M. No. 494/91

In the High Court of New Zealand, Wellington Registry

In the matter of Malaghan Institute of Medical Research Trust—Applicant:

Notice is hereby given that on the 4th day of December 1991, the Malaghan Institute of Medical Research Trust ("the trust") had approved by the High Court at Wellington a scheme varying the disposition of its income, the powers of its trustees and the mode of administering the trust.

In particular the new scheme introduces:

1. New Objects

The limitation in present objects to assistance to the Cancer Society of New Zealand Wellington Division Incorporated or the Council of the Wellington Medical Research Foundation Incorporated is removed and broader objects substituted:

- (i) To seek to discover the nature, origins and causes of disease;
- (ii) To conduct research into disease and to assist research by providing finance, advice, facilities and other assistance and to maintain laboratories or other buildings considered desirable;
- (iii) To use knowledge gained for the improvement of prevention or treatment of disease in man and animals, to disseminate and teach that knowledge;
- (iv) To do things conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

2. New Powers of Trustees

Trustees are given expanded powers:

- (i) The powers and discretions conferred on trustees under the Trustee Act 1956;
- (ii) To raise money by all lawful means;
- (iii) To operate separate trust accounts;
- (iv) To enter into co-operation and joint venture arrangements which promote the charitable objects of the trust;
- (v) To hold shares;
- (vi) To affiliate with like organisations.

3. Reconstitution of Board of Trustees

Amongst other things, the scheme establishes a board of up to 13 members and provides for appointment and removal of trustees, election of trustees, casual vacancies, terms of office generally of 4 years, regulates meetings of the board of trustees, regulates payment of trustees' expenses.

Provision is made limiting duty of care of trustees to that of a prudent person of business, for the purposes of section 13 (c) of the Trustee Act 1956.

Trustees have specific power to negative personal liability in transacting on behalf of the trust.

The scheme allows the board to amend the trust deed by special resolution provided the charitable purposes of the trust are not affected and provides for disposal of surplus assets upon winding up.

A copy of the amended scheme approved by the High Court has been deposited in and may be inspected at the Registry of the High Court at Wellington.

Dated this 9th day of December 1991.

S. C. LE'AUPEPE, Deputy Registrar.
