Notice of Decision of Disciplinary Committee of the New Zealand Society of Accountants

Notice is hereby given by the Disciplinary Committee of the New Zealand Society of Accountants that at a hearing held on 30 November 1989, Bruce Leonard Clark, of Auckland, appeared before the Committee on charges that: he had been guilty of defaults discreditable to an accountant, he had conducted himself in such a manner as to render the exercise of the powers of the Disciplinary Committee expedient in the interest of the public and of the Society, and that he had been guilty of unprofessional conduct.

The charges arose from the member having failed within reasonable and proper time to respond to correspondence from the Investigation Committee of the New Zealand Society of Accountants, dated respectively 18 April 1989, 18 July 1989 and 9 August 1989, relating to a complaint lodged against him.

The Disciplinary Committee found all charges proven and censured the member. The Committee imposed a penalty of the maximum amount of $200.00 plus GST pursuant to section 24 (3) (c) of the New Zealand Society of Accountants' Act 1958, and pursuant to section 24 (3) (e) of the same Act, ordered the member to pay the sum of $2,994.68 (inclusive of GST) in respect of costs and expenses of and incidental to the inquiry by the Disciplinary Committee and the investigation by the Investigation Committee.

The Disciplinary Committee directed that its decision be published in the Accountants' Journal and the New Zealand Gazette with mention of the member's name and locality, and that its decision be brought to the attention of the editor of the New Zealand Herald newspaper.

Dated at Wellington this 9th day of January 1990.
