USING THE GAZETTE

The New Zealand Gazette, the official newspaper of the Government of New Zealand, is published weekly on Thursday. Publishing time is 4 p.m.

Closing time for lodgment of notices under the Companies, Partnership, Insolvency and Land Transfer Acts is 12 noon on Monday (except where that day is a public holiday, in which case the deadline will be noon on the last working day of the preceding week). All other notices must be lodged at the Gazette Office by 12 noon, Tuesday in the week of publication.

Notices are accepted for publication in the next available issue, unless otherwise specified.

Notices being submitted for publication must be reproduced copies of the originals. Dates, proper names and signatures are to be shown clearly. A covering instruction setting out requirements must accompany all notices.

Copy will be returned unpublished if not submitted in accordance with these requirements.

Notices for publication and related correspondence should be addressed to:

Gazette Office,
Department of Internal Affairs,
P.O. Box 805,
Wellington.
Telephone (04) 495 7200.
Facsimile (04) 495 7289.

Cancelled Notices

Notices cancelled after being accepted for publication will be subject to a charge of $55 to cover setting up and deleting costs. The deadline for cancelling notices is 3 p.m. on Wednesdays.

Advertising Rates

The following rates for the insertion of materials in the New Zealand Gazette apply as from 1 July 1996:

Category 1

Single column notices, e.g.: Notices under the Companies Act, Insolvency Act, and Public Works Act—48c per word (no matter how big or small)*.

Category 2

Notices in table form or taking up two columns across the page, e.g.: Change of Company Name notices, Regulation Summaries—54c per word (no matter how big or small)*.

*Any word or group of alphas or numerals with a comma or full-point imbedded in it will count as two words.

*Any word or letter ending with a full-point, comma, shilling stroke (whether followed by a word space or no word space will count as one word, e.g., D.X. = 2 words, the end. = 2 words. The full point, comma, shilling stroke ends the word, and what follows starts another word.)

The appropriate rate to be applied to an advertisement will be determined at the time of setting up the notice for publication. Customers will be invoiced in accordance with standard commercial practices. Advertising rates are not negotiable.

All rates shown are inclusive of G.S.T.

Agricultural and Pastoral Societies Act 1908

Whangarei Agricultural and Pastoral Society: Amendment of Bylaws Notice No. 1026

Being satisfied that it has been duly made by the Whangarei Agricultural and Pastoral Society and approved by the Governor-General, pursuant to section 11 (3) of the Agricultural and Pastoral Societies Act 1908, I hereby publish the following amendment of the bylaws of the society:

The revocation of the previous bylaws of the Whangarei Agricultural and Pastoral Society and their replacement by the following bylaws:

Whangarei Agricultural and Pastoral Society (Incorporated)

Rules

1. Names and Objects

The society shall be called the Whangarei Agricultural and Pastoral Society (Incorporated) and shall be for the promotion of agricultural and pastoral interests, and of industries connected with agriculture generally. It shall hereinafter be referred to as "the society".

2. Constitution

The society shall consist of all persons who have been duly elected members, and who have not subsequently ceased to be members.

3. Election of Members

Persons wishing to become members of the society, may be proposed and seconded by members of the society on the appropriate members application form and the proposed member will be elected or rejected by a vote of the majority of members present at any general or executive committee meeting. Every member duly elected shall continue as a member and shall pay or be liable to pay an annual subscription set by any general meeting until notice in writing of intention to resign from membership has been given. Membership will cease if the membership subscription remains unpaid for 6 months from the commencement of the new financial year.

Life members shall be elected in the same manner as members.

Honorary life membership shall be awarded at the discretion of the executive committee.

Annual subscriptions and life membership subscriptions will be set from time to time by the membership at a general meeting.

4. Financial Year

The financial year shall close on the last day of March in each year, and annual subscriptions shall become due on the 1st day of April in each year.

5. Voters must be Qualified

Any member whose annual subscription is unpaid for more than 6 months shall not be allowed to vote at any meeting of the society. New members must have paid their first subscription before they are entitled to vote.

6. Decision by Vote

All questions not carried unanimously shall be decided by a majority of votes, and the mode of voting may be by show of hands or otherwise.

7. Election of Officers

The officers of the society shall consist of: 1 patron, 1 president, 1 vice-president, the immediate past-president, 1 treasurer and 4 executive committee members; all of whom shall be elected at the annual general meeting of the society by ballot if necessary and shall hold office for a 2-year period or until the election of their successor.

In the event of a vacancy occurring in the above offices by resignation, death or otherwise, such vacancy may be filled by the executive committee. Any person so elected shall only retain office so long as the retiring member would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred.

Two executive committee members shall retire annually by rotation.

Any member must have served as an executive committee member for at least 3 years before being eligible for nomination as president.

The patron shall have full voting rights.

A summer show committee will also be elected at the annual general meeting which shall consist of representatives as follows: 3 dairy breed, 1 beef, 1 sheep, 2 horse and up to 2 others. The chairperson to be elected by the committee at its first meeting following the annual general meeting.

All the society's executive committee members will be ex officio to the summer show committee.

8. Election of Auditor

A public accountant shall be appointed at the annual general meeting of the society as the society's auditor. Should the meeting fail to appoint an auditor the executive committee shall appoint one.

9. Annual Report and Balance Sheet

The executive director and treasurer shall make out a detailed account of the income and expenditure of the society, and of the state of the funds of the society as at the 31st day of March in each year, and the executive committee shall, at a meeting prior to the annual general meeting, have laid before it the treasurer's accounts, as audited, and the president shall prepare a report of the proceedings of the society during the past year, which shall be submitted to the annual general meeting of members, and the treasurer shall produce the said accounts at the annual general meeting for the consideration of members. A printed copy of the treasurer's accounts, together with the president's report of the proceedings, shall be forwarded to each member, 14 clear days before the annual general meeting.

10. Annual General Meeting

There shall be an annual general meeting of the members of the society held on any suitable day prior to 30 September in each year or at such later date as the executive committee may determine in each year, and the date of such meeting shall be notified in writing to members at least 14 days prior to the date of the meeting.

11. Special General Meetings

The executive committee may at any time call a special general meeting on giving fourteen (14) days prior notice in writing to every member and therein stating the object or objects of the meeting, and shall do so on the written requisition of 10 members, specifying the object or objects of such meeting, not earlier than 7 days or later than 14 days after the receipt of such requisition. At all special general meetings the discussion shall be confined to the object or objects specified in the notice thereof.

12. Quorum at General Meetings

At all annual and special general meetings of the society, 20 members shall form a quorum.

13. Application of Funds

Subject to the provisions of the Agricultural and Pastoral Societies Act 1908 and to the Agricultural and Pastoral Societies Amendment Act 1912 the society at its annual and special general meetings shall have power to apply the revenue of the society in such manner as may appear to be most conducive to its interests.

14. Notice of Meeting

Notice of motion of all important business shall be made in writing and delivered to the executive committee 14 days before the meeting at which it is intended to be proposed, and such notice shall be circulated by public advertisement or otherwise to the members of the society and the executive committee, as the occasion may require. If such notice is given at a later date, or at a meeting, the subject matter in the notice shall not be discussed without the consent of the majority of members present.

15. Alteration of Rules

All proposed new rules and amendments to existing rules shall be submitted to a general meeting of the society, which shall have full power to revoke or amend existing rules, and to make such new rules as the majority of those present at such meeting shall deem necessary provided that such new rules and amendments are not contrary to "The Agricultural and Pastoral Societies Act 1908", and its amendments. All such new rules and amendments shall be passed and confirmed respectively at 2 meetings of the executive committee held prior to the general meeting of the society at which they are proposed to be made, and shall be confirmed at the next general meeting of the society.

16. Persons Ceasing to be Members

The society may remove from its list of members the name of any member who in the opinion of the majority of members present at a general meeting of the society has acted contrary to the interests of the society. If the name of any member is removed from the list of members of the society in accordance with this rule such person shall thereupon immediately cease to be a member of the society and shall together with that person's successors and administrators forfeit all or any rights to or interest in the property of the society and shall have no claim thereto.

17. Executive Committee

The executive committee and office-bearers shall meet on such days as may be determined necessary to carry out the business of the society. All of such meetings shall be presided over by the president, or in his absence, by the vice-president, or, in the absence of both, the meeting shall elect a chairman from members of the executive committee present. At every meeting of the executive committee 5 members shall form a quorum, and all questions shall be decided by a majority of votes. The chairman shall have a deliberative vote, and in case of equality, also a casting vote. Meetings of the executive committee shall be called by authority of the president, or in his absence, by the vice-president or by request of 5 members of the executive committee. The management and control of the ordinary business of the society shall be vested in and exercised by the executive committee. The executive committee may do all such things as may be considered necessary or proper to promote the objects of the society, as defined in "The Agricultural and Pastoral Societies Act 1908" and amendments thereto, and, subject to the provisions of the Agricultural and Pastoral Societies Act 1908 and to the Agricultural and Pastoral Societies Amendment Act 1912, may utilise the funds of the society in promoting such objects in such manner as it may consider expedient. Any member of the executive committee who is absent from 3 consecutive meetings of the executive committee shall be deemed to no longer be a member of the executive committee, but may be re-elected at the discretion of the executive committee.

18. Appointment of Executive Director

The executive committee shall have the power to appoint an executive director on such terms and conditions as the executive committee may think fit to assist in all matters connected with the affairs of the society.

19. Payments

All accounts for payment must be approved by the executive committee and all payments shall be made by cheque or bank transfer. Such cheques shall be signed by the executive director and countersigned by the president or vice-president.

20. Minutes

Minutes of all meetings in connection with the society shall be kept, and confirmed at the following meeting, and signed by the president.

21. Common Seal

The control and use of the common seal of the society is vested in the president, vice-president and executive director. The common seal shall be affixed in the presence of all 3 of such persons.

22. Order of Business

At all meetings of the society the following shall be the order of business:

- 1st Reading and confirming of previous minutes.
- 2nd Election of new members.
- 3rd Reading correspondence, inward and outward.
- 4th Reports of committees.
- 5th Business of which notice of motion has been given.
- 6th Ordinary business.
- 7th Passing of accounts.

In all cases not herein provided for, resort shall be had to the ordinary rules of debate, and followed as nearly as the same are applicable to the proceedings of the society.

23. Alterations of Regulations

All proposed new regulations or amendments to existing regulations shall be made by the executive committee, which shall have full power to alter, amend or make such other regulations, as the majority of those present shall deem necessary, provided such regulations are not inconsistent with the rules.

24. Liquidation

Upon a liquidation of the society in accordance with the Agricultural and Pastoral Societies Act 1908 (and its amendments) all surplus assets of the society after the payment of all costs debts and liabilities shall be disposed of in the following manner:

- (a) the surplus assets shall be transferred to a trust to be called "The Whangarei Agricultural and Pastoral Society Trust".
- (b) the trustees of such trust shall be appointed at the last meeting of the executive committee of the society prior to its liquidation.

(c) subsequent trustees shall be persons from the agricultural sector.

(d) all or part of the annual interest which accrues on such surplus assets shall provide a scholarship or scholarships for a suitable person or persons aspiring for the education and the betterment of agricultural and pastoral interests.

(e) should however an organisation with similar objectives to the society before its liquidation subsequently come into existence the capital sum comprising the trust fund may be made available to that organisation in whole or in part at the discretion of the current trustees.

Second Schedule

Description of Rights of Way Easements

1. The grantee shall not be required or empowered to fence the boundaries of the rights of way.
2. The grantors may fence across the rights of way but in so doing shall erect within such fence a farm gate which will permit the passage of vehicles along the said rights of way.
3. The use of the rights of way by the grantee shall be restricted to vehicles and personnel under the control and direction of the grantee.
4. The grantee shall ensure that all farm gates that have been erected to permit passage along the said rights of way are closed and latched after each passage of a vehicle belonging to the grantee or under the direction and control of the grantee.
5. Maintenance of the rights of way including any gates supplied by the grantors to a standard sufficient for the purposes of the grantee will be the sole responsibility of the grantee.
6. Should the rights of way interfere with any change of farming practice introduced by the grantors the grantee will co-operate in all reasonable ways with the grantors to alleviate the effects of the interference.
7. Except as varied herein the rights and powers contained in the Seventh Schedule of the Land Transfer Act 1952, shall apply.

Third ScheduleSouth Auckland Land DistrictLand Over Which Rights of Way Easements are Acquired*

All those pieces of land, being parts of Sections 2 and 3, Block VI, Maketu Survey District; as shown marked "D", "F", "H", "G", "C", "E", "I" and "J" on S.O. Plan 60159, lodged in the office of the Chief Surveyor at Hamilton.

Fourth Schedule*Description of Rights to Convey Water Easements*

1. Except as varied herein the rights and powers implied in and attaching to the right to convey water as set out in the Seventh Schedule of the Land Transfer Act 1952, shall apply as if the same were fully set out herein.
2. The grantee during the continuation of these rights will keep the pipelines in proper order and condition.
3. The grantors shall not prevent or interfere with the free passage of water through the pipelines. Accordingly the grantors will not erect or permit to be erected any buildings or structure or plant or permit the planting of shrubs or the erection of fences within the easement areas without firstly obtaining the written consent of the grantee.
4. If the grantee no longer requires the pipelines then it shall as its expense surrender these rights. In that event it may at its option remove the pipelines or any part and make good any damage resulting from such removal but should the grantee not remove the pipelines within a reasonable time then it shall become the property of the grantors.
5. The grantee shall indemnify the grantors against any claim made against the grantor in respect of any damage resulting from the grant or exercise of the within rights except where such damage results from a negligent or wilful act or omission of the grantors.
6. The grantee shall consult with the grantors concerning any major works required to be carried out along the easement areas and will, where possible, carry out such work at a time and in a manner so as to cause as little disruption as possible to the grantors' farming operations.

Fifth ScheduleSouth Auckland Land DistrictLand Over Which Rights to Convey Water Easements are Acquired*

Pursuant to sections 20 (1) and 28 of the Public Works Act 1981, and to a delegation from the Minister of Lands, the Regional Manager, Crown Property Services, Land Information New Zealand, Christchurch, declares that, agreements having been entered into, that the easements in gross described in the First Schedule, shall vest in the Crown in perpetuity on that date of publication of this declaration in the New Zealand Gazette, subject to the terms and conditions set out in the Second Schedule.

First Schedule

Canterbury Land District—Selwyn District

Nature	Being	Marked
Telecommunication purposes	Part R.S. 9178, part C.T. 12B/386	"G"
Right of way	Part R.S. 9178 and part R.S. 20918, part C.T. 12B/386	"B"

Nature	Being	Marked
Right of way	Part R.S. 9075, part C.T. 12K/1001	"A"
Right to convey electric power centreline	Part R.S. 9178, part C.T. 12B/386	"C-D"

As shown marked as above mentioned on S.O. Plan 19633, lodged in the office of the Chief Surveyor at Christchurch.

Second Schedule

(1) (a) The full right to the Crown to acquire right of way easements conferring the rights contained in the Seventh Schedule of the Land Transfer Act 1952, and including the full, free, uninterrupted and restricted, right, liberty and privilege for the Crown and its invitees, agents and servants to enter on or over those parts of the land in the First Schedule marked "A" and "B" on S.O. Plan 19633 together with or without vehicles by day or by night for the purpose of obtaining access to that part of the land marked "G" on S.O. 19633 provided that:

(b) The Crown will maintain the rights of way to a standard suitable for 4-wheel drive vehicles only.

(c) The Crown shall close after use any gates located on the rights of way.

(2) The full, free, uninterrupted, right of the Crown to convey electricity over those parts of the land described in the First Schedule the centreline of which is marked on S.O. Plan 19633 as "C-D" and conferring the rights contained in the Seventh Schedule of the Land Transfer Act 1952, provided that the rights and powers attaching to the right to convey electricity shall be the same as applied to the right to convey water save that "cables" shall be substituted for "pipes" and "electricity" for "water" wherever the words appear in the Seventh Schedule of the Land Transfer Act 1952.

(3) The full, free, right of the Crown to erect, operate, occupy and maintain for the exclusive use of the Crown for the purposes of establishing on that part of the land marked "G" on S.O. Plan 19633 a radio station, including buildings to accommodate and shelter, telecommunications, transmitters, mast and antenna and associated equipment for the Crown and its invitees and servants to enter on or over the said land marked "G" for the purpose of operating, servicing, maintaining and repairing any equipment thereon.

(4) The Crown shall make good or pay adequate compensation for any damage caused by its agents or servants to fences or other improvements or to livestock arising out of the exercise of the rights hereby granted.

(5) IF at any time any questions, disputes or difference whatsoever shall arise between the Crown and the registered proprietors of the land described in the First Schedule whether as to the construction of these presents or the rights, duties or obligations of either party hereunder or any matter arising out of concerning the same either party may forthwith give to the other notice in writing of the existence of such questions, dispute or difference and the same shall be referred to arbitration of a person to be mutually agreed upon or failing agreement within 1 month of such notice to 2 arbitrators and their umpire. One of the arbitrators to be appointed by each party and in either case in accordance in all respects with the provisions in that behalf contained in the arbitration Act 1908, or any statutory modification or re-enactment for the time being in force. No reference to arbitration shall be deemed to suspend rental or other payments due under these presents and all other payments otherwise due shall be made pending the result of such arbitration.

Dated at Christchurch this 22nd day of November 1996.

R. G. C. WRATT, Regional Manager, Crown Property Services.

Phillips Fox, SolicitorsPublic Works Act 1981*Land at Regent Street, Petone*Notice of Intention to Take Land for Road

To: Richard Keene of Wellington, builder ("the owner").

And to: Any other person wishing to object to the proposal below

And to: The registered encumbrancer of the above property namely William Henry Cook (by right of way under transfer number 29721).

1. Please note The Hutt City Council ("the council") proposes to take under section 23 of the Public Works Act 1981, the interest of the owner as registered proprietor of the land described in the Schedule to this notice ("the land").

2. The land is required for road.

Reasons for Taking Land

3. The council considers it essential to take the owner's interest in the land because it has been used by the public as road for many years. The council has maintained the land as public road in the past. It is in the public interest for the land to be acquired for road to ensure continued public access to the land.

Right to Object

4. The owner's interest in the land has not yet been taken.

5. The owner and any other person have a right to object to the taking of the owner's interest in the land.

6. Any owner or other person wishing to object must send a written objection to the Registrar, Environment Court, Department for Courts, P.O. Box 5027, Wellington, on or before 24 January 1997.

7. If an objection is made, a public hearing of the objection will be held unless the objector gives written notice to the Court that the objector requires the hearing to be held in private.

8. If an objection is made:

(a) The objector will be advised of the time and place of the hearing; and

(b) The objector will have the right to appear and be heard personally or to be represented by a barrister and solicitor or any other person you authorise.

Right to Compensation

9. This notice, and the right to object described above, relate to the taking of the owner's interest in the land and not to his right to compensation. Under the Public Works Act 1981, the owner is entitled to full compensation, if his interest in the land is taken. If this compensation cannot be agreed between the council and the owner, it can be determined in separate proceedings before the Land Valuation Tribunal.

Warning

THIS NOTICE CONCERNS YOUR RIGHTS OVER THE LAND REFERRED TO. IF YOU ARE IN ANY DOUBT

ABOUT ITS EFFECT YOU SHOULD OBTAIN LEGAL ADVICE IMMEDIATELY.

Do not delay.
