Charitable Trusts Act Notices

Advertisement of Order Approving Scheme

M. No. 34/94

In the High Court of New Zealand, Christchurch Registry

Under the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, and in the matter of a trust fund held by The University of Canterbury, for the purposes of two scholarships known as The Don McKenzie University Scholarship and the McKenzie-Villers Primary Schools' Scholarship which trust was established by the late Sir J. R. McKenzie during his lifetime:

Between—The University of Canterbury—Plaintiff:

And—Her Majesty's Attorney General for New Zealand—Defendant:

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to section 54 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, that the scheme advertised in the New Zealand Gazette on the 12th day of February 1992, has been approved in terms of the following order made in the High Court of New Zealand at Christchurch on the 19th day of September 1994.

Upon reading the statement of claim, the report of the Attorney-General, the affidavit of Noreen Therese Olivia Robb, sworn on 1 February 1994, the affidavits of Roy Allan McKenzie sworn on 11 March 1994 and 4 April 1994, the affidavit of Alexander Donald McBeath as to advertising and the statement of facts, submissions and scheme for extension of powers and alteration of mode of administration of trust and upon hearing Mr A. C. Hughes-Johnson of counsel for the plaintiff, Ms M. Soper of counsel for the defendant and Mr R. S. Challis in person this Court orders:—

1. That the amended scheme, comprising the Schedule of proposed amendments attached (Schedule A) and the following further amendments:—

- (i) the words "British parents" are deleted and the words "New Zealand citizens" substituted;
- (ii) the reference to "Christchurch West High School" is to be amended to its correct present title of "Hagley High School";
- (iii) the references to boxing and rowing area to be deleted but ski-ing, cricket and basketball are to be added;

be approved under the provisions of Part III of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 so that the scheme is now in the form of attached Schedule B.

2. That the trustee be directed to re-transfer to Sir Roy McKenzie the 5000 B shares in Rangitira Limited.

3. That the costs of and incidental to this proceeding together with disbursements, be fixed by the Registrar and be paid out of the trust fund.

Schedule A

Under the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, and in the matter of a trust fund held by The University of Canterbury, for the purposes of two scholarships known as The Don McKenzie University Scholarship and the McKenzie-Villers Primary Schools' Scholarship which trust fund was established by the late Sir J. R. McKenzie during his lifetime:

Between—The University of Canterbury—Plaintiff:

And—Her Majesty's Attorney General for New Zealand—Defendant:

Schedule of Proposed Amendments

The proposed scheme/McKenzie-Villers

It is proposed therefore that the regulations should be amended as follows (the original provisions with original paragraph numbers being stated prior to the intended amendment):—

- (1) "Open to boys attending a public, primary or intermediate school for not less than one year in the Canterbury Education District whose age does not exceed 13 years on the 1st day of December in the year of the Examination and who are born of British parents."

This provision should be amended to refer to the former Canterbury Education District. The requirement for candidates to be born of British parents should be deleted. The word "selection" should replace the words "the Examination".

- (2) "The scholarship entitles the winner to the sum of 50 pounds per annum for three years to be applied:—

- (a) for a boarding allowance and fees; and
- (b) for purchase of class books required at any registered public or private secondary boarding school in the Canterbury Education District.

Where a candidate becomes a day pupil, the amount of 10 pounds per annum only will be applied for the purchase of class books and/or to other school activities in which he may be interested and another 15 pounds towards school fees (if any) and including sports or other club fees, if any. The balance remaining will be returned to the fund.

Where a candidate enters as a boarder, the full amount of 50 pounds will be paid."

The scholarship entitles the winner to a maximum of $3,000.00 per annum for three years to be applied:—

- (a) for boarding allowance and fees and
- (b) for the purchase of class books required that any registered public or private secondary boarding school in the former Canterbury Education District.

Where a candidate becomes a day pupil an amount of up to $1,000.00 will be applied for the purchase of class books and/or other school activities to which he may be interested and another $1,000.00 towards school fees (if any) and including sports or other club fees, if any. The balance remaining will be returned to the fund.

Where a candidate enters as a boarder, an amount of up to $3,000.00 will be paid.

- (3) "The scholarship examination to be held once every year—the first to take place in November 1943 100 marks".

Applications for the scholarship are to be considered by the Board of Selection hereafter defined and the selection of candidates shall be in the absolute discretion of the Board of Selection which shall take into account the recommendations of the principal of the candidate's school and such other information as may seem appropriate.

"The scholarship is to be under the control of the Canterbury University College and the winning candidate can select any of the following schools:—

- Christchurch Boy's High School
- Christ's College
- St Andrews College

Timaru Boys' High School

Waitaki Boys' High School

Christchurch West High School

Rangiora High School

The reference to Christchurch West High School is to be deleted and replaced by Hagley High School.

“Board of selection

The Board of selection to comprise:

- (1) The Chairman of Canterbury University College
- (2) The Senior Inspector of Schools for the Canterbury Education District
- (3) The Headmaster of the Normal School

The reference to the Chairman of Canterbury University College is to be deleted and substituted by reference to the Vice Chancellor of The University of Canterbury or his nominee. Reference to the Senior Inspector of Schools to the Canterbury Education District is to be deleted and nominee of the Minister of Education for New Zealand is to be substituted. The reference to the Headmaster of the Normal School is to be deleted and Principal of the Elmwood Normal School is to be substituted.

“The Council of University College shall from time to time, with the consent of the Senior Inspector of Schools for the time being of the Canterbury Education District, have power to make, alter and amend regulations dealing with the Scholarship providing that no new regulations or any alteration or amendment to any regulation shall in any way alter or effect the main object and intention of the Founder of the Scholarship.”

The Council of the University of Canterbury shall from time to time have power to make, alter and amend regulations dealing with the Scholarship provided that no new regulations or any alteration or amendment to any regulations shall in any way alter or affect the main object or intention of the Foundation of the Scholarship.

All references to Canterbury University College are to be deleted and the University of Canterbury to be substituted.

Don McKenzie/proposed amendments

The regulations are to be amended as follows (with the existing provision; first mentioned and the suggested alterations thereafter):—

“The winner of the scholarship to receive up to 50 pounds per annum for a period of three years”.

The winner of the scholarship is to receive an award of not more than $3,000.00 in any one year and the number of awards is to be two or more at the absolute discretion of the trustee.

“Examination:—

The University Entrance Examination (Scholarship or Matriculation) shall be taken for the Scholarship.”

The University Entrance, Bursaries and Scholarships qualification shall be taken for this Scholarship.

“(b) he has gained a first or second place in any of the following school championship finals—

- (a) swimming

(b) boxing

(c) rowing

(d) athletics

(e) tennis

and that he has taken an active part in leadership in school activities.”

The references to boxing and rowing are to be deleted. Skiing is to be added. The qualification is to be amended by adding after the word “final” the words “or if there is no championship final then has achieved a prominent place in—”

“The Council of Canterbury University College shall from time to time, with the consent of the Rector for the time being of The Timaru Boys' High School, have power to make, alter and amend regulations dealing with the Scholarship provided that no new regulations or any alteration or amendment to any regulation shall in any way alter or affect the main object and intention of the Founder of the Scholarship.

The Council of the University of Canterbury shall, with the consent of the Rector for the time being of the Timaru Boys' High School, from time to time, have power to make, alter and amend regulations dealing with the Scholarship provided that no new regulations or any alteration or amendment to any regulations shall in any way alter or effect the main object or intention of the Founder of the Scholarship.

All references to the Canterbury University College are to be deleted and reference's to The University of Canterbury to be substituted.

Increase in awards to preserve their value/number of awards/both scholarships

There is to be added to both regulations the following regulation:—

“The sums specified as maximum sums to be paid in respect of each scholarship may be increased each year so as to ensure that the real value of the awards is maintained”.

The existing provision

“All surplus income from the fund of ten thousand pounds shall be accumulated and shall be applied at the discretion of the Council of the Canterbury University College in extending any existing scholarship for a fourth year or in granting another scholarship for a three year period, or to benefit either scholarship in whatever manner the Council may think fit.”

is to be altered to read:—

“All surplus income from the fund shall be accumulated and shall be applied at the discretion of the Council of the University of Canterbury in extending any existing scholarship for a fourth year or in granting other scholarships for a three year period, or to benefit either scholarship in whatever manner the Council may think fit.”

Nursing Council of New Zealand

Nurses Act 1977

Order of the Council in Disciplinary Session

The following order has been subject to appeal in the High Court and may now be published:

Order in Respect of Registered General Nurse—Stephen John Bernard Riddiford

In exercise of its powers under sections 42 (1) (b), 42 (2) (a), 42 (9), 42 (3), 23 (2) and 48A of the Nurses Act 1977, the Nursing Council of New Zealand after due inquiry on 4 December 1991, ordered that the name of Stephen John Bernard Riddiford be removed from the Register of General Nurses. The council declined to fix a time after which he may apply to have his name restored to the Register. The council also ordered that he return all certificates and badges issued to him by the Nursing Council, that he pay $6,000.00 or actual costs and expenses (whichever is the lesser) toward the costs and expenses of and incidental to the inquiry by the council and investigation made by the Preliminary Proceedings Committee, and that a notice stating the effect of these orders be published in the New Zealand Gazette and Kai Tiaki: Nursing New Zealand (formerly The New Zealand Nursing Journal).
