Advertising Rates

The following rates for the insertion of materials in the New Zealand Gazette apply as from 1 July 1991:

Category 1

Single column notices, e.g.: Notices under the Companies Act, Insolvency Act, and Public Works Act—55c per word (no matter how big or small)*.

Category 2

Notices in table form or taking up two columns across the page, e.g.: Change of Company Name notices, Regulation Summaries—60c per word (no matter how big or small)*.

*Any word or group of alphas or numerals with a comma or full-point imbedded in it will count as two words.

*Any word or letter ending with a full-point, comma, shilling stroke (whether followed by a word space or no word space will count as one word, e.g., D.X. = 2 words, the end. = 2 words. The full point, comma, shilling stroke ends the word, and what follows starts another word.)

The appropriate rate to be applied to an advertisement will be determined at the time of setting up the notice for publication. Customers will be invoiced in accordance with standard commercial practices. Advertising rates are not negotiable.

All rates shown are inclusive of G.S.T.

Notice of Intention to Remove Companies From the Register

I intend to remove the companies named in this notice from the Register under either section 293 of the Companies Act 1955 or section 318 of the Companies Act 1993, as applicable.

The grounds on which I propose to take this action are that I am satisfied that the named companies have ceased to carry on business and that there is no other reason for these companies to continue in existence.

Objections to the removal of the named companies can be made under either section 296 of the Companies Act 1955 or section 321 of the Companies Act 1993, as applicable. An objection must be in writing and specify the ground relied on. Any such objections must be delivered to the District Registrar of Companies at Auckland within 20 working days of the date of this notice.

South Auckland Land District

Description of Right to Convey Water Easement

(1) Except as varied herein the rights and powers implied in and attaching to the right to convey water as set out in the Seventh Schedule of the Land Transfer Act 1952, as if the same were fully set out herein.

(2) The grantee during the continuation of these rights will keep the pipeline in proper order and condition.

(3) The pipeline is buried to a minimum depth of 600 mm below the surface of the land and the grantee shall ensure that any replacement pipeline is buried to a similar depth.

(4) The grantor shall not prevent or interfere with the free passage of water through the pipeline. Accordingly the grantor will not erect or permit to be erected any buildings or structure or plant or permit the planting of shrubs or the erection of fences within the easement area.

(5) If the grantee no longer requires the pipeline then it shall at its expense surrender these rights. In that event it may at its option remove the pipeline or any part and make good any damage resulting from such removal but should the grantee not remove the pipeline within a reasonable time then it shall become the property of the grantor.

(6) The grantee shall indemnify the grantor against any claim made against the grantor in respect of any damage resulting from the grant or exercise of the within rights except where such damage results from a negligent or wilful act or omission of the grantor.

(7) In case of any difference or dispute as to any clause matter or thing herein contained or implied or as to the construction thereof or in respect of the rights or liabilities of the parties hereunder the same shall be decided by a single arbitrator should the parties agree upon one otherwise by the arbitration of two disinterested persons one to be appointed by each party or by their umpire chosen by the arbitrators before reference to them of the difference or dispute and if either party shall neglect to appoint an arbitrator or shall appoint an arbitrator who shall refuse to act then the arbitrator appointed by the other party shall proceed to final decision alone under the Arbitration Act 1908 and any then subsisting amendment thereto or re-enactment thereof.
