11 February 1985.

New Zealand Government Securities purchased subsequent to this date have been treated as trading stock and recorded at market value as at balance date. New Zealand Government Securities purchased prior to 11 February 1985 are normally held to maturity and accordingly premiums and discounts are amortised over their life.

AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF TRUSTEEBANK WAIKATO

WE have obtained all the information and explanations that we have required. In our opinion proper accounting records have been kept by the bank so far as appears from our examination of those records.

In our opinion, according to the best of our information and the explanations given to us and as shown by the said records, the Financial Statements are properly drawn up so as to give, using the historical cost method modified by the revaluation of certain assets, a true and fair view of the state of the Bank's affairs as at 31 March 1986 and the results of its business and the changes in financial position for the year ended on that date.

Details are given on the frequency of poisoning, the toxins, and the clinical signs that result when these plants are eaten or touched. Invaluable for veterinarians, hospital casualty officers, botanists, farm advisers, farmers, and parents. Well illustrated with 16 colour and 36 line drawings by Nancy M. Adams. Includes glossary, references, and index.

TOWARDS A STRATEGY FOR NEW ZEALAND AGRICULTURE

Rowland Woods, Ken Graham and Peter Rankin

224 pp. 1984. $24.95 plus $3.75 p & p

For 100 years, agriculture has been the driving force of the New Zealand economy. It is tempting to assume that this will always be the case, but it is important to realise that the future of New Zealand agriculture is not certain. It is, in fact, affected by economic, political and cultural events and trends. This report addresses the agricultural problems facing New Zealand farmers and business people. It sets out guidelines for future planning, and offers advice for agricultural management.
