(2) Subject to subclause (4), the chief executive may pay a childcare subsidy for up to 30 hours per week, in respect of an eligible child whose principal caregiver is seriously disabled or ill, where a registered medical practitioner has certified as to this and to the principal caregiver’s requirement for childcare for more than 9 hours per week.

(3) Subject to subclause (4), the chief executive may pay a childcare subsidy for up to 30 hours per week in respect of an eligible child—

(a) during the time the child’s principal caregiver is engaged in an activity (including any time taken by the principal caregiver in travelling between the pre-school facility and the activity); or

(4) Except where subclause 5 (c) or subclause 6 (b) (i) applies a childcare subsidy is not payable under subclause (2) or subclause (3) where an eligible child’s other caregiver is not engaged in an activity, unless the chief executive considers that for a good reason the other caregiver is unable to care for the child.

(5) In this Part, “eligible child”, means a dependent child who is—
