Broadcasting

Broadcasting Act 1989

Direction to Broadcasting Commission in Relation to Funding of Broadcasting Activities

To the Broadcasting Commission

Pursuant to section 44 of the Broadcasting Act 1989, I, Jonathan Lucas Hunt, Minister of Broadcasting,—

(1) Give you notice that it is part of the general policy of Government in relation to broadcasting—

Access Radio

(a) That access radio services should be available for a broad range of non profit community groups; and

Concert Programme and National Radio

(b) That the services known as the Concert Programme network and the National Radio network should continue to be provided by Radio New Zealand Limited until at least 1 July 1992; and

(c) That commercial advertising should not be broadcast on the Concert Programme network or the National Radio network, except in the form of credits relating to subscription, sponsorship and underwriting arrangements entered into in relation to particular programmes; and

Maori Broadcasting

(d) That Maori broadcasting should be actively promoted, and that funds be made available from Public Broadcasting Fee revenue for this purpose; and

Television and Radio Coverage

(e) That every community of over 1000 people should have access to a primary signal for a community sound radio service; and

(f) That the coverage of television and community sound radio broadcasting should be maintained at least at the level achieved by the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand on 1 April 1988; and

(g) That an enquiry should be undertaken to examine the extent to which the coverage of television and sound radio broadcasting should be extended to New Zealand communities that would otherwise not receive a commercially viable signal; and

(2) In pursuance of that policy, direct that you shall—

Access Radio

(a) Make funds available for access radio services at a level at least equal in real terms to the amount provided by the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand in the 1987/88 financial year; and

Concert Programme and National Radio

(b) Use your best endeavours to negotiate contracts with Radio New Zealand Limited, in relation to the provision of funds for the services known as the Concert Programme network and the National Radio network, which include conditions that require Radio New Zealand Limited to maintain the Concert Programme network and the National Radio network in their present forms until at least 1 July 1992; and

(c) Use your best endeavours to negotiate contracts with Radio New Zealand Limited, in relation to the provision of funds for the services known as the Concert Programme network and the National Radio network, which include conditions that require that commercial advertising is not broadcast on the Concert Programme network or on the National Radio network, except in the form of credits relating to subscription, sponsorship or underwriting arrangements entered into in relation to particular programmes; and

(d) Apply at least 6% of Public Broadcasting Fee revenue, net of collection costs, to the promotion of Maori broadcasting, including broadcasting promoting Maori language and Maori culture; and

(e) Develop appropriate system for assessing and funding Maori broadcasting needs; and

(f) Make available funding of approximately $1,440,000 (exclusive of goods and Services Tax) to the Aotearoa Maori Radio Trust Board for the period 1 July 1989 to 30 June 1990, to maintain a continuous AM radio service in the Auckland area; and

(g) Seek, as soon as practicable, expressions of interest in assistance from Public Broadcasting Fee revenue in relation to the establishment or maintenance of specific Maori broadcasting ventures; and

Television and Radio Coverage

(h) Begin, as soon as practicable, an enquiry into the extent to which you consider it appropriate to extend the coverage of television and sound radio broadcasting to New Zealand communities that would otherwise not receive a commercially viable signal.

Dated this 1st day of June 1989.

JONATHAN HUNT, Minister of Broadcasting.

Electrical Wiring Regulations 1976

Notice of Prohibition—Brass Portable Table Top Lamp Fittings

With Stepped Touch Type Dimmer Control

Pursuant to regulation 8 of the Electrical Wiring Regulations 1976, notice is hereby given that the Brass Portable Table Top Lamp Fittings described below, in my opinion constitutes or may constitute an electrical hazard and are unsuitable for use in New Zealand.

Description: Brass Portable Table Top Lamp Fittings; (3 models small, medium and large) with stepped touch dimmer control, Edison screw type lampholders and brass outlined petal shaped decorative glass lamp shades. One model has tinted glass sectional shade.

Markings: Made in Taiwan or (R O C Taiwan) on base.

The fittings contain a touch-on switch model GE10 made by the Teng Peng Co Ltd., Taiwan.

Some Known Faults of the Fittings are:

- They are not earthed or double insulated.
- They have exposed live parts accessible to the touch.
- They have incorporated within the fitting a stepped touch type dimmer. This dimmer would not comply with an appropriate standard.

The method of operation of the dimming device invites the user to touch any part of the metal fitting that, is not earthed or double insulated and, under fault conditions could be alive.

- (d) The fittings are constructed in a manner that would not comply with an appropriate standard as required by the Electrical Wiring Regulations 1976.

Dated at Wellington this 2nd day of June 1989.

Inland Revenue

Income Tax Act 1976

Determination G7A: Futures Market

This determination may be cited as "Determination G7A: Futures Market".

1. Explanation (which does not form part of the determination).

(1) This determination rescinds and replaces Determination G7: Futures Market, made by the Commissioner on 30 September 1987. Apart from minor amendments, this determination differs from Determination G7 by the addition of the New Zealand Dollar Futures contract to the list of approved markets, and the deletion of the New Zealand Crossbred Wool Contract from the list of approved markets.

(2) This determination applies where, for the purpose of calculating the income or expenditure of a person in respect of a futures contract, it is necessary to determine the price of a futures contract.

(3) This determination sets out the approved markets, sources of information and method, used for determining the prices for futures contracts.

2. Reference—(1) This determination is made pursuant to section 64E (1) of the Income Tax Act 1976.

(2) This determination rescinds and replaces Determination G7: Futures Market, made on 30 September 1987.

3. Scope of Determination—This determination applies where, for the purpose of calculating the income or expenditure of a person in respect of a futures contract, it is necessary to determine the price of a futures contract.

4. Principle—(1) Markets are approved having regard to the following criteria—

- (a) The number of participants in the market or having access to the market:
- (b) Frequency of trading in the market:
- (c) The nature of trading in the market—how the rate is determined and how the financial assets are traded on the market:
- (d) The potential or demonstrated capacity of a person or group of persons to significantly influence the market:
- (e) Significant barriers to entry:
- (f) Discrimination on the basis of the quantity bought and sold unless based on the risks involved or the transaction costs or economies of scale.

(2) Sources of information are approved having regard to the following criteria—

- (a) Reliance on the sources of information by the market:
- (b) The accessibility of the sources of information by participants in the market.

(3) A method of obtaining a price for a futures contract is approved if it is determined by an independent source and is adopted by participants in the market.

5. Interpretation—In this determination, unless the context otherwise requires—

Expressions used, except the expression "income year", have the same meanings as in the Act and where a word or expression is given a particular meaning for the purposes of sections 64B to 64M of the Act it shall have the same meaning as in the said sections 64B to 64M:

"The Act" means the Income Tax Act 1976;

"Futures contract" means a contract traded on the New Zealand futures market;

"Income year" means—

(a) Where a taxpayer furnishes a return of income under section 15 of the Income Tax Act 1976 for an accounting year ending with an annual balance date other than the 31st day of March, the period commencing on the day after the end of the immediately preceding accounting year and ending on that balance date;

(b) In respect of the income of any other person, the year in which that income has been derived by that person.

"New Zealand futures market" means the market in futures contracts administered by the New Zealand Futures Exchange Limited.

6. Method—(1) Determination G7: Futures Market is hereby rescinded with effect from the day on which this determination is signed.

(2) The New Zealand futures markets in the following contracts are approved:

Five Year Government Stock Futures contract
New Zealand Dollar Futures contract
United States Dollar Futures contract
Barclays Share Price Index Futures contract
90 Days Bank Accepted Bill Futures contract.

(3) (a) The following source of information is approved for Trading Members of The New Zealand Futures Exchange and Clearing Members of the International Commodities Clearing House Limited—

The Statement of Open Position compiled by the International Commodities Clearing House Limited.
