Charitable Trust Act Notices

In the High Court of New Zealand, Palmerston North Registry
In the matter of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, and in the matter of John Beresford Swan Dudding Charitable Trust:

The public trustee as trustee of the J.B.S. Dudding Charitable Trust ("the trust") has applied to the High Court at Palmerston North under No. C.P. 282/90 for an order amending the composition of the advisory board of the trust. The advisory board, as presently constituted, includes:

- (1) "The person for the time being holding the office of mayor of Marton."
- (2) "A person to be nominated from time to time by a resolution of the Rangitikei County Council."

As a consequence of local authority restructuring there is no longer a mayor of Marton, nor a Rangitikei County Council. The public trustee's application proposes that the advisory board include:

"Two persons to be nominated from time to time by the Rangitikei District Council, one to be a resident of the township of Marton, and the other to be resident in the rural area of the Rangitikei District Council."

The date for hearing the public trustee's application in the High Court at Palmerston North is on Thursday, the 29th day of November 1990 at 9.30 a.m.

Any person desiring to oppose the application shall give written notice to the Registrar of the High Court at Palmerston North, to the public trustee, and the Attorney General not less than 7 clear days before the 29th day of November 1990.

This notice is published by Peter Brian Lloyd, District Public Trustee, 470 Main Street, Palmerston North.

General Notices

Notice of Decision of the Disciplinary Committee of the New Zealand Society of Accountants

Notice is hereby given by the Disciplinary Committee of the New Zealand Society of Accountants that at a conjoint hearing held 15 August 1990, Allan Peter Rose of Hamilton appeared before the committee on charges that: he had conducted himself in such a manner as to render the exercise of the powers of the disciplinary committee expedient in the interest of the public and of the society and he had been guilty of unprofessional conduct.

The charges arose from the member having been guilty of grave impropriety; and having been convicted of crimes involving dishonesty as defined by section 2 of the Crimes Act 1961. He pleaded guilty, in the Hamilton High Court, to 20 charges of criminal dishonesty extending over the 5 years from 1984 to 1989, whereby an appeal to the Court of Appeal by the Solicitor-General on 21 March and 11 April 1990 his sentence was increased to 4 years imprisonment.

The member having pleaded guilty to the charges, the disciplinary committee found the charges proven. The disciplinary committee ordered that Allan Peter Rose be removed from the register of members and that the date of 30 September 1995 be fixed as the earliest date upon which Allan Peter Rose might apply for re-registration, pursuant to section 24 (3) (a) of the New Zealand Society of Accountants Act 1958. Pursuant to section 24 (3) (e) of the same Act, Allan Peter Rose was ordered to pay to the society the sum of $2,531 plus GST in respect of costs and expenses of and incidental to the inquiry by the disciplinary committee and the investigation by the investigation committee.

The disciplinary committee ordered that its decision be published in the Accountants Journal and the New Zealand Gazette with mention of the member's name and locality, and that the committee's decision be drawn to the attention of the editor of the daily newspapers published in the Waikato area.

At the same conjoint hearing held 15 August 1990, Harold Max Lewis of Lower Hutt appeared before the committee on charges that: he had conducted himself in such a manner as to render the exercise of the powers of the disciplinary committee expedient in the interest of the public and of the society and he had been guilty of unprofessional conduct.

The charges arose from the member having been guilty of defaults discreditable to an accountant. He conducted himself in such a manner as to render the exercise of the powers of the disciplinary committee expedient in the interest of the public and of the society. He was guilty of unprofessional conduct.

The member having pleaded guilty to the charges, the disciplinary committee found the charges proven. The disciplinary committee ordered that Harold Max Lewis be removed from the register of members, pursuant to section 24 (3) (a) of the New Zealand Society of Accountants Act, 1958. Pursuant to section 24 (3) (e) of the same Act, Harold Max Lewis was ordered to pay to the society the sum of $10,500 plus GST in respect of costs and expenses of and incidental to the inquiry by the disciplinary committee and the investigation by the investigation committee.

The disciplinary committee ordered that its decision be published in the Accountants Journal and the New Zealand Gazette with mention of the member's name and locality.

Dated at Wellington this 26th day of September 1990.
