Tamaki City Council (Validation of Instalment Rating) Order 1987

PAUL REEVES, Governor-General
ORDER IN COUNCIL

At Wellington this 18th day of May 1987

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

WHEREAS the Tamaki City Council on the 3rd day of February 1987 resolved to make a special order, pursuant to section 86A of the Rating Act 1967, adopting the instalment rating system for the financial year commencing on the 1st day of April 1987 and for subsequent years:

And whereas section 86B of that Act provides that a special order adopting an instalment rating system shall come into force on the 1st day of April next succeeding the expiration of 2 months after the confirmation of the special order:

And whereas the special order was not confirmed until the 3rd day of March 1987 being a date less than 2 months before the 1st day of April 1987:

Now, therefore, pursuant to section 170 of the Rating Act 1967, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following order.

ORDER

1. Title and commencement—(1) This order may be cited as the Tamaki City Council (Validation of Instalment Rating) Order 1987.

(2) This order shall come into force on the day after the date of its publication in the Gazette.

2. Validation—The special order by which the Tamaki City Council adopted the instalment system of rating with effect from the 1st day of April 1987, which order was made by a resolution passed by that council on the 3rd day of February 1987 and confirmed by that council on the 3rd day of March 1987, shall, notwithstanding that the confirmation of that resolution took place less than 2 months before the 1st day of April 1987,—

(a) Be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of April 1987; and

(b) Be deemed, while it continues in force, to constitute, and to have always constituted, a valid authority for the operation by the Tamaki City Council of the instalment system of rating.

P. G. MILLEN,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

The Bay of Islands County Council (Validation of Special Order) Order 1987

PAUL REEVES, Governor-General
ORDER IN COUNCIL
At Wellington this 18th day of May 1987

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

WHEREAS the Bay of Islands County Council (the council) desired to name certain roads and alter the names of certain roads in its district:

And whereas the council had power to take that action by special order by virtue of sections 319(j) and 320(i) of the Local Government Act 1974:

And whereas the council did not comply with all the requirements of section 113 of the Local Government Act 1974 in making the special order:

And whereas the period within which any proceedings to quash the special order must be commenced has passed:

And whereas it is desired to validate the special order that the council purported to confirm on the 18th day of July 1984:

Now, therefore, pursuant to section 719 of the Local Government Act 1974, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following order.

ORDER

1. Title and commencement—(1) This order may be cited as the Bay of Islands County Council (Validation of Special Order) Order 1987.

(2) This order shall come into force on its publication in the Gazette.

2. Special order validated—The special order of the council naming roads and altering the names of roads that was confirmed by the council on the 18th day of July 1984 is hereby validated, notwithstanding that some of the requirements of section 113 of the Local Government Act 1974 were not complied with.

P. G. MILLEN,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Tripartite Wage Conference

PURSUANT to section 16E of the Industrial Relations Act 1973 (as inserted by section 3 of the Industrial Relations Amendment Act 1984), I, Stanley Joseph Rodger, Minister of Labour, hereby give notice that the 1987 Tripartite Wage Conference, to be held in accordance with section 16A of the Industrial Relations Act 1973, will commence at 8 p.m. on Monday, 25 May 1987 at Parliament Buildings.

As required by section 16G of the Industrial Relations Act 1973, the Conference is to be a forum for consultations about the economic environment in which wages and other remuneration and conditions of employment will be settled after the Conference, and the Government's economic policies in relation to that environment. The consultations are to relate to past trends and likely developments in inflation, the distribution of incomes from all sources, the competitiveness of New Zealand industry, the implications of the Government's fiscal and monetary policies, the employment situation and such other matters as the Conference may determine.

Section 16H of the Industrial Relations Act 1973, provides that the Conference is also to be a forum for consultations about the interests of the low-paid and methods by which their interests may be protected. In this respect the consultations will relate to wages and other remuneration and conditions of employment, the rates of social security benefits, rates of taxation, and the appropriate mix of Government spending, taxation and wage policies required to protect the interests of the low-paid (including the effectiveness of the mechanism by which the minimum wage is fixed and the level of the minimum wage and other minimum standards governing the employment of workers and State employees).

Any person may make written submissions in relation to the subject matter of the Conference. Submissions should be addressed to the Minister of Labour, Parliament Buildings, Wellington. All submissions received will be made available to those participating in the consultations at the Conference.

Attendance and participation at the Conference is restricted to persons representing: the Government, workers (nominated by the New Zealand Federation of Labour), State employees (nominated by the Combined State Unions), employers (nominated by the New

Buller Electric Power Board Electricity Supply Licence 1987

I, Robert James Tizard, Minister of Energy, acting pursuant to section 20 of the Electricity Act 1968, hereby licence Buller Electric Power Board, hereinafter called the Electrical Supply Authority to supply electricity, and to lay, construct, put up, place and use all electric lines and works which may from time to time be required for the distribution and supply of electricity within the area specified in the Schedule hereto.

This licence is issued subject to the following conditions:

CONDITIONS

1. This licence may be cited as the Buller Electric Power Board Electricity Supply Licence 1987.

2. The Electrical Supply Authority shall comply with the provisions of this licence, the Electricity Act 1968 and all enactments made in amendment of or substitution for that Act, any Electrical Codes of Practice made under that Act, the Electrical Supply Regulations 1984, the Electrical Wiring Regulations 1976 and all regulations made in amendment of or substitution for any of those regulations.

3. Any notice to be given to the Electrical Supply Authority shall be sufficient if sent by registered post letter to the offices of the Electrical Supply Authority.

4. Any notice to be given on the part of the Minister of Energy shall be sufficient if given in writing signed by the Minister or any person acting under the authority of the Minister.

5. Any notice to be given to the Minister of Energy shall be sufficient if given in writing to or sent by registered post letter addressed to the Secretary of Energy, Ministry of Energy, Wellington.

6. This licence shall not be construed as granting a consent to generate electricity pursuant to section 25 of the Electricity Act 1968.

7. This licence shall come into force on the 1st day of April 1987 and shall continue in force for a period of 21 years from that date unless it is sooner lawfully determined in accordance with clauses 8 or 9 hereof.

8. The Governor-General in Council may pursuant to section 22 of the Electricity Act 1968 cancel this licence if the Electrical Supply Authority is in breach of the provisions contained in clause 2 of these conditions.

9. This licence may be cancelled by the Minister of Energy at the request of or with the consent of the Electrical Supply Authority.

10. At the expiry or cancellation of this licence, the Electrical Supply Authority shall as required by notice in writing by the Minister of Energy remove all buildings, poles and other erections and all transmission lines, plant and other machinery and other removable equipment authorised by the licence to be erected, installed or provided and if within 12 months after being so required the Electrical Supply Authority fails or neglects to remove the same, then the same shall, without payment of any compensation vest in and become the property of the Crown and it shall be lawful for any person authorised by the Minister of Energy in that behalf, subject to compliance with section 15A of the Electricity Act 1968 to enter upon any land or premises and take possession of and remove the same or any part thereof.

11. Nothing contained in the licence either expressly or by implication shall be deemed to authorise the Electrical Supply Authority to erect, construct or maintain any lines or works except subject to such conditions (not inconsistent with this licence) as may from time to time be lawfully imposed by any local authority within the district of which any such lines or works may be situated.

12. The systems of supply shall be as described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) and (h) of regulation 13 of the Electrical Supply Regulations 1984.

13. The Electrical Supply Authority shall, 6 months prior to the expiry of the term of this licence provided in clause 7 herein, make written application to the Minister of Energy for the granting of a new licence.

The Standards Act 1965—Draft New Zealand Standard Specification Available for Comment

PURSUANT to subsection (3) of section 23 of the Standards Act 1965, notice is hereby given that the following draft New Zealand standard specification is being circulated.

Number and Title of Specification

DZ 4218 Thermal insulation requirements for residential buildings and methods of determining total thermal resistances for parts of buildings. $8.58 (incl. GST).

This draft lays down minimal thermal insulation requirements for residential buildings and is approved as a means of compliance with the relevant requirements of NZS 1900:Chapter 4.

The draft revises NZS 4218P:1977. It will replace NZS 4214:1977 Methods of determining the total thermal resistances of parts of buildings and NZS 4218P:1977 Minimum thermal insulation requirements for residential buildings. Thermal insulation correctly installed enables heating energy to be used more efficiently by reducing heat loss.

All persons who may be affected by this publication and who desire to comment thereon, may obtain copies at the price shown, from the Standards Association of New Zealand, Wellington Trade Centre, 181-187 Victoria Street (or Private Bag), Wellington.

NOTE—Payment must accompany all requests for drafts.

The closing date for the receipt of comment is 3 July 1987.

Dated at Wellington this 15th day of May 1987.

DENYS R. M. PINFOLD,

Director, Standards Association of New Zealand.

Notice to Make Returns of Income Under the Income Tax Act 1976

PURSUANT to the Income Tax Act 1976, the Commissioner of Inland Revenue gives notice as follows:

(1) Returns of income for the year ended 31 March 1987 (or other approved balance date) are required from:

- (a) All companies, all partnerships, all persons in business (including farming) or in a profession, all persons in partnership, all trustees, executors and administrators, notwithstanding that by reason of a loss being incurred for the year or carried forward from a previous year, no taxation is payable.
 - (b) Every person whose total income from employment exceeded $11,500.
 - (c) Every person whose total income from employment was $11,500 or less but has operated either a special tax code or an incorrect tax code during the tax year.
 - (d) Every person who derived income from employment, the whole or any part of which was not taxed at source.
 - (e) Every person who derived interest and/or dividends, exceeding $200.
 - (f) Every person who derived assessable income other than income from employment, except that no return is required where the total income did not exceed $200 and consisted exclusively of interest and dividends.
 - (g) Every person who paid provisional tax in respect of income for the year ended 31 March 1987.
 - (h) Every person who received withholding payments.
 - (i) Every person who derived income from National Superannuation and income from other sources, where that income from other sources is in excess of $7,202 for a person on the single rate of National Superannuation and $6,006 for a person on the married rate of National Superannuation.
 - (j) Every person who was entitled to the family rebate and, where applicable, the spouse or any other person comprising the family within the meaning of section 53c of the Income Tax Act 1976.
 - (k) Every person and, where applicable, the spouse of that person within the meaning of section 374A of the Income Tax Act 1976, where either person or spouse was issued with a Family Support Certificate of Entitlement under Part XIA of that Act.
 - (l) Every person who derived any income as a shearer or as a shearing shedhand.
 - (m) Every incorporated and unincorporated body which derived assessable income.
- (2) Returns may be furnished by posting or delivering them to the office of the Inland Revenue Department nearest to the place of residence of the taxpayer, or if the taxpayer's records are held in another office of the Department, then to the latter office.

(3) Returns are due on:

- (a) 7 June 1987, in all cases where income was derived from salary, wages, superannuation (including National Superannuation), pensions, taxable allowances, and;
- No other income whatsoever was derived, or
 - The other income derived consisted exclusively of not more than $1,000 in total from dividends, net rents, interest (after the interest and dividend exemption).
- (b) 7 August 1987 in all other cases or within 2 months of balance date, whichever is the later.

In cases coming within (a) above the return to be used in the IR5 (green print).

In cases coming within (b) above the returns to be used are:

- IR 3 (black print) for Individuals*
- IR 4 (blue print) for Companies
- IR 6 (red print) for Estates and Trusts*
- IR 7 (brown print) for Partnerships*

*In addition:

- Supplementary return IR 3B is required for business income, and
- Supplementary return IR 3F is required for farming income unless the copy of the annual accounts supplied with the return includes the details required to be shown in the supplementary return.

(4) Any person requiring a return form can obtain one from any Inland Revenue office.

(5) Any person or company failing to furnish a return within the prescribed time is liable to a fine, when convicted, of:

- on the first occasion, not exceeding $2,000 for each offence,
- on the second occasion, not exceeding $4,000 for each offence,
- on every other occasion, not exceeding $6,000 for each offence.

(6) Any person who is not required under paragraph (1) to furnish a return and who has derived income from employment may elect to furnish a return using form IR 5. A tax refund may arise, if for example,

- (a) Life insurance premiums were paid, and/or
- (b) Additional rebates or exemptions were not included in the tax code during the year, and/or
- (c) Deductible employment related expenses in excess of $52 were incurred, and/or
- (d) Employment was only for part of the year.

Dated at Wellington this 1st day of May 1987.

J. SIMCOCK,
Commissioner of Inland Revenue.

THE ASTRONOMICAL KNOWLEDGE OF THE MAORI

Elsdon Best

80 pp. 1986 reprint

$6.55 plus $2.20 p & p

This is one of a series of monographs prepared by Elsdon Best, who spent many years in close contact with the Maoris of the Urewera, and has prepared studies based on wide knowledge and insight. This particular monograph studies the Maori systems of astrology, astrolatry and natural astrology, plus other natural phenomena. It has been reprinted without any changes because, though first published in 1922, it still provides the student and general reader with good source material.

MAORI DIVISION OF TIME

Elsdon Best

52 pp. 1986 reprint

$6.55 plus $2.20 p & p

This monograph, reprinted without revision, provides a record of the Maori division of time as well as references to other Polynesian systems. The Maori year, the months of the Maori year, and the nights of the moon are examined. The names of seasons, terms employed to denote time and miscellaneous notes are also included, making this a fascinating and comprehensive source document.

FISHING METHODS AND DEVICES OF THE MAORI

Elsdon Best

264 pp. 1986 reprint

$32.95 plus $5.50 p & p

This book is one of a series of bulletins prepared by Elsdon Best and reprinted without revision. This bulletin remains the only comprehensive account of most aspects of Maori fishing. The emphasis is upon inland and estuarine techniques, as these are the techniques Best was able to observe most closely. The detailed fishing methods are accompanied by descriptions of the artifacts used, together with associated chants, magic formulae, special observances, and fishing lore. This comprehensive book provides a wealth of information for the student and general reader.

THE MAORI SCHOOL OF LEARNING

Elsdon Best

31 pp 1986 reprint

$6.55 plus $2.20 p & p

This monograph, reprinted without revision, studies the objects, methods, and ceremonial side of the Whare Wanaga, or Maori school of learning. It is rich in its store of material, and is indispensable for today's students.

SPIRITUAL AND MENTAL CONCEPTS OF THE MAORI

Elsdon Best

57 pp 1986 reprint

$6.55 plus $2.20 p & p

This monograph, reprinted without revision, analyses the different concepts held by the Maori about the spirit and the mind. The material is very valuable and the concepts discussed in this particular monograph provide a deep insight into the social customs and beliefs of the Maori people.

VISUAL WAYS

By Geoff Moss

46 p. 1982. Illustrated.

$6.35 plus $2.20 p & p

Too often people find themselves having to speak in public, to train new employees, to teach various skills, or to give advice on arranging displays and exhibits without having had any relevant basic training. If you are such a person, this book was written to help in getting a message across more effectively by using visual aids.

WHERE TO START

By Vincent Burke

DEPARTMENT OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

61 p. 1982. Illustrated.

$6.55 plus $2.20 p & p

This publication has been designed to help New Zealanders in the initial stages of getting a club, group, or organisation off the ground. The information it contains will be of assistance to a wide variety of different community groups, sporting, cultural, and recreational clubs. Included are suggestions for various administrative frameworks: legal structure, meetings, public relations, finance, and the constitution of the organisation.

HAIRDRESSING: A PROFESSIONAL APPROACH*David Bendell*

352 pp 1986 $49.95 plus $9.57 p & p
 This text book has been especially prepared for New Zealand hairdressing apprentices. The three major sections relate to first qualifying, second qualifying, and advanced Trade Certificate.

It contains clearly illustrated, step by step instructions, information on health and safety regulations for New Zealand conditions, plus a chapter on the history of hairdressing in New Zealand. This book will also be a good reference book for qualified hairdressers and anyone else with an interest in hair care.

THE HISTORY OF POLICING IN NEW ZEALANDVol 1, Policing the Colonial Frontier, Parts 1 and 2Richard Hill*

520 pp. Approximately per book. 1986. $77.00 plus $9.57 p & p

This is the first of a three volume set which traces the history of New Zealand Police from first European contact through to the present day.

The central theme of volume 1 is the growth and operation of the Police from 1767 to 1867. Social influences and the philosophy surrounding the need for a police force are examined.

The book is both a well researched, balanced historical document and a fascinating look at an important part of New Zealand history.

THE HOME FRONT VOL. 1 AND VOL. 2*Nancy Taylor*

800 pp. 1986. $109.45 (set) plus $9.57 p & p

This is the final volume of the Official History of New Zealand in the Second World War, 1939-45. It focuses on New Zealand society in these years, describing the attitudes and activities of those who remained. The reactions to international political events, attitudes of political parties, the war efforts of New Zealand, and the political movement away from Britain towards Australia and the United States are described. It is an historical and sociological portrayal of how New Zealanders reacted, collectively and individually, to the war situation.

JOINERY 4 STAIRSN.Z. TECHNICAL CORRESPONDENCE INSTITUTE

112 pp. 1986. $27.50 plus $5.50 p & p

This is the latest in a series of text books designed to assist in the training of apprentices. It has been prepared by the New Zealand Technical Correspondence Institute in conjunction with the Joinery Industry Training Board.

Joinery 4 contains information on stairs, decorative laminates, glulam and aluminium joinery and completes this series on the practical aspects of joinery.

It is a comprehensive handbook useful to qualified tradespeople and the home handyman.

MATERNITY IN DISPUTE NEW ZEALAND 1920-1939*Phillipa Mein-Smith*

120 pp. 1986. $16.45 plus $2.92 p & p

This book looks at birth in New Zealand throughout the twenties and thirties.

Social attitudes, state control of medical care, and doctors' attitudes are examined. The areas looked at are: emphasis on the child at the beginning of the century; the personalities involved; maternal mortality; state improvement of antenatal care; hospitalisation; the role of doctors; interventionist obstetrics; painless childbirth; the relationship between the Health Department and the Obstetrical Society; abortion and contraception; toxæmia and antenatal care.

Written in a lively and readable style, this fascinating topic is opened to everyone interested in the history of birth in New Zealand.

EDIBLE TREE NUTS IN NEW ZEALAND*P. B. Bull, D. Jackson and T. Bedford*

72 pp. 1985. $16.45 plus $2.92 p & p

Interested in growing nuts or improving the yield of your trees?

Macadamians, hazelnuts, pistachios and other edible nuts can all be grown in New Zealand. Edible Tree Nuts tells you all there is to know about climatic requirements, propagation, pests and diseases, yields, harvesting and many other aspects of nut growing.

This valuable and practical guide will help you whether you are a commercial grower, a potential commercial grower, or a home gardener.
