Advertising Rates

The following rates for the insertion of materials in the New Zealand Gazette apply as from 1 July 1996:

Category 1

Single column notices, e.g.: Notices under the Companies Act, Insolvency Act, and Public Works Act—48c per word (no matter how big or small)*.

Category 2

Notices in table form or taking up two columns across the page, e.g.: Change of Company Name notices, Regulation Summaries—54c per word (no matter how big or small)*.

*Any word or group of alphas or numerals with a comma or full-point imbedded in it will count as two words.

*Any word or letter ending with a full-point, comma, shilling stroke (whether followed by a word space or no word space will count as one word, e.g., D.X. = 2 words, the end. = 2 words. The full point, comma, shilling stroke ends the word, and what follows starts another word.)

The appropriate rate to be applied to an advertisement will be determined at the time of setting up the notice for publication. Customers will be invoiced in accordance with standard commercial practices. Advertising rates are not negotiable.

All rates shown are inclusive of G.S.T.

Ratings and Inspections Notice

On 29 May 1997, credit rating agency Standard & Poor's lowered the claims-paying ability rating on National Mutual Life and its subsidiary Swann Life to "AA-" from "AA".

This followed the lowering by Standard & Poor's of the claims-paying ability ratings on the principal AXA insurance companies to "AA-" from "AA". This rating action followed Standard & Poor's Credit Watch action of 13 November 1996, when the AXA and Unions des Assurances de Paris (UAP) announced their intention to merge and National Mutual Life and Swann Life were placed on Credit Watch.

In its news release of 29 May 1997, Standard & Poor's also announced that National Mutual Life and Swann Life remain financially strong and well structured to meet local obligations, and that both companies are removed from Credit Watch.

AXA S.A. owns 51 percent of National Mutual Holdings Limited (NMH) and National Mutual Life is a wholly-owned subsidiary of NMH.

Transport

Civil Aviation Act 1990

Notice of the Variation and Renewal of International Air Service Licences

Pursuant to sections 87Q and 87P, respectively, of the Civil Aviation Act 1990, and delegations from the Secretary for Transport dated 28 August 1996, I give notice that I have varied, in the manner stated below, and have renewed, with effect from 1 June 1997, the International Air Service Licences of the following airlines:

Aerolineas Argentinas	Air Caledonie International
Air Pacific Ltd	Air Vanuatu (Operations) Ltd
American Airlines Inc	Ansett International Ltd
British Airways Plc	Canadian Airlines International Ltd
Cathay Pacific Airways Ltd	EVA Airways Corporation
Evergreen International Airlines Inc	Garuda Indonesia
Japan Airlines	Korean Air
LanChile	Lufthansa German Airlines
Malaysia Airline System Berhad	Mandarin Airlines
Polar Air Cargo Inc	Polynesian Ltd
Qantas Airways Ltd	Royal Tongan Airlines Ltd
Singapore Airlines Ltd	Solomon Airlines Ltd
	Thai Airways International Ltd
United Airlines Inc	World Airways Inc

The terms and conditions of the International Air Service Licence of each of the airlines listed above have been varied as follows:

- the licence, termed a "Scheduled International Air Service Licence", will remain in effect indefinitely unless it is suspended or revoked (in accordance with specific provisions of the Civil Aviation Act), except in the case of a licence where a term has been specified commensurate with the conditions imposed on New Zealand airlines by the relevant authorities in the country where the licensee is based;
- the separate condition relating to aircraft type has been deleted, and aircraft type is now included, where appropriate, only in a new capacity condition (which replaces frequency);

- cargo tariff filings are no longer required unless specifically requested;
- the licence includes the statutory requirement to file such statistical and financial information as the Secretary may request;
- other minor amendments have been made to the wording of the conditions relating to nature of service filings, insurance, tariffs, inter-governmental arrangements, and operational, safety and security standards.

Signed at Wellington this 1st day of June 1997.

Notes to the Financial Statements for the Year Ended 31 March 19971. Statement of Accounting PoliciesReporting Entity

TSB Community Trust is a charitable trust formed by a trust deed dated 30 May 1988. The financial statements are a general purpose report which has been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting practice as required by clause 17 of the trust deed.

Measurement Base

The measurement base is that of historical cost. Accrual accounting is used to match expenses and revenues. Reliance is placed on the fact that the trust is a going concern.

Specific Accounting Policies

The following specific accounting policies which materially affect the measurement of financial performance and financial position have been applied.

Investments

The TSB Bank Limited shares are stated at par value when gifted:

20 000 000 fully paid shares at 50 cents $10,000,000

The net asset backing at 31 March 1997 was $2.83 per share.

Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are recorded at cost, office equipment will be depreciated on a straight-line basis over 4 years.

Income Tax

Income tax will include the current years provision and the tax effect of timing differences using the liability method. Timing differences will be accounted for applying the comprehensive basis.

Differential Reporting

The trust qualifies for differential reporting as it is not large as defined in the framework for differential reporting. The trust has taken advantage of all differential reporting exemptions except that a cash flow statement has been prepared.

Goods and Services Tax

The financial statements have been prepared on a G.S.T. inclusive basis.

Changes in Accounting Policies

There have been no changes in accounting policies. All policies have been applied on bases consistent with those used in the previous years.

2. Dividend

The dividend includes $750,000 relating to the final instalment received from the bank for the year ended 31 March 1996 and $350,000 interim dividend for the year ended 31 March 1997.

3. Commitments and Contingent Liabilities

At balance date $26,000.00 has been approved for donations in the 1997-98 financial year (1996: $106,250). In addition the trust has pledged a further $100,000 contingent upon the applicant completing certain requirements set by the trust.

4. Publishing Requirements

A comprehensive list, itemising all recipients, was published in the Taranaki Daily News on the following dates:

First round	14 September 1996
Second round	18 February 1997
Third round	8 April 1997

A copy of the list of grants is available to anyone upon request (P.O. Box 31, Oakura, Taranaki).

Auditors' Report to the Trustees of TSB Community Trust

We have audited the financial statements. The financial statements provide information about the past financial performance of the trust and its financial position as at 31 March 1997. This information is stated in accordance with the accounting policies set out.

Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of financial statements which fairly reflect the financial position of the trust as at 31 March 1997 and the results of operations and cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Auditor's Responsibilities

It is our responsibility to express an independent opinion on the financial statements presented by the trustees and report our opinion to you.

Basis of Opinion

An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes assessing:

- the significant estimates and judgments made by the trustees in the preparation of the financial statements; and
- whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the trusts circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in New Zealand. We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatements, whether caused by fraud or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Other than in our capacity as auditor we have no relationship with, or interest in, the trust.

Unqualified Opinion

We have obtained all the information and explanations we have required.

In our opinion, the financial statements present a true and fair view of the financial position of the trust as at 31 March 1997 and the results of its operations and cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Our audit was completed on 24 April 1997 and our unqualified opinion is expressed as at that date.

ERNST & YOUNG, New Plymouth.
