- (b) Brine shrimp (Artemia salina);
- (c) Dredge oysters (Tiostrea lutaria);
- (d) Eels (Anguilla dieffenbachii and Anguilla australis);
- (e) Freshwater crayfish or koura (Paranephrops planifrons and Paranephrops zealandicus);
- (f) Grass carp (Ctenopharyngodon idella);
- (g) Prawns, being—
 - (i) Freshwater (Macrobrachium rosenbergii);
 - (ii) Marine (Penaeus monodon, Penaeus japonicus and Penaeus orientalis);
- (h) Salmon, being—
 - (i) Atlantic salmon (Salmo salar);
 - (ii) Quinnat salmon (Oncorhynchus tshawytscha);
 - (iii) Sockeye salmon (Oncorhynchus nerka);
- (i) Scallops (Pecten novaezelandiae);
- (j) Scampi (Metanephrops challengeri);
- (k) Silver carp (Hypophthalmichthys molitrix);
- (l) Spiny or red rock lobster (Jasus edwardsii), and packhorse or green rock lobster (Jasus verreauxi);
- (m) Western Australian freshwater crayfish or marron (Cherax tenuimanus);
- (n) Whitebait (Galaxias spp.);

2. The notice published in the Gazette on 16 October 1986,

No. 165, page 4385 declaring Fish Species Which May be Farmed, is hereby revoked.

Radio Regulations (Modification of Radio Apparatus Licences) Notice 1988

Pursuant to regulation 15 (b) of the Radio Regulations 1987 (“the principal regulations”), I, James Richard Alan Stevenson, Acting General Manager (Communications), Ministry of Commerce, acting under delegated authority, hereby give the following notice.

1. Short title and commencement—(1) This notice may be cited as the Radio Regulations (Modification of Radio Apparatus Licences) Notice 1988.

(2) This notice shall come into force on the 1st day of January 1989.

2. Modification of terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Aircraft Radio Station Licences and Aeronautical (Aircraft) Radio Apparatus Licences—The terms, conditions, and restrictions which apply to—

- (a) Aircraft Radio Station Licences granted under the Radio Regulations 1970, before the close of the 31st day of December 1987; and
- (b) Aeronautical (Aircraft) Radio Apparatus Licences granted under the principal regulations on or after the 1st day of January 1988,— are hereby modified by omitting the terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to be licences immediately before the commencement of this notice, and substituting the terms, conditions, and restrictions set out in the First Schedule to this notice.

3. Modification of terms, conditions and restrictions applying to Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Aeronautical] and Aeronautical (Land) Radio Apparatus Licences—The terms, conditions, and restrictions which apply to—

- (a) Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Aeronautical]

granted under the Radio Regulations 1970, before the close of the 31st day of December 1987; and

(b) Aeronautical (Land) Radio Apparatus Licences granted under the principal regulations on or after the 1st day of January 1988,— are hereby modified by omitting the terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to the licences immediately before the commencement of this notice, and substituting the terms, conditions, and restrictions set out in the Second Schedule to this notice.

4. Modification of terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Amateur Radio Station Licences and Amateur Radio Apparatus Licences—The terms, conditions, and restrictions which apply to—

(a) Amateur Radio Station Licences granted under the Radio Regulations 1970, before the close of the 31st day of December 1987; and

(b) Amateur Radio Apparatus Licences granted under the principal regulations on or after the 1st day of January 1988,— are hereby modified by omitting the terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to the licences immediately before the commencement of this notice, and substituting the terms, conditions, and restrictions set out in the Third Schedule to this notice.

5. Modification of terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Broadcast Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Sound] and Broadcast-Sound Radio Apparatus Licences—The terms, conditions, and restrictions which apply to—

(a) Broadcast Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Sound] granted under the Radio Regulations 1970, before the close of the 31st day of December 1987; and

(b) Broadcast-Sound Radio Apparatus Licences granted under the principal regulations on or after the 1st day of January 1988,—

are hereby modified by omitting the terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to the licences immediately before the commencement of this notice, and substituting the terms, conditions and restrictions set out in the Fourth Schedule to this notice.

6. Modification of terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to broadcast Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Television] and Broadcast-Television Radio Apparatus Licences—The terms, conditions, and restrictions which apply to—

(a) Broadcast Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Television] granted under the Radio Regulations 1970, before the close of the 31st day of December 1987; and

are hereby modified by omitting the terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to the licences immediately before the commencement of this notice, and substituting the terms, conditions, and restrictions set out in the Fifth Schedule to this notice.

7. Modification of terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Citizen Radio Station Licences and Citizen Radio Apparatus Licences—The terms, conditions, and restrictions which apply to—

(a) Citizen Radio Station Licences granted under the Radio Regulations 1970, before the close of the 31st day of December 1987; and

(b) Citizen Radio Apparatus Licences granted under the principal regulations on or after the 1st day of January 1988,—

are hereby modified by omitting the terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to the licences immediately before the commencement of this notice, and substituting the terms, conditions, and restrictions set out in the Sixth Schedule to this notice.

8. Modification of terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Fixed] and Fixed Radio Apparatus Licences—The terms, conditions, and restrictions which apply to—

- (a) Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Fixed] granted before the close of the 31st day of December 1987; and
- (b) Fixed Radio Apparatus Licences granted under the principal regulations on or after the 1st day of January 1988,— are hereby modified by omitting the terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to the licences immediately before the commencement of this notice, and substituting the terms, conditions, and restrictions set out in the Seventh Schedule to this notice.

9. Modification of terms, conditions and restrictions applying to Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Land Mobile] and Land Mobile Radio Apparatus Licences (Simplex)—The terms, conditions, and restrictions which apply to—

- (a) Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Land Mobile] granted under the Radio Regulations 1970, before the close of the 31st day of December 1987; and
- (b) Land Mobile Radio Apparatus Licences (Simplex) granted under the principal regulations on or before the 1st day of January 1988,— are hereby modified by omitting the terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to the licences immediately before the commencement of this notice, and substituting the terms, conditions, and restrictions set out in the Eighth Schedule to this notice.

10. Modification of terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Land Mobile Radio Apparatus Licences (Two Frequency)—The terms, conditions, and restrictions which apply to Land Mobile Radio Apparatus Licences (Two Frequency) granted under the principal regulations on or after the 1st day of January 1988, are hereby modified by omitting the terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to the licences immediately before the commencement of this notice, and substituting the terms, conditions, and restrictions set out in the Ninth Schedule to this notice.

11. Modification of terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Ship Radio Station Licences and Maritime (Ship) Radio Apparatus Licences—The terms, conditions, and restrictions which apply to—

- (a) Ship Radio Station Licences granted under the Radio Regulations 1970, before the close of the 31st day of December 1987; and
- (b) Maritime (Ship) Radio Apparatus Licences granted under the principal regulations on or after the 1st day of January 1988,— are hereby modified by omitting the terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to the licences immediately before the commencement of this notice, and substituting the terms, conditions, and restrictions set out in the Tenth Schedule to this notice.

12. Modification of terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Coast] and Maritime (Coast) Radio Apparatus Licences—The terms, conditions, and restrictions which apply to—

- (a) Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Coast] granted under the Radio Regulations 1970, before the close of the 31st day of December 1987; and
- (b) Maritime (Coast) Radio Apparatus Licences granted under the principal regulations on or after the 1st day of January 1988,— are hereby modified by omitting the terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to the licences immediately before the commencement of this notice, and substituting the terms, conditions, and restrictions set out in the Eleventh Schedule to this notice.

13. Modification of terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Paging] and Miscellaneous Radio Apparatus Licences (Paging)—The terms, conditions, and restrictions which apply to—

- (a) Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Paging] granted under the Radio Regulations 1970, before the close of the 31st day of December 1987; and
- (b) Miscellaneous Radio Apparatus Licences (Paging) granted under the principal regulations on or after the 1st day of January 1988,— are hereby modified by omitting the terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to the licences immediately before the commencement of this notice, and substituting the terms, conditions, and restrictions set out in the Twelfth Schedule to this notice.

14. Modification of terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Telecontrol or Telemetry] and Miscellaneous Radio Apparatus Licences (Telecontrol or Telemetry)—The terms, conditions, and restrictions which apply to—

- (a) Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Telecontrol or Telemetry] granted under the Radio Regulations 1970, before the close of the 31st day of December 1987; and
- (b) Miscellaneous Radio Apparatus Licences (Telecontrol or Telemetry) granted under the principal regulations on or after the 1st day of January 1988,— are hereby modified by omitting the terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to the licences immediately before the commencement of this notice, and substituting the terms, conditions, and restrictions set out in the Thirteenth Schedule to this notice.

15. Modification of terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Radio Determination] and Radio Determination Radio Apparatus Licences—The terms, conditions, and restrictions which apply to—

- (a) Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Radio Determination] granted under the Radio Regulations 1970, before the close of the 31st day of December 1987; and
- (b) Radio Determination Radio Apparatus Licences granted under the principal regulations on or after the 1st day of January 1988,— are hereby modified by omitting the terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to the licences immediately before the commencement of this notice, and substituting the terms, conditions, and restrictions set out in the Fourteenth Schedule to this notice.

Schedule

First Schedule

Clause 2

Terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Aircraft Radio Station Licences and Aeronautical (Aircraft) Radio Apparatus Licences.

1. The licence permits the use of radio apparatus for the conduct of Radiocommunication in the "Aeronautical Mobile Service" specified in the International Radio Regulations 1982 as "A mobile service with aeronautical stations and aircraft stations, or with aircraft stations in which survival craft stations may participate; emergency position indicating radio beacon stations may also participate in this service on designated distress and emergency frequencies."

2. The apparatus, to which the licence relates, shall be maintained at all times to comply with the technical specification(s) issued by the Secretary and stated on the licence.

3. Nothing in the licence, the International Radio Regulations 1982, the Telecommunications Act 1987, or the Radio Regulations 1987 prohibits any person in distress from using any means at that person's disposal to attract attention, indicate the person's position, and obtain assistance.

4. The apparatus, to which the licence relates, shall operate only on the frequency(ies), emission(s) and power(s) shown on the licence for the purpose specified on or annexed to the licence.

5. All reasonable care has been used in making radio frequency assignments. The nature of frequency assignments in such that no guarantee can be made that implementation and use will be trouble free. Accordingly the Crown does not accept liability under any circumstances for any loss or damage of any kind. In the event that frequency change is required, all costs are the sole responsibility of the licensee.

6. The apparatus to which the licence applies must comply with Ministry of Transport certificate of approval (MOT2129).

7. The licence is valid for the period specified on the front of the licence. The licence may be revalidated upon payment of the prescribed fee as set out in the THIRD SCHEDULE of the Radio Regulations 1987.

Second Schedule

Clause 3

Terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Aeronautical] and Aeronautical (Land) Radio Apparatus Licences.

1. The licence permits the use of radio apparatus for the conduct of Radiocommunication in the "Aeronautical Mobile Service" specified in the International Radio Regulations 1982 as "A mobile service with aeronautical stations and aircraft stations, or with aircraft stations in which survival craft stations may participate; emergency position indicating radio beacon stations may also participate in this service on designated distress and emergency frequencies."

2. The apparatus, to which the licence relates, shall be maintained at all times to comply with the technical specification(s) issued by the Secretary and stated on the licence.

3. Nothing in the licence, the International Radio Regulations 1982, the Telecommunications Act 1987, or the Radio Regulations 1987 prohibits any person in distress from using any means at that person's disposal to attract attention, indicate the person's position, and obtain assistance.

4. The apparatus, to which the licence relates, shall operate only on the frequency(ies), emission(s) and power(s) shown on the licence for the purpose specified on or annexed to the licence.

5. All reasonable care has been used in making radio frequency assignments. The nature of frequency assignments is such that no guarantee can be made that implementation and use will be trouble free. Accordingly the Crown does not accept liability under any circumstances for any loss or damage of any kind. In the event that frequency change is required, all costs are the sole responsibility of the licensee.

6. Except in emergencies, the aeronautical base apparatus to which the licence relates shall not communicate with any other land base radio apparatus.

7. The apparatus, to which the licence relates, shall only be established and operated at the location(s) specified on or annexed to the licence.

8. The licence is valid for the period specified on the front of the licence. The licence may be revalidated upon payment of the prescribed fee as set out in the THIRD SCHEDULE of the Radio Regulations 1987.

Third Schedule

Clause 4

Terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Amateur Radio Station Licences and to Amateur Radio Apparatus Licences.

1. The licence permits the use of radio apparatus to conduct Radiocommunication for the purpose of self training, intercommunication and technical investigation other than for pecuniary gain.

2. Nothing in the licence, the International Radio Regulations 1982, Telecommunications Act 1987, or the Radio Regulations 1987 prohibits any person in distress from using any means at that person's disposal to attract attention, indicate the person's position, and obtain assistance.

3. The apparatus, to which the licence relates, shall operate only on the frequency(ies), and power(s) shown on the schedule for the purpose specified on or annexed to the licence.

4. All reasonable care has been used in making radio frequency assignments. The nature of frequency assignments is such that no guarantee can be made that implementation and use will be trouble free. Accordingly the Crown does not accept liability under any circumstances for any loss or damage of any kind. In the event that frequency change is required, all costs are the sole responsibility of the licensee.

5. The licence is valid for the period specified on the front of the licence. The licence may be revalidated upon payment of the prescribed fee as set out in the THIRD SCHEDULE of the Radio Regulations 1987.

6. The emission from amateur radio apparatus for any radiocommunication should be of the minimum bandwidth and power as is necessary to ensure a satisfactory service.

7. Power Limits for Amateur Radio Apparatus: For Amateur Radio Apparatus the power limit shall be:

(i) Novice Grade: The radio frequency power output shall not exceed 10 watts mean power, or 30 watts peak envelope power.

(ii) Limited or General Grade: The radio frequency power output shall not exceed 120 watts mean power, or 400 watts peak envelope power.

8. Generally, third party traffic is not permitted.

9. The licensee is only permitted to use the frequency bands listed below for the grade specified on the front page of the licence.

Notes:

(1) These bands are available for use by all Amateur Licensees at times of natural disaster in connection with international relief operations, subject to the approval of the Secretary.

(2) The bands 7.0 to 7.1 MHz; 14.0 to 14.25 MHz; 21.00 to 21.45 MHz; 24.890 to 24.990 MHz; 28.0 to 29.7 MHz; 144 to 146 MHz; 435 to 438 MHz; 1260 to 1270 MHz (earth-to-space direction only); 2.4 to 2.45 GHz; 3.40 to 3.41 GHz; 5.65 to 5.67 GHz (earth-to-space direction only); 5.83 to 5.85 GHz (space-to-earth direction only); 10.45 to 10.5 GHz; 24.0 to 24.05 GHz; 47.0 to 47.2 GHz; 75.5 to 81 GHz; 142 to 149 GHz, and 241 to 250 GHz may also be used for amateur satellite communications.

(3) These bands are or may be allocated for use by other services. Amateur licensees may not use them in a manner which interferes with such other services.

(4) The frequencies 27.12 MHz, 2.45 GHz, 5.8 GHz, and 24.125 GHz are designated for industrial, scientific and medical (ISM) purposes with emissions confined within ± 163 kHz, ± 50 MHz, ± 75 MHz, and ± 125 MHz respectively of these frequencies. Amateur licensees operating telecontrol within these limits must accept interference from ISM equipment.

(5) The band 275 to 400 GHz is allocated for use by amateur licensees on a temporary basis for experimentation and development purposes.

(6) Until further notice the following spot frequencies may not be used: 1800 kHz (± 3 kHz), 1860 kHz (± 3 kHz), 10.130 MHz (± 3 kHz). 1850 kHz—1950 kHz may not be used in a manner which interferes with navigation uses of those frequencies.

(7) Telecontrol and telemetry operation only. Power output is not to exceed 5 watts mean power.

(8) The band 50 to 50.15 MHz is allocated for temporary use. Operation is only permitted outside television programme hours.

(9) Operation on these bands by General Grade licensees is not permitted within 12 months of obtaining the qualification. This does not apply to the sub band 21.10 to 21.20 MHz.

(10) These bands are allocated for use by other primary services, and Amateur usage is on a secondary service basis. Users of a secondary service cannot claim protection from harmful interference from users of a primary or permitted service to which frequencies are already assigned or may be assigned at a later date.

Fourth Schedule

Clause 5

Terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Broadcasting Radio Station Licences [Type of Service: Sound] and to Broadcast-Sound Radio Apparatus Licences.

1. The licence permits the use of radio apparatus for Broadcast-Sound Radiocommunication, the transmissions of which are intended for direct reception by the general public.

2. The apparatus, to which the licence relates, shall be maintained at all times to comply with the technical specification(s) issued by the Secretary and stated on the licence.

3. The apparatus, to which the licence relates, shall operate only on the frequency(ies), emission(s) and power(s) shown on the licence for the purpose specified on or annexed to the licence.

4. All reasonable care has been used in making radio frequency assignments. The nature of frequency assignments is such that no guarantee can be made that implementation and use will be trouble free. Accordingly the Crown does not accept liability under any circumstances for any loss or damage of any kind. In the event that frequency change is required, all costs are the sole responsibility of the licensee.

5. The apparatus, to which the licence relates, shall only be established and operated at the location(s) specified on or annexed to the licence.

6. The licence is valid for the period specified on the front of the licence. The licence may be revalidated upon payment of the prescribed fee as set out in the THIRD SCHEDULE of the Radio Regulations 1987.

Fifth Schedule

Clause 6

Terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Broadcasting Station Licences [Type of Service: Television] and to Broadcasting-Television Radio Apparatus Licences.

1. The licence permits the use of radio apparatus for Broadcast-Television Radiocommunication, the transmissions of which are intended for direct reception by the general public.

2. The apparatus, to which the licence relates, shall be maintained at all times to comply with the technical specification(s) issued by the Secretary and stated on the licence.

3. The apparatus, to which the licence relates, shall operate only on the frequency(ies), emission(s) and power(s) shown on the licence for the purpose specified on or annexed to the licence.

4. All reasonable care has been used in making radio frequency assignments. The nature of frequency assignments is such that no guarantee can be made that implementation and use will be trouble free. Accordingly the Crown does not accept liability under any circumstances for any loss or damage of any kind. In the event that frequency change is required, all costs are the sole responsibility of the licensee.

5. The apparatus, to which the licence relates, shall only be established and operated at the location(s) specified on or annexed to the licence.

6. The licence is valid for the period specified on the front of the licence. The licence may be revalidated upon payment of the prescribed fee as set out in the THIRD SCHEDULE of the Radio Regulations 1987.

Sixth ScheduleClause 7*Terms, conditions, and restrictions applying to Citizen Radio Station Licences and to Citizen Radio Apparatus Licences.

1. The licence permits the use of radio apparatus for the conduct of Radiocommunication in the Citizen Radio Service, within New Zealand, with base and mobile apparatus.
2. The apparatus, to which the licence relates, must be type approved or type accepted (Certificate of Compliance) to a specification issued by the Secretary and stated on the licence.
3. Nothing in the licence, the International Radio Regulations 1982, the Telecommunications Act 1987, or the Radio Regulations 1987 prohibits any person in distress from using any means at that person's disposal to attract attention, indicate the person's position, and obtain assistance.
4. The apparatus, to which the licence relates, shall operate only on the frequency(ies), emission(s), and power(s) shown on the licence for the purpose specified on or annexed to the licence.
5. All reasonable care has been used in making radio frequency assignments. The nature of frequency assignments is such that no guarantee can be made that implementation and use will be trouble free. Accordingly the Crown does not accept liability under any circumstances for any loss or damage of any kind. In the event that frequency change is required, all costs are the sole responsibility of the licensee.
6. The licence is valid for the period specified on the front of the licence. The licence may be revalidated upon payment of the prescribed fee as set out in the THIRD SCHEDULE of the Radio Regulations 1987.
7. There is no restriction on the type of antenna that may be used but should interference occur, the provisions of Radio Regulation 39 will be enforced, i.e. the Secretary may require the person operating the interfering equipment to cease operating the equipment or to modify the operation of the equipment to prevent the interference.
