Notice of Application for Approval of a Scheme Under Part III of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957

Notice is hereby given that the board of managers of The Marianne Caughey Smith-Preston Memorial Rest Homes Trust Board, being a body set up under the will of Marianne Caughey Smith-Preston, late of Auckland, married woman, deceased, and duly incorporated under the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, has filed in the office of the High Court at Auckland an application for approval of a scheme varying the terms of the trust deed under which The Marianne Caughey Smith-Preston Memorial Rest Homes Trust Board was set up.

Under the will and trust deed (as amended) The Marianne Caughey Smith-Preston Memorial Rest Homes Trust Board was set up to provide geriatric hospital care and a rest home or homes for aged, infirm or impecunious women whose financial position is for the time being less favourable than it formerly was and irrespective of religious beliefs.

Under this scheme The Marianne Caughey Smith-Preston Memorial Rest Homes Trust Board wishes (only where there is insufficient female demand for places in its geriatric hospital and/or rest home(s), to be authorised to admit male patients to its geriatric hospital and rest homes(s) on the same basis as currently exists for the admission of female patients.

The board proposes that at all times prospective female patients should have preference over prospective male patients save that once male patients were admitted to the geriatric hospital or rest home(s) they would not be removed because of a change in the number of female applications for positions.

Copies of the scheme and the report of the Attorney-General thereon may be inspected free of charge at the office of the Registrar of the High Court at Auckland or the offices of The Marianne Caughey Smith-Preston Memorial Rest Homes Trust Board, 17 Upland Road, Remuera, Auckland.

The application has been set down for hearing in the High Court at Auckland on Tuesday, the 21st day of June 1994 at 10.30 a.m.

Any person desiring to oppose the scheme is required to give written notice of his or her intention to do so to the Registrar of the High Court at Auckland and to The Marianne Caughey Smith-Preston Memorial Rest Homes Trust Board at Auckland and the Attorney-General (via the Crown Law Office, Saint Pauls Square, 45 Pipitea Street, Wellington (Attention: Miss Nerissa Barber)) not less than 7 clear days before the above-mentioned date.

A. R. GILCHRIST, Solicitor for the Applicant.

Note: Any inquiry or any notice for service on The Marianne Caughey Smith-Preston Memorial Rest Homes Trust Board may be made/left at the board's solicitors, Hesketh Henry, Level Eight, 2 Kitchener Street, Auckland 1. Notice of Decision of Disciplinary Committee

Notice is hereby given by the Disciplinary Committee of the New Zealand Society of Accountants that at a hearing held on 26 April 1994, the committee heard charges against Alan Craig Davenport-Brown of Wellington, that:

- (a) He was a bankrupt.
- (b) He had withdrawn client funds from his firm's trust account without proper authority; and
- (c) He had conducted himself in such a manner as to render the exercise of the powers of the Disciplinary Committee expedient in the interests of the public and of the society.

Alan Craig Davenport-Brown appeared before the Disciplinary Committee and pleaded guilty to the charges. The Disciplinary Committee found the charges proved, based on evidence that was heard and received at the hearing on 26 April 1994.

Pursuant to section 24 (3) (a) of the New Zealand Society of Accountants Act 1958, the Disciplinary Committee ordered that Alan Craig Davenport-Brown be removed from the Register of Members of the Society and fixed the date of 26 April 1997 after which Alan Craig Davenport-Brown may apply for re-registration under this Act.

Alan Craig Davenport-Brown was ordered to pay to the society the sum of $4,373.10 (including G.S.T.) in respect of costs and expenses of and incidental to the inquiry by the Disciplinary Committee and the investigation by the Investigation Committee.

The Disciplinary Committee ordered that its decision be published in the Accountant's Journal, the New Zealand Gazette, The Evening Post and The Dominion newspapers with mention of the member's name and locality.

The decision of the Disciplinary Committee is based on the serious view taken of the offences and the member's past record involving two previous censures.

Dated this 24th day of May 1994.

Commerce

Radiocommunications (Radio) Regulations 1993

Radiocommunications Interference Notice 1993, Amendment No. 1

Pursuant to regulation 41 of the Radiocommunications (Radio) Regulations 1993, the General Manager, Communications Division, Ministry of Commerce, acting under delegated authority from the Secretary of Commerce, hereby gives the following notice:

Notice

1. Title and commencement—(1) This notice may be cited as the Radiocommunications Interference Notice 1993, Amendment No. 1, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Radiocommunications Interference Notice 1993 (hereinafter referred to as the principal notice).

(2) This notice shall come into force on the day after its publication in the New Zealand Gazette.

2. Interpretation—Clause 2 (1) of the principal notice is hereby amended by inserting, in its appropriate alphabetical order, the following definition:

“‘RB’ means a radio apparatus standard prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce.”

3. Standards for appliances the main functions of which are performed by motors and switching or regulating devices, unless the radio-frequency energy is intentionally generated or intended for illumination—Clause 5 of the principal notice is hereby amended by inserting, after subclause (4), the following subclause:

“(4A) Notwithstanding subclause (4) of this clause, subclause (3) of this clause shall not apply to the class of interfering equipment being electric fence energisers referred to in subclause (1) of this clause for emissions at the fence load terminals.”

4. Standards for information technology equipment—Clause 8 (3) (a) of the principal notice is hereby amended by omitting the expression “1985” and substituting the expression “1993”.

5. New Clause inserted—The principal notice is hereby amended by inserting, after clause 9, the following clause:

“9A. Standard for transmitting apparatus and systems for television broadcasting services—(1) Transmitting apparatus for television broadcasting services is hereby prescribed as a class of interfering equipment.

“(2) The level of conformity applicable to the class of interfering equipment to which subclause (1) of this clause applies shall be level 0.

“(3) The standard applicable to the class of interfering equipment to which subclause (1) of this clause applies shall be specification RB 16, Issue 2, May 1994.”

6. Standard for VHF and UHF angle modulated radio apparatus for use in the land mobile service with a carrier separation of 25 kHz and a maximum deviation of +/- 5 kHz—Clause 15 (3) of the principal notice is hereby amended by omitting the words “Issue 1, December 1991” and substituting the words “Issue 2, May 1994”.

7. Standard for restricted radiation radio apparatus—Clause 19 (3) of the principal notice is hereby amended by omitting the words “Issue 5, December 1992” and substituting the words “Issue 6, February 1994”.

8. Standards for non-speech radio apparatus using angle modulated with a carrier separation of 25 kHz and a maximum deviation of +/- 5 kHz—Clause 20 (3) of the principal notice is hereby amended by omitting the words “Issue 1, December 1991” and substituting the words “Issue 2, May 1994”.

9. Standard for VHF and UHF angle modulated radio apparatus for use in the fixed service with a carrier separation of 25 kHz or 50 kHz—Clause 24 (3) of the principal notice is hereby amended by omitting the words “Issue 1, July 1992” and substituting the words “Issue 2, May 1994”.

10. New clauses inserted—The principal notice is hereby amended by inserting, after clause 25, the following clause:

“25A. Standard for radio apparatus for use in the personal radio service—(1) Personal radio apparatus for use in the personal radio service is hereby prescribed as a class of interfering equipment.

“(2) The level of conformity applicable to the class of interfering equipment to which subclause (1) of this clause applies shall be level 2.

“(3) The standard applicable to the class of interfering equipment to which subclause (1) of this clause applies—

“(a) Shall be specification RFS 25, Issue 2, May 1994 for interfering equipment used in the personal radio service as a repeater station; or

“(b) Shall be specification RFS 39, Issue 1, May 1994 for all other interfering equipment to which subclause (1) of this clause applies.”

Dated at Wellington this 30th day of May 1994.

H. M. DONALDSON, General Manager Communications, Ministry of Commerce.

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the notice, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This notice prescribes amends and inserts classes of interfering equipment (as defined by section 2 (1) of the Radiocommunications Act 1989), the level of conformity applicable to the particular classes, and the standards applicable to those classes of interfering equipment.

New Zealand Apple and Pear Marketing Board

Apple and Pear Marketing Act 1971

Guidelines for Consent to Export Apples and Pears

The exporting of apples and pears from New Zealand is controlled by the Apple and Pear Marketing Act 1971, with the exception of Asian pears. Only the New Zealand Apple and Pear Marketing Board, or its agents, and persons to whom the board has given its consent may export apples and pears. In 1993 an amendment to this Act was made which expressly requires the board, after 31 May 1994, to either grant or refuse its consent after having regard to relevant guidelines for the time being established and published by the board.

The New Zealand Apple and Pear Marketing Board has established and published these guidelines and if you would like a copy, please write to the Secretary, New Zealand Apple and Pear Marketing Board, P.O. Box 3328, Wellington.

Easements

1. The right to convey electricity by a line or lines over those parts of the first land marked "K", "L", "B", "M", "D", "N", "F", "O", "H", "I" and "J" on L.T. 23603 (the electricity easement line).

2. A right of way to pass at any time by vehicle or on foot over those parts of the first land marked "A", "B", "C", "D", "E", "F", "G", "H" and "I" on the plan annexed hereto.

Additional Rights

(a) To lay or maintain an overhead or underground line or lines as hereinafter defined along the electricity easement line.

(b) To use any existing line or lines already made or erected on the electricity easement line and any existing formed right of way.

(c) In order to construct or maintain the efficiency of the aforesaid line or lines and right of way the full, free, uninterrupted and unrestricted right for the grantee, its servants, agents, workmen and invitees with any tools, implements, machinery or equipment of whatsoever nature necessary for the purpose to enter upon and pass and repass by vehicle or on foot over the first land and to remain there for any reasonable time for the purpose of laying, inspecting, cleaning, repairing, maintaining and renewing the line or lines and right of way and of opening the soil of that land to such extent as may be necessary and reasonable in that regard subject to the condition that as little disturbance as possible is caused to the surface of the land and that the surface is restored as nearly as possible to its former condition and any other damage done by reason of the aforesaid operation is repaired.

Conditions of Easement

(a) The grantee will repair and make good all damage to fences, gates and erections upon the first land directly caused by the grantee exercising its right under the easements.

(b) The registered proprietor of the first land (the grantor) will not without written permission of the grantee:

i. Grant or permit to be grown any trees, shrubs or bushes of any description which will interfere with the rights granted herein.

ii. Erect or permit any improvements or fences on the first land which will interfere with the rights granted herein and will not at any time hereafter do, permit or suffer any act whereby the full and free use and enjoyment by the grantee of the easement rights set out herein are interfered with or affected.

(c) The grantor shall not be liable for any damage which may be caused to the line or lines by stock or which may be caused otherwise than through the wilful act or default of the grantor or the grantors servants, agents and invitees.

If the first land is transferred or subdivided the grantor will give written notice to the grantee of the name and address of the persons to become or are to become the registered proprietors of the servient land already part thereof.

(e) Neither the grantor nor the grantee shall be required to maintain the right of way but either may at their own expense maintain or improve the right of way to a standard sufficient for their own purposes.

Definitions

"Line or lines" means a wire or wires a cable or conductor of any other kind used or intended to be used for the transmission of electricity and includes any pole, tower, mast, insulated casing, transformer fixture (major or minor), tunnel or other equipment or material used or intended to be used for supporting, enclosing, surrounding or protecting any such wire, wires, conductor or cable and also includes any part of a line and includes existing lines.
