Note on wearing Commonwealth and Foreign Orders, Decorations and Medals

The general rule is that when Commonwealth or Foreign insignia are being worn on occasions specifically connected with the donor country, pride of place should be given to the insignia of that country. On such occasions, insignia of a Commonwealth or Foreign Order should be worn in preference, and in a position senior, to that of equivalent insignia from The Sovereign.

Classification of an award as made for gallantry has no effect on seniority or precedence in the various Classes of the Order. A person appointed to the Order between 6th December 1957 and 19th June 1974, for gallantry, and subsequently promoted in the Order, retains and wears the Insignia of the lower Class with the Emblem in addition to the Insignia of the higher Class whether promoted for gallantry or otherwise.
