Parliamentary Summary

Bills Introduced

Government Bill

(Minister/Member in Charge Shown in Parenthesis)

15 March 1990

Weights and Measures Amendment (Hon. Margaret Shields)

Referred to Select Committee

Commerce and Marketing

Local Bill

14 March 1990

Waikato Electricity Authority Amendment (Trevor Mallard)

Internal Affairs and Local Government

Waikato Electricity Authority Amendment Bill

The Bill seeks to amend the Waikato Electricity Authority Act 1988 by transferring certain assets and liabilities of the Waikato Electricity Authority to the Waikato Electricity Limited as at 1 April 1989, to clarify and record incidental matters relating to the exemption from gift duty of the assets vested, and to extend the time whereby the transfers of assets are exempt from stamp duty to 30 September 1990.

The Bill deems the Waikato Electricity Limited to be an "administering body" under the Reserves Act 1977 in respect of all reserves vested in it and the Bill also provides procedures for the transfer of assets.

Weights and Measures Amendment Bill

This Bill amends the Weights and Measures Act 1987.

The principal purpose of the amendments is to transfer the primary responsibility for the testing of weights and measures from the Weights and Measures Inspectorate to the private sector.

The Bill sets up a system for the accreditation of persons to carry out the testing of weights and measures, who will be empowered to stamp weights and measures with the official mark of verification.

Accredited agents will be empowered to issue a certificate of accuracy in respect of weights and measures found to be accurate. Certificates of accuracy will be valid for a limited period, and re-examination and re-testing will be required before a replacement certificate can be issued.

In areas where there are no accredited agents, Weights and Measures Inspectors will carry out the task of stamping, and the issuing of certificates of accuracy, on a cost-recovery basis.

Broadcasting Standards Authority

Broadcasting Act 1989

General Election 1990 Qualification of Political Parties for Allocation of Broadcasting Time for Election Programmes

The Broadcasting Standards Authority ("the Authority") gives notice, pursuant to section 73A of the Broadcasting Act 1989 (as amended by the Broadcasting Amendment Act 1990) ("the Act"), that any political party that considers that it will qualify for an allocation of time under section 74 of the Act for the broadcasting of election programmes during the election period associated with the 1990 General Election ("the election") must, pursuant to section 73A, notify the Authority in writing that it considers itself so qualified.

Any such notice must be received in writing by the Authority no later than noon on Friday, the 6th day of April 1990. It should be addressed to the Executive Officer, Broadcasting Standards Authority, Second floor, 54-56 Cambridge Terrace, P.O. Box 9213, Wellington.

Any political party that considers it will qualify for an allocation of time under section 74 of the Act in respect of the election period must state, pursuant to section 73A of the Act:

- (a) the full name of the political party; and
- (b) in respect of each person belonging to the political party who has declared his or her intention of becoming a candidate at the election:
  - (i) the full name of that person; and
  - (ii) the electoral district for which that person intends to be a candidate.

Under the provisions of section 73A (6) of the Act any such person named in a notice to the Authority shall, until noon on nomination day for the election, be deemed, for the purposes of subsection (1) (c) of section 75 of the Act to be a candidate at the election, whether that person is nominated or not.

The attention of political parties is drawn to section 75 (1) of the Act, which provide that:

"The Authority shall not allocate any time to a political party under section 74 of the Act, unless:

- "(a) That political party conducts its affairs throughout New Zealand and has a national organisation; and
- "(b) That political party has consistently expressed philosophies or policies on a range of issues over the 12 months immediately preceding the issue of the writ for the election; and

"(c) In the case of a general election, persons belonging to that party are candidates at that general election for at least 10 seats in the House of Representatives."

The Authority is required by section 76 of the Act to consult with political parties. It will advise any party giving notice by the due date of a deadline for submissions from that party in support of its consideration that it qualifies for time, according to the criteria of section 75 (1); and for submissions on the allocation of time according to section 75 (2) and other relevant parts of the Act. (Such submissions may be forwarded with a party's notice to the Authority of its qualification for time if a party wishes.) The Authority will advise each party of the date on which the party will meet with and be heard by the Authority.

The Act further provides, in section 76, that the failure of any political party to give notice in accordance with section 73A of the Act or to avail itself of the opportunity to meet with and be heard by the Authority under section 76, or to comply with any other request by the Authority shall not prevent the Authority from making decisions on the allocation of time, or affect the validity of those decisions.
