Public Finance Amendment Bill (No. 3) (Hon. Maurice McTigue)

Referred to Select Committee

Finance and Expenditure

Summary of Bill Introduced

Public Finance Amendment (No. 3)

Amends the Public Finance Act 1989. The primary purpose of this bill is to give effect to the Government's response to the recommendations contained in the Report of the Finance and Expenditure Committee On the Inquiry into Reporting By The Crown And Its Sub-Entities to the House of Representatives (1. 4A).

In addition, the bill—

- (a) Does away with the obligation to have the half-yearly financial statements of the Crown audited and tabled;
- (b) Does away with the obligation of departments to prepare and table half-yearly financial statements;
- (c) Replaces the term "Crown agency" with the term "Crown-owned entity";
- (d) Effects other amendments.

The Electoral Main Rolls Closing Notice 1992

Pursuant to section 61 (2) (b) of the Electoral Act 1956, the Chief Registrar of Electors hereby gives the following notice.

Notice

1. Title and commencement—(1) This notice may be cited as the Electoral Main Rolls Closing Notice 1992.

(2) This notice shall come into force on the day after the date of its publication in the Gazette.

2. Date for closing of main rolls—The main roll for every General electoral district and for every Maori electoral district shall close on the 21st day of August 1992.

Dated at Wellington this 5th day of August 1992.

H. C. PARKER, Chief Registrar of Electors.

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the notice, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This notice closes, as at 21 August 1992, the main rolls for all electoral districts and enables the main rolls to be printed and published as at that date.

The rolls will be available to the public for checking.

The Electoral Act 1956 requires that this printing of the rolls be done at least once in each year but the rolls printed and published as at 21 August 1992, will have particular significance in relation to the indicative referendum to be held on 19 September 1992.

Section 5 (3) of the Electoral Referendum Act 1991 provides that where the date fixed for the closing of the main rolls in the year 1992 is in August of that year, it shall not be necessary for the Registrar for any electoral district to print for the district, for the purposes of the indicative referendum, a supplementary roll or a composite roll.

A Water Supply Easement in Gross Acquired in Auckland City

Pursuant to section 20 of the Public Works Act 1981, and to a delegation from the Minister of Lands, the Manager, Lands and Property, Department of Survey and Land Information, Auckland, declares that, agreements to that effect having been entered into, the water supply easement in gross describe in the First Schedule is hereby acquired over the land described in the Second Schedule and the said easement shall vest in perpetuity in The Auckland Regional Council for water supply purposes on the date of publication in the Gazette.

Schedule

North Auckland Land District

Description of Easement

1. The full, free uninterrupted, and unrestricted right, liberty, and privilege for The Auckland Regional Council (hereinafter called "the council") from time to time and at all times to take, convey and to lead water in a free and unimpeded flow (except when the flow is halted for any reasonable period necessary for essential repairs) and in any quantity, consistent with the rights of other persons having the same or similar rights, from the point of entry and following the course of the land described in the Second Schedule (hereinafter called "the easement land") together with the following additional rights incidental thereto:

2. To use any line of pipes laid in or on the easement land or any pipe or pipes in addition, in replacement or in substitution for or of those pipes.

3. Where no such line of pipes exist, to lay, place and maintain or to have laid, placed and maintained, a line of pipes of a sufficient internal diameter and of suitable material for the purpose under the surface of the easement land.

4. In order to construct or maintain the efficiency of any such pipe line, the full, free, uninterrupted and unrestricted right, liberty and privilege for the council, its servants, agents and workmen, with any tools, implements, machinery, vehicles or equipment of whatsoever nature necessary for the purpose, to enter upon the easement land and to remain there for any reasonable time for the purpose of laying, inspecting, cleansing, repairing, maintaining and renewing the pipe line or any part thereof and of opening up the soil of that land to such extent as may be necessary and reasonable in that regard, subject to the condition that as little disturbance as possible is caused to the surface of the easement land and that the surface is restored as nearly as possible to the condition in which the land was in immediately prior to any works being undertaken and any other damage done by reason of the aforesaid operations is repaired.

5. Kum Cheong Chooi, accountant, Sow Ling Chooi, share registrar, and Sow Yuen Chooi, accountant, all of Auckland, and Alexander Francis De Buisson, sales representative and Adellen Isobel De Buisson, his wife, both of Auckland, the owners for the time being of the easement land, together with their heirs, successors and assigns, shall not at any time on or over the easement land and without the prior written consent of the council:

(a) Place any buildings, building additions, erections or fences or permanent improvements of any nature excepting the improvements in situ at the 1st day of May 1992, and shown as "Flat 1" and "Flat 2" and the porch and eaves on the said Flat 1 on the plan marked "A" attached hereto; PROVIDED however that should these improvements be destroyed by whatever cause the owner shall not reinstate upon the easement area and any contingent liability owed to the owner by the council for the repair and maintenance of protective devices shall thereupon cease;

(b) Do permit or suffer any act whereby the rights, powers licences and liberties hereby granted to the council may be interfered with or affected; or

(c) Do permit or suffer any act whereby the said water supply pipes may be interfered with or damaged.

6. The council will:

(a) At all times repair and maintain such pipes, mains, associated works and protective devices as may be constructed on or laid through or under the easement land in pursuance of these presents in a good efficient state of repair for the purposes for which the same are designed and will prevent the same from becoming a nuisance; for such period as the council uses the said pipes or associated works for the conveyance of water.

(b) Cause as little damage as possible to the surface of the easement land and repair and make good all damage caused by any such works to landscaping fences and drains in, upon or around the easement land;

(c) Accept liability to the extent of the compensation provisions of the Public Works Act 1981, or the Local Government Act 1974, for loss or damage caused to the easement land or anything upon the easement land arising from the construction, maintenance or operation of the easement, only so long as the council shall continue to convey water through the easement pipe;

(d) At all times use its best endeavours to ensure access to the easement land is maintained for the owners and their invitees while the council is performing or having the work performed which is more particularly described in clause 4 herein;

(e) Ensure that any spoil from excavation or work will be removed from the land on a regular basis as the work progresses.

7. That where the terms of this easement require the consent of the council to be obtained in respect of any matter herein referred to them the council shall not unreasonably or arbitrarily withhold consent.

8. Nothing herein contained or implied shall be deemed to compel the council to convey water through the said pipes and mains and the council may from time to time discontinue the conveyance of water through the same at will.
