General

Australia New Zealand Food Authority

Australia New Zealand Food Authority Act 1991

Folate Health Claims

The authority has completed its assessment of foods for which approval has been sought to be included in the register of foods approved to carry a folate/neural tube defect (NTD) health claim. This matter is part of the review being undertaken by the authority of the general prohibition on health and related claims. It relates specifically to a pilot for permitted health claims which may be made concerning the relationship between adequate intakes of folate by women of child-bearing age and the reduction in the risk of NTDs in babies.

The foods have been assessed against nutritional qualifying and disqualifying criteria. These criteria have been set to permit the use of folate/NTD health claims on foods which contain at least 40 micrograms of folate per serve (as specified in the nutrition information panel). Foods which are not primary foods (as listed in Standard A9 of the Food Standards Code) must not contain in one serving more than 14 g fat; 5 g saturated fat; 500 mg sodium; or 10 g in total of added sugars or honey. The foods include a range of vegetables, breads, breakfast cereals, orange juices and legumes.

Subject to any public submissions received on the proposed list of foods, the authority will shortly make a recommendation to the Australia New Zealand Food Standards Council that the foods be listed in the register and be approved to carry a folate/NTD health claim.

You are invited to provide comments on the authority's proposed list by 28 September 1998. The list is available from the authority on Telephone: (04) 473 9942, Facsimile: (04) 473 9855, or email info@anzfa.gov.au. Given the short time for comment, the list will be mailed, faxed or emailed immediately upon request. The list is also available on the ANZFA home page www.health.gov.au/anzfa.

Further applications for foods to be included in the pilot will be considered for future inclusion on the register and applications to participate in the pilot are available from the Authority's Information Officer. Further queries on this matter should be directed to Dr Hugh Baber on Telephone: (04) 474 0632.

Public Notice

The Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975 The State-Owned Enterprises Act 1986

This notice concerns 22 Karemea Street, Murupara and Maori claims under the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975.

The land at 22 Karemea Street, Murupara, is described in legal terms as all that parcel of land containing 756 square metres, more or less, being Section 100, Block XIII, Galatea Survey District and being all the land comprised and described in certificate of title 49C/175 (South Auckland Registry).

The current owner of the land, ROLAND STEVEN MASON (also known as MEIHANA), has applied to the Waitangi Tribunal to have this notice removed. This has been done under section 8D of the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975.

Courts

Judicature Act 1908

Court of Appeal Procedures Adopted

Pursuant to sections 58C (1) and 58E (1) of the Judicature Act 1908, those Judges of the Court of Appeal holding office under section 57 (2) of the Judicature Act 1908, have adopted the following procedures.

Assignment of Judges to the Divisions of the Court of Appeal

The Judges of the Court of Appeal have adopted the following procedure for assignment of Judges to act as members of a criminal or civil division of the Court:

- The Court will prepare periodically a forward planning programme covering the anticipated sittings of the divisions.
- The President, acting President, or nominee, will determine which appeals are appropriate for hearing by a division comprising 3 members of the Court.
- Assignment to particular appeals or a particular appeal will be by the President, the acting President, or nominee, who where appropriate will consult with other members of the Court. Assignment will be with the concurrence of the Chief Justice and on a time period or case by case basis, taking into account the forward planning programme and the availability of Judges.
- The members of the Court will consult regularly to review the assignment process in the light of the ongoing workload of the divisions and the efficient dispatch of business.

Appeals of Sufficient Significance for Full Court

The Judges of the Court of Appeal have adopted the following procedure for determining whether a case is of sufficient significance to warrant the consideration of a Full Court:

- Practice notes will require parties to notify the Court at an appropriate stage of the proceeding if a Full Court is sought.
- Before final confirmation of a fixture the President or his nominee will assess the significance of the appeal taking into account:
 - (a) the importance of the issues, including any legal, social and general economic implications;
 - (b) whether it is appropriate to reconsider a previous decision of the Court;
 - (c) the desirability of resolving any conflicting decisions of the High Court;
 - (d) the request (if any) by a party for a Full Court hearing;
 - (e) any other relevant matters, including the availability of Judges.
- The appeal will be assessed as "suitable", "possibly suitable" or "unsuitable".
- Appeals assessed as "suitable" will be considered by the Full Court.
- Appeals assessed as "possibly suitable", and any other appeal to which (d) above applies will be referred to at least 2 other members, and following consultation those members will decide (by majority) whether the appeal is or is not of sufficient significance.

- Appeals assessed as “unsuitable” will not be considered by the Full Court.
- The members of the Court will consult regularly to review the criteria, their implementation, and the general effect of the allocation to the Full Court on the overall workload of the Court.

Note: The Full Court will also consider references from a division of the Court made pursuant to section 58 (6) of the Judicature Act 1908 and appeals under section 10 of the Courts Martial Appeals Act 1953.

Dated at Wellington this 1st day of August 1998.
