Kenneth William Rudd was also ordered to pay to the institute the sum of $1,588.50 in respect of the costs and expenses relating to the inquiry by the disciplinary tribunal and of the investigation by the professional conduct committee.

The disciplinary tribunal ordered that its decision be published in the Chartered Accountants Journal of New Zealand, the New Zealand Gazette and the The New Zealand Herald newspaper with mention of the member's name and locality.

Australia New Zealand Food Authority

Australia New Zealand Food Authority Act 1991

Australia New Zealand Food Authority— Variations to the Food Standards Code (Amendment No. 40)

1. Preamble

The variations set forth in the Schedule below are variations to the Food Standards Code (hereinafter called "the code") which was published by the National Health and Medical Research Council in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette, No. P 27, on 27 August 1987, and which has been varied from time to time.

The Schedule contains variations adopted by the Australia New Zealand Food Standards Council in July 1998.

These variations are published pursuant to section 32 of the Australia New Zealand Food Authority Act 1991.

2. Citation

These variations may be collectively known as Amendment No. 40 to the code.

3. Commencement

These variations commence on the date of publication of this New Zealand Gazette with the exception of Item [4] which will commence 9 months after the date of publication of this New Zealand Gazette. Item [1.1] will commence on the date of publication of this New Zealand Gazette and cease to have effect 18 months from that date.

4. Explanatory Note

In relation to Item [1.1], the implementation of the folate/neural tube defect health claims pilot is contingent on a further recommendation to the Australia New Zealand Food Standards Council containing details of those foods and food products approved for participation in the pilot and listing in the Register. The proposed implementation date for the approved Register listings is 18 November 1998.

Schedule

[1] Standard A1 is varied by—

[1.1] inserting after subclause (19)(d)—

“(e) (i) The table to this subclause sets out permitted health claims that may be made in respect of food listed in the table which meets the qualifying and disqualifying criteria specified; and which also meets the eligibility criteria set out subclause (ii).

(ii) A food meets the eligibility criteria of this subclause if it is a primary food as defined in Standard A9, or else if it contains, in each serving as specified in the nutrition information panel, not more than—

- (A) 14 g fat;
- (B) 5 g saturated fat;
- (C) 500 mg sodium;
- (D) 10 g in total of added sugars and honey.

(iii) The label on or attached to a package of food in respect of which a health claim set out in the table has been made must include a nutrition information panel in accordance with clause (13), provided that in relation to the claim for "Folate and Neural Tube Defects" the entry in the nutrition information panel should be based on a recommended dietary intake (RDI) of 400 µg folate rather than the 200 µg specified in Standard A9.

(iv) Where the health claim appears on the label on or attached to a package of food it must be accompanied by a statement that it is important to maintain a varied diet.

(v) Where the ability of a food to meet the qualifying criteria set out in the table depends on particular storage, handling or cooking requirements, the label on or attached to a package containing the food for which a health claim is made must include a statement of those requirements.

Table to Subclause (19) (e)—Permitted Health Claims

Food	Criteria	Permitted Claim
	Amounts specified are per each serving as specified in the nutrition information panel

	Disqualifying Criteria	(b) the recommendation that women consume at least 400 µg folate per day in the month before and 3 months following conception.
	None

Editorial Note: Subclause (e) implements a pilot trial of a management system for health claims. The outcomes of the pilot will be used to assist in the evaluation of a proposal to allow wider use of health claims in food labels and advertisements. The subclause ceases to have effect 18 months from the date on which commencement of the pilot is gazetted. The register referred to in the table to subclause (19) (e) is held at and by the Australia New Zealand Food Authority.

Trustee's Report for the Year Ended 31 March 1998

On behalf of the trustees of the Community Trust of Mid and South Canterbury I am pleased to present this tenth annual report which highlights our activities for the area between the Rakaia and Waitaki Rivers.

Objectives of the Trust

These are to provide financial assistance to organisations carrying on charitable, cultural and philanthropic and recreational work which is of benefit to the community principally in the regions of Mid and South Canterbury.

Policies and Structure of the Trust

All purposes of the trusts are deemed to be charitable, to administer capital and to distribute income for charitable purposes in our area.

The community trust now comprises 10 trustees who are representatives of the Mid and South Canterbury communities. Trustees are appointed by the Minister of Finance, they reside in the area and their appointment is for a term of 4 years.

Trustees retire by rotation and during the year the terms of office expired on the 31st day of May 1997 for Ms R. A. Carruthers and Messrs A. R. McKay and C. P. Sparrow. Ms R. A. Carruthers and Mr A. R. McKay were reappointed. Mr Sparrow did not seek reappointment for health reasons and I wish to pay tribute for the outstanding service he has given over a long period of time. He was first appointed a trustee of the bank in 1970 and has been a trustee of the community trust since its inception. Mrs M. B. Ross of Ashburton has been appointed in his place.

Activities of the Trust

The past year has seen increased activity in many areas of the trust's operation.

Our investments are under prudent management and subject to constant review. Although interest rates have been varied our income at $2.3 million is close to that of the previous year. Likewise the distribution of donations was on a similar scale. Of the many projects with which we became associated it was exciting to witness the official opening of the Community Trust Sports Centre (previously known as Aorangi Stadium). This, of course, was the trust's largest grant to date.

A further venture was the leasehold acquisition of a building to be known as Community House. This, we hope, will bring together a wide cross section of voluntary organisations.

At present advice is awaited on the appointment of 2 trustees. A new trustee appointment is similarly awaited to replace myself. These terms officially expire on the 31st day of May 1998. When these appointments are notified to us by the Minister of Finance a new chairperson will be elected by the board.

During the coming year our secretary, Mr Ken Churcher, will retire on the 1st day of August 1998. He has held the position since 1991 when the then Trust Bank New Zealand Limited ruled that bank staff could not hold any official position in the community trust. Trustees hold him in regard and acknowledge his competence and dedication.

The trust is pleased that Mr Bruce Strathern, a well known businessman and entertainment personality, will assume the position of executive director.

J. E. THOMPSON, Chairperson.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements for the Year Ended 31 March 1998

1. Statement of Accounting Policies

Reporting Entity

The Community Trust of Mid and South Canterbury Inc. is a charitable trust incorporated under the Trustee Banks Restructuring Act 1988. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Financial Reporting Act 1993 and generally accepting accounting policies.

General Accounting Policies

The general accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are:

- The measurement base is that of historical cost, except for the revaluation of investments. Reliance is placed on the fact that the trust is a going concern.
- The matching of revenues earned and expenses incurred using accrual accounting.

Particular Accounting Policies

The following are the particular accounting policies which have a material effect on the measurement of results and financial position:

- (a) Dividend Income—Dividend income is included in the consolidated statement of financial performance when it is received.
- (b) Donations—Donations, special projects and community loans are accounted for on an accruals basis.
- (c) Investments—Investments held as managed funds are shown at market value. Net income including unrealised gains or losses from holding such investments are recorded in the consolidated statement of financial performance. Other investments representing assets to be held to maturity are shown at market value. Unrealised gains or losses from holding such investments are transferred directly to the revaluation reserve. Differences between sale proceeds and book value of investments are recorded in the statement of financial performance.
- (d) Fixed Assets—Fixed assets are recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation.
- (e) Basis of Consolidation—The Community Trust of Mid and South Canterbury Inc. and its subsidiary the South Canterbury Community Trust Charities Limited have been consolidated using the purchase method of consolidation.

Changes in Accounting Policies

The policy with respect to investments has changed during the year from stating unrealised gains/losses on managed fund investments to the revaluation reserve to stating these gains/losses directly to the statement of financial performance on an annual basis. The value of this change has resulted in an increased operating surplus of $222,956. The other accounting policies remain unchanged from the previous year.
