Education

Education Act 1989

National Education Guidelines

Pursuant to sections 60 and 61 of the Education Act 1989, the Minister of Education hereby specifies the following national education guidelines as core charter elements. In terms of section 61 these guidelines are deemed to be part of the charter of every state and integrated school in New Zealand and are to apply to the Board of Trustees and Principal of every state and integrated school.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

The Board of Trustees accepts that all students in any school or schools under its control are given an education which enhances their learning, builds on their needs and respects their dignity.

This education shall challenge them to achieve personal standards of excellence and to reach their full potential. All school activities will be designed to advance these purposes.

Curriculum

The board of trustees will endeavour to ensure that every child in the school shall have the best possible learning opportunity.

This involves the provision of a balanced curriculum, which enables all learners to acquire existing knowledge and skills, while at the same time developing capabilities to create knowledge and practise new skills.

Basic skills will be learnt. Physical and aesthetic abilities will be enhanced. Realistic personal standards of achievement will be set. Scholarship will be valued and encouraged at every level. Every child will be aware of the dual cultural heritage of New Zealand and the multi-cultural nature of our society.

Equity

Equity objectives shall underpin all activities in the school.

The board of trustees will ensure that the school's policies and practices seek to achieve equitable outcomes for students of both sexes, for rural and urban students (where appropriate); for all students irrespective of their religious, ethnic, cultural, social, family and class backgrounds, and irrespective of their ability or disability.

Two aspects of equity are:

Equal Educational Opportunity

The Board of Trustees will ensure equal opportunity for all students to participate and succeed in the full range of school activities. The Board of Trustees will adopt policies and practices that identify and cater for the individual needs of each student in the school. These policies will be reflected in the school's curriculum and in the way the resources are allocated.

They will include programmes that redress existing inequities and address the current and future needs of students, particularly:

- Maori
- Pacific Island
- other ethnic groups
- women and girls
- students with disabilities
- students with other special learning needs

Treaty of Waitangi

The board of trustees accepts an obligation to develop policies and practices which reflect New Zealand's dual cultural heritage.

SPECIFIC GOALS AND OBJECTIVES OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES AND PRINCIPAL OF THE SCHOOL

1. New Zealand Curriculum Goal and Objectives
