Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988

Preliminary Determination and Imposition of Provisional Measures: Dumping Investigation in Respect of Refined Sugar

Pursuant to section 12 (1) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988, I, David John Butcher, Minister of Commerce, hereby give notice that I have made a preliminary determination that refined sugar (refined from sugar cane or from sugar beets) exported by August Topfer and Co GMBH from The Netherlands, Belgium and Denmark, and by Hottlet Sugar Trading NV from Belgium, and imported or intended to be imported into New Zealand, is a good in respect of which I may direct the imposition of an anti-dumping duty in accordance with section 14 of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988.

Pursuant to section 12 (3) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988, I hereby give notice of a provisional direction pursuant to section 16 (1) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988 that payment, in respect of the goods described above, of an anti-dumping duty equal to the amount by which the export price of the goods is less than the amounts shown in the Schedule, shall be secured by the Collector of Customs in accordance with Part IX of the Customs Act 1966 on those goods entered for home consumption on or after 13 March 1989.

Schedule

Termination of Dumping Investigation

Pursuant to section 11 (1) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988, the Secretary of Commerce hereby gives notice of the termination of the dumping investigation, in respect of a dumping complaint lodged by the New Zealand refined sugar industry against imports of sugar from Papua New Guinea, as described in the Notice of Initiation of Dumping Investigation dated 21 December 1988 and published in the New Zealand Gazette of 12 January 1989.

The Secretary is satisfied, as a result of investigations carried out, that the goods from Papua New Guinea which were under investigation, being sugar imported from Ramu Sugar Ltd. of Papua New Guinea, are not goods in respect of which a determination may be made under the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988 for the reason that the goods produced by the New Zealand industry are not like goods to the said goods from Papua New Guinea, in terms of the definition of "like goods" in section 3 (1) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988. Consequently the New Zealand industry making the dumping complaint is not a producer of like goods for the purposes of the definition of "industry" contained in section 3 (1) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988, and there is therefore insufficient evidence that material injury to a New Zealand industry has been or is being caused or is threatened by means of the importation from Ramu Sugar Ltd. of Papua New Guinea of the goods subject to the investigation.

Dated at Wellington this 9th day of March 1989.
