as jewellery for children, and commonly known as "Glitter Bangles".

Dated at Wellington this 21st day of September 1990.

MARGARET SHIELDS, Minister of Consumer Affairs.

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the notice but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This notice prohibits indefinitely the supply of certain tubular plastic arm bangles containing silver-coloured metallic flakes or glitter suspended in liquid, intended for use as jewellery by children. These bangles are commonly known as "Glitter Bangles".

These bangles were declared by the Unsafe Goods (Glitter Bangles) Notice 1989* to be unsafe goods under section 31 of the Fair Trading Act 1986. By virtue of section 31 (2) of that Act that notice expired on 24 September 1990.

Section 31 (3) of the Fair Trading Act 1986 authorises the Minister of Consumer Affairs, if a period of 18 months has elapsed since goods were declared to be unsafe goods and if no product safety standard has been declared in respect of those goods under section 29 of that Act, to prohibit the supply of the goods indefinitely or for a specified period.

It is an offence under the Fair Trading Act 1986 to supply, or offer to supply, or advertise to supply, goods, the supply of which is prohibited under the Act.

Section 33 of that Act also prohibits the importation of such goods into New Zealand.

British Settlements Act 1887

Officer of Government of Ross Dependency Appointed

PAUL REEVES, Governor-General

WHEREAS, by an Order in Council dated the 30th day of July 1923*, made under the British Settlements Act 1887 of the United Kingdom Parliament, the Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of New Zealand for the time being (hereinafter called the Governor) was appointed to be the Governor of the Ross Dependency, and all the powers and authorities which by the said order were given and granted to the Governor for the time being of the Dependency were thereby vested in him:

And whereas the Governor was thereby further authorised and empowered to make all such rules and regulations as might lawfully be made by Her Majesty's authority for the peace, order, and good government of the Dependency:

And whereas, by regulations made by the Governor on the 14th day of November 1923†, it was enacted that all persons appointed by the Governor for the time being of the

Dependency should have such power and authority as might be granted them in due course of law, and might be empowered to do such things as might be necessary or desirable to ensure that the laws in force in the Dependency are duly observed and complied with in every respect, and to do all things necessary or expedient for the peace, order, and good government of the Dependency, and to safeguard and preserve Her Majesty's rights and sovereignty over and in respect of the Dependency:

And whereas it is expedient that the person hereinafter named be appointed an officer of the Government of the Dependency:

Now, therefore, I, The Most Reverend Sir Paul Alfred Reeves, the Governor-General of New Zealand, and as such the Governor of the Ross Dependency, hereby appoint

Charles Ross McDonald, Esquire

as an officer of the Government of the Dependency for the period beginning with the 1st day of October 1990 and ending with the close of the 31st day of October 1991 or such earlier date as he shall leave the Dependency:

And I hereby confer on the said Charles Ross McDonald while he holds office all the powers and authorities that may be exercised in New Zealand by a Justice of the Peace, and also all the powers and authorities that may be exercised by a Coroner:

The said Charles Ross McDonald to exercise his functions at such places within the Dependency as may be directed by the officer for the time being appointed as an officer of the Government of the Dependency in whom is vested the general executive and administrative authority in preserving Her Majesty's rights and sovereignty and the laws and regulations in force in the Dependency.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General as the Governor of the Ross Dependency, this 26th day of September 1990.

MIKE MOORE, Minister of Foreign Affairs.

General

Gisborne District Council

Local Government Act 1974

Compulsory Acquisition Notice

In the matter of the Public Works Act 1981, and in the matter of the Gisborne District Council:

Notice is hereby given that the Gisborne District Council proposes in pursuance of the authority vested in it under section 247F of the Local Government Act 1974 to take under the Public Works Act 1981 the interest in the land described in the Schedule to this notice.

The land is to be used for the purpose of constructing a stopbank alongside the Waipaoa River.

The taking of the land is considered reasonably necessary because a change in the course of the Waipaoa River after Cyclone Bola meant that the then stopbank could no longer prevent flood damage to the surrounding farmland and a new stopbank has been constructed on the land described in the Schedule to this notice.

Any person who wishes to object to the land being taken must send a written objection to the Registrar, Planning Tribunal, Tribunals Division, Justice Department, Private Bag, Postal Centre, Wellington, within 1 month after the date of publication of this notice.

Schedule

Trustees' Report for the Period Ended 31 March 1990

The Trust Bank Waikato Community Trust received dividend income of $586,300 during the 1990 financial year. This comprised 2 dividend payments. The first of $471,900 related to the 1989 financial year with the second of $114,300 being an interim dividend for the 1990 year.

Grants totalling $380,670 were made during the current financial year. These were made to 1213 recipients. This represents a continuation of the grant distribution practices adopted previously by Trust Bank Waikato.

It is the trustee's intention to continue this policy and when funds permit, supplement this with some larger grants.

The trustees are pleased to report a net surplus for the year of $218,764. With trust funds conservatively valued at $21.5 million the trust is in a sound position to continue to provide charitable, cultural, philanthropic and recreational benefits to the community.

Auditors' Report to the Trustees of the Trust Bank Waikato Community Trust

We have audited the financial statements in accordance with accepted auditing standards, and have carried out such procedures as we considered necessary.

In our opinion the financial statements give, using the historical cost method, a true and fair view of the financial position of the trust as at 31 March 1990 and the results of its activities for the period ended on that date.

DELOITTE ROSS TOHMATSU, Chartered Accountants.

Hamilton, New Zealand.

Dated this 28th day of May 1990.

The Minister of Finance has directed that the Trust Bank Waikato Community Trust need not publish the full list of its grants in the Gazette. A full list of grants is available upon request from the Secretary, Trust Bank Waikato Community Trust, P.O. Box 230, Hamilton.
