Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988

Final Determination: Home Brew Beer Kits from the United Kingdom

Pursuant to section 13 (1) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), I, Philip Burdon, Minister of Commerce, hereby give notice that I have made a final determination that the goods specified in the Schedule to this notice and imported or intended to be imported into New Zealand, are not goods in respect of which I may direct the imposition of an anti-dumping duty in accordance with section 14 of the Act.

The brief reasons for this determination are that the impact of the dumped imports upon the New Zealand industry does not amount to material injury or threat thereof or material retardation in terms of the Act.

Schedule

Country of Origin—United Kingdom

Description of Goods Subject to this Notice: Home brew beer kits which contain liquid hopped malt extract or a mixture of hopped malt/barley extract whether or not packed with yeast.

Dated at Wellington this 28th day of April 1993.

Final Determination: Plaster of Paris Bandages from Germany: Third Country Dumping

Pursuant to section 18 of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988 ("the Act"), I, Philip Burdon, Minister of Commerce, hereby declare that the provisions of the Act preceding section 18 shall, with all necessary modifications, apply with respect to the effect of goods described in the Schedule to this notice on Australia's domestic industry in the same manner as they apply with respect to the effect of those goods on a New Zealand industry.

Pursuant to section 13 (1) of the Act, I hereby give notice that I have made a final determination that the goods described in the Schedule to this notice, and imported or intended to be imported into New Zealand, are goods in respect of which I may direct the imposition of anti-dumping duty in accordance with section 14 of the Act, in that the goods are being dumped and by reason thereof material injury to an industry is threatened.

The question of the imposition of anti-dumping duties is a matter which must be addressed in the context of specific international obligations incumbent on New Zealand in relation to the imposition of duties in third country dumping cases.

Schedule
