Labour

Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992

Notice of Intention to Apply for Ministerial Approval of a Code of Practice Under the Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992—Visual Display Units

Pursuant to section 20 of the Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992, I, Robert J. Hill, General Manager, Occupational Safety and Health Service of the Department of Labour, in exercise of those powers delegated to me by the Secretary of Labour, pursuant to section 41 of the State Sector Act 1988, hereby give notice of my intention to apply to the Minister of Labour for his approval of a statement of preferred work practices and arrangements for health and safety in the use of visual display units, as an "Approved Code of Practice", under the Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992.

These preferred work practices and arrangements describe health and safety measures that should be taken to ensure the health and safety of people using visual display units in the place of work, including:

- (i) The organisation of work with visual display units.
- (ii) The design of computer equipment, office furniture and the office environment.
- (iii) Education and training for people who use visual display units.
- (iv) Monitoring the exposure to hazards of visual display unit work and the health of people who work with visual display units.
