Standards Association

Standards Act 1965

The Standards Act 1965—Draft New Zealand Standard Specification Available for Comment

Pursuant to subsection (3) of section 23 of the Standards Act 1965, notice is hereby given that the following draft New Zealand standard specification is being circulated.

Number and Title of Specification
DZ 9202	Standing orders for local authorities. $11.00 (incl. GST)

This draft standard is a revision of NZS 9202:1974 Standing orders for municipalities and counties, takes into account changed procedures which will apply when the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987 comes into effect on 1 March 1988, and incorporates other changes to the Model Standing Orders to bring them into line with other legislation and to incorporate changes recommended by local authorities themselves.

In addition, an attempt has been made to make the language of the revision less formal, more precise and non-sexist, and to present the standing orders in a more accessible and "user-friendly" format. It is intended that the revised Model Standing Orders be suitable for use by any of those local authorities coming within the provisions of the above Act. NZS 9202 as revised may also be produced in several editions to provide for different combinations of "Mayors and Council/Boards", "Chairmen and Boards", etc.

This revision is to be published in February 1988 to meet the deadline of 1 March 1988 when the above Act comes into effect.

All persons who may be affected by this publication and who desire to comment thereon, may obtain copies at the price shown, from the Standards Association of New Zealand, Wellington Trade Centre, 181-187 Victoria Street (or Private Bag), Wellington.

NOTE—Payment must accompany all requests for drafts.

The closing date for the receipt of comment is 18 December 1987.

Dated at Wellington this 2nd day of November 1987.

DENYS R. M. PINFOLD,
Director, Standards Association of New Zealand.

Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting Vancouver, Canada

The Vancouver Declaration on World Trade

1. The Commonwealth leaders representing a wide range of both developed and developing countries note with grave concern rising global protectionist pressures. Continuing implementation of protectionist measures would be counter-productive, would increase the risk of further exchange rate instability and would exacerbate the problems of development and indebtedness. Trade restrictions affect particularly the exports and growth prospects of developing countries and their ability to service debt, all of which in turn impact adversely on the economies of the industrial countries.

2. We welcome the progress of negotiations in the Uruguay Round covering a range of important subjects. We will work for a balanced outcome to develop a more open, viable and durable multilateral trading system to promote growth and development. We recognise the growing importance and the asymmetrical position of developing countries in the trading system. This underlines the need to give special consideration to their interests within the agreed framework of the Uruguay Round. It is essential that the Punta del Este commitments on "standstill" and "rollback" be fully respected and implemented.

3. We agree on the crucial need for reform of all trade-distorting agricultural policies, both domestic and international. We urge early action on agriculture in the Uruguay Round so as to reduce the uncertainty, imbalances and instability in world markets. This will benefit both developed and developing countries.

4. A strong, credible, working GATT is essential to the well-being of all trading countries and is the best bulwark against mounting protectionist pressures. The functioning of the GATT should be improved through enhancing its role in maintaining an open multilateral system and its capacity in the area of dispute settlement. We hope that the negotiations will make sufficient progress on agriculture and other key subjects to enable a mid-term ministerial review of the Uruguay Round as allowed for in the Punta del Este Declaration.

5. We welcome the assistance which the Commonwealth Secretariat is providing to member governments in the trade field, including the re-establishment of a Trade Adviser's Office in Geneva and increased levels of technical support, and we request the Secretary-General to continue to give priority to work in this field. In addition, the larger states of the Commonwealth undertake to assist developing countries, including smaller states, through regular consultations and trade policy training programmes.

Vancouver, 15 October 1987.

Remembrance Day 1987

Citizens throughout New Zealand are requested to observe Remembrance Day on Sunday, 8 November.

The observance of this day should be similar to that of Remembrance Day last year. Two minutes' silence to be observed from 11 a.m.

The Government trusts that all churches will agree to arrange, as far as practicable, for a morning service on this day, to commence at such time as to enable two minutes' silence to be observed at 11 o'clock.

When a citizens' memorial service is held, it is suggested that it should be at the local cenotaph or war memorial.

Dated at Wellington this 1st day of November 1987.

MICHAEL BASSETT, Minister of Internal Affairs.
