Advertising Rates

The following rates for the insertion of materials in the New Zealand Gazette apply as from 1 July 1996:

Category 1

Single column notices, e.g.: Notices under the Companies Act, Insolvency Act, and Public Works Act—48c per word (no matter how big or small)*.

Category 2

Notices in table form or taking up two columns across the page, e.g.: Change of Company Name notices, Regulation Summaries—54c per word (no matter how big or small)*.

*Any word or group of alphas or numerals with a comma or full-point imbedded in it will count as two words.

*Any word or letter ending with a full-point, comma, shilling stroke (whether followed by a word space or no word space will count as one word, e.g., D.X. = 2 words, the end. = 2 words. The full point, comma, shilling stroke ends the word, and what follows starts another word.)

The appropriate rate to be applied to an advertisement will be determined at the time of setting up the notice for publication. Customers will be invoiced in accordance with standard commercial practices. Advertising rates are not negotiable.

All rates shown are inclusive of G.S.T.

Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988

Notice of Initiation of Duty Reassessment for Plasterboard from Thailand

Pursuant to section 14(6) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988 ("the Act"), and under delegated authority from the Secretary of Commerce, I hereby give notice that I have initiated a reassessment of the amount of anti-dumping duty in respect of imports into New Zealand of the goods described in the Schedule.

The purpose of the reassessment is to take account of the recent significant devaluation in the Thai baht, and to give effect to an agreement between Winstone Wallboard Limited and the Minister of Commerce, the Secretary of Commerce and the Ministry of Commerce. The reassessment will reassess the rate or amount of anti-dumping duty.

The reassessment initiated on 27 January 1997 with the purpose of ensuring that any changes in the elements between the non-injurious market price and the non-injurious FOB price which may have occurred, were incorporated into the anti-dumping remedy, has been terminated.

Australia New Zealand Food Authority

Australia New Zealand Food Authority Act 1991

Australia New Zealand Food Authority—Variations to the Food Standards Code (Amendment No. 35)

1. Preamble

The variations set forth in the Schedule below are variations to the Food Standards Code (hereinafter called “the code”) which was published by the National Health and Medical Research Council in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette, No. P 27, on 27 August 1987, and which has been varied from time to time.

The Schedule contains variations adopted by the Australia New Zealand Food Standards Council in May, June and July 1997.

These variations are published, pursuant to section 32 of the Australia New Zealand Food Authority Act 1991.

2. Citation

These variations may be collectively known as Amendment No. 35 to the code.

3. Commencement

These variations commence on the date of publication of this New Zealand Gazette.

4. Correction of Typographical Error

Amendment 34 published on 15 May 1997, contained a typographical error in Item 13, relating to Standard D2. The maximum permitted level of calcium disodium EDTA should read “250 mg/kg”.

Schedule

[1.] Standard A8 is varied by—

Australia New Zealand Food Authority— Food Standards

The Australia New Zealand Food Authority advises progress on the following matters relating to the Australian Food Standards Code.

You can get further information on each of these matters in information papers which are available from:

The Information Officer
Australia New Zealand Food Authority
P.O. Box 10-559
WELLINGTON 6036
Telephone: (04) 473 9942
Facsimile: (04) 473 9855
Email: anzfa.nz@anzfa.gov.au

Matters at Full Assessment

The authority has developed the following proposal, made a preliminary assessment, and will now make full assessment of it:

Health and related claims (P153). A proposal to review clause A1 (19) of the Australian Food Standards Code which currently prohibits claims in food labels and in advertisements that a food has therapeutic or prophylactic action, use of the word "health" as part of the name of a food, advice of a medical nature, and reference to any disease or physiological condition.

Therapeutic claims on foods are also regulated in New Zealand by the Medicines Act, and the authority will consult with relevant New Zealand authorities during the assessment of this proposal.

You are invited to present written submissions to the authority on matters relevant to this proposal, including the potential regulatory impact on consumers, industry and government, by 31 October 1997. The information paper on this matter provides further information, including advice on the authority's policy regarding submissions.

Matters Before Council

The authority has completed inquiries into the variations to standards prepared at full assessment of the following applications and proposal and has made recommendations to the Australia New Zealand Food Standards Council that the variations be adopted into the Australian Food Standards Code:

Colours in fats and oils (A300). An application from Goodman Fielder Limited to permit the addition of certain natural colourings and their synthetic equivalents to fats and oils.

Partially hydrogenated cottonseed oil as a base for artificial sweeteners (A312). An application from Searle Australia, a division of Monsanto Australia Limited, for the approval of a partially hydrogenated cottonseed oil as a base in clause 3 (b) of Standard A8—Artificial Sweetening Substances.

Extend the use of erythorbic acid (A318). An application from Cultor Food Science Pty Limited to extend the use of the antioxidant erythorbic acid and its sodium salt, to minimally processed fruits and vegetables and in processed fruit and vegetable products.

Maximum permitted concentrations of cadmium (P144). A proposal to incorporate revised maximum permitted concentrations of cadmium in food. (The council has agreed to the authority's recommendation on this proposal, with amendment).

Omnibus of amendments (P151). A proposal to correct minor inconsistencies, clarify the intent of clauses and update references to certain specifications in the Australian Food Standards Code.
