Indecent Publications Act 1963

Decision No. 6/88

Reference No.: IND 5 & 6/86

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publication: Knave Volume 17, No. 11 and 12; Knave, Volume 18, No. 1; Fiesta, Volume 19, No. 12; Fiesta, Volume 20, No. 1 and 2:

Chairman: Judge R. R. Kearney.

Members: R. Barrington, A. J. Graham, K. Hulme and S. Middleton.

Hearing at Wellington on the 11th day of April 1988.

Appearances: G. F. Ellis for publisher and importer; M. Wotherspoon for Comptroller of Customs.

Decision

These magazines were submitted to the Tribunal at the request of the importer Gordon and Gotch Ltd. for consideration and classification on 3 March 1986. The publications were considered by the Tribunal at a sitting on 25 March 1986. On that occasion K. Wilde appeared before the Comptroller of Customs and J. B. M. Smith for the publishers Galaxy Publications Ltd. and the importer and intended distributor Gordon and Gotch (NZ) Ltd.

On that hearing evidence was given before the Tribunal by David Halliday, the managing director of Galaxy Publications Ltd. In his submission on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs. Mr Wilde stated that there was an imbalance between the sexual content and any redeeming serious writing but as none of the content was blatantly offensive he submitted that the magazines circulation could be restricted with an age classification. Mr Smith submitted at the conclusion of a comprehensive and very helpful submission that these magazines should be classified as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years and that the Tribunal should make a serial order in respect of these publications in terms of section 15A of the Indecent Publications Act 1963.

Following the formal hearing the Tribunal met to consider the detailed submission made by Mr Smith and the evidence presented by Mr Halliday and the parties were subsequently notified by memorandum that because of the importance of the matter before the Tribunal, the Tribunal would reconvene in June 1986 to further consider the matter and reach its decision. On 24 October 1986 the Tribunal gave a majority decision in which it classified these publications as being indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years. In a separate minority decision R. Barrington and H. B. Dick set out their reasons why they would have declared the publications unconditionally indecent.

The Comptroller of Customs lodged an appeal to the full Court of the High Court pursuant to section 19 of the Indecent Publications Act 1963. Each of the 3 Judges of the Court issued separate judgments in relation to the appeal and the interpretations, directions and rulings in those judgments have been of great assistance to the Tribunal not only in its consideration of these present publications but in the consideration of all the material which comes before it for determination. At the conclusion of his judgment. His Honour Mr Justice Quilliam stated:

"The magazines in question have never been the subject of a decision by either the majority or the minority of the Tribunal upon the basis of the application of correct principles. I consider that the proper course now is for the Tribunal to consider the matter afresh in the light of the findings made by the member of this Court. This being the unanimous view of the Court the appeal is allowed and the magazines are remitted to the Tribunal for rehearing of the whole of the matter."

The matter came on for hearing before the Tribunal on 11 April 1988 and detailed legal submissions were made both by Mr Ellis on behalf of the publisher and importer and Mr Sing and Mr Wotherspoon on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs. Extensive evidence was given by D. G. Halliday, the managing director of Galaxy Publications, and the Tribunal was greatly assisted in its determination of the matter by those submissions and that evidence.

Having considered these matters afresh in the light of the findings made by the full Court of the High Court the Tribunal is unanimous in its finding that these publications because of their explicit photographs of female nudes would be injurious to younger readers and accordingly classifies each of these publications as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

The Tribunal is by a majority of 4 to 1 satisfied that the publications Knave and Fiesta should be the subject of the issue of a serial order in terms of section 15A of the Indecent Publications Act 1963 and orders accordingly. Mrs Barrington is not satisfied that such a serial order should be issued in respect of these publications and she will record in a separate decision her reasons for that.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of April 1988.

Application for an Ex Parte Interim Restriction Order

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of an application pursuant to section 14A of the Indecent Publications Act 1963:

In respect of the following publication:

10. Title: One to One, Parts 1, 2 and 3. Publisher: Orbis Publishing Ltd.

11. Title: Penthouse, May 1988, Vol. 9, No. 5. Publisher: Penthouse International Ltd.

Interim Restriction Order

Gordon and Gotch (NZ) Ltd. proposes to import and distribute a series of publication with the title One to One. The publication will be sold on the basis of one part per week and the distributor intends to conduct a media advertising campaign to attract attention to the publication. Mrs Barrington, Mr Graham, Dr Middleton and I having considered the 3 parts of this particular publication and having heard by Mr Ellis on behalf of the importer and intended distributor and Mr Wotherspoon on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs are satisfied that this is a serious publication but that it contains sexually explicit material of a kind which would be injurious to younger readers. I accordingly make an interim restriction order in respect of Parts 1, 2 and 3 of One to One and classify it as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 16 years.

Penthouse, May 1988, Volume 9, No. 5 was the latest volume of that publication to arrive in New Zealand and like the other series of Penthouse considered by me in respect of an interim restriction order application this particular volume has been considered by the other 3 members of the Tribunal named above and by me and we are in agreement that I should make an interim restriction order in respect of Penthouse, May 1988, Volume 9, No. 5 with the classification that it is indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 16 years.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of April 1988.

9. Title: The Best of Mayfair, No. 7. Publisher: Fisk Publishing Co. Ltd.

Interim Restriction Order

Pursuant to section 14A of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, G. W. Ludlow, the Assistant Comptroller of Customs, applied on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs for an interim restriction order in respect of the above publications. In the normal course such an application would have been considered by me as chairman of the Tribunal without the need to refer the matter to other members. I have however because of the importance of this interim order had the application considered by 3 other members of the Tribunal who were in Wellington on 28 April 1988. I also arranged for Mr Wotherspoon who was representing the Comptroller of Customs in respect of this application and G. F. Ellis, counsel representing the importer and intended distributor Gordon and Gotch (NZ) Ltd. to appear before the other 3 members of the Tribunal and me on 28 April 1988.

In submissions made by Mr Wotherspoon and Mr Ellis it was revealed to the Tribunal that former issues of these publications or similar publications have been readily available on the New Zealand market with an R18 restriction. Some of the publications have in fact previously been the subject of a serial order in terms of section 15A of the Indecent Publications Act 1963.

The Tribunal was informed by Mr Wotherspoon and Mr Ellis that the above publications were seized by the Comptroller of Customs as either the previous serial orders had expired or no serial orders had been made in respect of these particular publications. The Tribunal members present were informed that each of the publications would be the subject of a substantive application for classification at the next sitting of the Tribunal and that they would be advertised accordingly.

After conferring with Mrs Barrington, Mrs Graham and Dr Middleton, the 3 other members of the Tribunal who were presented with me when the submissions were made by Mr

Wotherspoon and Mr Ellis and having considered each of the publications I am satisfied that the application for the interim restriction order is properly made and that it should be granted.

An interim restriction order is accordingly made in respect of all of the above publications which are found to be indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of April 1988.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of In Touch for Men Issues No. 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 127, 128, 129, 131, and 132:

Chairman: Judge R. R. Kearney.

Members: R. Barrington, A. J. Graham, K. Hulme and S. Middleton.

Hearing at Wellington on the 12th day of April 1988.

Appearances: G. A. Ireland on behalf of Lawrence Publishing Company of ENZ Ltd. M. Wotherspoon for Comptroller of Customs.

Decision

These publications were commercially imported by Out magazine at Auckland between August and December 1987. The Collector of Customs, Auckland seized the magazines and as the importer has disputed forfeiture the publications were referred to the Tribunal prior to the commencement of condemnation proceedings pursuant to the Customs Act 1966. Submissions were made by Mr Wotherspoon on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs and by Mr Ireland on behalf of Lawrence Publishing Company of NZ Ltd. Mr Ireland's submissions were supported by Mr Logan of the Gay Task Force.

In his submissions Mr Wotherspoon stated "In Touch for Men is a fairly restrained magazine clearly aimed at the male homosexual market. In decision 19/87 the Tribunal classified Issue 1, 2 and 6 as indecent in the hands of persons under 18 years of age". Mr Wotherspoon on behalf of the Comptroller indicated to the Tribunal that in the view of the Comptroller this was an appropriate publication for the issue of a serial restriction order pursuant to section 15A of the Indecent Publications Act 1963.

The Tribunal is satisfied that the material in these publications could be harmful to the younger reader and accordingly classifies each of these publications as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years. Having now considered a significant number of these magazines the Tribunal is satisfied that they are indeed of a restrained nature and that they are uniform both in their production and format. Accordingly the Tribunal issues a serial restriction order in respect of the publication In Touch for Men pursuant to section 15A of the Indecent Publications Act 1963.

Decision No. 11/88

Reference No.: IND 13 and 14/88

Application for an Ex Parte Interim Restriction Order

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of an application pursuant to section 14A of the Indecent Publications Act 1963:

In respect of the following publications:

Penthouse Collection (Aust. Ed.) 1987; Penthouse, January 1988, February 1988, March 1988, April 1988.

Appearances: G. Ellis for publisher and importer. M. Wotherspoon for Comptroller of Customs.

Interim Restriction Decision

These publications were commercially imported by Gordon and Gotch (NZ) Ltd. and are publications which previously have been the subject of an R18 restriction order and also a serial order in terms of section 15A of the Indecent Publications Act 1963. These magazines have been freely available on the New Zealand market but the serial orders in respect of them have expired and accordingly the Customs Department have with the concurrence of the importer placed the matters before the Tribunal for the granting of an interim restriction order in terms of section 14A of the Indecent Publications Act 1963. As in respect of the other matters which came before me for interim orders I discussed these publications with Mrs Barrington, Mr Graham and Dr Middleton, each of whom was present when Mr Ellis and Mr Wotherspoon made submissions to me in relation to these particular publications. After discussion with those other members of the Tribunal I am satisfied that an R18 restriction is justified and accordingly I issue a section 14A restriction order declaring each of these publications to be indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.
