REMOVAL OF DUTY ON WHISKIES

You will have noticed in the First Schedule of this Gazette that two Administrative concessions have been created relating to the removal of duty payable on whisky from 1 August 1996, pending formal amendment of Part I of the Tariff.

The decision to remove the duty, was made by the Minister of Commerce following a review undertaken by the Ministry of Commerce of whisky manufacture in New Zealand.

Use of the Part II concession policy has the advantage of removing duties more quickly by avoiding the administrative delay associated with the formal Part I amendment process.

Please note however, that the removal of the tariff from whiskies of tariff sub-heading 2208.30, does not remove the liability to pay the specific tariff component equivalent to the amount of excise duty levied on spirits of domestic origin.

Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988

Anti-Dumping Duties: Notice That Anti-Dumping Duties on Hog Bristle Paint Brushes From China are to Cease to Apply

Subject to section 14(9) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988 (the Act), anti-dumping duties imposed on hog bristle paint brushes from China* will cease to apply to those goods on 2 April 1997 unless, at that date, the goods are subject to review under section 14(8) of the Act.

Any interested party that might request the Secretary of Commerce to initiate a review before the termination date referred to above, should be aware that positive evidence justifying the need for a review must be provided to the Secretary.

If an application is received which provides positive evidence justifying the need for a review, the Secretary must undertake a review investigation and report to the Minister of Commerce within 180 days on whether the anti-dumping duties should continue to be applied. Positive evidence justifying the need for a review would need to provide reasons for believing that the expiration of anti-dumping duties would see the recurrence of dumping of hog bristle paint brushes from China and for believing that such dumping would cause material injury to the New Zealand industry producing hog bristle paint brushes. The reasons should be supported by evidence and not based on mere allegations or assertions.

Further information is available from the Manager, Trade Remedies Group, Ministry of Commerce, P.O. Box 1473, Wellington, or on facsimile number (04) 499 8508.

* refer to "Notice of Reassessment of Anti-Dumping Duty: Hog Bristle Paint Brushes From China" published in the New Zealand Gazette of 9 April 1992, at page 1055.

Signed at Wellington this 2nd day of August 1996.

A. H. MCPHAIL, Manager Trade Remedies Group.
