Summary of Bills Introduced

Sport, Fitness, and Leisure Amendment

This Bill amends the Recreation and Sport Act 1987. The main changes are:

- (a) The concept of recreation is replaced by the concepts of fitness and physical leisure activity;
- (b) The name of the principal Act is changed from the Recreation and Sport Act 1987 to the Sport, Fitness, and Leisure Act 1987, and the name of the Hillary Commission is changed to the Hillary Commission for Sport, Fitness, and Leisure;
- (c) The membership of the Commission is reduced from 11 to 9, 8 of whom are to be appointed by the Minister. The remaining member is to be appointed by the Minister on the nomination of the Minister of Internal Affairs. That member need not be an officer of the Department of Internal Affairs, as at present. Provision for the appointment of an officer of the Ministry of Education has been omitted;

- (d) All existing members of the Commission are to relinquish office on the commencement of the Act; and
- (e) The Commission is to become a Crown agency for the purposes of the Public Finance Act 1989 and to be subject to Part V of that Act as if that Part were in force.

Ministry of Maori Development

The Bill establishes the Ministry of Maori Development and abolishes the Iwi Transition Agency and the Ministry of Maori Affairs. The Bill also provides that the responsibilities of the Ministry of Maori Development are to include:

- (a) Promoting higher levels of achievement for Maori with respect to—
- (i) Education;
 - (ii) Training and employment;
 - (iii) Health;
 - (iv) Economic resource development;
- (b) Monitoring and liaising with each department and agency that provides or has a responsibility to provide services to or for Maori for the purpose of ensuring the adequacy of those services.

All rights, powers, duties, liabilities, directions, and contracts exercisable by, vested in, or binding on the Iwi Transition Agency or on the Ministry of Maori Affairs immediately before 1 January 1992 shall, on and from that date, become exercisable by, vested in, or binding on the Ministry of Maori Development.

Similarly, all documents made or things done by the Iwi Transition Agency and the Ministry of Maori Affairs before 1 January 1992 in the exercise of any functions, powers, or duties previously conferred or imposed on the agency and the ministry will continue to be effective as if they had been done by the Ministry of Maori Development.

The Bill is to come into force on 1 January 1992.

Land Acquisition and Aggregation Repeal

This Private Member's Bill amends the Land Settlement Promotion and Land Acquisition Act 1952 by repealing those provisions relating to the compulsory acquisition of land for settlement and the aggregation of farmland acquired by New Zealanders.

The Land Settlement Promotion and Land Acquisition Act 1952 was reviewed in 1989 and a report by the Department of Lands reviewing the Act was published. The review concluded that the Act was ineffective, archaic and cumbersome and the rationale behind it had largely disappeared. This bill follows those recommendations in respect of Part I and Part II of the Act.

Part I of the Act refers to the compulsory acquisition of land for settlement and was originally introduced to provide for the purchase of land for returned servicemen. Its provisions have never been used. More recently, the purchases for land settlement have all been sold on a "willing seller" basis. If compulsory purchase was thought appropriate the provisions of the Public Works Act 1981 could be used.

Part II of the Act refers to the aggregation of farmland acquired by New Zealanders. Its provisions are widely avoided, for example by the provision in the Act which exempts land owned by a company with less than ten shareholders.

The effect of the bill is to leave Part IIA in force. This governs the acquisition by overseas interests of farmland and other areas including islands and reserves. With minor exceptions, these provisions are unaffected by the bill.

Internal Affairs

Remembrance Day 1991

Citizens throughout New Zealand are requested to observe Remembrance Day on Sunday, 10 November.

The observance of this day should be similar to that of Remembrance Day last year. Two minutes' silence to be observed from 11 a.m.

The Government trusts that all churches will agree to arrange, as far as practicable, for a morning service on this day, to commence at such time as to enable two minutes' silence to be observed at 11 a.m.

When a citizens' memorial service is held, it is suggested that it should be at the local cenotaph or war memorial.

Dated at Wellington this 18th day of October 1991.

GRAEME LEE, Minister of Internal Affairs.

Alternative Standards for Vehicles Imported but not Registered Before a Vehicle Standard Came into Effect

Pursuant to regulation 6 of the Transport (Vehicle Standards) Regulations 1990, and in exercise of powers delegated to me pursuant to section 41 (1) of the State Sector Act 1988, I, Richard Leslie Reynolds Controller Vehicle Standards, hereby prescribe those standards determined, approved, or prescribed pursuant to the Traffic Regulations 1976, as alternative standards for the purposes of the said Transport (Vehicle Standards) Regulations 1990, and further prescribe the conditions specified in the Schedule hereto as additional specifications to have effect in conjunction with the alternative standards, for vehicles of the type specified in the Schedule hereto.

Schedule

The type of vehicle is any vehicle:

- For which there is documented evidence, to the satisfaction of the Controller Vehicle Standards, of importation into New Zealand before an item commencement date for that class of vehicle, as specified in the Second Schedule to the Transport (Vehicle Standards) Regulations 1990; and

- Which was first registered (in New Zealand) after that date, but not later than 30 June 1992.

Conditions:

1. The seatbelts, and high stop lamps comply with the Transport (Vehicle Standards) Regulations 1990, and

2. Either (i) The seatbelt anchorages comply with the Transport (Vehicle Standards) Regulations 1990, or any approved alternative standard, or

(ii) If the vehicle needs locally installed seatbelt anchorages and reinforcement, but was imported before 1 January 1991, and is a model that has not been tested in a recognised New Zealand test programme, the anchorage reinforcement is not less than a steel plate of dimensions 50 mm × 40 mm × 2 mm, and

3. Either (i) The first Warrant of Fitness is issued by a Ministry of Transport Automotive Surveyor; or

(ii) In the case of a vehicle which already has a current Warrant of Fitness, or which has been modified or rebuilt, the Controller Vehicle Standards or his appointee is satisfied that the vehicle is in a sound structural condition.

Dated at Wellington this 21st day of October 1991.

A Water Supply Tunnel Easement in Gross Acquired in Manukau City

Pursuant to section 20 of the Public Works Act 1981, and to a delegation from the Minister of Lands, the Manager, Lands and Property, Department of Survey and Land Information, Auckland, declares that, agreements to that effect having been entered into, the water supply tunnel easement in gross described in the First Schedule is hereby acquired over the land described in the Second Schedule and the said easement shall vest in perpetuity in The Auckland Regional Council for water supply purposes on the date of publication in the Gazette.

First Schedule

North Auckland Land District

Description of Easement:

1. The full, free uninterrupted, and unrestricted right, liberty and privilege for the Auckland Regional Council (hereinafter called "the Council") from time to time and at all times to take, convey and lead water in a free and unimpeded flow (except when the flow is halted for any reasonable period necessary for essential repairs) and in any quantity, consistent with the rights of other persons having the same or similar rights, from the point of entry and following the course of the land described in the Second Schedule (hereinafter called "the easement land") together with the following additional rights incidental thereto:

2. To use any tunnel or line of pipes laid in or on the said easement land or any tunnel or pipe or pipes in replacement or in substitution for the tunnel or all or any of those pipes.

3. Where no such tunnels or line of pipes exist, to lay, place and maintain, or to have laid, placed and maintained, a tunnel or line of pipes of a sufficient internal diameter and of suitable material for the purpose under or over the surface of the easement land.

4. In order to construct or maintain the efficiency of any such tunnel or pipe line, the full free uninterrupted and unrestricted right liberty and privilege for the Council, its tenants, servants, agents and workmen, with any tools, implements, machinery, vehicles or equipment of whatsoever nature necessary for the purpose, to enter upon the land over which the easement is granted or created and to remain there for any reasonable time for the purpose of laying, inspecting, cleansing, repairing, maintaining and renewing the tunnel or pipe line or any part thereof and of opening up the soil of that land to such extent as may be necessary and reasonable in that regard, subject to the condition that as little disturbance as possible is caused to the surface of the easement land and that the surface is restored as nearly as possible to its original condition and any other damage done by reason of the aforesaid operations is repaired.

Provided that the right to enter upon the land secondly described in the Second Schedule shall be at and from each end of the easement land and not from the surrounding land owned by Roger Evans Bertram and Denise Anne Bertram.

5. Benjamin Booth Rawnsley and Dorothy Naomi Rawnsley, the registered proprietors of the land firstly described in the Second Schedule hereto and Roger Evans Bertram and Denise Evans Bertram the registered proprietors of the land secondly described in the said Second Schedule (hereinafter together with their heirs, successors and assigns called ("the Owners")) shall not at any time on or over the said easement land and without the prior written consent of the Council:

- (a) Place any buildings, erections or fences or permanent improvements of any nature;
- (b) Do permit or suffer any act whereby the rights powers licences and liberties hereby granted to the Council may be interfered with or affected; or
- (c) Do permit or suffer any act whereby the said tunnel may be interfered with or damaged;
- (d) Nothing herein contained or implied shall be deemed to compel the Council to convey water through the said pipes and mains and the Council may from time to time discontinue the conveyance of water through the same at will.

6. The Council shall indemnify the Owners against all or any future actions proceedings, demands, liabilities or costs, whatsoever arising out of or resulting from the Council's easement or works pertaining thereto for which the Council is legally liable including as the result of any earth movement or subsidence caused by the said water supply tunnel.

7. The rights and powers specified in the Seventh Schedule of the Land Transfer Act 1952, and implied in all registered easements by section 90D of the said Act shall apply in respect of the water supply easement hereby created.
