Notice of Application for Approval of Scheme Under Part III, Charitable Trusts Act 1957

M. No. 448/91

Notice is hereby given that Terence Charles Brandon as trustee to the will of Edith Esther Nixon, widow, late of Wellington, has filed an application for approval of a scheme varying the terms of the will of the above-named Edith Esther Nixon.

Under the will, among other provisions, 2 equal one-fifth shares of the residuary estate are to be held for the Wellington Presbyterian Social Service Association Incorporated to be applied equally for the general purposes of the Kilmarnock Home for the Aged and the Children's Home at Berhampore.

Under the scheme the trustee seeks a direction that the payment of 2 equal one-fifth shares be made to the Presbyterian Support Services Central to be applied equally for the general purposes of the Kilmarnock Home for the Aged and for the support and benefit of children in need of care and protection in the Wellington region.

Copies of the scheme and the report of the Attorney-General thereon may be inspected free of charge at the office of the Registrar of the High Court at Wellington or at the offices of the solicitor for the trustee being Brandons, Braemar Building, 32 The Terrace, P.O. Box 36, Wellington.

The application is set down for hearing in the High Court at Wellington at 10 a.m. on the 4th day of December 1991.

Any person desiring to oppose the scheme is hereby required to give notice in writing to the Registrar of the High Court at Wellington and the Attorney-General and the trustee whose address for service is Brandons, Braemar Building, 32 The Terrace, P.O. Box 36, Wellington not less than 7 clear days before the hearing date on the 4th day of December 1991.

P. HARVEY, Solicitor for the Applicant.

At the same conjoint hearing held on 14 and 15 August 1991, a member appeared before the committee on charges that he conducted himself in such a manner as to render the exercise of the powers of the Disciplinary Committee expedient in the interests of the public and of the society.

The member having pleaded guilty to the charges as laid, the Disciplinary Committee found all charges proven.

The Disciplinary Committee ordered that the member be removed from the Register of Members of the society until 14 August 1996, pursuant to section 24 (3) (d) of the New Zealand Society of Accountants Act 1958. The member was ordered to pay to the society the sum of $8,101.88 in respect of costs and expenses of and incidental to the inquiry by the Disciplinary Committee and the investigation by the Investigation Committee.

The Disciplinary Committee ordered that its decision be published in the Accountants' Journal, and the New Zealand Gazette without mention of the member's name and locality.

At the same conjoint hearing held on 14 and 15 August 1991, Cyril Paul Cooney of Auckland appeared before the committee on charges that he conducted himself in such a manner as to render the exercise of the powers of the Disciplinary Committee expedient in the interests of the public and of the society.

Cyril Paul Cooney having pleaded not guilty to the charges as laid, the Disciplinary Committee found the charges proven.

The Disciplinary Committee ordered that Cyril Paul Cooney be removed from the Register of Members of the society, pursuant to section 24 (3) (d) of the New Zealand Society of Accountants Act 1958, and fixed the date 15 August 1995, after which he could apply for re-admission. Cyril Paul Cooney was ordered to pay to the society the sum of $122,761.48 in respect of costs and expenses of and incidental to the inquiry by the Disciplinary Committee and the investigation by the Investigation Committee.

The Disciplinary Committee ordered that its decision be published in the Accountants' Journal, the New Zealand Gazette and the New Zealand Herald with mention of the member's name and locality.

At the same conjoint hearing held on 14 and 15 August 1991, Brian Manson Spooner of Auckland appeared before the committee on charges that he conducted himself in such a manner as to render the exercise of the powers of the Disciplinary Committee expedient in the interests of the public and of the society.

Brian Manson Spooner having pleaded guilty to the charges as laid, the Disciplinary Committee found the charges proven.

The Disciplinary Committee ordered that Brian Manson Spooner have a penalty of $200 imposed and be censured, with the disapproval of the censure to be recorded on his membership file, pursuant to section 24 (3) (d) of the New Zealand Society of Accountants Act 1958. Brian Manson Spooner was ordered to pay to the society the sum of $10,116.05 in respect of costs and expenses of and incidental to the inquiry by the Disciplinary Committee and the investigation by the Investigation Committee.

The Disciplinary Committee ordered that its decision be published in the Accountants' Journal, and the New Zealand Gazette with mention of the member's name and locality.

At the same conjoint hearing held on 14 and 15 August 1991, Ian Colville Vause of Auckland appeared before the committee on charges that he conducted himself in such a manner as to render the exercise of the powers of the Disciplinary Committee expedient in the interests of the public and of the society.

Ian Colville Vause having pleaded guilty to the charges as laid, the Disciplinary Committee found the charges proven.

The Disciplinary Committee ordered that Ian Colville Vause be suspended from membership of the society until 31 March 1992, pursuant to section 24 (3) (d) of the New Zealand Society of Accountants Act 1958. Disciplinary Committee and the investigation by the Investigation Committee.

The Disciplinary Committee ordered that its decision be published in the Accountants' Journal, the New Zealand Gazette and the New Zealand Herald with mention of the member's name and locality.

At the same conjoint hearing held on 14 and 15 August 1991, John Francis Graham of Auckland appeared before the committee on charges that he had been convicted of crimes involving dishonesty as defined by section 2 of the Crimes Act 1961, and that he was guilty of grave impropriety. John Francis Graham had been convicted in the High Court on 57 charges of theft by misappropriation which involved a total of $12,252,868.00 of clients funds.

John Francis Graham did not appear before the Disciplinary Committee, a plea of not guilty to the charges as laid was accepted by the committee, the Disciplinary Committee found the charges proven, based on the evidence that was heard and received at the hearing.

The Disciplinary Committee ordered that John Francis Graham be removed from the Register of Members of the Society and ordered that any application for re-admission to the society to be considered by the full Council of the New Zealand Society of Accountants. John Francis Graham be censured and in view of the extraordinary nature of the case the censure refer to his actions in using clients money in an irresponsible and criminal manner which led to his conviction on 57 charges of theft and misappropriation. Such an expression of disapproval is to be recorded on the membership file of John Francis Graham.

John Francis Graham was ordered to pay to the society the sum of $2,346.51 in respect of costs and expenses of and incidental to the inquiry by the Disciplinary Committee and the investigation by the Investigation Committee.

The Disciplinary Committee ordered that its decision be published in the Accountants' Journal, the New Zealand Gazette and all main metropolitan newspapers with mention of the member's name and locality.

Dated at Wellington this 7th day of October 1991.
